PRIZE WINNERS WILL DISPLAY ART WORKS ON CAMPUS SUNDAY

"Sunday afternoon, from 1 to 4 o'clock, will be the opening of a really good art exhibit," says Mr. Milton Lanyon, of the Art department.

"We have already had some very good comments from persons who have seen the works to be shown on Sunday. Several of the entries are prize-winners, and have appeared in previous exhibits.

FINALS FOR AWA COUNCILORS SET FOR MONDAY

Choosing of AWA councilors will conclude on Monday, May 8, when the run-off election between Dorothy Jane Henderson and Pat Dunleavy for the social group and Claire Canaveri and Yvonne Welch for the recreation group will be held.

Those already elected include Audrey Backenstoe, Pat Dunlavy, Jo Ann O'Brien, Joan Ross and Betty Regan, service group; Chic-kie Hayes, Phyllis Forward, Olga Popovich, and Pat Cavanaugh, social group; Roberta Ramsay, Mary Hooton, June Robertson, and June Storni, recreation group.

Limited space prevents the exhibition from being larger than it is, but it will be a very good showing of local and nearby talent, and a very varied one."

Students and faculty members are urged to come to this opening as the exhibitors themselves will be there to add to the importance of the occasion.

Those exhibiting will be Otis Hyde and F. H. Cutting from Campbell; Margaret Rogers, Leslie Buck, Claude Buck, Car de Gavere, L. E. De Joiner from Santa Cruz; Phoebe Ormsby from Centerville; Estelle Hoisholt, J. Halley Cox, Paul R. Davis, Katherine Hughes, Ann Nash, Evelyn Moulthrop, Marques Reitzel, Donald Sevens, Maya Waffziger, and Milton Lanyon from San Jose.

The old paintings and water colors which will compose the exhibit are now on display in the halls of the Art building and in room 1, but the official opening will take place on Sunday in the Art building.

JEAN BE-DECKED FROSH TO ATTEND PICNIC TODAY

Decked out in jeans, gingham dresses, and other similar rugged attire, members of the freshman class will collect at 4:30 in front of the Student Union this afternoon and pile in cars which will take them to Alum Rock Park for their picnic. Transportation is definitely provided for all those wishing to attend.

Scheduled on the activity calendar is dancing to juke box music, baseball and other games, swimming, and community singing led by Dick Fagerstrom.

The party is limited to freshmen only and their guests. Only item of expense is a 35 cent admission to the swimming pool with a suit, or 45 cents including suit rental. The pool will remain open until 9 o'clock. Picnickers are requested to bring their own food as park concessions sell only soda pop and similar snacks.

Patrons and patronesses for the affair are Miss Eunice Speer, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Jacobs, and Owen Broyles.

Chairmen are June Robertson, entertainment; Helen Jones and Del Whitfield, equipment; Nancy Page, refreshments, and George Milias, transportation.

GET-TOGETHER OF MUSIC MAJORS AND MINORS TONIGHT

Fun . . . fun . . . fun. That's the theme behind the "get acquainted party" for all music majors and minors to be held tonight in the Student Union from 7:30 to 12 o'clock.

"Even if you aren't the athletic type, you too can find plenty to do," promise members of the committee. Chairmen are Peggy Airth, Mary Lee Herron, William Harry, and James Wright. Food, entertainment, games, and talking head the evening's list of activities.

Tickets are 10 cents, and are now on sale in the Music department office.

vantage of the breaks accorded them on the visitors' errors.

Statistics for the game were: San Jose, five hits, seven runs, and four errors; Menlo Junior college, twelve hits, nine runs, and nine errors.

Spardi Gras Heads To Meet Today

Spardi Gras Chairman Hugh Johnston asks all committee heads assisting him in plans for the spring festival to meet in the Student Union at noon today.

"At this time all committee heads should bring with them a concise report of the happenings of their committees," declares Chairman Johnston.

Salvage For Victory Theme Of Home Ec Exhibit Being Shown

"Salvage, Vital for Victory" is the theme of the exhibit now on display in the entrance halls of the Home Economics building.

This exhibit deals with the various commodities that the average individual can salvage around his or her own home. All articles such as tin cans, coffee jars, scrap metal, and scraps of yarn add their part to ultimate victory.

Letha Roberts, Home Economics major, arranged this display as part of the requirements of Dr. Margaret Jones' method's class.

QUEEN CANDIDATES FOR SPARDI GRAS NAMED, CAMPAIGN RULES SET

Which one of the following Spartanettes will be the "Queen of Spardi Gras?"

The winner will reign over the festival day starting at the time of the Queen crowning at 12 o'clock, which will mark the beginning of another day of fun and frolic. The candidates coming in second and third places will be the attendants.

The candidates vying for the ruler of the day are: Jo Ann Sweeney, sponsored by Ero, Sophian, AWA, Spartan Spears, War Veterans, Kappa Sigma Levi, and Mary George Co-op; Gerry Stevens, sponsored by Allenian and Gamma Phi Sigma; Audrey Levick, sponsored by Delta Epsilon and Smock and Tam; Phyllis Edwards, sponsored by Sappho and Beta Chi Sigma; and Mary Lou Montgomery, sponsored by Kappa Kappa Sigma, Phi Kappa Pi, and Theta Mu Sigma.

PUBLICITY

"Organizations may run publicity in the Spartan Daily," declared Miss Anna Mae Diffin, chairman of the Queen contest, "but they must bring the material into the Publications office by 1 o'clock the day before it is to be printed."

Campaigning will start at 3 o'clock Monday morning. At this time posters may be put up within bounds. "Any poster that is out of bounds will be a student court offense," informs Chairman Diffin. Posters may be put in the inner quad, in the Coop, or on the path to the Coop, but not on trees or on the lawn.

RALLIES

Organizations may present rallies for a half hour period from 12 to 12:30 or 12:30 to 1 o'clock throughout the week. They must first sign up with Miss Muriel Clark in the President's office at 10 o'clock Monday.

SPARTANS TOSS AWAY FINAL GAME 9-7 IN MATCH AGAINST MENLO

Despite the nine errors chalked up by the opponents, Coach Glenn "Tiny" Hartranft's baseball squad threw away their last game of the season yesterday afternoon when they lost to Menlo Junior College by a score of 9 to 7.

Pitcher Phil Clark, who has been cheated out of almost every game he has pitched, allowed the Menlo diamondmen 12 hits, but could have reduced the number with a little faster fielding on the part of the Spartans who backed him up.

SCORING

San Jose led the game for six innings, starting with a tally in the initial frame when Jack Maughmer singled to bring in Clark. In the second inning the Spartans picked up three runs, made another in the third and two more in the eighth.

Menlo tied the game at five all in the seventh inning after picking up scattered runs in other frames. They turned in four runs in the eighth to take a 9 to 5 lead. A triple to left field with the bases loaded brought in three runs and a long fly to the outfield with only one away accounted for the ninth run.

EIGHTH INNING

San Jose inaugurated a hitting streak in their half of the eighth, but tallied only two runs.

The Spartans threw away several chances to score when runners became over-zealous and tried unsuccessfully to steal bases. They also failed to take full ad-

War will kill men but it hasn't succeeded in killing that keen desire in man to create works of art.

For the first time in the history of the college our campus will be the setting for a representative exhibition of local and nearby artists. The art display will be exhibited in the hall of the Art wing this Sunday afternoon.

Several of the entries are prize winners, and have appeared in previous exhibits.

This exhibit is for your enjoyment and we urge you to take advantage of this rare opportunity.

"As the sun colors flowers, so does art color life."

GPS-Allenian Dance Friday Morning To Open Queen Race

As the opening gun in the campaign to elect their candidate Spardi Gras queen, the Gamma Phi Sigmas and Allenians will hold a joint pre-rally breakfast dance Monday morning in the Student Union between 6 and 8 o'clock.

The "Dunking and Dancing" affair will be carried out under the supervision of the Gamma Phi's, with the Allenians attending en masse as their guests. Purpose of the get-together is to stimulate spirit and cooperation for the coming campaign for Spardi Gras ruler, and to further plans for election week.

Jus Lundquist, '41 Marries In Brazil

A South American romance was climaxed when Jus Lundquist, '41, Pharmacist's Mate 1/c, USNR, and Eunice Claire Prouty of South Dakota were married in Recife, Brazil, April 19, 1944.

Formal notice of the marriage was received by Dr. J. C. DeVoss and the Personnel office staff.

While at San Jose State college, Jus Lundquist was prexy of his senior class, member of the basketball team and a member of the waterpolo squad.

All the folks at our house wear the 3-way!

1 FOR CASUAL WEAR, the tweed coat and extra pair of harmonizing gabardine slacks make a good-looking outfit. The right answer for weekends and all-around sports-wear.

2 FOR DRESS-UP, wear the matching tweed coat and trousers. They make a casual, comfortable suit that's good for movies, dates and such. Good for any season of the year, too.

3 FOR EVERY DAY, and just general all-around wear, try the comfortable gabardine slacks with a shirt or sweater. The slacks are made to stand a lot of good hard wear... swell for the campus.

The tweed coat, matching trousers and gabardine slacks of the Roos 3-Way suit are 100% wool. $40
