Assembly Committee

Group Recommends Raise

The Assembly Ways and Means Committee gave a "do-pass" recommendation to a 10 per cent faculty pay increase at a meeting yesterday in Sacramento.

At the outset of hearings in the Capitol yesterday afternoon the committee chairman indicated that although they (the faculty and trustees) want 15.8 per cent, the state can't afford it.

Dr. Ted Balgooyen, president of the SJS chapter of the Association of State College Professors (ACSCP) said, "10 per cent is highly unrealistic."

The Ways and Means committee heard testimony from Mrs. Phoebe Conley, chairman of the Board of Trustees Committee on Faculty and Staff Affairs, and Glenn S. Dumke, chancellor of the California State Colleges.

Former ASB President Bob Pisano attended the hearing but did not speak.

Balgooyen contended, "If 10 per cent is all we're fighting about there isn't a crisis."

The Assembly committee was acting on AB 515, an Assembly bill originally designed to restore the 1.8 per cent faculty pay cut.

Assembly Committee Passes Milias Bill

On the heels of the Assembly Education Committee's 11-to-3 passage last week of the latest education legislation, the Milias Bill No. 1275, proponent Dean William G. Sweeney of the SJS Education Department reaffirmed his stand in favor of academic recognition of currently "so-called" non-academic fields.

The bill, introduced by Assemblyman George Milias of Gilroy, negates the Fisher Bill in reference to distinguishing between academic and non-academic subjects.

The bill and Sweeney both favor academic recognition of all subject areas normally taught in grades seven through 12.

"I can teach English, but I can't repair a water faucet," Dean Sweeney pointed out, referring to his degree in English.

He used the illustration to point out once more the urgent and pressing need for continuing training in vocational as well as professional fields.

"Our freshman enrollment in teacher training fell off 50 per cent last September," Dean Sweeney disclosed. "Under the Fisher Bill, California is already headed for its greatest teacher shortage in state history," he reminded.

The controversial Fisher Bill, now in effect and passed by the legislature in 1961, limits elementary teachers to majors in science, mathematics, social science, foreign languages, humanities and fine arts.

Where the Fisher Bill is especially limiting is in training qualifying individuals for advancement from teaching into administrative posts including principal, supervisor and superintendent, Sweeney said.

On the first day of hearings for the Milias Bill, May 6, Dean Sweeney and some 17 other state college representatives were on hand.

From the Assembly Education Committee, the bill will now go to the floor of the Assembly, to the Senate Education Committee, to the floor of the Senate and then to the Governor for final action.

Colleges Restless Over Foreign Policy

By CARY KOEGLE
With the approach of finals and the end of another academic year, concern and unrest over the deteriorating world situation seems to be reaching a fever pitch at Bay Area colleges and universities.

Increasing numbers of students and faculty are participating in national and local demonstrations against U.S. involvement in Viet Nam and the Dominican Republic. Over the weekend a national teach-in drew support from over 120 college and university campuses. It focused on a debate between top administration policy makers and academic critics of those policies.

BUNDY ABSENT
McGeorge Bundy, presidential assistant, was to represent the Johnson administration but was unable to attend because of a secret mission for the President. The mission turned out to be to the Dominican Republic as a Presidential fact-finder.

Yesterday, Hans Morgenthau of Chicago University, Eric Ericson of Harvard and John Horner, director of public affairs for the State Department appeared before Stanford University audiences to discuss various aspects of American foreign policy.

The biggest demonstration of the year, however, appears to be shaping up at U.C. at Berkeley campus. U.C. American Federation of Teachers, faculty and graduate student locals and the Faculty Peace Committee, U.C. Berkeley, are jointly sponsoring a 36-hour marathon rally at that campus.

MEYERSON LIFTS RULES
Acting Chancellor Martin Meyerson has reportedly lifted campus rules on political activity for two days to permit the demonstration. Several SJS political groups have endorsed the rally, according to Peer Vinther, Young Socialist Alliance member.

Speaker for the rally which could draw as many as 50,000 students include authorities on the Far East such as Felix Greene, British journalist and Bob Sheer, reporter just returned from Viet Nam.

Juan Bosch, deposed president of the Dominican Republic, has also been invited.

Dr. Clark Installs New ASB Leaders

By MIKE NEUFELD
Spartan Daily Staff Reporter

ASILOMAR (Monterey Peninsula) — The installation of John Hendricks as ASB president highlighted the fourth annual ASB Transition Retreat held here Sunday and yesterday.

Dr. Robert D. Clark, college president, installed Hendricks and other executive officers. Student Council representatives repeated their oath of office and the new leaders entered a year of work.

Attending the annual retreat were more than 65 student government leaders, faculty and administrators.

Keynote speaker of the retreat, Dr. Burton R. Brazil, political science professor, predicted a changing future for student government.

NEW ROLES

"Students are engaging in new roles in the academic community," Dr. Brazil said, "and student must also share a larger responsibility for their own conduct."

Dr. Clark spoke prior to Sunday's installation ceremonies about student government's role at SJS.

The president praised the work of Bob Pisano, former ASB president. "Bob has done a tremendous job as ASB president and also as president of CSCSPA, California State College Student President's Association."

'A LOT OF PEOPLE'

Following Dr. Clark's address Pisano told the old and new ASB leaders, "a government is not one person or a group of people but a lot of people."

Pisano called Dr. Clark "a friend of young people." The former student government president's remark on the SJS president came as Pisano told of the fine relationship and cooperation with Dr. Clark during Pisano's tenure in office.

Closing out the retreat Dr. Harold J. DeBey, professor of chemistry, made "some observations from the outside."

STUDENT LEADERS

Dr. DeBey said some student leaders were overworked and definitely more student involvement is needed.

"There is a need for continuity in student government," Dr. DeBey stated, "and the retreat is a good way to encourage continuity."

In addition to the speakers the student government leaders, old and new, held discussion groups to survey the scope of SJS student government.

J. J. Fraser, senior representative, headed the retreat committee.

Council's new members will meet for the first time on Wednesday in the College Union, 315 S. Ninth St.

VISTA Recruiters Slated for SJS Visit

A special recruitment program for VISTA (Volunteers in Service to America) begins on campus today and will continue through Friday.

An information and sign-up booth is located on Seventh Street in front of the Spartan Cafeteria. A 15-minute film, "VISTA at Work," will be shown continuously during the week in Barracks 13 beginning today from 12 to 3 p.m.

The delegation headed by Miss Nancy Sinkin, a representative from President Lyndon B. Johnson's executive office in Washington, D.C., will be at the booth.

OTHER DELEGATES

Others from the Washington office are Dr. Lou Long, VISTA director of field placement, and Edgar May, deputy director of VISTA. May is a Pulitzer prize-winning journalist known for his newspaper series on poverty. He is also the author of the book, "The Wasted Americans."

VISTA, the domestic version of the Peace Corps, is one of the major anti-poverty programs administered by the President's Office of Economic Opportunity, headquarters for the nationwide war-on-poverty projects.

VISTA, which began operations in January, provides volunteers to work with people in poverty-stricken areas throughout the United States. This year there are openings for 800 recruits to work in urban communities, 600 for rural areas, 300 for Indian reservations and 300 for migrant camps.

SUPERVISED TRAINING

Volunteers train for four to six weeks under close supervision of VISTA instructors and experienced workers. The training program places a great emphasis on "in-field" projects whereby trainees live and work in low-income communities.

After being in operation for five months, VISTA projects are already under way in Tennessee, California, Kentucky, Connecticut, Maryland, Arkansas, Nevada, Virginia and Missouri.

To be eligible for service, applicants must be residents of the U.S., 18 years or older, with no minor dependents. Married couples with no minor children may serve in VISTA together. There are no specific educational requirements or special skills necessary to begin training.

The current recruiting drive with its accelerated procedures for processing applications, will allow applicants to be notified of acceptance within 10 to 14 days.

DR. FREDERIC A. WEED

... discusses rights act

Prof Speaks On Rights Act

Dr. Frederic A. Weed, chairman of the Political Science and Public Administration Department, will speak on "The 1964 Civil Rights Act and the Constitution" tomorrow at 10:30 in Concert Hall.

Dr. Weed's talk, which is sponsored by the ASB-Academic Senate Lecture Committee, deals with the Public Accommodations Section of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and 1875.

The 1875 Act was declared unconstitutional by the U.S. Supreme Court with Associate Justice John Marshall Harlan one of the dissenting justices.

Justice Harlan's grandson, John Marshall Harlan, is presently a member of the Supreme Court and was one of the justices who upheld the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

Dr. Weed will compare the two decisions for their consistency with each other.

He will also compare the opinions of both the Harlan justices.

Jim Garadis' Entry Wins Sports Picks

Jim Garadis, a junior law enforcement major, won last week's Spartan Sports Picks by predicting nine out of ten contests correctly. He will use his prize flight to Los Angeles during summer vacation.

The five runners-up will each receive a pair of tickets to the United Artists Theater. They were juniors, Stan Francis and Mike Shimansky; seniors, Jim Williamson and Roy Gilmore, and graduate student James R. Baker.

Today's Sports Picks contest appears on page 4. It will be the final Sports Picks contest of the semester.

AWS To Install Newly Elected Officers Today

AWS (Associated Women Students) will hold a workshop for old and new executive officers and committee chairmen today at 4 p.m. in the College Union.

Officers and chairmen will discuss AWS activities and problems to aid incoming officers. Plans for the fall big-little sister party will be made and new ideas for the school calendar will also be discussed.

Installation of new officers is scheduled for the meeting, with Kathy Miller, out-going AWS president, presiding.

New officers include Linda McClure, president; Nancy Hanlon, first vice president; Julie Jones, second vice president; Pam Arlett, secretary; Barbara Saunders, treasurer; and Louise Noble and Anita Kowan, judicial board members.

Miss McClure is a junior social science major from Montebello.

Treasury Reports Vague

Money Matters Plague 'Excellence' Group

By DICK DAVIN

Money has been called the root of all evil. For Students for Excellence in Education (SEE), it has been a goal to save it for the students; get more of it for the faculty; and an eternal problem to explain what they are doing with it.

In fact, nearly all the problems this group is facing are directly connected with money, and surprisingly, not with the lack of it.

PREAMBLE

The split in the student membership of SEE between the so-called conservatives and liberals is now concerned with the phrasing of the preamble to the constitution, dealing with the purpose of the organization.

"To achieve and maintain excellence within a free system of higher education" has been the battleground of these factions. "Free" has been a point of disagreement.

"Because of the eventuality of an increasing tax burden, it may be impossible to have a "free" education," an opponent of the preamble said.

A FRONT?

A charge that SEE is a front of the American Federation of Teachers (AFT) is connected with the fact that the AFT has donated $25 to SEE, and has lent another $100. "These charges are ridiculous," Phil Whitten, president of SEE declared.

Others charge that SEE doesn't publish a list of contributors. They don't, and it is not hard to realize when their books are examined.

SEE has had two treasurers resign, at least six different people handling funds, and books that have little rhyme or reason.

A check with the Activities Office shows that there is approximately $11 less in the Student Affairs Business Office than the records of SEE show.

COLLECTING MONEY

Another area of disagreement exists between Students for Defense of Education (SDE) at San Francisco State, and SEE. Members of SEE have been charged with collecting money at a rally sponsored by SDE without the previous knowledge of SDE members.

The problem was resolved when the collected funds were split evenly between the two organizations.

The fact remains SEE has no legal right to collect funds at any other state campus. The state law clearly reads that funds may be solicited from on-campus groups only. SEE is not a recognized organization at San Francisco State College.

TROUBLES

Troubles between SEE and Armand Hernandez, who along with his wife Lynne, founded the Faith in Faculty Fund, are so riddled with agreements and broken agreements, that it is only safe to say the original $20 has been donated to the college endowment fund at Hernandez' directive.

Future problems for the organization can be dealt a stifling blow if students involved will strive for excellence in bookkeeping and fund collection.

Open Door Policy

The Academic Council of San Jose State College recently met in a special meeting to discuss and vote upon a plan that would reorganize the entire organizational structure of this college.

What went on at this meeting, for all its consequences, cannot be reported directly in the Spartan Daily. The meeting is closed to all members of the press, without exception. This holds true for all Academic Council meetings.

Guests at least have a fighting chance. After roll call, they are introduced to the assemblage. If a member objects, a vote is taken and the result determines if the guests stay.

Members of the press don't even have this chance. "I'm sorry but the Academic Council made the rules," Dr. Brett Melendy, chairman of the council laments.

Members of the council are elected, and owe their fellow faculty and administration, yes the students, community and the press too, complete and honest reports.

The Academic Council is not a secret society holding clandestine meetings, but rather a select group of San Jose State citizens.

Student journalists and professional journalists are members of this community, too. All we ask is the opportunity to report business to the rest of the community.

Arab Club Shows Film

"Sands of Sorrow" is the title of a film to be shown by the Arab-American Club today at 4:30 p.m. in cafeteria A and B.

The showing will end week-long activities commemorating the Palestine tragedy 17 years ago. Israelis and Zionists are celebrating the anniversary of the creation of Israel.

According to Arab-American Club president Mohammad Adwan, "One and a quarter million Arab refugees from Palestine still live in bare subsistence in camps not far from their homes and farms in what has come to be known as Israel."

It is the living conditions in these refugee camps which will be depicted in the movie.

U.S. Drops List
Of Subversive
Organizations

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Justice Department disclosed in testimony made public Monday that it has all but abandoned efforts to maintain an official public roster of subversive organizations in the United States.

Assistant Atty. Gen. J. W. Yeagley, head of the Justice Department's Internal Security Division, said that only 20 of the 274 groups on the so-called "attorney general's list" currently are considered active.

The official made the statement before a House appropriations subcommittee March 2 during testimony on the Justice Department's new fiscal 1966 budget. His testimony was just made public.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover made clear in separate testimony before the same subcommittee March 4 that his agency is actively pursuing its policy of infiltrating Communist front and hate groups to keep tabs on them.

Fighting Reported
Near Safety Zone
In Santo Domingo

SANTO DOMINGO (UPI) — A U.S. military spokesman reported yesterday that fighting between rival Dominican military forces was so close to the American-held international safety zone that spent bullets fell on the American Embassy grounds.

Lt. Gen. Bruce Palmer Jr., U.S. ground forces chief, said if junta troops continue their advances against rebel forces "they will run into our troops." Palmer said junta troops have advanced 10 to 12 blocks against rebel forces in the old city since fighting started Saturday.

He said if junta fire against the rebels endangering the U.S.-held zone becomes too heavy he would have no alternative but to ask them to "cease and desist" from further operations.

Palmer estimated about 800 to 1,000 Dominican troops on both sides engaged in the fighting. He said both were armed with mortars and tanks.

YR Finds Flaws
In Prof's Letter

Editor:

One sincerely hopes that Prof. Arnold E. True, a retired rear admiral, is proud of his letter to Thrust and Parry last Monday. Indeed, he must be, for it is the same letter he submitted to The Progressive magazine published in Wisconsin recently.

It seems that someone else thought very well of Prof. True's letter. According to the San Jose Mercury of the same day that Dr. True's letter appeared in the Spartan Daily) a portion of his letter was quoted by Radio Havana last Sunday night in a propaganda broadcast. "We are supporting a series of dictatorships that are unpopular with the people. The people want peace and rice, not freedom."

So, once again we see that a basic misunderstanding of the nature of communism makes it extremely difficult for one to propose a program to stop effectively the communist menace, and, in Prof. True's case, quickly seized upon by the communists for their own purposes.

'Daily' Editorial

Editor:

In your editorial of May 13, you call for professors to find a way more "professional" than demonstrating to "state their case," apparently reasoning that since doctors and lawyers—admittedly professionals—do not pickets, neither should teachers.

You obviously have missed the point of the demonstration. That doctors and lawyers do not picket is precisely the reason that teachers must; for, while doctors and lawyers are paid commensurate with their abilities and training, teachers are not. Doctors and lawyers refrain from demonstrating, not because of "professional" considerations, but because they do not have to do so. Our society already affords them their due. Anyone who has ever bought the services of either will readily attest to this.

The teacher with a doctorate,

Thrust and Parry

on the other hand, after a long and arduous training period, is paid on a scale at which doctors and lawyers would laugh. While his services are just as vital and his training is commensurate with most lawyers and some doctors, his pay scale is not. This is the reason for the demonstrations. The professors merely want that which doctors and lawyers already attained—a salary in proportion to their training and ability.

Moulder Hall has been sponsoring a drive to collect cigarette packages under the assumption that the American Tobacco Company would donate a wheelchair for every 48,000 empty cigarette packages collected. Unfortunately, the campaign got underway before complete authorization could be obtained from the company.

In a letter that I received from the tobacco company yesterday, it said that it is not sponsoring any such program and that unfortunately, several rumors of this type have been started.

The men of Moulder Hall personally would like to thank all of the students who gave of themselves and their time to help us with our collection drive.

Mason Column
Assaulted Again

Editor:

On Monday, May 10, you carried an article by Al Mason in which he reported that Armand Hernandez accused SEE of having broken agreements to:

Eliminate the commitment to free higher education in its constitution.

Discuss the use of the money collected at the April 2 rally.

I would like to comment on these two charges.

As faculty adviser, I am more concerned with Mr. Hernandez' reported allegation about the rally collection. I was concerned lest the enthusiasm generated by the rally should be dissipated in petty bickering. Accordingly, with the encouragement of the college administration and student government, I submitted a proposal for settling the dispute. This involved a hearing by a committee consisting of one or two representatives of the college administration, myself as faculty adviser, SEE president and treasurer, the student government president, a member of the Academic Council and Mr. Hernandez.

I further proposed that if this committee was unable to satisfy Mr. Hernandez then, as the money was collected for the faculty, the advice of the presidents of all the faculty organizations should be solicited and accepted by all parties.

It simply is not true that SEE refused to discuss the issue. Mr. Hernandez and SEE accepted my proposal at a general meeting of SEE. Mr. Hernandez has unilaterally refused to carry out his part of the agreement, apparently on the grounds that he does not trust the SEE executive board. As this was the very problem that my suggestion was designed to settle, I can only deplore the way in which Mr. Hernandez and his friends of the right wing have allowed their legitimate differences with SEE to degenerate into destructive and irresponsible criticism.

Yours sincerely,

Last Event Decides Track Championship

Bruce Hutchinson of the GDI's came through with a clutch performance in the high jump Saturday to give the GDI's a 79-78 win over Zanj and the All-College Track Championship.

Ernie Grambrell won the event for Zanj giving his team a one-point lead over the GDI's. However, Hutchinson placed fifth, good for two points and the all-school championship.

The win by the GDI's marked the third time in four years that an independent team has won the all-college track championship. Theta Chi won the championship last year.

Phi Sigma Kappa member Al Sequeira was named the outstanding athlete of the two-day event. Sequeira won the broad-jump and the 220-yard dash. He placed second in the 100-yard dash behind S. T. Saffold.

Five records were broken in the meet. Sequeira broke the record for the broad-jump with an effort of 23-4 and broke the semi-final record for the 100 with a clocking of 9.9.

Ken Dunn of the GDI's set two new records as he threw the shot 47-6, and hurled the discus 143-3 1/2.

Bill Fisher of the GDI's turned in a 19.9 time in the 180-yard low hurdles to set a new record in the semi-finals.

Other winners were: Baseball Throw—Mike McMahon, DSP, 359-2; 880-yard run—Bill Myer, GDI, 2:07.6; One-mile Run—Jim Estes, PSK, 4:57.0; 440-yard dash—Terry O'Connor, Ind. 53.7; 70-yard High Hurdles—Bill Fisher, GDI, 9.0; High Jump—Ernie Grambrell, Zanj, 6-1; 100-yard dash—S. T. Saffold, Zanj, 10.1; 220-yard dash—Al Sequeira, PSK, 22.6; 880-yard relay—Zanj, 1:36.2.

Soccermen Vs. Alumni This Week

By ROLAND ZECHMEISTER

Coach Julie Menendez' SJS varsity soccermen will face the Spartan Alumni Thursday in the annual SJS Varsity-Alumni spring soccer contest, 8 p.m. at Spartan Stadium.

"This year's alumni team will probably be the strongest ever," Menendez commented. "This should be a tight contest."

The Alumni line-up will include three former all-Americans: Al Korbus, Efiok Akpan, and Dave Kingsley.

Also on the lineup for the Alums will be 1964 first-stringers Colin Lindores (who will place-kick for the Spartan varsity football team in the fall), Bob Salazar, and Mike Hajian.

Other bright stars who will spark the alums will include Dietmar Demeter, Joe Battaglini, and Sloboden Galeb.

Trophies Awarded; Judo, Water Polo

Several trophies were presented to members of the SJS judo team at their post-season banquet, Saturday at Smorgas International, 3830 Stevens Creek Blvd., San Jose.

Howard Fish, who defeated Lon Hoffman, Mid-Western and East Coast Collegiate Heavyweight Champion in the NCAA, and Bill Paul, 1964 U.S. Olympic team alternate, was named most outstanding SJS judoka. Most improved judoman award went to Jay Lewis. Bill Horbaly received the Best Fall of the Year Trophy, and the annual trophy for the best boy on the team went to Yuzo "Don Juan" Koga.

Outstanding water polo man of the 1965 Spring Practice Session and 1965 Spring Practice Decathlon Trophy winner is Greg Swan.

"Swan was the most consistent performer of the spring season," said coach Lee Walton.

Mike Gibeau and Joe Neff Place First and Third in Coliseum Meet

Mike Gibeau and Joe Neff, following coach Bud Winter's pace schedule to the letter, placed first and third respectively in the Coliseum Relays at Los Angeles Saturday.

Gibeau's 1:48.7 and Neff's 1:49.3 were also the first and third best times in the nation this season. Gibeau led the entire race and both runners ran stride for stride on the backstretch of the second lap.

Lester Bond (49.8) and Craig Ferguson (48-7 1/2) were second and fourth respectively against the best triple jumpers in the U.S.

Tom Smith, competing with a heavy cold, was second in the open 220. The winner, Dick Stebbins of Grambling, and Smith were both timed in 20.9 on the slow track. Smith, however, finished ahead of Edwin Roberts (21.0) of North Carolina College who was third in the Tokyo Olympics.

Wayne Hermen, who faced perhaps the best 100 and 220 fields assembled in the world this season, was fifth in both events. The 100 winner was Larry Questad. Questad pulled his muscle slightly after the race, however, and Stanford's 440 relay team was forced to scratch from the event. Norman Jackson, 23-year-old UCLA freshman who was in fourth in the 220, was second in the 100. Both Jackson and Questad were timed in 9.5. Darel Newman of Fresno State and Bernie Rivers of New Mexico, both timed in 9.6, were third and fourth respectively.

SJS was second in the 440-yard relay (40.6) and fourth in the 880-yard relay in 1:24.2.

In the 440 relay, Hermen, Murad, and Tom Gardner all ran good legs and had excellent baton exchanges. The baton pass between Gardner and Smith was poor, however, and New Mexico won by a fifth of a second. Rivers had a five yard lead over Smith, however, and Smith almost caught him at the tape.

Randy Matson won the shot put at 67-11 and the discus at 185-5 1/2. Villanova won the two mile relay in 7:19 tying the official world record, although not the pending one by Oklahoma State.

BIG DEAL

Rickey has just learned what his name looks like, and Priscilla Lutz helped him do it.

Big deal? It is for them. Like so many other major achievements in life, the big things are made up of a lot of personal little victories.

For Rickey it's another step toward overcoming the handicaps of living in poverty.

For Priscilla, another small achievement. Why is she doing it? She's a VISTA Volunteer, a member of the domestic Peace Corps.

Find out how you, too, can take part in the nation's new, important and exciting volunteer effort.
