NAMES OF CANDIDATES FOR CARNIVAL QUEEN PLACED IN CO-OP TODAY

All names of candidates for the Queen of Spardi Gras must be in the coop box marked "D" by 1:30 o'clock today, announced Anna Mae Diffin, chairman of the contest.

Organizations may have individual rallies in the Quad starting May 8. They must sign up with Miss Muriel Clark in the President's office at 10 o'clock Monday if they wish to give a half hour rally. The rallies will take place between 12 and 12:30 or 12:30 and 1 o'clock throughout the week.

The stage and P. A. system will be furnished each organization. There will be a slight charge for the P. A. system. The money for this will be taken out of the organization's funds in the Business office.

CAMPAIGNING

Campaigning will start at 3 o'clock Monday morning. "Any posters put up before that time are out of bounds," warns Miss Diffin, "and constitutes a Student Court offense. Any sign once put up is to stay where the organization puts it," informs Chairman Diffin, "if they are removed that will also be a Student Court offense. Posters are not to be placed anywhere outside the Inner Quad."

WHISKERINO CONTEST

The following are those "rugged" Spartans who have signed for the Whiskerino contest and are now in the process of growing the heaviest or most novel beard:

17,000 See Cast Of 'Revelries' At Hunter Liggett

"Seventeen thousand G. I.'s thrilled at a show performed for them last Sunday at Hunter Liggett by part of the College Revelries cast," reported Dean Helen Dimmick who accompanied the cast. They left San Jose Sunday morning and returned after midnight.

The first show was given at 2:30 for 7000 men and another at 6 o'clock for 10,000 men. "Hunter Liggett is a rugged maneuver camp so our bit of feminine talent was thoroughly appreciated," said Jo Falcone, a member of the cast. In addition to the student show, the soldiers demonstrated some of their own talent.

The cast had lunch at the officer's mess and dinner in the field. The entertainment was so successful that the Salinas USO director requested more College shows, according to students who attended.

Soph Council Sponsors ASB Dance, Party

Spardi Gras plans were discussed at the sophomore council meeting on Tuesday and all sophomores interested in helping with the class booth were instructed to get in touch with council members.

President Milt Levy announced that the council has been invited to meet at the home of Dean of Women Helen Dimmick tonight at 7 o'clock. All those who are planning to attend should sign up on the sheet posted on the main bulletin board.

Preparations were started on the class beach party which has been tentatively planned for June 4. Also under discussion was the sophomore-sponsored ASB dance on June 3. Students appointed to the dance committee were Beverlee Greer, Jo Harrison, Beverly Lusardi, Gerry Stevens, Pat Dunlavy, Hugh Johnston, and Betty Lennon, all of whom will work on securing a band for the function, which is planned to be one of the major affairs of the quarter.

Bob Richter and Pat Cavanaugh were chosen as co-chairmen for the frosh-soph mixer, and are selecting their committee so that work can start in the near future.

Guest Speakers To Appear At CRC, SCA Joint Supper May 9

Two outstanding leaders will be the guests of the SCA and the CRC at their joint supper to be held on May 9 at 5:45 in the Varsity House.

Dr. Fiske, professor of philosophy at San Francisco State and the co-pastor of the Neighborhood church in San Francisco, and Mr. Roy Nichols, president of the student body at the Pacific School of Religion and pastor of the Berkeley Inter-racial church, will conduct a discussion with two students on "What's Right and What's Wrong with the Church?"

Tickets for the supper are 30 cents and may be obtained in the SCA office or from the following members of the cabinet: Bill Shapiro, Mary Margaret Thompson, Betty Peterson, Virginia Cook, Sadie Govier, Betty Ann Kelly, and Alicelee Freeman.

FROSH GIVE PARTY AT ALUM ROCK

Tomorrow is the day fun-minded freshmen and their guests will trek to Alum Rock Park for an evening of swimming, dancing, games, and community singing.

Starting from the Student Union at 4:30, the group will travel to the park by cars and take advantage of the warm weather and outdoor-sy atmosphere until 10 o'clock.

BRING FOOD

Picnickers are asked to bring their own food, as park food concessions are limited. Only item of expense for the affair is the admission to the pool, 35 cents with a suit, or 45 cents including suit rental. The pool will remain open until 9 o'clock.

Dancing will be to juke box music and Dick Fagerstrom will lead the community sing. Music for the community sing will be provided by accordian.

CARS NEEDED

"We want to remind anyone that can volunteer the use of a car to do so by contacting George Millas, transportation chairman, or by signing up on the bulletin board in front of the Morris Daily auditorium," states Jackie Popp, freshmen president. About eight cars are still needed.

Final plans will be formulated at a meeting of the council today at 12:30 in room 1 of the Art wing. (Continued on Page 2)

Art Society To Plan Spardi Gras Booth At Tuesday Meeting

Spardi Gras plans will be discussed at the meeting of Smoek and Tam, honorary art society, Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock in the Catholic Women's Center.

Members are asked to sign up on the bulletin board in the Art wing if they are planning to attend. Refreshments will be served by the committee headed by Suzanne Howard, aided by Pat Rhodes and Evangeline Pinoris.

Leola Conklin has been appointed Spardi Gras concession manager for the organization, and Lois Rowe is AWA representative.

President Audrey Levick urges all members to attend the meeting, as costumes will be decided upon by vote of the society members.

Ex-Spartanette, In WASPS, Visiting

Miss Virginia Crinklew, former Spartan, now a member of the WASPS, was on campus yesterday. This was her first return to the college since she entered the WASPS a year and a half ago.

"Miss Crinklew looked very smart in her uniform and she thoroughly enjoyed her visit yesterday," states Dean Helen Dimmick.

SPARTANS VOTE EN MASSE FOR 1945 AWA COUNCILORS

CANDIDATES WILL GOVERN SOCIAL, RECREATIONAL, SERVICE FUNCTIONS

"The turn-out of voters for the AWA elections was really great," states Bobbie Jones, AWA president. "It was good to see so many women students put their vote to use."

Five students were elected from the social group, five from the recreational groups and six were chosen from the service field. The total of 16 will make up the AWA council which will supervise women's activities for the next year. Regular officers are to be elected from the council by that governing group at a later date.

Those elected from the social group include Chickie Hayes, Pat Cavanaugh, Olga Popovich and Pat Dunleavy. Roberta Ramsay, Mary Hooton, June Robertson, June Storni, with a run-off between Claire Canaveri and Yvonne Welch will represent the recreation group. The service field is made up of Pat Dunleavy, Betty Doyse, Audrey Backenstoe, Betty Regan, Joan Ross, and Jo Ann O'Brien.

SPARTA BALL CLUB PLAYS MENLO NINE THIS AFTERNOON

Writing finsis to the 1944 season, Sparta's baseball team will meet Menlo Junior college in a return game to be played at Spartan field at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The Spartans defeated the jaycees 4 to 3 a week ago, and as a result will be favorites to topple the visitors again. Thus far this season, the locals have won four games, lost four, and tied one.

Slated to do the pitching this afternoon is either Jack Maughmer or Phil Clark. Both have fair ability, but errors have plagued them throughout the season.

The rest of the lineup will consist of Mal Sinclair catching, Jim Cassingham holding down the first sack. Bob Huck at the hot corner and the infield will be completed with either Clark or Bob Siebert playing short, if Maughmer pitches.

Roaming the outer garden will probably be Norman Crowell, Mel Gorow, and Siebert or Clark.

Student Patron Sought For Art Exhibits Here

Any Art student interested in being Art exhibit patron for Sunday afternoons from 1 to 5 o'clock will please sign up on the Delta Epsilon bulletin board in the Art wing.

Two or more women may sign up for any one afternoon. As the Art exhibits are opened to the public on Sunday afternoons, it is necessary to have patrons to show the guests around and also to keep the keys.

Sunday afternoon, May 7, will be the official opening of the art exhibit to be held in the halls of the Art wing and in room 1 of the Art wing.

SPEECH STUDENTS ACHIEVE SUCCESS

Alice Modry, graduate of San Jose State's Speech department, now has the part of Mrs. Jones, one of the leads, in a play which is heard daily at 9:30 a.m. over the NBC Red network, entitled "Over the Threshold." On Tuesday night, Miss Modry had a part in the Red Ryder program.

Orrin Gill, also a graduate, is doing an act, with his wife, in Ken Murray's variety show, "Blackouts", which is making a hit in Hollywood at present.

Ollie Bauquier has finished a successful season in Los Angeles, and is now in Yosemite for his third successful consecutive season. Bauquier plans to be on Broadway for the next season.

More ASB Picnics And "Howdy Week" Planned For Quarter

Because the ASB picnic at Alum Rock Park was declared such a success by all who went on it another party of similar nature will probably be given before the end of spring quarter, according to Social Affairs Committee Chairman Anne Buxton.

At their meeting yesterday Social Affairs committee members heard business reports on the picnic which was held last Friday. Committees to work on arrangements for the Spardi Gras dance were then formed. Refreshments at the breakfast dance will be served by the freshman council instead of the Spartan Spears, as was previously announced.

Committee members also began making plans for Howdy Week to be held May 15-19, the week of Spardi Gras.

Party Planned For Music Majors And Minors On Friday

All music majors and minors are invited to lay down their musical shillalah's, join in the fun, and get acquainted at their closed party Friday evening, May 5, in the Student Union from 7:30 to 12:00 o'clock.

Interesting entertainment and snappy games are being planned by the chairmen, Peggy Airth, Mary Lee Herron, William Harry, and James Wright representing Mu Phi Epsilon and Phi Mu Alpha respectively.

Newer members of the Music department are especially invited. Tickets will be on sale in the department office. Admission is 10 cents.

LET'S SNEAK

It is about time, we believe, that some statement be made as to whether or not we are going to have our traditional Senior week.

Despite patriotic clamoring that the sneak should be called off because of the war, we would like to see this old Spartan tradition maintained as per annum.

Other than the lack of endorsement from the "front offices," the obstacle preventing the seniors and juniors from sneaking is the shortage of transportation facilities. We believe that the senior class could find a means of transportation, without jeopardizing the allied victory by pooling cars and trailers that are available. Let the Juniors worry about their own troubles!

To those of us who have spent four years on this campus watching the juniors and seniors sneaking each spring and then hearing about it afterwards, the Senior week has become very precious and dear to us. We do not want to miss it.

Waite.

FRENCH PLAY CAST HAS THREE MALES FOR TALE OF 'FOUR OLD MAIDS'

Despite the manpower shortage three males are playing in the play "Ces Dames aux Chapeaux Verts" or "Four Old Maids", to be given by the French honorary society on May 11, 12, 13, Dr. Boris Gregory of the Modern Language department said.

One can tell, states Dr. Gregory, by that characterization of the old maids that they were first conceived by a woman. This woman wrote the book from which her husband made the play that in 1928 ran every day in Paris.

Exceptionally good attendance is expected because this is the only play being given by the college this year. This is the first time a French play has run three nights in succession, according to Dr. Gregory. On Saturday night the service men are expected to take advantage of the opportunity to hear four old maids squabbling and gossiping in French.

In following issues of the Daily a running account of intimate details concerning the characters and those who portray them will be given.

SPARTANS IN THE SERVICE

By ED WAITE

WALT SCHMIDT—
Just heard that this former Spartan, now Cpl., was in the hospital at Camp Bowie, Texas.

WAVE—

Gerry Averitt, Ph. M. 3/c Dispensary, USNAS, Seattle, Washington.

In a letter to this department, she writes: "Being a WAVE and away from all the happenings is the best part of the paper . . . You folks are really 4.0 for going to so much trouble for us. If it is possible, keep the papers coming.

"I am sorry that the Daily had to be cut down; I do not know the reason, but whatever it is, it must be a good one or else those steps wouldn't have been taken."

MARINES—

Two former San Jose State college students, who enlisted under

They are Second Lt. Hans Werner Wiedenhofer, 22, former Pacific Coast Intercollegiate wrestling champion, and Second Lt. Alfred Santos, 28.

Lt. Wiedenhofer, who also played football and was on the crew while an undergraduate, is from San Francisco.

Lt. Santos is from San Luis Obispo.

CADETS—

Two former Spartans are nearing their silver pilot's wings and officer's bars with the current class of aviation cadets training to become AAF pilots at Pampa Air Field, Pampa, Texas, twin engine advanced flying school.

They are A/C David Campbell and Gerald E. Fuller. Both attended State from 1941 to 1943.

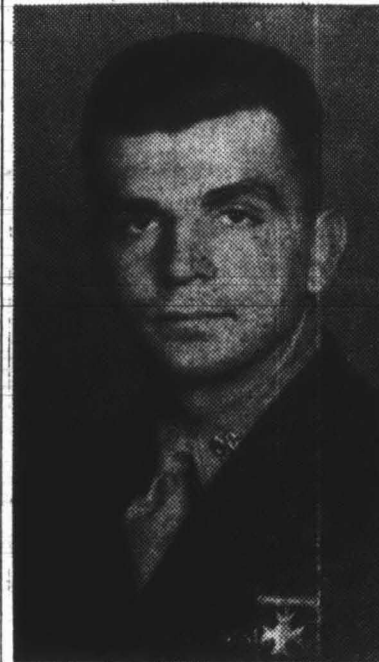

Campbell was appointed an A/C March, '43, and went to Coleman, Texas, for primary flight training and Perrin Field, Sherman, Texas, for basic training. A/C Fuller was appointed to flight training September 19, 1942, and trained at Bruce Field, Ballinger, Texas, for primary flight training. He received basic flight training at Goodfellow Field, San Angelo.

At the completion of their training they will be assigned to combat training or as instructors.

SUCCESS AT LAST, DR. NEWBY SHOOT'S FIRST HOLE-IN-ONE

To the amazement of his golfing rival, Mr. Milburn Wright of the Commerce department, Dr. L. C. Newby, professor of modern languages, shot a hole-in-one last Sunday at La Rinconada, a golf course near Los Gatos.

The ball travelled 130 yards across a deep canyon before it nestled snugly into the three inch hole, Dr. Newby stated. He admitted that it was his first hole-in-one during years of golfing.

Any golfer can do it, he maintained if he can send the ball into the air with just the right elevation and direction while hitting with just enough energy.
