STUDENT COUNCIL SETS DATE FOR 1947 SPARDI GRAS; VOTES AWARDS FOR FOOTBALL TEAM

The date for the 1947 Spardi Gras celebration has been set for May 23, it was announced at last night's Student Council meeting. After a conference of members of the faculty and student body concerned it was decided that classes will be dismissed at 12:30 on the day of the student carnival and that the coronation of the Spardi Gras queen take place at 1:30.

Voting an appropriation of $180.20 from student body funds the Student Council approved the awarding of gold footballs to the members of the football team, its managers and its coaches.

With the approval of the executive committee, Tau Delta Phi, college honorary fraternity, and Arnacoma, an organization composed of women veterans, will sponsor the Annual March of Dimes on the campus. The March of Dimes campaign will begin on February 17, according to Bill Wilson, Tau Delta Phi representative.

Sal Millan and Bill McFarland, student body representatives to the International Union of Students conference in Chicago, gave a formal report of the conference proceedings to the council and offered a proposal that the student body form a board or committee to participate in the regional activities of the National Student Organization which is in the process of being organized at the present time. Bill McFarland and Phil Robertson were appointed by the council to head a committee for the formation of such a board.

The only report from the Gripe Dinaer committees was given by Bruce McNeill, who heads an investigation to extend the library hours during the evening. According to a letter, received by the committee, from Miss Joyce Backus, Head Librarian, there is an insufficient number of students now using the library to warrant putting on an additional staff to keep the readings rooms and reference rooms open for a longer time during the evenings. According to figures quoted by Miss Backus, only four percent of the students are now using the library between the hours of 7 and 9 p. m.

FILMS ON STATE INDUSTRIES TO BE SHOWN TODAY

"Whirling Wheels" is the title of the movie to be shown today at 3:20 in room 210 of the library. The movie is a portrayal of California's industry—lumbering, gold mining, glass, gasoline, steel, shipbuilding, and the processing of chemicals.

The film will attempt to present some phases of the little known activities of this state, with narration by John B. Hughes.

Included in the panorama of California life will be views of Sutter's Empire, where agriculture and diverse industries made it one of the most productive regions of California. Romantic events of the past are linked with the present to give the thrill of mighty growth.

PLEASE OBSERVE PARKING ZONES AT HIGH SCHOOL

Traffic citations will be issued to violators of the reserved parking zones around the high school, warned Curtis Davis, principal of the high school, yesterday.

Those reserved areas on Seventh and San Fernando streets near the high school are not for the use of the San Jose State college students, and Mr. Davis said that unless the zones were kept clear for high school officials and nurses, the police will have to issue citations to offenders.

It was evident from Mr. Davis' warning that a good many college students have been ignoring the reserved parking zones around the high school. In front of the school on San Fernando street there is reserved parking for the high school officials.

Nurses and health office workers have a reserved zone on Seventh street.

SOPHS ARRANGE ASB DANCE FEB. 7

Sophomore sponsorship of a student body dance, scheduled to follow the San Jose State-Santa Barbara basketball game on February 7, was the matter which received foremost attention at the sophomore council meeting Thursday evening.

Jean Gilnes was appointed chairman of the after-game dance committee. She will be aided in the task of making dance arrangements by Don Andrews, co-chairman.

Tom Wall, sophomore class representative to the student council, in discussing other council business, gave a detailed report regarding progress made in formulating plans for the coming freshman-sophomore mixer.

A proposed party for sophomore council members and guests was also discussed at the meeting.

TOKYO, Jan. 13 (UP).—Nude posing ceased at the Ueno Art school today because school directors feared the models might catch cold.

The newspaper Mainichi reported that no coal had been delivered to the school during the past month.

SPARTANS START 'SPORTS WEEK' WITH CAGE WIN OVER SAN DIEGO AZTECS; PORTAL'S BOXERS OPEN SHOW IN GYM

HUGHES SHOOTS WAY TO EASY WIN

It was San Jose all the way last night, as Coach Walt McPherson's eagle-eyed hoopsters found the range and dumped the invading Aztecs from San Diego 48-28 for their first CCAA win.

For the first three minutes the teams see-sawed back and forth with neither team tallying a bucket. With the score at one apiece, Chuck Hughes broke through for two quick buckets.

Hal Sonntag dropped one through and then Bob Hagen made a pair of tallies swish through the cords in rapid fire order. Hughes came in for another bucket, and then former Spartan Willie Steele showed a burst of strength for the Aztecs and sank two tosses for the visitors.

EARLY LEAD

That put the score at 12-5 and then McPherson started the substitutions rolling. Bob Taylor and Wes Stevenson came through for the Spartans in the scoring column, and although he only made one point, Stu Inman displayed some outstanding floor work to help show the way to victory.

The half ended with the local lads out in front 26-14. The sec-

RALLY CHAIRMEN, OFFICERS PICKED

The Rally committee, meeting yesterday, selected a Publicity committee, appointed officers, and other committee chairmen, and set January 31 as the date for their party for all Rally committee members. The band will also be invited.

Appointments, as announced by Rally Head Sal Millan are: Public relations committee, Armen Hanzad, Ruth Hansen, Stan Bennett, Winifred Bennett, and Albert O'Raphalley.

Secretary-treasurer, Helen Simmons; office manager, Jackie Sparks; supplies and equipment, Don Gifford, Lewis Jano, and Harry Plett; finance committee, Barbara Cakebread, Walt Jenvey; entertainment and skit, Don Titcomb; research, Clare McMurry, and Joyce Woods.

The public relations committee and the research committee are asked to meet in the Student Union office at 3:30 Wednesday.

Further Guarantee On Chutists' Lives

BERKELEY, Cal., Jan. 13 (UP).—Scientists William Siri and Cornelius Tobin announced today perfection of a mechanism embodying the Aneroid barometer which they have incorporated in an automatic rip-cord device capable of saving airmen's lives at extremely high altitudes.

The U. C. inventors said their device automatically pulls the rip cord and opens the parachute—but only after the aviator is a relatively short distance above the ground.

TWENTY BOUTS ON CARD FOR OPENING OF TOURNEY IN SPARTAN GYM TONIGHT

By PAUL VON HAFFTEN

Forty boxers will take the ring tonight at 7:30 in the local gym, as Coach Dee Portal has announced twenty bouts for the opening card of the 10th annual Novice Boxing tourney. The semi-finals will be held the following night in the gym to be followed by the finals on Thursday in the Civic Auditorium.

There will be bands, cheering, boxing and loads of fun to be had by all during the next three days in this traditional affair.

Several prizes will be awarded to winners in different divisions

SUPPORTING CAST FOR ETHAN FROME IS ANNOUNCED

Mr. John Richard Kerr of the Speech department faculty, director of Ethan Frome, announces the supporting cast for the production which will start its four-night run January 29.

Assisting John Calderwood in the title role, Elda Beth Payne, Zenobia, and Anne Hoffing, Mattie, will be James Spitz as Harmon Gow, Milton Brietzke as Jothan, Joseph Bologna as Ed Varnum, and Ed Williams as Denis Eady. Joseph Johnson will play the part of Ned Hale; Gayle Maphet, Roxanna Hildreth, and Donald Halladay will be Ruth Varnum, Mrs. Hale, and the Young man, respectively.

Players in the church scene are Yvonne Cadwallader, W. D. Shepherd, Bette Rehorst, Bob Barmettler, Joan Buechner, Laura Keffer, Barbara Vaccaro, Charlotte Inman, Joan Jenkinson, and Pat Bodwell.

The play, Ethan Frome, was written by Owen and Donald Davis, adapted from the novel by Edith Wharton. The story depicts New England farm life in its less attractive aspects. Ethan, the hero, is chained to a demanding invalid wife, Zenobia, who requires much care and attention. Situation arises when Ethan falls in love with his wife's cousin, Mattie, who comes to live with them. In trying to figure out their problem, the unfortunate lovers hit upon a "solution" which leads to an ending not common to similar love stories.

Ushers are needed for the four nights that the play will run, according to an announcement from the speech department office.

Anyone interested is asked to see Miss Helen Minetta in room 159.

Tickets for the play are 60 cents with ASB card, 90 cents without. Students are warned to get them early as many were unable to see the last production, "Kiss and Tell," says Miss Minetta.

'Lefty' Truman New Senators' Chucker

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13 (UP).—Southpaw Harry Truman was "signed up" today by the Washington Senators for their 1947 American League opener with the Yanks on April 14.

of the tournament. A trophy will be given to the winning coach. One will also be presented to the outstanding boxer.

Organizations will also be able to obtain prizes. There will be an award for the organization putting on the best five minute show to be presented Thursday night. The group which has the finest rooting section will win another trophy.

These groups which are taking part in the show are: Theta Mu Sigma, APO & Sappho, SGO & Allenians, Music department, Freshman class, Gamma Phi & Saphian, Beta Chi Sigma & Kappa Kappa Sigma and the Tau Delta Phi & Epsilon Mu Gamma.

The ushering will be handled by the Spartan Knights, which is a service fraternity. The Physical Education majors will act as referees. Dee predicts that this will be one of the best refereed tournaments in the annals of boxing. There will be just a mere 40 of the P.E. majors who will act as referees. This means that there will be one ref for each bout.

The 10th annual Novice tourney will be one of the best in Sparta's history, according to Coach Portal. He pointed out that the men have been in training for over two months; whereas in the past a week or three days was the maximum amount of preparation a novice gave for the tourney.

"The boys are in good condition and are entering the Novice Boxing Tournament with great enthusiasm," declared Coach Portal.

The fighters are well organized and the boxers are more evenly distributed among the teams than they have ever been before.

The schedule of the bouts are as follows:

Ray Davilla, 124, Gamma Phi Sigma, and Bill McDiarmid, 124, Music will meet in the 125 pound class. Competing in the 130 pound division are Bert McCarty, 126, Frosh and Bob Chuck, 130, APO and Sappho; and also Bob Stifler, 128, GPS and Erös vs. John Torrence, 129 of the Tau Deltis and Epsilon Mu Gammas.

Frank Ylp, 132, of APO and Sapphos will meet Roy Rolan, 135 lbs. of the SGO and Allenians. There are four bouts in the 145 pound division. They are Ed Martin, 144, of BCS and KKS vs. Ian Braga, 144, Frosh. Sandy Beach, 144½, of Music vs. Bob Schobert, 144, of Theta Mus.

Don Staniford, 143, of Tau Deltis and Ep. Gamma vs. Bob Critchlow, 143, of APO and Sappho. Dave Gray, 140, of SGO-Allenians vs. George Welch, 144, Gamma Phi Sigmas and EROs.

WHICH WAY?

Next year's football season is a long way off, and the echoes of this year's post season games have just begun to dim. Already the National Collegiate Athletic Association has made plans to outlaw professionalism in the college ranks.

Schools throughout the country that try to aid their players in any way will be snubbed by NCAA members. College players will receive for gridiron services only room and board, (if they receive that much). Many powerful grid machines which have been years in the making, and schools which have spent much on recruiting players, will begin to feel the effects of forced non-subsidization.

All this is well and good, BUT, here's the rub:

College football has been for the past two decades, and will continue to be for some years to come, just a business.

In spite of the de-emphasis program, millions of football fans all over the country are paying millions of dollars to see AMATEUR games. Professional football must go a long way if it ever intends to edge out the amateurs at the turnstiles.

There are hundreds of large stadia all over the country that stand as tributes to the moneymaking qualities of college football. These in themselves are not unwholesome for the institution or the community.

But in this present day of die-for-dear-old-Rutgers, where the do-or-die of the gridiron is being de-emphasized, why not de-emphasize it all the way? College athletes should be amateurs, if not in ability, at least in status, and colleges should not exploit four half-years of a player's life for their own benefit.

College football has three choices. Pay participants openly and above board; continue charging high prices and not pay athletes at all, which is good business but rotten moral practice; or finally de-emphasize college football, in the colleges, at the turnstiles, and through the press.

In the midst of all this financial and economic turmoil, there is to be found, however, one little bit of hope which leads to believe that all is not beyond despair; that even you and I have a chance with our pocket change, that even if Wall street hits the rocks; even if Brazil had half as much coffee as Sinatra sings about in the song, it will still be a nickel a cup at the Do-Nut Shop. . . .

THRUST and PARRY

'Man of the Year'

Dear Thrust and Parry: Through this medium would I commend Max Miller of Men and Maids fame. He is my nominee for SJS' man of the year, or at least he should get a blue brownie for his effort on the port of practicality.

But MM's critique applies not only to prof. B., but to the entire academic hierarchy as a whole. It would seem that the Arts and Humanities are good things to know, but of more importance, is how am I going to make a living so I can eat and pay taxes and thus be a part of our socio-economic set up?

It is unfortunate that the student body cannot, to a larger extent, determine its own educational expedition. —ASB 4708

Naval Reserve

NAVY CALLS FOR MORE RESERVES

Lieutenant Wilbur D. Gunther, of the San Jose Naval Reserve Recruiting office, announced today that enlisted personnel, class V-6 and V-10 inactive, may be discharged from the Naval Reserve upon receipt of their written request by the commandant of their Naval district.

"Ex-naval veterans may now enlist in the volunteer reserve at the highest rate they held at the time of their discharge. Your enlistment will be for four years and you can only be called to active duty at your own request or in case of the resumption of hostilities. Remember too, that you can now be released or discharged from the reserves at your own request if you so desire."

"Adding these advantages to the fact that you do not have to attend any weekly meetings or that you do not have to go on any annual cruises, or that you do not have to report to your draft board and that the time spent in the reserves adds to your active duty time for longevity purposes, makes the volunteer reserve the most advantageous service organization with which you can be affiliated," Lt. Gunther added.

Jackson B. Howard, San Jose State college Navy Reserve representative, invites all men who are interested to contact him or go to the Post Office for additional information.

Rugged!

SJS GIRL COACH TURNS OUT TOUGH TEAM

By KEITH POPE

San Jose State college has turned out several fine coaches in Bill Hubbard, Bob Bronzan, Dgg Portal, and Walt McPherson but they still have a long way to go before they equal the record of Ann Matasivich, San Jose State college graduate. She returned to her home-town of Watsonville to coach a football team which chalked up 16 victories and one scoreless tie over a period of two years!

Miss Matasivich transferred to Sparta from Salinas Junior college in 1940 and received her general elementary degree in June of 1943. After leaving State, Miss Matasivich accepted a job at the Hall district school near Watsonville and after teaching at Hall for a year, Miss Matasivich went to the Pajaro grammar school in the city of Watsonville.

SIX-FOOTERS!

Now, it seems they grow the lads pretty big down in the Watsonville lettuce country for many of the boys in Pajaro's eighth grade were close to six feet tall! The majority of boys also wanted to play football so a league was formed which included nearly all the city and district grammar schools.

However, nobody could be found to coach the Pajaro squad, so Miss Matasivich, facing a rugged nine-game schedule, volunteered to mentor the team. Although Miss Matasivich was a staunch Spartan football rooter, she knew nothing about the rules of the game. But Ann didn't let a little thing like that get her down. She read all the material she could get on rules, formations, etc., and her first team, the 1945 outfit, took the field using the T-formation (modified).

Because many of her players lived out in the country and could not practice after school, the grid-ders had to do all their practicing during the physical education periods. The boys never resented Miss Matasivich because of her sex and the boys worked hard on their plays and formations. The hard work paid off because Coach Matasivich's 1945 eleven went through the season undefeated and untied.

FINISH UNBEATEN

The 1946 football squad was equally successful, although the fighting pigskinners of Roach district school held the Pajaro aggregation to a scoreless tie. However, Coach Matasivich's lads went on to win the remaining tilts (seven) and finish the season unbeaten for the second consecutive year.

Coach Matasivich said the squad had good deception but the best offensive weapon of the Pajaro eleven was the passing attack. Sparkplug of the Pajaro team is Quarterback Jack Davis, eighth grader, who can throw a football 65 yards!

The boys are not allowed to use football shoes or padding, so many play barefooted. (Shades of Hawaii.)

Deans

ADMINISTRATIVE DEANS RECEIVE REVISED TITLES

By PHIL ROBERTSON

Title changes for the three administrative deans; James C. DeVoss; Jay C. Elder, and P. Victor Peterson, went into effect last quarter.

Dean DeVoss is no longer known as the Dean of Upper Division, but is now the Dean of Student Personnel and Guidance. Dean Elder's title is now Dean of General Education in place of Dean of the Lower Division. Dean Peterson is now the Dean of Professional Education.

The change of title is in line with the general teacher's pay increase that was given by the State Legislature last fall. Both Dean DeVoss and Dean Elder will continue to help with the advising of upper and lower division students but there will be no dean with the titles just given up by the change in titles.

Dean DeVoss has been with San Jose State college since 1922, and was Dean of the Upper Division since 1927. Dean Elder has been Dean of the Lower Division since 1921, and Dean Peterson has been with the college since 1922.

Liberal arts and technical courses will be under the supervision of Dean Peterson, while Dean Elder will be the advisor for academic courses.

The Dean of Men and the Dean of Women are not deans that are provided for under the same department of the State Legislature as the three administrative deans.

Registrar

WEST ANNOUNCES STUDENT TOTAL

A break-down of enrollment of the 5685 students at San Jose State college was announced by Joe H. West, registrar, yesterday afternoon.

Students who were in attendance last quarter and have returned this quarter number 5028; the new students number 470. Returning to college after an absence of a quarter or more are 187 students.

Veterans number 2972, an increase of 126 over fall quarter. Of the total, 538 are enrolled in Junior college and 2434 are enrolled in State college. Regular students attending Junior college are 892 and 1821 in State college. "These figures do not include the subtraction of refunds," stated West.

Although Coach Matasivich teaches her players to show good sportsmanship at all times, occasionally a minor beef comes up. Coach Matasivich has a firm but polite policy about being a gentleman on the gridiron. For instance, during one of the '46 games, a Pajaro player talked back to the referee and Coach Matasivich yanked him out of the contest.

Miss Matasivich takes a ribbing from her friends but she gets a kick out of coaching.

FRESHMAN CLASS RALLIES FOR NOVICE TOURNEY SUPPORT

"Freshmen with acting talent, freshmen with powerful vocal chords, freshmen with spirit, and just freshmen, are wanted at the Morris Dailey auditorium, 11:30, Thursday!" announce chairmen Len Frizzi, Don LaFave, and Ray Bishop.

The chairmen are sending out a special appeal to enlist class members in the campaign to carry off honors in the current boxing tourney, according to Dean Paul Pitman, adviser, and want all freshmen to attend the fights to be held in the men's gym on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Thursday's meeting will feature presentation of five minute entertainment skits by various groups. The skit which wins the most acclaim will be the one presented at the Civic auditorium Thursday night, the final night for the boxing tourney.

As election day for frosh is coming up Friday, the five minutes of entertainment will also be used as a means for supporters of prospective class officers to introduce their candidates.

"We want to try out an exclusive new yell which is for freshmen only," said Jimmy Johnson, class yell leader, "and will need strong and enthusiastic lungs. Let's win that trophy for the best rooting section at the tourney."

Joe Hornbaker is manager of the freshman boxing team. Boxers are Bert McCarty, Pat Alvarez, Ian Braga, Bob Merritt, Bill Peach, Dave Kamp, and Willis Kim.

"These men need our support," plead the Frosh leaders. "Turn out at the meeting Thursday and get organized."

Pending the election, the class advisers will be in charge of the meetings.

SPEARS COLLECT $55 FROM SALE

Spartan spears netted $55 for their school fund at Friday's Lost and Found sale. According to Spear officers, the amount was the largest ever gained from any sale.

Spears will use the money for any school project or fund they consider worthy, according to Miss Margaret Twombly, faculty adviser. Last June, the Spears donated $400 to the Chime fund, part of which was collected from the Lost and Found sales during the year, said Miss Twombly.

The Spears conduct a Lost and Found sale at the end of every quarter. Articles sold are those left unclaimed in the Lost and Found department located in the Information office.

Articles are sold for amounts starting with 5 cents. Some items are bandanas, blouses, textbooks, glasses, pens, and pencils.

Announcements

STUDENTS WHO LEFT BOOKS ON deposit with the Alpha Phi Omega Student book exchange may pick up either their money or books in front of Morris Dailey auditorium between 11:30 and 1:30 tomorrow.

REVELRIES DIRECTOR "Doc" Arends asks the following members of the cast to meet in the Morris Dailey tonight at the time specified: Mary Jane Call and Les Penterman, 6:30; "Unc" Hillier and Bob MacFadyen, 7; and Don Brown and Betty Louthan, 7:30.

Women P.E. majors will have their first meeting of the quarter tonight at 7:30 in the Student Union. Plans for the coming Dance Symposium, to which the majors will be host, are to be discussed. Also results of the W.A.A. meeting held yesterday will be reviewed.

Members from each class will provide entertainment after the business meeting.

SKI CLUB, 7:30 p. m., room 24. Plans will be made for party and coming trip.

UNITED PRESS TO QUESTION VETS AT COLLEGE

"What sort of grades are the GI veterans making in their scholastic work? In what subjects do student veterans excel?"

These are only two of the questions that will be answered on the San Jose State college campus and on other campuses all over the country.

The United Press, through its local bureaus, is taking a survey of the "whys" and "wherefores" of the veterans attending school under the GI bill, and under the Veterans' Vocational Rehabilitation act.

All over the country U.P. reporters are gathering information that will be tabulated by the New York office and then distributed by means of the U.P. teletype.

Joe West, college registrar, and E. W. Clements, co-ordinator of veterans' affairs, are being quizzed as to the local aspect in regards to the survey.

SWIMMERS START REHEARSALS FOR COMING AQUACADE

Spartan pool was initiated to the splashes of the 1947 swim extravaganza last night at the first rehearsal. Swimming formations and routines which have been worked out on paper for weeks were tried in the water for the first time.

Date of the annual all-student swim show has been set for February 20 and 21. This allows less than six weeks for rehearsals, which will be held on Monday and Thursday nights. Practice for the acts will be divided between the two nights so students will have to attend only the rehearsals scheduled for their acts.

STUDENTS' WORK ON DISPLAY

"Art In Costume" is the initial display commencing this week in a series of exhibits to be featured in the Home Economics department's show cases throughout the winter quarter.

The theme includes structural and decorative design, art principles, and color harmonies and their relationship to costume. Garments, textiles, art prints, and vase forms are used as illustrative examples.

The display, presented by Beverly Court, is a project in Dr. Margaret Jones' Methods of Teaching Home Economics course, and will be exhibited through Friday. A new display by members in the class is featured each week.

Properties for the show are being secured and will be available for use this week. Miss Mary Wiley, director of the show, sends out an appeal to amateur magicians, as one of the numbers calls for a bit of magic. Any interested student may see Miss Wiley in the Women's gym.

"An unexpectedly large number of students have already signed up for the extravaganza. However, others who wish to help may attend Thursday night's rehearsal," Miss Wiley concluded.

The theme of this year's production is yet to be announced, but Lois Haueter, president of the college Swimming club, promises it will be popular with the students. Use of music, costumes, specialty acts, and something new in the way of lighting will add zest to the water performance.

From the Sidelines

By WILBUR AGEE

Look for a well known PCC football team up the Peninsula to land on the San Jose State football schedule this year . . . Also along this line, a top Bay City eleven will also appear on the Spartan sked come this fall.

GOOD SHOW

Probably one of the outstanding sporting events of each year at San Jose State will begin tonight in the local gym when some fifty boxers will square off with each other in the 10th annual Novice Boxing Tourney.

For those of you who have never seen one of these riots in the ring it is well worth your time to be at ringside tonight, tomorrow night or Thursday night. To see two fellows come out in the first round and really battle their way around the ring, then reappear for the second round somewhat tired but still throwing punches and to see these same two fighters come out for the final round and do a waltz is a sight worth witnessing.

With so many fighters on hand and the great number of teams being entered this is the biggest tourney in the history of the school and all should try to attend one of the three nights.

CIVIC AUD

San Jose's Civic Auditorium will be the scene of two Spartan sporting events this week. Coach Dee Portal will wind up his boxing show there on Thursday night and the State basketball team will go against St. Mary's on the hardwoods Saturday night.

It looks as if Coach Bud Winter has plenty of talent this year for his track and field team. Could it possibly compare to the great team of 1942, headed by Bill Smith, Willie Steele and Thelno Knowles, that won so many honors in the Bay Area.

HEATED SUITS

The baseball team begins to loosen up this week with the pitching greats unlimbering their arms with a few warm-up tosses. With this weather we wonder how they are warming up. Maybe they are using heated suits.

San Francisco State gave Coach Walt McPherson's cagers a scare Saturday night but the boys came through in the overtime scoring enough from the foul line to remain on top. The Spartans evidently like the foul line at Kezar as they had a very good average against the Dons on charity shots.

GAELS LOSE

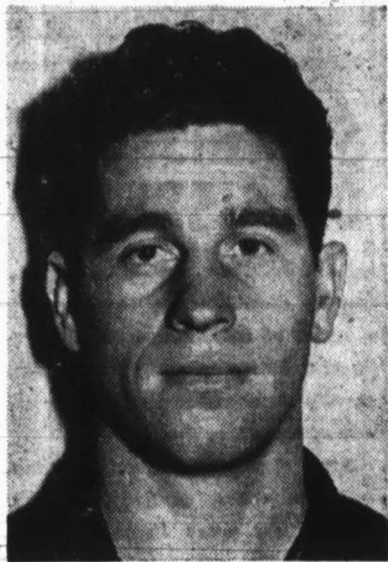

From the score last Friday night it looks as if St. Marys should fall under the Spartans power this Saturday. The Gael five were dumped by the University of San Francisco 45-37. Ross Giudice dropped 18 points through the hoop for the Dons. Watch that boy Walt . . . he was selected on the first team at the recent annual Reno invitational basketball tourney.

In the same tourney, the University of Nevada won the affair placing three men on the first team. They will be a tough opponent for our Spartans when they invade San Jose next week for a pair of games.

NEW SPONSORS

Beta Gamma Chi and Delta Sigma Gamma have come to the aid of the Music department. They will help sponsor the boxing team entered in the 10th annual Novice tourney tonight, tomorrow and Thursday, according to Bob Gager, DSG representative.

CAGERS CHALK UP CONFERENCE WIN OVER SAN DIEGO

and half almost turned out to be a San Diego affair, but the Spartans soon checked any ambitions the visitors might have had and went on to pile up a sizeable amount of points.

EVERYBODY PLAYS

Coach McPherson used all 14 of his varsity basketball players in the second half, and all but Bob Pifferini made at least one of their tries good. Piff played most of the second half however, and displayed some fine floor work, second only to Inman.

18 FOR HUGHES

Chuck Hughes led the scoring with 18 points, 14 made in the first half. Bob Hagen was second in the Spartan scoring with 8. The rest of the Spartan scoring went as follows: Morgan 4, Romero 3, Robinson 3, Wilson, Denevi, Stevenson and Sonntag 2, and Wuesthoff, Taylor, Staley, and Inman 1.

George Smith and Willie Steele, the ex-Spartan trackman, led the boys from the border city with 5 points. Former All-American Kenny Hale scored 2 points during the game.

JAYVEES WIN TOO

Bob Bronza's Jay-Vee bucketmen literally slaughtered the team from the Oakland Naval Air Station to the tune of 61-18. Marks, Montgomery, and Persha led the Spartanbabes with 14, 12, and 10 points respectively.

WEATHER FAVORS McPHERSON AND HIS HORSEHIDERS

Coach Walt McPherson took a squint at the weather yesterday afternoon and beamed. "Old Man Weather" had supplied the weather that he had prayed for last week. The balls and gloves were brought out of the mothballs and throwing practice started. Practice lasted about an hour and everybody remarked that the January sunshine was perfect. (McPherson even tried out his soupbone. Maybe he can furnish a little help on that trip to San Diego.)

On hand to take part in the initial workout yesterday were: Pitchers, Con Maloney, Orland Tambinino, and John DeFigh; catchers, Jack Kakuchi, Joe DeLucchi, Howie Best, and portsider, Jack Burtner. This crew will be back tomorrow afternoon for a workout and another crew will take over today.

If the weather does get too bad, McPherson plans to switch his hurling staff to the men's gym where they can do some throwing. This would not furnish the ideal condition for these initial workouts but the chuckers would have a chance to work some of those winter kinks out of their arms.

The Spartans will open their conference schedule March 21, playing Cal Poly in a double-header. This will be the first stop on their southward trip which will take place during the spring vacation.

McPherson announced Monday that this year's freshman team will play games against Salinas J. C., Menlo Park J. C., Stanford frosh, local high schools, and some local semi-pro clubs. This year's yearling team should be strong as several stars from high schools have signed up for the sport and will be present when practice starts in February.

Boxing Fans; Win A Meal Ticket . . .

Win a $10 Student Union meal ticket which will be given to the student picking the most winners in the Current Novice Boxing tournament. Entries must be turned in at Daily office by 4 p. m. Wednesday. See Wednesday's special boxing form for final decision.

The heavyweight division will see Jim Jackson, 197 pounder of SGO-Allenians will meet Bob Chelm of the Theta Mus.

RECOVERED!!!

Women's physical education courses are back on schedule this week with the return yesterday of three of the department faculty. Dr. Irene Palmer, department head, Miss Margaretta Fristoe, and Mrs. Ethel Wright, were all ill with the flu last week.

MATMEN NAMED TO OPPOSE UCLA AND CALIFORNIA

Coach Ted Mumby has just released the names of 23 wrestlers who will wrestle for the Spartan Varsity and JayVee squad this week when the Spartans open their season on Thursday.

Their first opponents will be the UCLA Bruins, who have a fair team although they lost their opener to San Diego State.

Friday will see the Spartans against the California Golden Bears, who were the southern division champions of the Pacific Coast Conference last year. The Bears have a man named Leland Christensen, who is the 121 pound Far Western Championship title holder.

Little is known about the San Francisco State Gators, and this match should be a toss up when they meet Saturday evening at 7:30.

Members of the squad who will participate during this week against their adversaries are:

William Rothwell and Keith Saboff, 121; Carl Holmberg, Dirk Arrowsmith, Lincoln Kimura, 128; Jim Shouse, Ralph Payne, and Robert Johnston, 136; Bill Rodman and Jack Jackson, 145.

R. Arthur Miser, Sam H. Lawson, WJll J. Drew, 155; Henry Imsen and Earl Connolley, 165; Pat Felice and Roy Bridgham at 175; Keith Wilson and William LaBee, heavyweights.
