

PITZER TO NAME CADET OFFICERS FOR ROTC POSTS

Temporary appointments for ROTC cadet officers will be released in the near future, Colonel John H. Pitzer, Military Science department head, revealed today.

"These appointments will, out of necessity, have to be temporary," said Col. Pitzer. "Ordinarily, cadet officers are chosen from second year advanced students, but since this is the first year ROTC has been on this campus, we must make more hurried decisions.

"If and when better qualified students are found, they will be promoted and those holding the positions will be demoted," Col. Pitzer said.

The ROTC battalion here will be composed of two squadrons of Air Force and one company of Military Police. The battalion commander will be rated as Cadet Lieutenant Colonel, and the squadron and company commanders will be rated as captains with subordinate officers in each bracket.

A formal inspection and dress parades are on the newly-organized battalion's schedule for spring quarter.

LECTURER-AUTHOR ADDRESSES WSSF MONDAY EVENING

"European Student Recovery" will be the subject of a talk by Martin Hall, lecturer and author who has just returned from a tour of Europe, on Monday evening, it was announced recently.

Hall will address the all-college planning committee of the World Student Service Fund in room S112 at 7 p.m., the announcement stated. This committee is planning the campus WSSF drive to be held from April 5 to 10.

Hall has made five nation-wide lecture tours within the last three years, and has had many years experience as a journalist in European countries and in Russia.

Frosh, Sophs Set Mixer Dates

Tentative dates for this quarter's Frosh-Soph mixer have been set for February 25 and 26.

Under the direction of Co-chairmen Betty LeValley and Al Giancaro, plans for the mixer are going into full swing. Sophomores are urged by the chairmen to watch the Spartan Daily for announcements concerning the mixer and council meetings. Class members also are urged to sign up for committees.

The freshmen were the winners of last quarter's mixer.

Olympic Mermen Defeat Spartans

Fred Taioli, former Stanford star, led the Olympic Club to a decisive 49-25 victory over the Spartan swimmers in the college pool last night. Taioli was the only double winner of the evening with victories in the 200 and 440-yard free style events. The Olympic club, manned by former Stanford and California greats, proved a little too strong for the Spartans.

Star for the San Jose team was big Ed Rudloff. Ed took his specialty, the 200-yard breaststroke, in the fast time of 2:36.8. According to Coach Charley Walker, Rudloff is swimming faster now than he was at this time last year.

Also outstanding for the Spartans were Pat McConnel, San Jose's leading exponent of the dive, and Jack Daly. Pat won his event handily and Daly took second in both the 50 and 100-yard free-style events.

CHICAGO U. TO GIVE SCHOLARSHIPS TO TEN SENIORS

Dr. James C. DeVoss announced yesterday that the University of Chicago is offering 10 tuition scholarships of $450 each for graduating seniors who intend to become college teachers.

Robert M. Strozier, chairman of the committee of fellowships and scholarships at the university, stated in a letter to Dr. DeVoss that in the selection of a candidate consideration is given to interest in college teaching, personal adaptability to work of this kind, and the quality of the academic record.

In choosing scholarship winners the committee will be guided by the judgment of the college making the recommendation. One candidate is allowed from an institution.

Any student who is interested in making application for this scholarship is urged by Dr. DeVoss to see him as soon as possible. Applications and recommendations must be on file in the office of the committee by March 1. Awards will be announced April 1.

Student Y Elects Camp Chairmen

Bob Keller, junior Commerce major, and Esther Weakley, junior Home Economics major, were elected co-chairmen of State Camp at a recent meeting of the Student Y cabinet.

Two assistant chairmen were also elected at the meeting, reported Student Y President Bruce McNeil. They were Phil "Herc" Ward and Barbara "Jeff" Brewster.

"The purpose of State Camp," explained McNeil, "is to draw potential leaders of the campus into a cohesive nucleus to bring back more of the feeling of belonging to San Jose State."

State Camp, according to McNeil, will be held immediately before school starts next fall. The site of next year's camp has not been decided upon as yet.

Bond Voters Get Free Ride

Spartan City residents in favor of the coming school bond election will be given transportation to the polls, according to John C. Purser, Education major.

Purser and five other Spartan City husbands will make a survey this week to determine the percentage who favor the bond issue. John K. Pope, Benjamin F. Swindell, Roy D. Lee, John E. DeFigh, and Marvin A. Hudson are making the contacts.

The survey is being done for the Volunteer Citizens Committee which is headed by a downtown merchant. It was formed in protest to the idea that taxpayers do not favor the bond issue, according to Purser.

Holding to the "Up Powell" atmosphere, theme of the dance has been designated "Night On Fisherman's Wharf." Decorations will attempt to capture the romantic setting of the old San Francisco landmark.

Admission is free with an ASB card.

Instrumental in organizing the forum were James Waterman, Ronald Staley, and Bill Elam, all members and officers of the local chapter of Phi Epsilon Kappa, national P. E. fraternity, and Mr. Bronzan, assistant professor of P. E.

Meetings generally take place at 7 p.m. on Mondays. Two noon sessions also are planned, says Mr. Bronzan. The first of the forums was held Monday, with Mr. Bronzan speaking on "Orientation."

SNOW FALLS, SPIRITS RISE, SKIS READY

By MARIE HOULE

As drought-breaking rain fell on Washington Square late yesterday afternoon, spirits of Spartan snow-sports enthusiasts rose, for the first heavy snowfall of the year hit winter playgrounds.

Skis, skates, and toboggans came out of moth balls ready for a week-end rush to the mountains.

The weather bureau reports that Northern California was generally covered with snow yesterday afternoon. Snow was reported falling in the higher elevations in Plumas, Lassen, and Modoc counties.

Other areas in California to receive snow were Auburn, Redding, Red Bluff, and the Donner Summit in the Sierra Nevada mountains, which was covered with six inches of snow.

Specific information as to the amount of snow which fell on nearby areas was not available, but it was reported that these areas received some snow.

Marshall Plan

What is the Marshall plan? Do you know? Only a meager percentage of students polled during a Social Science class were able to answer affirmatively.

Approximately 60 per cent of the nation's population are totally ignorant of the existence, meaning and import of the Marshall plan.

How can we hope to establish any sort of world order, and dispel the chaos that exists all over the world, if the majority of our people, and an overwhelming majority of our college population bathe in the blissfulness of ignorance?

Wake up, students. You're here to learn many things, but don't think you are supposed to stop learning when you leave the campus. Spend a few minutes of your time finding out about current international affairs.

These affairs don't affect the other guy, they affect you. They affect your everyday life, your future, and the future of America.

It's up to you. Inform yourself about current problems, find out how your congressman votes on international issues and let him know where you stand. He is your representative and if you as an informed voter like the way he votes, you can retain him. If not, you can see to it that someone else gets the position.

Wise up, ladies and gentlemen. The future of the world depends on you, and you must be informed to have any good effect on that future.

The father is a freshman pre-legal major.

... Tempus Fugit! ...

FEBRUARY, 1933—SJS editorial: "Discontent is evident among us for the end of the quarter is drawing nigh and the evils of our grading system rise to mock and taunt us. Shall we stand submissive before an all-powerful deity who demands his certain percentages of failures in each class? The system CAN be replaced; by that used by the University of Chicago—passed; passed high; failed—ending the ever present 'grade-boosters' and benefiting pressurized professors (not to mention myriads of complaining students)."

Lycurgus 'Brains'

Three important cogs on the Lycurgus magazine are (reading left to right) Sal Millan, Mary Price, and Bill Wagner. Sal is well known on the Spartan campus. A senior, the ambitious merchandising major came to San Jose from Chicago, Illinois. Sal is affiliated with Eta Mu Pi, Alpha Delta Sigma, Theta Mu Sigma, and Alpha Phi Omega. He is doing the promotion work for Lyke.

Mary Price handles the women's angle. She is the fashion editor. Mary is a junior majoring in commercial merchandising, and lives in Campbell. She belongs to the Ski Club, and is pledging Delta Gamma sorority. The Art work on this quarter's campus publication will be under the direction of Bill Wagner. Will is a senior from Nevada City and is majoring in commercial art. He is a member of the Ski Club, Delta Phi Delta, and Alpha Gamma.

THRUST AND PARRY

Militarist?

Dear Thrust and Parry:

In one of last week's Dailies, as Mr. Landry so clearly pointed out in a letter to this column, Mr. Harold Snook, our campus militarist and No. 1 advocate of ROTC, UMT, and most everything else of a war-mongering nature, beat a loud, noisy, and empty drum. When his so-called "logic"

(Hal Snook answers on page 4) was challenged with clear-cut facts, our campus general retreated from the line of fire. Evidently he must not have read the latest army department propaganda circulars.

Snook's reference to UMT "logic" was quite a bite. Perhaps it was more than he could chew.

Mr. Snook, what IS your so-called UMT "logic," if any? IF it has any foundation at all, you should be able to explain your statement. IF it has no foundation, your silence proves it.

Yours for less UMT "logic" and more common sense,
ASB 4495, 5753

Hard Work

Dear Thrust and Parry:

I understand that the advertising brought in by students on the Spartan Daily Advertising staff amounts to more than half of the paper's revenue. Does it seem right that they should be left out when it comes to pay?

It has been said by some of the journalism professors that the Spartan Daily tries to emulate a real paper in every way that it can. The "help" on a real paper gets paid—why shouldn't the students who do the "leg work" . . .

These students use a great deal of their time. Even though they are not professional they work as hard as any professional selling this college to the merchants of San Jose; for that is actually what the student advertising salesman does. It is not an easy job, and it seems to me only fair that they should receive a small reimbursement for their efforts on behalf of their college.
Marjorie Myers, ASB 3012

BITS OF BANTER

By ABNER FRITZ

... Dr. Leo Kibby of the Social Science department was a bit disappointed in returns of the Spartan Daily Presidential ballot held last week.

"On the basis of returns of the voting electorate, I do not choose to run," he told one of his classes. Dr. Kibby received one (1) vote and concluded his withdrawal speech, "At least I got as many votes as John L. Lewis."

... In these days of intra-team athletic strife, Spartans may take pride in the friendly rivalry and spoofing that takes place among two of their football coaches.

Walt McPherson, Gold and White backfield coach, manages to get the upper hand on Head Coach Bill Hubbard in some lively games of badminton. Usually a tame sport, the little shuttlecock takes a terrible pounding at the hands of these experts.

... It's not official yet, but look for more active interest in golf when the coach of this year's team is named. It's not official yet, but the announcement should open some eyes downtown.

... Don't look now, but it's getting close to that time of the quarter when those sky-tinted cards are due to make their appearance. How many subjects are you goofing off in? We've noticed quite a few shoulders in the process of getting stoo-ped, while the noggins attached to said shoulders were getting un-stu-pid.

SJ FIVE GOES SOUTH, PLAY MUSTANGS FIRST

By JOHN GOTHBERG

Cal Poly's cellar dwelling cagers are determined to capture lost prestige tomorrow night when they meet San Jose State in a CCAA contest on the Mustang court. After a disappointing early season, the Green and Gold will dig deeply into their bag of tricks to upset the league leading Spartans.

REBOUNDS

By A. M. FRITZ

(The morning after the Spartans defeated St. Mary's.)

It was quite evident after only a few seconds of play had elapsed that the officiating at this contest was not too good.

Both officials were lax, while both sides committed flagrant violations, including: walking with the ball, double-dribbling, and palming the ball.

Even neutral observers were horrified at the blissful expressions on the official faces, as anatomies collided in direct disobedience to the rules.

POOR SPORTSMANSHIP

The fans themselves were guilty of the poorest exhibition of sportsmanship (????) that may be displayed by a partisan crowd.

It is an accepted custom by almost everyone, and even considered part of the game by some to boo, hiss, or catcall an official decision. But no group or spectators, especially at a school that wants it athletics to go "big time" should have its name or colors defamed by such a lack of common courtesy that Gold and White rooters displayed when St. Mary's men went to the free-throw line.

Some may counter with the fact that the Spartans didn't receive too warm a reception at Moraga, but then again two wrongs don't make a right.

Even the Spartan cagers seemed a bit annoyed when the catcalls got heavy, and some frustrated bombardiers started using the Spartan hardwood as their objective.

Getting back to the game itself, the whole defensive set-up against the Gaels worked quite well. Bob Wuesthoff, Ralph Romero and lanky Ernie Marks shared the job of hawking Kudelka, with the first-mentioned frustrating many attempts by the Gael ace to even let the ball fly, in the direction of the basket.

FREE THROWS COUNT

The backboard work of Stu Inman and Chuck Hughes was good. Although the scrappy Kudelka showed a lot of drive in following his shots, it was through the combined efforts of Hughes and Inman that he didn't get more rebounds. Bob Hagen, Hughes' running mate at forward, was all over the court, retrieving balls and bringing his free-throw percentage up a few points by swishing three for four.

The game was actually won on the free-throw line, where the San Joseans have lost their last three encounters with the Gaels.

FELLER AIMS AT WORLD SERIES

CLEVELAND—Bobby Feller of the Cleveland Indians, the greatest pitcher in modern times, concided today that his one major remaining ambition was to pitch in a World Series "and I think I've got a good chance of doing it this year."

Feller, who signed a 1948 contract yesterday, which with attendance bonus provisions is expected to once more make him the highest-salaried player in the game, appraised Cleveland's pennant chances optimistically.

"I want to be in a World Series before I go to coaching after my playing days are over," Feller said.

SIDELINE SLANTS

By BOYD SCHULTZ

HATS OFF

To Spartan boxing coach DeWitt Portal, "Dee," for our money one of the finest coaches in the nation, came to San Jose State in 1934.

In his first year, the dynamic young athletic instructor introduced his now-famous novice tournament.

BUSINESS GOOD

Some idea of how Dee has popularized the manly art at Sparta can be gained from the fact that in 1934 a mere handful of men greeted his call; this year 687 men are taking boxing instruction.

"My varsity boxing squad comes almost entirely from these men, the majority of whom have never pulled on a pair of gloves, much less stepped through the ring ropes," he smiled.

Dee coached boxers in the navy from 1942 to 1946. It was then that he designed the face protectors and head gears, now worn by all Spartan boxers. He also began plans for his objective scoring clock at that time.

LITTLE THINGS

But it's the little things that make Dee the fan's favorite. He has a smile and a handshake for every boxer he escorts to the ring. The same smile and hand clasp greets each warrior leaving the ring, win lose or draw. Dee hustles. He is busy, but always has time for the press, or anyone for that matter, who is interested in boxing.

This year Dee wants to take an entire team to the national collegiate championships at Madison, Wisconsin. He is a builder of champions, because he himself is a champion—in the hearts of every fan who has watched his boxers in action.

RIGGS WINS

PALM BEACH, Fla., Feb. 4 (UP)—The count was all square at 12 each today in the professional tennis series between Bobby Riggs and Jack Kramer after Riggs scored a 6-4, 7-5 victory here yesterday.

A capacity crowd of 1,500 saw Riggs win his third straight match and sweep the three match series in Florida. Kramer couldn't get his smashing defense working on clay courts and Riggs' tireless defense spelled victory.

Australian Dinny Pails thrilled the crowd here with flashing volleys to beat Pancho Segura in the preliminary match, 6-0, 6-2. Pails kept up the pace and teamed with Kramer to rout Riggs and Segura in doubles, 6-0, 6-1.

NEWMANS WIN

Newman Club's fast-breaking quintet notched its fifth victory in a row Tuesday afternoon, swamping St. Ignatius High School, defending prep champs of San Francisco, by a 59-42 count.

Glen Wilson again sparked the Newmanites with 18 points. Others scoring were Charlie Clapper 14, Kerlin Morgan 11, Lowell Whitaker 10, Len Frizzi 4, and Al Pinard 2.

TRACKMEN FROSH MEET WORK; TWO NAVY ACES MILERS OK TONIGHT

With the track season but a month away, the Spartan thin-clads are rounding out their first week of practice at the Spartan stadium turf.

The latest team to sign with the trackmen is the Olympic Club from San Francisco. This outfit is studded with stars and is led by the versatile Dutch Warmerdam, who holds the world's pole vault record. The San Francisco team is coached by Dink Templeton who reigned at Stanford during the thirties.

Among the most promising long distance men Spartan has had in a long time is Merle Knox. He is a veteran letterman from last year's squad and is counted upon by Coach Bud Winter to carry the load in the two mile event.

Another promising candidate is Morton Gordon, who is also a miler of note. Also in the two mile fold are Kenny Cayocca, Wayne Fontes, Bob Herrick, Marsh Pitman, Dick Baker and Fred Mangini.

THRUST AND PARRY

Snook Parries Vicious Thrust

Dear Thrust and Parry and ASB's 4495 and 5753:

I was quite astounded to find that two supposedly well-balanced college students have lowered themselves to common name-calling. I can assure you that the drum that you say I am beating is far from being empty. The facts, if you really want them (which I seriously doubt), are available to you any afternoon from Monday through Friday at the Publications office.

You are wrong on the point that I have failed to read the latest army releases. I follow them very closely. I also try to weigh them objectively before accepting or rejecting (and I do reject some) them. Because of the interest that UMT has stirred up since General Marshall brought the program to the attention of the President and the general public, I have made a careful study of it. I have read every scrap of material put out by the opposition and the advocates of UMT that I have been able to get hold of. I have found FACTS used for arguments by the advocates of the program and IDEALISM by the opponents.

What may I ask is more logical than facts?

In their attempts to tear down facts the opposition, for the most part, did the same as you and other contributors to this column have done. Take one word or phrase and attack with full force on it thus drawing the attention away from the meat of the article. It is an old trick. Why not try something new?

My reason for not answering the T and P prior to this is the same reason I cannot give complete arguments here—lack of space in the Spartan Daily. But for those of you who would like to read facts, not opinions and idealism, a copy of the report submitted to the President by the commission on universal military training may be had for only 75 cents at the Government Printing Office in Washington, 14, D. C. This 448-page report contains all aspects of the program, both the points for and the points against. The report is full of the logic that appeared in my first "Plain Talk" column. The logic is there if you want to see it.

Yours for lack of space.

HAVE YOU HEARD

By BEE KAY

Francine Harpole, junior Psychology major from San Jose, revealed last night to her Alpha Chi Omega sorority sisters that she is now Mrs. Bob Pouey.

The couple exchanged vows January 27 at St. Thomas Aquinas Cathedral in Reno. They now are residing in Los Gatos, following a honeymoon at Lake Tahoe, Carson City, and San Francisco.

The new bridegroom is a Business Administration major at Santa Clara university. He is affiliated with Beta Phi Sigma fraternity.

Enid Loche Paddon, of Watsonville, recently announced plans of her marriage to Don Lathrop, sophomore Pre-Legal major from Santa Clara.

Cause for American Pride

*is thus beautifully offered to our acceptance That we may fulfill with the greatest exactitude all our engagements:
foreign and domestic, to the utmost of our abilities wherever, and in whatsoever form they are pledged: for in public, as in private life, I am persuaded that honesty will be found to be the best policy
That we may avoid connecting ourselves with the politics of any nation, farther than shall be found necessary to regulate our own trade; in order that commerce may be placed upon a stable footing, our merchants know their rights—and the government the ground on which those rights are to be supported. — That every citizen would take pride in the name of American, and act as if he felt the importance of his position during that war, he would have been willing to be absorbed, if not annihilated, if we could not have secured (further than our own safety may require) under the banner of any nation whatsoever. And moreover, let us*

WASHINGTON'S FAREWELL ADDRESS

Here, in our First President's own handwriting, is part of the far-sighted speech he delivered to the American people 152 years ago. The spirit of the doctrine still applies. It calls for a firm unity among our people... emphasizing, above all, the need for "every citizen to take pride in the name of an American." The original is now aboard the "Freedom Train"—a traveling exhibit of the most significant documents in our history.
