Spardi Gras Queen Candidates Vie For Honor

GRIPES TO ALTER ASB VOTE PLAN

A proposal to prohibit use of the preferential ballot, and a poll of student opinion to determine the status of the Spardi Gras dance were the first results of the Gripe Session last night in the inner quad.

In response to other gripes, two committees were appointed by the Student Council; one to study the possibilities of establishing an honor code for the student body; another to seek further protection for the pedestrian crosswalk at Fourth and San Antonio streets.

The Student Council, at a special meeting preceding the Gripe Session, agreed on a proposal to insert necessary legislation into the constitution's by-laws to prohibit further use of the preferential ballot for student body elections.

After students and members of student groups had presented a divided opinion on whether or not Spardi Gras dance should be for couple or stag, the Council moved to present the question to students by adding it to ballots for Spardi Gras queen election Friday.

Dick Fry, editor of the Spartan Daily, was questioned by Frank Arnerich and Joe Galatz concerning editorial policy, and the extensive space given to advertisements.

Arnerich asked that the editorials concern themselves more with student problems, and that careful research be given all editorial subjects.

Editor Fry promised to give the matter his immediate attention. He answered Galatz by explaining that the increasing costs of printing made it difficult to determine a standard for advertising cost and space.

JUNIORS PLAN TO HAVE SIDEWALK INN CONCESSION THEME

Setting the motif in French costumes for waiters and waitresses, the junior class is planning a sidewalk cafe as its concession for Spardi Gras Day, according to Sal Millan, class president.

Dancing and refreshments of assorted soft beverages will highlight the attraction, says Millan. Translated French menus and programs also will be provided.

Committee members for the concession include: Hal Riddle, Phil Robertson, George Genevro, Costume chairmen are Corrine Garibaldi and Eleanor Frietas while Millan and Rose Marie Louise will plan the menus and programs.

The affair, given in honor of 23 pledges taken into the organization this quarter, will be open to members, faculty members, neophytes, and "such women as they choose to bring," Davies said.

Emerson Arends, Marty Taylor Return From Conference

Emerson Arends and Marty Taylor, San Jose State's representatives at the Pacific Student Presidents' conference in Vancouver, B.C., returned to San Jose Sunday via United Airlines.

Arends, the student body president-elect, and Taylor, outgoing proxy, attended the conference at the University of British Columbia over the weekend. Delegates from fifty colleges and universities throughout the Pacific area were present at the meet.

Dr. N. A. M. MacKenzie, president of the University of British Columbia, was the principal speaker at the 22nd annual conference. Dr. MacKenzie told representatives that, "responsibility is a desirable factor, and the more that is placed on general student bodies and their governing officers, the better the results in the long-run."

President-elect Arends said today that he plans to run a series of articles in the Spartan Daily outlining the various problems discussed at the meeting.

DR. WITHERSPOON CONCLUDES SERIES

Dr. Gertrude Witherspoon, assistant professor of chemistry, will discuss "What Constitutes Good Grooming" at a meeting of the American Childhood Education association in Stockton, today.

This is the last in a series of speeches concerning cosmetics made by Dr. Witherspoon to various organizations.

U. S. Military Experts Will Travel to Turkey

ISTANBUL, Turkey, May 11 (UP)—An American mission of about 30 military experts and staff officers is expected in Ankara May 19 to consult the Turkish General Staff on types of war material Turkey needs under the $100,000,000 American Aid Program, it was understood today.

Prime Minister Recep Peker returned to Ankara today, after two days of conference with President Ismet Inonu, to confer with American Ambassador Edwin Wilson on the aid program.

Dean of Men Asks For Vets' Names

Dear Thrust and Parry:

It is regrettable but largely unavoidable that when our four great service flags are dedicated and reverently lowered on May 29 they will be minus the names of many loyal Spartans who should be represented by blue stars or possibly even by gold ones.

It will be shameful, however, if men and women who belonged to campus organizations are omitted because of the indifference of their successors in those organizations. Any fraternity, service club, or departmental honor group could prepare an alphabetical list of its own members who should be so represented. I trust that many such lists will be given to me or to Dean Dimmick before the end of this week. We want the names of all men and women who served September, 1940, and March, 1947. In the case of those who died in service we need the names and addresses of the next of kin whenever available.

Very truly yours,
Paul M. Pitman,
Dean of Men.

ADULT PROBATION TO BE DISCUSSED

Max Watson, Santa Clara county adult probation officer, will speak to the Psychology club tonight. His subject will be "Behavior Problems In Adult Probation."

The meeting will be a co-meeting of Tri Sigma and the Psychology club.

Coney Island is Scene Of Five-Alarm Fire

NEW YORK, May 12 (UP)—A five-alarm fire in the heart of the Coney Island amusement park was brought under control tonight more than four hours after it began in the ocean-front playground, firemen announced.

Frank Murphy, Fire Department chief of staff operations, said shortly after 9:30 p.m. that although the fire was still burning hundreds of firemen had prevented the flames from spreading further.

FIRST SPARDI GRAS QUEEN RALLY TONIGHT IN AUD; FOUR ASPIRANTS APPEAR

By MAX MILLER

The preliminaries for the biggest event in any season on Washington Square will begin tonight when four of the nine candidates in the Spardi Gras queen contest make their first official campus appearances on the stage of the Morris Dailey auditorium.

Amid the music, applause and general fanfare provided by her sponsors and loyal followers, each vying for the honor of being elected the campus's first lady will make a half-hour appearance in a show scheduled to open at 7 p.m.

First aspirant to the Spardi Gras throne to appear on the two hour long program tonight will be Eleanor Herzig sponsored by Gamma Phi Sigma and Ero Sophian. Betty Burrell, Alpha Phi Omega and Delta Beta Sigma; Marcella Brokofsky, Alienian society; and Francine Harpole, Beta Gamma Chi and Beta Chi Sigma, will follow in order taking their bows between acts of singing, dancing and comedy provided by student talent.

The remaining five candidates who are Dorothy Bursleson, Joyce Walker, Lenore Curtice, Claire Cummins, and Leslie (Bev) Dunbar, will be the center of attraction in campaign rallies to be held in the Morris Dailey auditorium tomorrow night and Thursday beginning at the same hour. Preliminary election of the queen of Spardi Gras will take place on Friday, May 16, when the student body will go to the polls to name the first three candidates from which the final winner will be picked in a run-off election on Monday, May 19.

NOTE: Marcella Brokofsky and not Lenore Curtice, as indicated in the photos, will take part in today's rally.

Mr. Eagan to Direct Woodwind Choir
Thomas Eagan of the Music department will direct the Woodwind Choir in a concert to be given Wednesday evening at 8:15 in the college Little Theater. Thirteen students will compose the choir and there will be three soloists during the program. Max Hagemeyer, guest artist, will play the violincello, accompanied by Rosalie Speciale at the piano; and Roderick Swearingin, hornist, and Dorothy Fouch, flutist, will be featured on the program. The music for the program has been chosen especially to give color and variety. Mr. Eagan prepared the arrangements since much of it is not arranged for a woodwind choir presentation.

The personnel of the choir includes Dorothy Fouch and Marjorie Folsom, flutists; George Cunha and Elizabeth Knight, oboists; James Schwart and Twila Simpson, clarinetists; Roderick Swearingin, Randolph Hunt, Marcus Tatum, and Norene Bartlett, hornists; Eldeen Gaine and Phyllis Mace, bassoonists; and Jack Ward, bass clarinetist.

SPEAKER ADDRESSES ENTOMOLOGY CLUB

Modern methods of mosquito control will be discussed by Mr. Edward Smith of the Merced county mosquito district, before a meeting of the Entomology club in room S210 at 8 o'clock this evening, according to Dr. Carl Duncan, club advisor.

Mr. Edwards, a former student here, is an authority on the subject of California sleeping sickness, a disease transmitted by the Encephalitis mosquito.

All students interested in entomology are invited to attend the meeting, said Dr. Duncan.

GEORGE BRITTON SPEAKS THURSDAY

George Britton, state forest ranger, is guest speaker for the Forestry club's picnic-meeting in Alum Rock park Thursday evening, according to Art Retan, president of the club.

Mr. Britton will discuss the plans and policies of the state forest service and job possibilities for summer.

"All of those interested in attending, should see Madge Jennings in the biology storeroom in the Science building," said Retan.

AQUA SKI CLUB MOVES ALONG

Betty Burrell performs this difficult feat during her first attempt at the new sport of water walking. Miss Burrell is one of the Spardi Gras queen candidates. Another feature on the new Aqua Ski club will appear in this quarter's issue of Lycurgus.

By CARL J. CASE

Under the leadership of President Joe Whelan, the new Aqua Ski Club is becoming one of the most active organizations on campus. It was officially organized Easter vacation, and April 28 Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie put his "okay" on its constitution.

The advisers, who both have become experts at the sport, are Miss Mary Wiley and Dr. Robert Rhodes.

The new outfit holds its field trips at Clear Lake at the Lakeside vacation home of H. G. Whelan, who, being a water ski enthusiast, got the club rolling. It is hoped that some of the neighboring colleges will organize ski teams, too, and thereby inaugurate a new inter-collegiate sport.

The ski club, at present, has a membership of about 18, but with the addition of a new boat and more equipment, the club hopes to increase its size. Four new members are: Ann Corwin, Joan Flint, Betty Burrell, and Beverly Baird.

The officers are: Joe Whelan, president; Fred Judd, vice-president; June Robertson, secretary, and Mark Sullivan, treasurer

Library Gets Memorium Gift

An album of recorded arias from the sacred works of Johann Sebastian Bach, sung by Marian Anderson, has been presented to the San Jose State college Library in memory of Mr. George Thomas Matthews by Mr. and Mrs. Forest Baird. Mr. Matthews was head of the college Music department for a number of years. Mr. Baird is now on the Music faculty.

SPARDI GRAS DRESS RULES ARE LISTED

Joan Buechner and Yvonne Azevedo who compos the Spardi Gras Costume committee, yesterday released the rules which are to govern the wearing of costumes during the campus carnival, according to Sal Millan, publicity director. The rules in their entirety are as follows:

1. All persons attending Spardi Gras must be in costume.
2. Clothes worn for regular school dress will not be considered as being a costume unless such dress comprises a part of a costume.
3. All persons not in costume will be arrested. All violators will have the choice of a fine (50 cents to $1) or imprisonment in the "calaboose."
4. All offenders names will be recorded and given five minutes to leave Spardi Gras area.
5. ASB card holders and faculty members will be permitted to be accompanied by their wives or husbands. No outsiders other than those approved by the Spardi Gras committee, will be allowed to remain in the area.
6. The policing of Spardi Gras for costume violations will be conducted by Chi Pi Sigma, police fraternity, and the proceeds from fines collected will be turned over to the student body fund for general usage.
7. The "court" will be composed of Keith Pope, Justice of the Student Court; a designated representative of the Student Council and Joe Rowan, president of Chi Pi Sigma.

'Marc' Brokofsky Is Spardi Gras Queen Candidate

QUEEN PUBLICITY

Marcella, Brokofsky, attractive, blue-green eyed, twenty-one-year old GE senior, and candidate for this year's Spardi Gras queen, has a record of various activities in campus life.

Marcella, who has a personality that goes with her smile, is known to her friends as "Marco," or "Marc." She has served on her class council in her sophomore, junior and senior years, and on the AWA committees for two years. As a junior she was on the Red Cross council and the La Torre staff.

Her scholastic record is enviable; she is a members of Black Masque, women's honorary scholastic society, and has been elected an officer of Kappa Delta Pi, the national education honor society.

Marcella's magnetic personality and sincere desire to be friendly and courteous to everyone has earned her election to an office in almost every group of which she has been a member.

"Everyone who knows Marcella likes her," states Winnie Helm, her campaign manager, and although Winnie is inclined to be biased, here are many who agree with that statement.

Completing her practice teaching last quarter, Marcella returned to the classrooms of Sparta to complete her work towards her graduation this quarter.

FORMER DAILY REPORTER COVERS VANCOUVER CONFAB

By PAUL HURMUSES

The Pacific Student Presidents' conference here has been a grand time for Marty Taylor and "Doc" Arends.

It was pleasant, but it has been a lot of hard work, too. In these two fellows, San Jose State has a couple of fine delegates to give voice, however small or large, at this 22nd annual meeting of west coast schools. When a lot of delegates are thrown in together, the going can be rough. The leaders are known right away.

This is a beautiful spot to hold any kind of gathering. Whether it's a classroom session or a conference of students, there isn't a better place anywhere. University of British Columbia has one of most attractive campuses to be found. There are hundreds of acres of rolling green land splashed with tall Douglas Firs right down to the Pacific ocean. They have an 18 hole golf course which is smooth and well kept all of the time. They play it anytime, between—or during—classes.

However, they've really felt the pinch here, possibly more than anywhere else. In 1939 they had 1800 students. Today, there is an enrollment of 9000, which makes an increase of 500%.

They put the delegates up in barracks. But they were comfortable even though the bed were surplus hospital beds. There was a sign outside Marty's door which read, "Pathology."

All in all, this year's conference was a big success, because of a lot of hard work. State came out of the stack with flying colors.

With men like Taylor and Arends to do the talking, State can't miss.

IT'S ALL IN FUN, DR. BRUNTZ

How would you like the thrill of being discussed in a popular book? Dr. George G. Bruntz, social science instructor, is the subject of an entire chapter in the latest book by Madame Thora Bonnier, famous Swedish writer.

But Dr. Bruntz is at a disadvantage. The title, "Just for Fun," is the only part of the book he is able to read, because the rest is written in Swedish. Dr. Andrew Lassen, of the Social Science department, translated the all-important chapter, for him.

In "Just for Fun," Madame Bonnier discusses the students of America and some observations of American life which she gathered while visiting the United States last year. For a great part of last year she lived in Los Gatos and visited Los Gatos union high school where Dr. Bruntz was teaching.

She was so impressed with his method of teaching and the interesting discussions his students had on national and international problems that she tells about them in great detail. She refers to Dr. Bruntz as "the energetic little professor;" to his lectures as "conversations with students."

THRUST AND PARRY

Foul Ball?

Dear Thrust and Parry:
 Our present Student Council and Student Court in their last six weeks of office have thrown the students of San Jose State college a curve ball. The curve ball is in the form of "shady politics."

Last year enough students complained about the preferential ballot to necessitate a vote by the student body. In short the preferential ballot was "out-lawed." It was proved by the results of this election that the students on campus did not want any future elections via the preferential ballot.

In light of this fact, members of the Student Council, forgetting they are in office to serve the wishes of the general student body and not their own, took it upon themselves to disregard general wishes, and "slipped in" the preferential ballot mid-way between elections.

Their excuse, the best they could originate upon being reprimanded for their action, was stated like this: "We want the new student body president to attend the conference in Vancouver, and this necessitates an immediate election of a new president." With all their "clever planning" and "brilliant political policies," they did not think of possibly sending the legitimate newly-elected vice-president. This would have solved all the problems.

It is common knowledge that the preferential ballot is seldom used correctly. It is often exploited in minority groups which influence results—the minority groups being primarily sororities and fraternities.

In Thursday's paper it was stated that the candidates met in Dean Pitman's office, and all agreed to this system of election. That certainly is not true. If they did agree to it, it was by pressure by an unknown source. Yesterday I talked to two of the candidates for president, and both of them were in a very, putting it lightly, disagreeable mood concerning the "fast shuffle" pulled on them by the Council. They were very much upset about the whole thing, and were certainly not in any mood for an agreement of this kind. The candidates voiced that it was unfair, unjust, and strictly out of line.

In short, very short, the students of S. J. State have been betrayed, bullied, and propagandized by the Student Council.
 ASB 3134.

Thanks

The Pre-Legal club wishes to take this opportunity to thank the candidates in the past student body election for their stand in relation to preference of pre-legal students for positions on the Student Court.

In the interest of more efficient student government the Pre-Legal club has decided to offer its services to individuals or organizations called before the Student Court and to investigate the judicial procedures of other colleges with the aim of improving our student government.

President, Pre-Legal club.
 William Logan

Not Guilty

Dear Thrust and Parry:
 We, the members of Alpha Phi Omega, and Delta Beta Sigma would like to announce to the student body that we did not violate any Spardi Gras rules, and that our candidate for queen, Betty Burrell, was unjustly forced to postpone beginning her poster campaign for 24 hours.

Queen Contest Chairman, Merton Root, was wrong in impeding Miss Burrell's campaign on the grounds of off-campus rallies or posters on campus because neither of these situations were in existence.

The only advance campaigning given Miss Burrell, was a voice campaign. All other candidates received vocal support from their followers previous to this week and our candidate also received vocal support, but in a new and unique way.

Miss Burrell, was lauded in song on two records. These records with the PERMISSION and ASSISTANCE of Dr. Robert Rhodes, who is in charge of the juke box in the Coop, were placed in the Coop and were played by the memberships of the above named organizations Friday.

If performing the above tasks on Miss Burrell's behalf constitutes a violation of the rules we plead guilty, but with a request that some clause be placed in the rules that definitely states that what we did was illegal. There is still an ex post facto law in this country and on that judicial point we base our claim that Root was in error and let outside influences overcome his good judgment.

For the members of Alpha Phi Omega and Delta Beta Sigma.
 Harold Riddle, 4058.

Let's Go Stag

Dear Thrust and Parry, Dave Moore and anyone else concerned:

Am I correct in understanding that the evening Spardi Gras dance will be for couples only? If so, don't you realize that most (or at least many) of the students will thus be prevented from attending the dance. For many students, the only chance to get acquainted with others is by attending dances to which stags are welcome.

An occasional registration dance is about the only stag dance we have. How about opening the dance to BOTH couples AND stags and encourage ALL the guys and gals to come? If I remember correctly, Spardi Gras dances of the past always have welcomed stags.

One of the unattached students.

CASTLE PITCHES ONE HIT GAME BUT LOSES, 8-7

Bud Castle, Theta Mu Sigma softball pitcher, lost his second one-hit game of the season yesterday when Gamma Phi Sigma scored two runs in the seventh to beat his team, 8-7. Beta Chi was beaten by APO, 15-2, in the other fraternity game. Jackson's Sluggers beat the Newman club, 6-2, in the only Spartan Daily league game.

Today, Happy Chandler's Fugitives will battle the Police school in the only game scheduled for the San Carlos athletic field. The two teams were supposed to play yesterday, but the game was postponed until today.

APO will battle SGO, and DSG will play Tri Gamma in Fraternity league games scheduled for Wednesday. The schedule published in yesterday's paper showed the Jackson's Sluggers playing the Newman club Monday, May 19, but Jackson's team will play the 357 team on that date.

Beta Chi's defeat was their first loss of the season. APO had a big inning in the fifth when they scored nine runs to add to their previous six scores.

Wayne Krouskup, of Spartan baseball fame, led Jackson's team in hitting in the Daily league game as he collected three hits in the contest. Bud Castle was on the mound for the Sluggers and allowed the Newman club three hits.

The Sluggers scored four runs in the first and two in the fourth for their scores. The Newman club scored their only runs in the fourth inning.

JV'S AND BELLS VIE IN LOCAL OVAL

San Jose State college junior varsity trackmen will attempt to make it three victories in a row, tomorrow afternoon on the Spartan oval when they meet Bellarmine's track squad, according to Coaches Woody Linn and Vern Cooley.

The Bells are reputed to have a good squad. They have a good distance man in Eric Pedley, who runs the mile. Pedley has been unbeaten in the mile the past two years.

Depth is the Spartans' strong point. This is especially true in the field events.

There is a possibility that the JV thinclads may meet the Stanford junior varsity trackmen in the near future.

SPARTAN TRACKMEN FAVORED TO TAKE SECOND BEHIND USC IN FRESNO'S RELAY CARNIVAL

By WILBUR AGEE

Coach Bud Winter had his spikers on the cinderpaths of Spartan field last night working out in preparation for the coming West Coast relays in Fresno this Saturday. The meet is one of the biggest in the United States and is the top contest on the Pacific coast each year.

The Spartans, after their very impressive showing in the conference meet last Saturday in Ratcliffe stadium, rank at the top in the meet. However, the University of Southern California is the favorite to take top honors leaving San Jose State college in second spot.

SPARTAN DAILY

SPORTS

MITMEN REPLAY IS CANCELLED

The Spartan baseball team will not replay a rained out twin bill with San Diego State on May 19, announced Coach Walt McPherson yesterday. San Jose State finished second in the CCAA with 11 wins and five defeats.

The Aztecs have four remaining games on their schedule with COP. The first doubleheader will be played on May 17 at Stockton and the second twin bill will be played on May 24 in the border city. San Diego has a record of 13 wins and one loss in conference play.

San Jose finished the season with three wins over Cal Poly, COP, and Fresno State. They defeated San Diego and Santa Barbara each once. Their defeats were by each conference team, namely, San Diego, Santa Barbara, Fresno State, COP, and Cal Poly.

In non-conference competition, the Spartans beat St. Mary's, USF, San Francisco State, and the San Diego Marine Base, twice. Their defeats were by the Gaels, Stanford, University of California, USF, and San Francisco State.

Three players of this year's team will graduate this year. They are: Jim Wilson, catcher; Wayne Krouskup, second base; and Captain George Smith, third base. Roy Duarte probably will not be back as he is transferring to another school.

K. B. COFFIN TALKS

The time, 9:15 p.m.; the place, Morris Dalley auditorium; the girl, Francine Harpole. The occasion of course, is Beta Gamma Chi's and Theta Mu Sigma's rally for their queen candidate.

Coach Winter will send his Spartans to the start of the 440 and 880 yard sprint relays, the mile and possibly the two mile relay, and the distance medley relay.

In the open races, Coach Winter will enter Jack Passey in the high hurdles and Don Smalley, winner of both the 100 yard and 220 yard sprints last Saturday, in the 100 sprint. A possible last minute entry in the 100 may be Bob Bingham.

In the field events, San Jose will be represented in the javelin throw by Bob Likens and Elwood Clark; in the shot-put by Woody Linn; in the discus throw by Linn, who has the best mark on the coast this year at 156 feet 2 inches, Ray Overhouse and Grant Denmark, Linn's backer uppers in the platter toss; in the broad jump by Tom Birmingham, Bill Schemmel and Bob Erhman; in the high jump by Ivan Robinson; and in the pole vault by Howard Overhouse.

IMPROVED SCORING

A break for the collegians came when it was announced as a possibility that a new scoring system will be used. The system is designed to score entrants from the club teams and those unattached on a separate basis from the college and university competitors. If used it will a much better way as the club teams are always exceedingly strong in the field events.

USC ranks the favorites in the mile, two mile relay and possibly the distance medley relay relying on the efforts of Roland Sink, their crack miler. However, Sink may be out for the rest of the season due to an injury received in practice last week, which kept him out of the USC-California dual meet.

COULD SURPRISE

In the sprint relays San Jose could pull the upset with Smalley, Bingham, Billy Rhyne and either Bill Parton or Steve O'Meara running. However, the Trojans will go all out to take the races by building some sprinters out of their low hurdlers to back up Mel Patton, outstanding sprinter. This could pay off in the 880 yard relay but may not in the quarter mile relay.

In the distance medley relay the Spartans have Theino Knowles, Gene Haynes, Murray Collins and Fred Mangini or Lowell Nash. Merle Knox could team with Knowles, Seymour or Haynes, and Collins for the two mile if the Spartans decide to enter it.
