Betty Barbour, Benning Dexter Give War Stamp Concert Tomorrow Night; Phi Mu Alpha, Mu Phi Epsilon Sponsors

Miss Betty Barbour, violincellist, and Benning Dexter, pianist, will give a War Stamp concert tomorrow evening at 8:15 in the Little Theater.

Under the sponsorship of the Phi Mu Alpha and the Mu Phi Epsilon, honorary national music societies, it will be the first affair of its kind to be presented at San Jose State college.

General admission is a purchase at the door of one dollar or more in War Stamps. The student admission is a purchase of a twenty-five cent War Stamp at the door.

Miss Barbour is cellist of the Stanford Trio, and Dexter is the instructor on the music faculty of San Jose State. Together they have given recitals in New York, the Mid-West, and many in Northern and Central California. They have also appeared in Carmel, Santa Cruz, Berkeley, Palo Alto, San Jose, Salinas, and Pacific Grove.

Their recital tomorrow night will be their first on the campus during the regular session since 1940.

The program, which will be in two parts, will feature duets by Miss Barbour and Dexter, some piano solos by Dexter, and the Sonata in A minor for Piano and Violoncello by Grieg played by both.

Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, president of the college, has already reserved his ticket for the affair in advance by pledging a bond.

Spardi Gras Meeting Tonight

There will be a meeting of the Spardi Gras Costume committee tonight from 7-9 at 25 South Fifth street. Everyone is urged to come on time and to be prepared to sew. Committee members are:

KSJS Tryouts

Tryouts for this week's KSJS radio show will be held in room 155 at 4 o'clock today. Any student may try out for parts. Peter Mingrone of the Speech department directs the tryouts.

No previous radio experience is necessary for persons interested in taking parts in the show.

LAST DAY!!

All lists of names to be considered by the Student Council for Recognition Day must be in the B mail-box by 5 o'clock today, warned Mar Virginia Bristow.

On June 1, the Student Council will hold the annual Recognition assembly, a which time awards will be presented to students who have rendered outstanding or loyal service to the Associated Student body.

All recommendations will be considered at the Council meeting tomorrow night, but this does not necessarily mean that all will be accepted, said Miss Bristow.

FRENCH SOCIETY PRESENTS COMEDY WEDNESDAY NIGHT

"English As It Is Spoken," a fast-moving comedy, will be presented at the Hester Theater Wednesday evening by members of Iota Delta Phi, the French honorary society, announced Bea Champion, president.

Along with the play, "Pepe Le Moko," the French version of "Algiers," will be shown on the screen. Starring Jean Gabin, who has made one movie, "Moontide," it shows authentic views of the North African city.

The first showing of the movie will begin at 6:30. The play will then be presented, followed by another showing of the movie. The picture will have French dialogue but American titles.

Student admission to the entertainment is 20 cents a ticket.

The play concerns the exploits of a young American girl (Margaret Moeck) who elopes to France with a young Frenchman (Dr. Boris Gregory) and their pursuit by the girl's mother (Bea Champion).

Sotzin Attends Meet Tomorrow

Spring meeting of the California Guidance association, to be held tomorrow at the St. Francis hotel in San Francisco, will be attended by Dr. Heber A. Sotzin, Industrial Arts department head.

The California group is a branch of the American Vocational Guidance association.

Twenty-Six Males Now Sporting Zoot Haircuts

Friday's carry-over from what has been termed one of the biggest displays of class spirit seen around the campus in recent months found Bill Payne and Lillo Marcucci, sophomores, and Izzy Gold, senior, given the popular "super-zoot haircuts."

Climaxed Thursday night by the lowerclassmen-crashing of the junior-senior picnic and their subsequent trimming, the inter-class battle began two weeks ago with the shearing of Tom Marshall, Hank Imsen and Al Connor, sophomores punished for breaking up the frosh party.

On the same night, Tom Kerr, junior, got the latest in hair-cuts when he crashed the sophomore party.

Thursday night's upperclass picnic at Alum Rock park was interrupted by the appearance of a number of first and second year men, identified by strips of adhesive tape on their foreheads.

Junior and senior lookouts at all corners of the park reported the arrival of the lowerclassmen in more than half a dozen cars, which were later driven off the main road into a gully by two seniors and two juniors.

"We've Had Our Fun - - Now Let's Quit," Says Taylor About Haircuts

The following message regarding the recent haircutting on campus has been issued by Student Body President Tom Taylor:

"All right, fellas, we've had our fun. Now let's call it quits. The fun is over, and there is no need to keep it up. A few of us have lost some, if not all, our hair. Before someone is hurt and we have trouble on our hands, let's call a truce.

"After all, we are reservists and serving Uncle Sam in a month or so, and we don't want to start our military careers with a black mark after our names (or no hair on our heads)! So what do you say . . . haven't you had enough? "Settle down and get back to work. It'll be tough, but you can continue to have a good time . . . just calm down. Make the most of these last few days. They'll never come back to us."

ASB Council, Judge, Yell Leaders Up For Election From 8-5 Today; Three Amendments Also On Ballot

Copies Of Constitution To Be Placed In Polling Booths

San Jose State college students will elect seven councilmen, a Student Court judge, and two yell leaders at a Student Body election today.

While at the polls, open from 8 to 5, the students will also vote on three amendments to the constitution.

Posters urging students to vote have been placed at various spots around the campus by the Student council.

Seven of the following 10 candidates will be elected to the Student council: Ken Coleman, Sebastian "Scrappy" Squatrito, Jean McInnes, Jane Reed, Jeanette Owen, Mary Lou Montgomery, Claire Laws, Elsa Anderson, Kay Dorris, and Jeanne Wright.

Students will choose between Tom Hosley and Evan Jelsick for the male judgeship on the Student Court. No woman has been nominated to fill the other position.

"A woman will be appointed by the new council next quarter to fill this judgeship," explained President Tom Taylor.

Both candidates for yell leaders, Dolores Dolph and Harriet Calisch, will be elected. A third yell leader will be chosen by the council next quarter, according to Taylor.

Two of the proposed amendments to Articles IV and VII provide for a loosening of the rules for class and council elections, reading as follows: "The election shall be conducted in a manner to (Continued on page 4)

JAIL TERM FOR NON-COSTUMED REVELERS - - GIRE

"All offenders convicted of not wearing costumes on Spardi Gras day are just asking for it," announces general chairman Orlyn Gire. Guilty Staters will be given capital punishment . . . a stiff jail sentence.

A fixture of every Spardi Gras for the last 14 years, the jail will be constructed in the quad and will hold non-costume wearers. While incarcerated, the criminals will be given various working-overs. Heading the list of punishments will be the traditional "Electric Chair." "You'll be shocked by the jailers," jested Gire.

On the other hand, many prizes are offered for the wearing of costumes. Best large groups, the cleverest small group, and best individual costumes will all receive awards according to contest chairman Ron Hadley. All are free to enter with no restrictions being placed.

With the great day but 12 days off, plans are being rushed to make this, the last Spardi Gras for the duration for most of the male populace, a day of fun to be remembered. In honor of departing reservists, many of the day's activities will center around a military theme.

At the weekly meeting of the Spardi Gras committee held in the Student Union Friday, the various chairmen reported progress, and all indications point toward a big day. Twenty-one groups have signed up for concessions. Construction of booths will be carried out by the Spartan Knights.

Nursing Society Elects Officers

New president for Pi Nu Sigma, pre-nursing society, is Harriet Dickerman, it was announced Friday.

Barbara Smith is vice-president, and Ruth Kilpatrick is secretary-treasurer.

Health Notice

The following students are requested to report to the Health office at noon today for tuberculin tests:

Women Workers Needed At Air Field

From the United States Civil Service for civilian personnel at McClellan field has come notice that there are vacancies for women workers at the field in maintenance and repair of airplanes.

Positions available may be permanent or during the summer vacation only. Pay is $1600 per year.

Miss Janet Clark of the Personnel department at McClellan field will be on the campus today to interview college women who are interested in applying for the jobs.

Any questions that may arise may be answered by Miss Clark. She will be in Dean Helen Dimmick's office from 10:30 to 12:00.

Organized for 11 years, Iota Delta Phi, French honorary society, has entertained students at San Jose in various French plays.

The organization is for French majors and minors who need high scholastic standing to be pledges. The membership is limited to 20 students. It was started in February, 1932, by four charter members.

Meetings have been held every Monday, including the summer months, for the 11 years it has been in existence. French is the only language spoken during the meetings. The plays that the Iota Delta has given are Madame Sans Gene, in 1935; Tovarich, in 1938; Topaze, in 1940; L'Heure H, in 1941; Cote d'Azur, in 1942, and this year they are presenting a one-act play to be given at the Hester theater.

When the Iota Delta's are not practicing for plays, they enjoy themselves bike riding and visiting San Francisco's French operas, movies, concerts and plays. Due to war conditions most of their recent activities must be given in San Jose.

After their formal initiations it is their custom to eat at a French restaurant. The co-eds of the society have knitted squares for the Red Cross. A scrap-book is kept by the society on all the activities they have participated in since the organization began.

The Iota Delta's are well recognized in California. Each year they have received from the Republic French government a medal to be given to the best graduating French major. San Jose State college is one of the few on the west coast to receive this medal.

FROM HUNGER

By Tom Marshall

Things have certainly been popping on good ole Washington Square of late. Popping—that's Liechtansteinian for: Oh, look at the non-conformist; he's got hair.

If things keep up the way they have been, State is going to have to take out a charter as a barber's college. We used to be accustomed to seeing fellows running around with slide rules strapped to their sides; now the customary weapon is a sheep-shearing outfit.

Read in the local paper last week of one of the leading ranchers being elected "prune head." Gives me an idea for a new Spardi Gras contest. Besides the King election, let's elect the Skin Head of 1943. Only thing is, I wouldn't stand a very good chance; my hair must be at least a quarter of an inch long. Just call me long hair. In fact, next to some of our hairless friends, I look like I'm sporting a Hollywood job.

Went to the frosh Gals Grab Saturday night. Gals Grab—that's Tannutavian for: Quick! Send for the smelling salts. She paid the bill and Marshall fainted. What a unique situation of having your date make all of the arrangements. In fact, what a unique situation having a date. War does horrible things to gals; they'll even get hysterical enough to go out with me.

Went quadruple date. You all know what a quadruple date is. That's when the gals get together and decide there's greater safety in numbers. Didn't mind my gal saying that I was a wolf, but when she brought along a drooling cup for me so that I wouldn't ruin my shirt, that was too much.

The dance was held in the Men's gym. Why doesn't someone tell the team that basketball season is over. About the time I'd get the kinks out of my legs and settle down to some solid toe-mashing, one of the boys would dribble by and sink a basket from 20 feet out.

Have perfected a new style of dance; now she steps on my feet. Gal friend said my dancing was a little old fashioned. Daddy, what does minuet mean?

EIGHT-MAN SAN JOSE ENTRY SCORES TOTAL OF 23 POINTS IN ANNUAL CINDER ATTRACTION; HORN, VEREGGE, COLLIER CAPTURE FIRST PLACES

By JOHNNY HUBBARD
With only an eight-man team, San Jose State's tracksters rolled up 23 points to take third place behind Fresno State and College of Pacific in the Modesto Invitational meet in the valley city Saturday.

The Spartans, although heavily outnumbered as far as manpower was concerned, managed to make their octet do double duty work in amassing the points necessary to give them a respectable place in the final standings.

HORN INJURED

Sobering note of the afternoon's activities was a pulled muscle suffered by ace sprint man Kenny Horn just after he crossed the finish line in the 220. Horn won the race in the good time of 22.1 seconds, but fell just as he cracked the tape, and skidded along the track, skinning his leg badly, besides injuring a muscle.

In all probabilities he will be out for the rest of the season, and in any event will not be able to run next week in the Fresno Relays, where his absence will put a big hole in San Jose's chances for a team victory.

As far as individual performances are concerned, the Spartans collected only two first places in the open meet, Horn's in the 220, and Veregge's in the low hurdles.

After disposing of Fresno's Jack Pattee in the lows, beating him to the finish line by a good ten yards, Veregge had the tables turned on him in the 120-yard highs, as Pattee took first place five yards ahead of him.

At that, Veregge was clocked in his fastest time of the season, 14.9 seconds.

COLLIER PLACES

Floyd Collier got a first and a second in the junior college part of the meet, winning the discus event with a heave of 127 feet 8 inches, and setting a mark of 175 feet 7 inches, his best distance of the year, in the javelin to take the runner-up spot there.

In the open meet's javelin throw event, San Jose scored a "hypothetical" clean sweep, hypothetical because Dierker, who won the contest, was a former Spartan student, with Elwood Clark second and Vern Cooley third. Clark was only three feet behind Dierker's best effort, with 175 feet 7 inches, another best of the season, and Cooley wasn't too far away from that place, sending the spear out four inches better than 170 feet.

OTHER POINT-GETTERS

Other point-getters for San Jose were Karl Hummel, who took a fourth in the 880-yard run; Vic Cerro, who leaped into a third place tie in the high jump; and Jimmy Johnson, who grabbed off another third in the broad jump.

Cerro's high jump mark was 5 feet 6 inches, and Johnson's broad jump effort was 20 feet 9 inches.

San Jose's relay foursome, a makeshift outfit if there ever was one, composed of Jimmy Johnson, Karl Hummel, Vic Cerro, and Bud Veregge (the only authentic short distance sprinter of the bunch) managed to stagger their way into third place due to the fact that there were only two other teams running.

Fresno State won the relay, with College of Pacific second.

FRESNO RELAYS NEXT

Next on the Spartan track team's list of activities is the Fresno Relays, which will be held in the Raisin City on Saturday.

Following the meet in Fresno, San Jose will wind up its season at Berkeley where they will participate in the PAA championships on May 29.

OUT OF THE HUDDLE

By CHARLES COOK
Sports Editor

Now that Dean Pitman has sheathed his sword and the pros have continued their "hold out" silence, we can again concentrate on the softball league that is still a-borning. Up to this point the league has been largely in the talking stage. For some reason or another not many departments or individuals seem interested in forming a softball team.

Yesterday, however, the great man himself, Cy "Talented" Taylor, turned in his roster and issued a challenge to all other departments. Cy has a line-up composed of commerce majors. That is, all his players are commerce majors with the exception of his hurler.

Originally we had ruled that all participants must be in the same department, but Taylor raised such a howl that we were forced to make this one exception. The voluble Cy calls his pitcher the greatest hurler and the greatest drawing card yet to appear on the San Carlos turf. As we understand it, Taylor's pitcher possesses a lot of speed, a neat change of pace, plenty of stamina, and above all else, a wicked assortment of curves. Now that seemed to be some buildup for just another ball player, but we were forced to agree with Cy once we met his hurler. Shades and bejabbers, it was a gal—Arilee Hansen, no less!

So with his feminine fireballer as the main attraction, Taylor has issued a blanket challenge to all other departments. He is particularly interested in taking the measure of the Signal Corps softball teams. If any men are interested in entering a team in the league, they should get their entries in at once. League play will start the latter part of this week and no entries will be accepted after play has commenced.

Intra-Squad Tennis Matches End As Parnay And San Filippo Win From Chang And Thorne In Final Match

In the final match of the intra-squad affair between the upperclassmen and the lowerclassmen, Dave Parnay and Frank San Filippo threw the blocks to Ray Chang and Jim Thorne in a doubles event, 6-3, 7-5, Friday afternoon at the San Jose Tennis club.

The match was called a draw when both teams won three matches. San Filippo and Larry Hansen won singles matches for the lowerclassmen over Chang and Bill Walker, and captured their third win Friday to even the count.

Cyril Taylor and Jim Thorne trounced Parnay and Bert Landess for the singles wins of the upperclassmen, while Taylor and Walker were victorious over Hansen and Landess in the doubles match played earlier last week.

This was the last action of the year for the Bleshmen and, although they were an unknown quantity at the first of the season, they came through with flying colors to capture the conference crown and defeat every opponent they met at least once with the exception of the strong Stanford aggregation, to whom they dropped a hard-fought 3-6 decision.

COUNCIL CANDIDATES' PLATFORMS

Elsa Anderson

A position such as Student Council member is one requiring time, faith, and hard work. It's a problem of working for and with the students to the best advantage of all, and it's a serious one. I promise no drastic measures, but rather betterment through co-operation. I will do my best for you.

Jean McInnes

I deeply appreciate the honor bestowed upon me by being nominated for the Student Council. If elected I will do my utmost to fulfill the duties with the power bestowed upon me to the best of my ability. I will endeavor to serve you ably, honestly, and wholeheartedly.

Claire Laws

I have considered it an honor even to be nominated for the Student Council, and if the students can see it to entrust in me the duties of that office, I will really work hard to help keep the spirit and faith in State going for our student body on-campus and all over the world.

Mary L. Montgomery

Next year the management of student affairs will have a double purpose—to increase our war effort and to maintain our way of life as nearly as possible as it has been—not only for the students that are to come, but for those that have gone. It is to these principles I will devote my efforts if elected to the Student Council.

Kay Dorris

Next year I feel that the student body should concentrate on on-campus activities, and should strive to have a more truly representative student government with a larger percentage of the students actually taking part. Regardless of who is elected, I hope that San Jose Spartans will co-operate and join in having the best year of campus life that they have ever had.

Jeanne Wright

Elections are important! The Student Council will play a greater part than any other organization on-campus in the future. I'll try my hardest, if elected, to be a good representative of the student body.

Jeanette Owen

We all want to know about the future, especially about our future, our Washington Square, our Council. I'd like to answer this question, if I could; however, I realize that next year will be entirely different than ever before, and for you of next year, if elected, I'll do my very best.

"Scrappy" Squatrito

Having been around these parts for the past — years, and having served as Spartan Daily reporter on the council for the past two years, I believe I have enough of a foundation to cope with whatever changes may be expected next year. It's going to be tough, but I'll do what's expected of a Spartan Student Council member.

Ken Coleman

I consider it an honor to serve on the Student Council. If elected I will perform the duties of councilman honestly and to the best of my ability. I will always act according to the wishes of the majority, and I will NOT favor any one campus group or organization over another.

Jane Reed

In this war time, spirit is one of the most important things that is behind our fighting men. This also holds true in college. This spirit can be shown through our getting out and voting at campus elections, so let everyone get behind our school and show everyone that San Jose State has that undying spirit.

ASB Election

be prescribed by the Student Council."

In a similar vein, the proposed amendment to Article X reads: "Should at any time the total enrollment of men constitute less than one-third of the total enrollment in college, and no men seek election to the Court, the Student council may then fill the vacancy by the appointment of a woman."

Copies of the constitution will be placed in the election booths with the articles which may be changed encircled, according to Marvin Zemanek, election judge.

Today's election will be followed Friday by the election of an ASB president and vice-president. Any of the seven council members elected today, and who can fulfill the constitutional requirements, may run for one of the two offices.

Election rules forbid any posters or electioneering between the five main doors of the front corridors after the election has begun, according to Taylor.

Smock and Tam members: There will be a meeting today, Monday, in room A1 at 4:00. Please try to be there.

Eta Epsilon! Look in room 19 for picnic details. Sign up for donations. Don't miss the fun! See you at the picnic.

Zoot Haircuts For 26 Students

foreheads of two dozen uninvited guests were spotted on the road just above the clubhouse. Arms, legs, hair, and dust flew for almost an hour, until eleven of the shorn lowerclassmen were carried into the clubhouse for identification.

Two hours later, Derrell Bond, Buck Hay, Joe Di Maggio, Bob Abbott, Don Sorenson, and Harrison Brian were captured and given the "zoot cut."

Seniors Tom Taylor and Leon Fletcher got the zoot treatment Thursday night as well, bringing the total of free hair-cuts to 26. The remaining 11 include Bob Creighton, Walter Tubin, Dan Conforti, Swede Hensley, Delwyn Carlson, Johnnie Richardson, Don MacDowell, Jim Chinnici, Jack Lamp, Chuck Johnson, and Dick Cavello.

All La Torres have been sold, announces Barbara Kurz, editor. There will be no more of this year's available.

Pan-American League meeting, Thursday, May 20, room 20, at 5. Suggestions for new members; election of new officers. — Jeanette Manha, president.
