"MY SISTER EILEEN" GETS BATH

Culminating weeks of hard work, the set for "My Sister Eileen" is completed, said J. Wendell Johnson, assistant professor of Speech and designer of the set. The stage is ready for the famous comedy by Fields and Chodorov which will start its five-night run Thursday in the Little Theater at 8:15 p.m.

"The set will be a realistic interior of a dilapidated tenement building in New York City," explained Johnson. He has realistically tried to capture the atmosphere of life in a Greenwich Village apartment. Johnson stated that he drew up the blueprints, then gave them to James Lioi of the Speech department.

"I do a little of everything," said Lioi. He explained that he takes the blueprints of the set designed by Johnson and together with members of his four Theater Workshop classes, builds the set. He is also in charge of getting the props for the set.

"One of the most difficult props to secure was a bathtub," said Lioi. "But one of the girls in my class, Betty Rehorst, remembered she had an old bathtub in her back yard." Lioi said that after removing a number of black widow spiders from the tub, it is now on stage and ready for the production.

BOB CULP HEADS FRESHMAN GROUP

Freshmen interested in participating in clubs composed of new students are invited to attend a party free of charge tomorrow evening in room A1 in the Art wing, said Bob Culp, freshman leader, yesterday.

Freshman clubs and groups are sponsored by the Student Y with the aim of helping new Spartans engage in activities and work along fields in which they are interested.

The party will be held after the rally tomorrow. School clothes is the prescribed dress and no beforehand reservations are necessary.

Bob Culp remarked, "Freshmen may dance and enter into games. Refreshments will be served."

Other leaders in lower division activities are: Leah Keller, Bob Keller, and Ann Corwin.

SPARTANS PREP ON COP PLAYS

By BUD SCHULTZ

Drilling on a rain swept field the Spartans yesterday concentrated on defenses against COP pass and trap plays.

With Quarterbacks Jim Jackson, Chuck Hughes and Bill Perry alternating in the role of the Tigers' passing star, Eddie LeBaron, Spartan linemen broke through time after time to spoil their efforts.

Coach Bill Hubbard appeared pleased by the alertness of his linemen and defensive backs and indicated that his defense against the COP aerials will be to rush the passer.

The strong Spartan line, which has been a big factor in San Jose's lop-sided victories over their first

CLOTHING DRIVE NEARS CLOSE

Malcolm Carpenter, Student Y head, reports that nearly 350 pounds of clothing have been contributed by students.

The Student Y is sponsoring the present clothing drive, scheduled to end tomorrow afternoon. Barrels in which clothing may be placed have been placed about the campus.

Student Y members promise to call at any boarding house or dormitory if students will call Col. 9654-W.

"Greatly needed" are winter clothing and shoes that will reach Asia and Europe this year before the severe winter sets in," claims Carpenter.

O.T. STUDENTS ATTEND MEETING

Miss Mary D. Booth, assistant professor of Occupational Therapy, and two of her students, Barbara White and Barbara Stockholm, will attend the national convention of the American Occupational Therapy Association in Coronado, California, November 1 to 7.

Miss Booth made the announcement. She will be on the Board of Managers of the association at this convention. In addition, the O. T. instructor will represent the Northern California branch of the organization at the convention.

At the last meeting of the Occupational Therapy club Thursday night Miss Jane Myers, chief occupational therapist in the Veterans' Administration, spoke to the O. T. majors of San Jose State college.

WALKER HEADS SJS DELEGATION

Bill Walker, president, led a delegation of ten members of Gamma Beta chapter of an Alpha Phi Omega regional conference last week end.

The San Jose State college men, along with delegates from San Diego State college, Santa Barbara, and the University of California and UCLA, met Saturday evening and Sunday morning to discuss details of the service projects carried on at the different schools, and ways to improve these projects.

"We also spent some time on the fellowship and social events in which we, as a service organization, should participate," said Walker.

Sidney B. North, national secretary, and George Lamb, president of the UCLA chapter, presided, while Carl J. Carlsen of the A-Phi-O National Executive board was guest of honor.

Others from San Jose State college who attended the convention include Don Burton, Bill Jensen, Ray Sommer, Stan Keller, Bill Lundy, Al Taylor, Glen Eglinton, and Mel Swenson.

two conference opponents will be considerably weakened for Friday night's tilt with the College of Pacific.

Hubbard will have only three experienced tackles ready for the contest, the two regulars, Jack Faulk and Val Marchi, and Marshall DeBisschop. Faulk and Marchi will be playing on game legs and should one or both be sidelined during the game, inexperienced

GIRL SCOUT GROUP PLANS BARBECUE

At a recent meeting the San Jose State college Girl Scout group discussed plans for a barbecue to be held November 13, according to Mrs. Lila Mann, field director for the Girl Scouts. The barbecue will be held in sponsor Mrs. Grace Aldrich's home and will be informal.

The purpose of the group is to carry on such worthy projects as helping in veterans' hospitals and other community affairs. Mrs. Mann also states that plans for a party for veterans in the Palo Alto veterans' hospital will be discussed at the next meeting.

COUNCIL PLANS NEW CO-ED GROUP

Interested Spartans may attend the first meeting of the steering committee for a co-educational recreation program tomorrow evening, 7:30 o'clock, room 24, invites Hal Riddle, Student Council representative.

The program is being instituted on campus by the Student Council. A permanent executive committee will be elected and plans will be formulated for the winter quarter at this meeting.

Barbecues, skating parties, bowling, and other activities will be included under this plan designed to permit use of facilities in the P. E. departments.

Miss Moore and Mr. Walt Williams are advisors.

FACULTY TEA

A tea tomorrow in the Faculty tea room in the Home Economics building will be the first in a series of faculty get-togethers this quarter, announces Margaret C. Letzter, associate professor of Speech and faculty social committee chairman.

SPARTAN ENTERTAINERS TO PERFORM AT COP RALLY THIS EVENING

A cast of nearly 50 Spartans will travel to the College of Pacific campus tonight to perform their half of the annual exchange rally, announces Ray Bishop, master of ceremonies for the troupe.

Leading the delegation of Tigers to entertain the Washington Square students will be Ralph Guild, Rally committee chairman from the Stockton school. This rally will begin at 7:30 p.m. in Morris Dalley auditorium, states Rally Publicity Man Armen Hanzad. Hanzad also asks students to bear in mind that on Thursday night they may see the same show which plays for COP tonight.

The cast traveling to Stockton, many of whom are members of the newly formed Spartan Caravan, was announced by Bishop as follows: Don Brown, Betty Louthan, Nadine Jensen, Shirley Tallman, Tommy Pratt and his orchestra, Fred Ross, Bill Ellsworth, Phil Curtis, Edna Wheeler, Bob Tobin, Barbara Heffner, and Bishop.

Also Yell Leaders Bob Barron, Hubert Thornber, and Glen Stewart; Song Girls Barbara Rodenborn, Ann Corwin, and Shirley Hankins; 15 members of the marching band, plus Drum Major Jette Pauline Deardorff and baton twirler Bof Reid.

An auto caravan, led by a school bus, will provide transportation for the entertainers, informed Hanzad.

SOPH-FROSH MIXER ACTIVITIES POSTPONED

The Fresh-Soph mixer activities which were cancelled yesterday because of rain will be held at a later date, announces Al Pinard of the Sophomore class.

These activities include women's softball and mixed volleyball.

Since the outcome of the tug-of-war was disputed yesterday, this event also will be held again, with a Student Court justice as judge, says Pinard.

The Sophomores won men's basketball with a score of 54-41, gaining 25 points. At press time last night, the Freshmen were leading in attendance at the dance. The winner of this event will receive 100 points. The score is computed on a competitive basis of attendance.

The winner of the mixer will receive a plaque which goes to the winning class each quarter.

FRESHMAN GROUPS ELECT LEADERS

Members of the three freshman groups selected temporary officers in their group meetings Wednesday and Thursday, announces Milton Lanyon, advisor of the freshman class.

Officers for Group A which meets Wednesday at 11:30 in room A1 are Dave Popp, president; Pat Hocking, vice-president; Dot Bolton, secretary.

Group B officers are as follows: Bob Smith, president; Ted Richmond, vice-president; Nancy Etherton, secretary. This group meets on Thursday at 9:30 a.m. in the Morris Dalley auditorium.

The following students will serve as officers for Group C which meets in the Morris Dalley auditorium at 1:30 p.m. on Thursday: Tom Burch, president; Jack Cook, vice-president; Florence Gustafson, secretary.

KAPPA KARNIVAL NOVEMBER 7

Pat Griffin, general chairman of "La Fiesta," theme of this year's Kappa Karnival, has announced a list of leaders who will supervise the McFadden Health Cottage benefit event.

"La Fiesta" will be held in the Men's gym on November 7 from 8 to 12 p.m. Admission to the "carnival grounds" is set at 14 cents.

Assisting the chairman will be Barbara Cakebread, in charge of construction; Marge Albright, decorations; Lenore Curtice, costumes for the Kappa members; Nadine Jansen will plan entertainment.

Shirley Reagan will be chief ticket seller; Nancy Talbot is publicity director; Bette Davis will manage clean-up; and Doris Brothers will be in charge of prizes. Food in the Spanish mood will be sold under the direction of Gerry Faber.

PSYCHOLOGY CLUB

The Psychology club will hold its first "Funfest Meeting" Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Student Center. President Malby Roberts invites all majors and minors in the field of psychology to attend.

MEET THE BRAZILIAN NAVY! — Joan Buechner leads a conga line in a scene from the comedy "My Sister Eileen," opening to-

Lickwar, Vic Viviano, Ronald Sego, Bob Barmettler, and Harold Upson. For more of the same and Roxana Hildreth, just turn page.

GI Captor Eligible For $100 Bill

There's a $100 bill waiting for the GI who can prove he captured the first German prisoner in World War II, according to an American Legion release.

The offer is being made by Captain George H. Mains, one of the founders of the American Legion and editor of the Army and Navy Union News in New York City.

Veterans who think they have a claim on the award can send their story to Colonel Lawrence H. Whiting, national president of the Society of American Legion Founders, 656 North Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, Illinois. Whiting will present all claims to the adjutant general of the U. S. Army for checking against War Department records. The $100 will go to the man whose records show he is entitled to it.

The award will be presented to the winner at the next meeting of the Founder's Society at the 1948 national convention of the American Legion.

Meischke To Head Spartan Spinners

Fred Meischke is the new president of Spartan Spinners, college folk dance group. Other officers who were elected at the group's recent meeting include Ruth Mortenson, vice president; Lenore Statts, secretary; Les Ferguson, and Joan Polek, publicity.

"Spartan Spinners have traveled all over the bay area to various folk dance festivals which are sponsored by the California Folk Dance federation," reports Mrs. Sarah Wilson, adviser.

They are planning to take a bus up to the coming festival in San Francisco next month.

The group meets every Tuesday night at 8:30 in the Women's gym. Meischke invites all interested men and women to attend.

Thrust And Parry HATS OFF

Dear Thrust and Parry:

Why should we women students show more respect to the Spartan hymn than we do for the Star Spangled Banner?

We don't take off our hats and gently put them over our hearts when the American flag goes by. Where are our values?

Dill, Collar, Hamlin Head APO Barn Hop

Murray Dill, Dan Collar, and Ernie Hamlin form the dance committee for the annual Alpha Pi Omega Hay Loft Hop to be held November 14 at Napredak hall, according to John Boldemann, president.

Music by the Cornhuskers will be featured at the barn dance which will continue from 9 to 1. Napredak hall is located on Lawrence Road, Cupertino.

APO has held two smokers this quarter, entertaining 17 guests at each one, Boldemann said. Jack Faulds and Derrel Bond have been named co-pledge captains. The organization has been practicing football in preparation for the coming Inter-Fraternity league.

New officers for APO include: Kenneth Caspar, vice president; Frank Butterfield, secretary; Bruce Craig, treasurer; Robert Schatz, sports; Robert Guenther, social; James Sheridan, scholarship; Derrel Bond; Dill, barn dance.

Ed Office Reports Dr. Willey Ill

Latest victim of the Education department's plague of flu, severe colds, and general ill health is Dr. Roy D. Willey who has been confined to his home all week with a case of flu, according to Miss Roberta Armstrong, education office secretary.

The list of previous absentees includes Dr. William G. Sweeney, Miss Mabel G. Crumby, and Dr. Carl H. Rich. Dr. Rich managed to attend his classes but otherwise was not available, whereas Dr. Sweeney and Miss Crumby remained at home for a few days, revealed Miss Armstrong.

Many other members of the department have suffered ill health, but not severe enough to warrant absence, stated Miss Armstrong.

DYNAMIC BILL

Dynamic William "Bill" Logan, selected to be student prosecuting attorney by a white ballot in the recent nominations, refuses to go overboard in making campaign promises.

Rather than gaining recognition by the common-place publicity blasts, he hopes to be remembered for doing a good job in office.

Logan is a pre-legal student here and following graduation plans a transfer to Santa Clara for his degree in law.

OH, MY ACHIN' BACK

"... There's a strange click-clack in the back of my sacroiliac." This was the song sung recently by Joan Buechner, speech and drama major.

During rehearsals for "My Sister Eileen," Joan let her dancing ability run away with her acting talents. In the second act, the script calls for Joan, in the role of Eileen, to lead six Brazilian Navy men in the conga. In doing so, one of her vertebrae slipped out of place.

"Oh, my achin' back!"

Georgia Bulloch, Marilyn Ferguson, Barbara Kennedy, Marilyn Norton, and Betty Young were formally initiated into Sappho society Sunday evening at Sappho house.

POLICE CHIEF PRAISES SCHOOLS AS INVALUABLE BACKGROUND

By WES PEYTON

Recent public trends to demand an increasingly higher degree of competence from police officers is rapidly developing law enforcement into a full-fledged profession and bringing police schools, such as San Jose State college's, into marked prominence, Chief of Police Ray J. Blackmore declared yesterday.

"The only thing that has held back law enforcement's development as a profession in the past has been the attitude of the men in it. Schools such as the one maintained at San Jose State college are doing much to change this," Blackmore added.

The day of the cop who settled down on the public payroll, secure in his civil service status, to vegetate, is past, Blackmore feels. The peace officer of the present and future must be filled with imagination and sensitivity. "Modern techniques of investigation can be taught in schools, but some persons are just 'born cops.' They must be sensitive to falsehood and have the ability to imagine situations and the workings of a criminal mind. They must have patience, too.

"No school can teach this; neither can 20 years on a police force. It's just something that experience will develop and sharpen for the individual... if he has it," the Chief explained.

For the alert, imaginative and patient officer who seeks to make a professional career of police work, Blackmore admitted that a Police School and general college background is invaluable.

"As I said before, if a man is willing to work and grow up in the service, to learn the city, what its people want and need, what their attitudes are toward criminal behavior, and to gain a technical competence in college as well, then there is no limit for him in the law enforcement field."

Blackmore was full of praise for the work carried on at SJS by Willard E. Schmidt, Police School head.

"While I've never worked with Schmidt, all reports I've had of him have been most favorable," the Chief declared.

When the school opened first several years ago, Blackmore, who joined the force in 1929 and worked his way up through the ranks to Captain of Detectives and later Chief of Police, enrolled for one or two courses.

"They were mighty effective, too," he recalls.

The Chief also recalls a more recent incident — last Spring's Spardi Gras, when he and Fire Chief Lester A. O'Brien and City Manager O. W. Campbell were called upon to judge booths.

"There is absolutely no foundation to the rumor that we awarded first prize to the Engineer's Kiss-o-meter because of the practical demonstration given us by the Queen, Dorothy Burselon.

"It was a case of pure merit," emphasized Blackmore, "yes, sir, pure merit."

'Someone Is Bursting Out Of Mist'... Reports Play By Play Announcer

By BOB BODEN

One of the most unusual play by play radio broadcasts ever to crackle over the air waves of KSJO was heard Saturday night as Spartan might crashed the Aztecs in fog-shrouded Balboa stadium, San Diego.

From high atop the "fog bowl," Bill Gramer, ace sports announcer, was almost as isolated as fans in San Jose when the southland oval was "zeroed in" early in the first half. In commenting on the situation, Gramer said, "This is something new for us—broadcasting play by play of a football game we can't see."

The field, as seen by radio rooters through the word picture of announcer Gramer, was, "The field, usually as bright as day, is a misty void completely shrouded in fog. The usually brilliant lights look like dim candles, which hardly seem to penetrate the fog."

Early in the second quarter, when San Diego booted from its 40 yard stripe, the radio play by play sounded something like this:

"It looks like San Diego punted. The ball has disappeared into the fog toward the Spartan goal. We can't see a player on the field. There, someone is bursting out of the mist. It looks like Bill Parton with the ball. He's breaking away down below us where we can see the two 40 yard markers and nothing else. He seems to be in the clear. He now has disappeared into the fog in Aztec territory. He's lost. A great yell just went up. We don't know what happened. It seems to be a touchdown by Parton, but we will have to send a runner to confirm that report."

That's the way the second Spartan score sounded to armchair quarterbacks in San Jose. In this case the old hidden ball trick seemed to have turned into a hidden team trick as ball and players continually sifted in and out of the fog blanket.

Michigan and Notre Dame somehow managed to survive the wave of upsets which hit the favored football elevens throughout the country this weekend. Even Army and UCLA were unexpectedly defeated. We picked Southern Methodist to trip the Bruins who were overrated teams in the Pacific Coast conference.

Also our choice, USC whacked the Golden Bears of California and ended their dreams of representing the west in the Rose Bowl. We, however, slipped up on Army and Michigan State who were beaten by Columbia and Kentucky respectively by one point margins.

MONTANA AND IDAHO

The two doormats of the PCC certainly have caused plenty of headaches to their so-called big brothers. They have beaten Washington State and Stanford.

This week, San Jose State college and College of Pacific renew their traditional rivalry which dates back to 1898 when the two colleges were cross town rivals. The Spartans won the first contest 28-0. They also won last year 32-0. The Tigers this year feature Eddie LeBarron, 17 year old passing sensation, who will cause the locals plenty of trouble this Friday evening. The Tigers also will be seeking their first win since 1935.

FOGGY WEATHER

It really must have been foggy down in San Diego last Saturday. The announcer of the Spartan-Aztec game had a rough time during the first half and finally had to move down to the playing field. Five minutes had gone by before we knew who had scored the Spartan's third touchdown. The writers took a consensus of opinion on every play to determine who carried the ball.

WEEKLY PICK

In spite of last last week's upsets, we come out better than a 500% in our picks. For this week's best bets, we like San Jose over COP, California over UCLA, and Perry Moss of Illinois over Michigan. The Wolverines are due for a surprise before the season is over.

Other picks:

- USC over Washington.
- Santa Barbara over Cal Poly.
- Army over Washington and Lee.
- Maryland over West Virginia.
- Harvard over Rutgers.
- Denver over BYU.
- Alabama over Kentucky.
- Arkansas over Texas A&M.
- Holy Cross over Brown.
- Detroit over St. Mary's.
- Kansas over Kansas State.
- Mississippi over LSU.
- Notre Dame over Navy.
- Minnesota over Pittsburgh.
- Oklahoma over Iowa State.
- San Francisco over Santa Clara.
- Southern Methodist over Texas.
- Utah over Colorado.

TRIP SOUTHWARD WAS AN INTERESTING JOURNEY

By TOM BOWEN

"And out of the fog comes Billy Parton." Those were familiar words Saturday night in San Diego. The field was so foggy that spectators sitting in the stands at Balboa bowl were listening to a radio broadcast of the game.

The radio announcer left the usual comfortable press box in the first half and worked the game from the sidelines. Sports writers decided before the game started that the only place to cover the game was from the field. This writer accompanied by two other local writers ran up and down the field all night long trying to decide who was carrying the ball.

I am still wondering how Parton took the punt and rambled 90 yards for a Spartan score in the second quarter. He made a beautiful catch and aided with some terrific downfield blocking. he crossed into Aztec diagonal stripe territory standing up.

Climax of the 23 hour trip came when one of the busses hit a milk truck on the outskirts of the Border city. Up to this point, the tension was terrific. This minor accident started the contingent laughing. General opinion was that this was the turning point in the Spartan victory.

Line coach Bob Bronzan and Happy LeBee, San Jose trainer, worked all the way from Glendale taping ankles. The bus seemed more like a trainer's room than a bus.

I discovered some new talent on the way home. The Gold and White varsity has a good quartet in Herm Knupper, Marshall DeBisschop, Hal Phillips, and Val Marchi. DeBisschop is now "The Voice." Marchi is business manager of the quartet.

The quartet probably will appear next month at the Santa Cruz Venture Club's regular monthly meeting. However, the giant King City tackle stated that he looking for spots for the pigskin quartet.

Speaking of the Beach city club, I understand Sparta's football team was made honorary members of the club today. Hal Phillips was selected to take care of all social functions of the new members on the team's next day off which probably won't come until the end of the current football season. The members met the football team Sunday afternoon.

Clover "Spider" Cummings, local scribbler, had the best idea of the trip. He suggested the Spartan varsity take on the USC rooters Saturday morning on the Pismo Beach sand hills. This brainstorm came while the train was waiting for the tracks to be cleared. I believe that would have been some game.

In concluding, I believe the trip to the so-called Sunny Southland will be remembered for a long time on Washington Square.

MATMEN HAVE MEET WITH CAL

By PAUL VON HAFFTEN

The San Jose Varsity wrestling squad will meet the University of California mat team in the first pre-season meet here in the Men's gym November 14, according to Coach Ted Mumby.

There will also be junior varsity and for the first time since 1942 a freshman match with the Golden Bears.

Coach Mumby has lost but two men from last year's squad which won 11 and lost 6 matches. The men were Hans Weidenhofer and Bill Rodman.

The squad is also stronger in reserve power this year than they were last year. Coach Mumby's team is two deep in practically every position. The wrestlers are also strengthened by the return of Freddie Albright who won the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate 135 pound title in 1942.

Another veteran is Sam Lawson 155 pound grappler who won the coveted Roumasset wrestling trophy last year. Ray Miser, who was co-captain along with Hans Weidenhofer last year, is also back.

Coach Mumby has slated practice for the boys every day until after the meet with San Quentin in December. Other meets include Central YMCA of SF and the El Toro Marines.

Prospects for a strong freshman squad loom bright over the horizon as Coach Mumby has several promising good boys on this squad. The boys who look good include: E. J. Paramo, Jack Fourcade, Bob King, John Melendez, Jim Phillips, Don McGhee, Lynn Robey, Dick Angus, Bob Jansen, and Chuck Long.

Ray Miser, Leo Raiche, George Waxham, Hank Rosendin, Will Drew, 155; Bob Maynard, Ray Scoffone, Hank Imsen, Bill Elam, 165; Pat Felice, Phil Bray, Bob Levie, Bob Smith, Mario Valdastri, Jim Elliot, Roy Bridgman, 175; Keith Wilson, Keith Ball, Don Lathrop, Herm Knupper, and Val Marchi, heavyweights.

Bill "Red" Lane, 6 foot, 180 lb. freshman tackle from Alameda high school, intends to become an architect when he graduates from college.

NATATORS MEET GOLDEN BEARS

By JOHN GOTHBERG

San Jose State college plays host to the University of California tonight when the local water poloists tangle with the Golden Bears in the State pool. The San Jose Frosh-Cal Frosh game gets underway at 8 p.m. while the varsity contest starts at 9.

This game marks the beginning of the second division of the San Jose schedule. In a contest with the Bears earlier in the season, the Spartans were edged out in a hard fought battle, 5-4.

Speaking about the Friday night game with the Olympic Club, Coach Charley Walker seemed very disappointed. He said that his varsity men made a continuous string of errors throughout the battle.

"The games we had played up to Friday night led me to believe that we would give the Olympic Club a close game," Walker asserted. "The varsity, however, was especially ragged with their passing and very weak team play Friday night. I only hope they can work together a lot better when we tangle with California."

The Spartan mentor was very pleased with the improvement displayed by the freshmen against the Olympic Club J-V's. He said that Lloyd Kidder played a good game at forward. He was also impressed with Tom Daly, who did a fine job at his new guard spot.

The guards, Tudor Bogart, Howard Ruweler, and Dave Thomson, played well against the Winged "O" varsity, Walker stated.

He showed signs of deep concern over the speedy backs and forwards that Cal will send in against the State team. Stan Morketter and Dale Webster, Golden Bear speedsters, are two of the fastest water polo players on the Coast. Walker says that he will try "Red" Foley, Dave Moore, and Wilmer Grass at the third forward position in an effort to find a man who can match the fast Cal forwards.

The Bears have a very strong team this fall. They have lost one game and that was to the powerful Olympic Club, 6-5.

SPARTANS PREP ON COP PLAYS

perienced men will have to fill their shoes.

Jake Kakuuchi, fiery guard, missed yesterday's practice but will be ready for the game with the Tigers.

Junior Morgan's defensive play sparkled. He spent most of the practice session in the offensive backfield, stopping many plays before they got started.

With the exception of the tackle positions, the Spartans appeared in excellent condition for the game which undoubtedly will settle the CCAA race.

X-RAYS TODAY

X-rays are being given today from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. to those entering students who have not had an x-ray with the Health department.

Influenza shots will be given at the Health office between 11:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. tomorrow.

TRI BETA TO MEET

Les McNeilly, Tri-Beta president, will speak to the group on "Imbedding Insects in Plastics" in room 207 of the Science building today (Wednesday) at 12:30, according to Dr. James P. Heath, club advisor.

Members of the organization are preparing talks on various scientific subjects to be presented at the meetings.

MILK helped build the ARMY FOOTBALL TEAM

WEST POINT—molder of men and military leaders—slants the rigid training of all cadets toward health and physical fitness. Every cadet participates in some type of sport, constantly developing mental alertness and sound body, the first requirements for leadership.

Out of West Point has come one of the greatest football teams of all time, famous for its "touchdown twins" combination and undefeated in three years of play. MILK—nature's most nearly perfect food—helped build that team. It's a menu "must" on training tables throughout the Academy.

"Football players the world over, high school, college, or professional, are great milk drinkers and the cadets are no exception."

Quoted from an article entitled, "Blanchard and Davis, West Point's Touchdown Twins," which appeared in the March, 1947 issue of PHYSICAL CULTURE magazine.
