Spartans Place In NCAA Finals

By CARL UNDERWOOD

LOS ANGELES COLISEUM—University of Southern California regained its long-lost NCAA track and field championship here Saturday by amassing 55 2-5 points to easily outscore all foes. Some 30,000 fans watched the proceedings.

San Jose State's four entrants, Bob Crowe, Woody Linn, Mel Martin and George Mattos, all placed among the first six men in their respective events and picked up 5 2-5 markers for the Spartans.

Bill Will Aid Vets

SACRAMENTO, June 17 (UP). A $100 million fund to aid veterans in the purchase of homes and farms would be created by a bill passed by the state senate today. The measure, by Senator Nathan F. Coombs, R., Napa, provides for the issuance and sale of state bonds to finance the program. The bill now goes to the assembly for approval.

Grads Foil Finals; Frolic at Ranch

While the rest of the college settled down to taking finals today, several hundred unfettered seniors trekked to Pleasanton to enjoy Senior Day at Old Hearst ranch.

While there they will enjoy swimming, riding, golf, and a variety of indoor sports. Tonight a chicken dinner will be served on the Valley View Terrace to be followed by outdoor dancing to the music of the ranch's orchestra.

Bob Sampson took charge of the arrangements for the class.

One More Daily

Final edition of the Spartan Daily this quarter will make its appearance on campus Wednesday, according to an announcement by Leonard Kreidt, editor. The Daily will not be published on Tuesday and Thursday of this week, Kreidt declared.

Indian Givers?

SEDONA, Ariz., June 17 (UP). Movie Actor James Stewart today took stock of a collection of unique wedding gifts for his bride-to-be, Gloria McLean.

When the 200 Apache Indians, with whom the actor is working here in the Twentieth-Century Fox film "Arrow", learned of the forthcoming nuptials they thought some gifts were in order.

As a result, Stewart will be able to present his bride with 52 Indian blankets, 40 pairs of beaded moccasins, 13 turquoise necklaces, 11 goatskin blouses and a papoose carrier.

Remember State's September Football Dates, Says Stewart

"Mark down Sept. 10, 17, and 24 in your date book," says Glen Stewart, rally committee chairman.

"There will be three big games," he explained Friday, "and all can look forward to a 'big show' at the first game in the Spartan stadium which will have a Mexican theme. On September 17 rivalry with the Stanford Indians will be continued in their stadium. Song girls will be present along with the band and majorettes. At this time the new Spartan 'Head' will make its appearance."

Students are asked to wear white shirts and rooster's caps, and sit in the center section. Nineteen forty-eight ASB cards will be good for both of these games.

Last but not least will be the game with Santa Clara here on the 24th which will be the first in over 10 years. Card stunts are planned for this game, and Stewart asks for enthusiastic support, needed to make this game a success. The rooster section will be on the 50 yard line. "Let's all turn out in full force for these early games!" Stewart says.

Petitions Granted To Record Number

A record number of 147 petitions to change examination schedules have been approved this week, Dr. Harrison Heath, committee chairman, said yesterday.

Forty were granted to allow students to attend Summer Sessions at other schools. There were 36 granted in order that some could find certain jobs, 27 for transportation reasons, 16 for incomplete makeups, 15 for those going to ROTC camps, 5 for students having four tests on one day, 6 for miscellaneous reasons, and 2 for people making special marriage plans.

Dr. Heath said that only three petitions were disapproved. Other members of the examination committee are Dr. Raymond Barry, Dr. William Poytress, Dr. Raymond Mosher, Mr. Joe West, Mr. Elmo Robinson, Miss Viola Palmer, and Dr. Irene Palmer.

Welfare Leader

Dean of Men Paul M. Pitman (above), was elected president of Community Welfare Council at a Board of Trustees meeting late last week. The recently organized council will unify efforts of various local welfare agencies.

Council Will Consider Department Budgets

Departmental budgets totaling $91,000 will occupy the attention of the Student Council in its final meeting of Spring quarter tonight in the Student Union at 4:30. According to ASB President Don Schaeffer the budgets have gone through the Board of Control and are scheduled for temporary approval tonight by the council. Various

Frosh, Get Numbers

Freshman award winners may exchange their unmatched numerals for matched ones in the Men's gym this week.

Miss Ruth Baldwin To Leave Faculty

Miss Ruth Baldwin, instructor in librarianship and assistant in the library's reference room, left San Jose State college today for Los Angeles, according to Miss Joyce Backus, head librarian. Miss Baldwin, who does not plan to return to SJSU, will teach librarianship at the University of Southern California this summer, Miss Backus said.

In 1939, Miss Baldwin received her B.A. at Muskingum college, New Concord, Ohio; she received her B.S. (in library science) and A.M. degrees from the University of Illinois in 1940 and 1945 respectively.

Miss Baldwin, who came here three years ago, stated that she had no definite plans after she finished teaching at USC this summer.

Additional Purchases Needed for Expansion

By PEGGY MAJOR and HELEN DAVIS

Before San Jose State college can begin to build on the block bordered by San Carlos, Eighth, San Antonio, and Seventh streets, the state of California will have to purchase 12 more parcels of land.

Most new buildings to be constructed adjacent to Washington Square will be on this block. There are 23 lots which eventually will become part of the expanded campus planned for future Spartans.

San Antonio street will be closed off when the new Student Union is built straddling it between Seventh and Eighth streets. The Eighth street chapter houses of Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Theta Chi fraternities will have to move to new locations when the building program begins. Other houses on the block will be torn down, and department budget breakdowns will be examined and compared with last year's requests, but they will not be set definitely until next year, Schaeffer said.

Will Consider Golf Request

The Spartan golf team's request for funds amounting to $1400 to cover expenses involved in a trip to the NCAA matches to be held in Ames, Iowa, June 27-July 2, will be considered. The golf team will be defending champions at the Iowa tournament.

An informal report of a tour through the local Doctors hospital undertaken by Schaeffer, Mr. E. W. Clements, council faculty adviser, and members of the council will be made at tonight's meeting.

Purpose of the trip, made last Friday, was to examine facilities of the hospital that are included in the proposed new health program now being considered for the student body.

A request from the San Jose 20-30 club to award the winner of their scholarship a free student body card from San Jose State college will be discussed by the council.

Will Nominate Representative

Nomination of a student representative to the San Jose Junior Chamber of Commerce will be made at the council meeting. Dick Cirigliano and Mike Thomas have been tentatively selected for consideration, according to Schaeffer.

Social affairs by-laws and the book exchange contract are slated to be discussed during tonight's conference.

Another report from the Spardi Gras investigation committee will be given concerning more stringent regulations governing any such future programs. The subject of council members' jackets rounds out the agenda for the evening.

Grads To Rehearse

There will be a graduation rehearsal tomorrow morning at 8:30 at Spartan stadium for all participating seniors.

students living in them will be forced to find new living quarters when the expansion starts.

Total assessed value of the un-owned land is $54,210, according to information received from the Santa Clara county assessor's office. However, when the state makes buying overtures to the householders on the block, it will have to pay, in all probability, twice the amount of the total assessed value, or in the neighborhood of $100,000.

The most recently acquired parcel of land purchased by the state was bought in January, 1947. All other lots were purchased in 1945 and 1946.

Actual progress for the expansion program cannot begin until the state appropriates funds to buy the remaining land. Accordingly, the date of construction of new college buildings is as yet unknown.

Any class meeting at 5:30 or later in the evening will meet finals week at the usual time, and have the final at that time.

Classes meeting four times a week are considered as daily in this schedule.

Any 1 1/2 or 2 period class is to be examined according to the first hour of meeting, and the examination is limited to 100 minutes. Any student who, by this schedule, would have four or five examinations in one day may petition the Examination Committee for a change of schedule.

The 1948-49 graduating seniors who participate in the commencement exercises are exempt from finals.

No examinations, except make-ups for individual students, are to be given during the calendar week preceding first day of the schedule.

Any variations from these rules must be approved by committee action. Petition blanks may be obtained in Room 120A. Petitions must be filed with the committee chairman at least four days before the proposed change.

Dance Directors Call Gals 'Frozen Fillies'

By Virginia MacPherson
 HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (UP) — Two dance directors looked over Hollywood's crop of chorus cuties today and came up with the alarming conclusion that most American girls are "frozen fillies" from the hips up.

"They're all bump-and-grind conscious," wailed Lester Horton and Hal Belfer. "They think all they have to do is give a provocative wiggle of their hips and thighs and they're irresistible."

That may be, say the dance directors. But at that, the babes are only half right. Any mathematician can tell you this leaves 50 per cent of their chassis charms in the undeveloped stage.

Too Sweater Conscious
 About all the beauties bother to do with what nature gave 'em above the waistline, the boys say, is squeeze it into a tight sweater and remember to breathe deeply in wolf-territory.

It takes more'n that, according to the one-two-three-kick gents. "Girls could make their hands and necks and shoulders do all kinds of interesting things," Horton says. "Take the hand. It can be just as sexy as . . . well . . . as anything."

Look, they pointed out, what Mae West does by wiggling one finger. Now there, they sigh, is a master at work. She wouldn't even have to give with the "come up'n see me some time" routine.

Horton and Belfer were looking for five dancing dolls to undulate in Universal-International's "Bagdad." What they found, they said, was 160 "muscle-frozen" mamas.

Need Extra Training
 "We finally picked five," Horton went on. "But we'll have to spend an extra week loosening up their upper muscles."

He wants to put on a dance fantasy of the Near East, he explained, with all the mysterious gestures harem beauties go in for. The way those gals move their arms, Horton says, is every bit as tantalizing as any Yankee striptease.

Belfer leans more toward the Hindu hoofers.

"There's a whole world of sensuality in the 'Hastra Mundra,'" he said. "That's the Hindu hand movement. The hand can be just as provocative as the hip—when used right."

As far as these dance directors are concerned, there's too much lay-it-on-the-line philosophy in American dancing.

Mrs. Don Wilson Blames Television

LOS ANGELES, June 17 (UP). The wife of rotund radio announcer Don Wilson got an uncontested divorce today on grounds he made her a "television widow."

Mrs. Maria T. Wilson, 38, a former Polish countess, told Superior Judge Alfred L. Bartlett her 275-pound husband sat for hours in front of his television set, "morose, moody and refusing to speak to me for weeks."

"He insulted me in front of the servants and friends," the tall, blonde dress designer said. "He once called me a stupid bore."

Mrs. Seymour Nebenzal, wife of the movie producer, testified she often had seen Wilson "belittle and criticize" his wife and added he caused her to have a severe nervous breakdown.

Terms of the property settlement provided each would get a unit of a double Beverly Hills apartment house. The 49-year-old radio announcer also got part of the furniture, including the television set, an auto and repayment of a $10,000 loan made to Mrs. Wilson's dress designing firm. Mrs. Wilson was given all stock in the company, Marusia Originals, Inc., and a bank account estimated at $28,000, and other securities. She waived support.

Labor Department Reports Job Decline In Manufacturing

By Raymond H. Wilson
 WASHINGTON, June 17 (UP)—The Labor department reported today that employment in manufacturing industries fell off 320 thousand between mid-April and mid-May for its eighth straight monthly decline.

The department's Bureau of Labor Statistics said that although part of the decline could be attributed to labor disputes, "most of the drop reflects seasonal contraction of activity and a continuation of declining demand for a substantial number of products."

Manufacturing payrolls on May 15, it said, totaled 15 million, 170 thousand—a drop of about 900 thousand below May, 1948, and of 1 million, 700 thousand below the postwar peak of last September.

The decline in manufacturing employment caused total employment in all non-agricultural industries to drop 282 thousand between mid-April and mid-May. In connection with these figures, the department noted that unemployment increased by about 250 thousand during the month to a postwar high of 3 million, 289 thousand.

Some government economists believe the June unemployment total may reach 4 million. It was revealed earlier this week that the administration is working on a program to combat unemployment if the number of jobless reaches serious proportions.

President Truman declined to discuss the program at his news conference yesterday. He said he does not believe the nation is undergoing any unemployment crisis and indicated he would reveal any plans he has in his economic report to Congress next month.

A number of business and financial leaders apparently agreed with Mr. Truman's optimistic view. A United Press survey showed that in general they regard the current business slump as nothing more than a "levelling off" from postwar economic peaks.

The latent buying power and consumer needs of the public, they said, are of such a nature that they do not anticipate any depression. They predicted that the decline in business activity would continue through 1949.

Portrait in RBR Worth $125,000

By CHUCK CZUBIAK

How would you like to see approximately $125,000 staring you in the eyes? Well, it isn't exactly cold cash that you'd see, but an estimated value in oil, canvas and a bit of creative genius.

Of the 18 centennial paintings exhibited in the Reserve Book room of the library, one is valued at over a cool one hundred "grand" by its owners, the California Palace of the Legion of Honor.

The painting, to be sure, is extraordinary. It seems to have just a little more than its contemporaries hanging along the book room wall—paintings which, in their own right, are considered fine works of art.

But let us return to the painting with the huge price tag. The work, titled "Cardinal's Portrait", was painted in 1896 by Toby Rosenthal, a Munich-trained New Englander, who worked in California 10 years.

Rosenthal, a master of story picture realism, was very popular both in Europe and America.

Valued at $100,000 The California Palace of the Legion of Honor purchased the painting for a reportedly large sum and later insured it for $75,000. It is interesting to note here that the painting, though valued at over $100,000, may not bring over several thousand dollars in the open market. However, its greatness is not in its resale value, but in its excellent portrayal of realism.

The "Cardinal's Portrait" has been reproduced more than any of Rosenthal's other works. It is said that many who purchased reproductions of the painting had never before heard of Rosenthal. The painting has been voted the most popular exhibited in San Francisco—even though it was painted back in '96.

The story, it is written, told by the painting, is that of the cardinal sitting to a young monk for his portrait. The old man has fallen asleep, and the monk is scratching his head in perplexity. On the easel is the partly finished portrait; the contrast between the dignified pose on the canvas and the blissfully sleeping "prince" of the church gives the picture its value. It is a simple story, but it appeals, it is unanimous, with a quality that brings a sympathetic smile.

It is an achievement, a fulfillment of creative life painted on simple canvas by a man endowed with the penetrating soul of the artistic, a gift inherent in so few.

Other Paintings Popular
 In passing it should be mentioned that many of the remaining paintings on display are almost equally popular in California art circles.

"The Henderson Children," by Charles C. Nahl, "Headwaters of Tuolumne River," by William Keith and a group portrait of one of the first settlers of San Jose, by Giovanni Martinelli, are but three of the displayed paintings which have aroused curiosity and attracted wide interest and observation.

These centennial paintings, borrowed from San Francisco and Oakland museums to illustrate the theme "100 Years of California Art", will remain on display until after commencement, June 24.

It would be well worth the while of any person to view these paintings. For, as we all know, a century is a long time to wait for a second chance.

Marie Herold Wins YM-YW Scholarship

Miss Marie Herold, sophomore psychology major, has been awarded a scholarship by the advisory board of the San Jose YMCA-YWCA, to attend the Pacific School of Religion, Berkeley, Cal., according to Mrs. Janet Anderson, executive secretary of the Student Y.

The entire cost of attending the school, $160, is covered by the scholarship. Miss Herold will attend classes from June 20-July 30.

The school, which is primarily for students who are officers of campus Christian groups, offers three courses of study for six units of credit. They are religious values in the modern world, introduction to social ethics, and introduction to group work.

Purpose of the school is to provide training for students in positions of leadership in college Christian associations.

Miss Herold is president of the Student Y. She is associate co-chairman of the northern region of the southwest regional YM-YW; she is also on the Asilomar planning committee.

Student 'Y' Elects Four New Officers

Four new officers were elected at a Student Y meeting last Thursday, according to Paula Phillips, chairman of the nominating committee. They are: Marie Herold, president; Johnny Jacobsen, vice-president; Margaret Feavel, treasurer; Mary Kelley, secretary.

Miss Herold has been filling the office of president this quarter, due to the absence of Bill Raver, who is interning on a newspaper in Oregon.

Jacobsen has been elected to Spartan Shield, new honor organization for ex-servicemen.

Miss Kelley was chairman of the Student Y's May Day breakfast this year; she is also a member of the Black Masque honor society and president of the Education Honorary society.

Miss Feavel has been active with the Student Y's finance committee this quarter.

Spartan "Track" Men Excelled In Field Events During 1949

By HANK PLYMIRE

(Editors' Note: This is the final section of a series dealing with San Jose State's 1949 track competition)

This year the half-mile was sadly lacking in outstanding runners in comparison to Thelno Knowles of 1948 fame. Bob Nicolai, up from the '48 frosh, was number one man in this event, with a best mark of 2:00.9 and was consistently clocked between 2:01 and 2:03. This, an improvement of some six seconds over his previous best times and his 49.8 relay lap marks him as one of the most improved competitors on Winter's squad.

Lowell Nash, a veteran 880 man, of two years on the Spartan team, elected to graduate after the Stanford meet and, therefore, was lost to the squad. He ran a 2:01 two lapper to place third in the Indian contest.

Plymire, returning for his second year of competition at Sparta, was off his '48 half-mile performance and could run only a 2:01.5 and that but once.

Miller Purdy

Dore Purdy, a real hard lucker if ever there was one, led several mile and two mile races, only to lose out by close margins, or, as in the case of the PAA eight-lap contest, was disqualified. He registered a 4:23.2 for his outstanding mile time and ran a 9:46.7 two-mile to win the Junior PAA event.

Marion Day turned in a 4:35.6 mile effort once, but wasn't a consistent performer. In the two-mile event, Seward Chapman teamed with Purdy to provide a point winning punch and was clocked in 9:56 for his best-ever time.

Jack Passey was clocked unofficially in a 14.6 110-yard high hurdle stint for the best mark among the timber toppers, while his brother, Bill, scored a 14.9 effort. Roger Smythe and Jerry Green also ran the stick event, but no times are available for them.

Walt Lumpkin and Dave Marriott took care of the 220 low hurdles, with the former chalking up the best time when he ran a 24.2. Marriott also showed in the javelin throw with a respectable heave of 162 ft. Boyd Porch, the number one Spartan spear tosser, reached a 199 ft. 2 in. mark during the season and placed often in the scoring column.

Linn Was Steady

Co-captain Woody Linn was a consistent performer in the shot and discus, setting a new school record in the iron-ball put and tying the standard in the discus. His distances were 50 ft. 9 in. and 162 ft., respectively. Though not always in the scoring column with the shot, Linn managed to constantly come through with a spot in the platter throw.

Ray Servante, shot and discus newcomer to San Jose, did not often get into the point end of things, but made fair marks of 43 ft. 8 in. and 135 ft. in his favorite undertakings.

Broad Jumpers Ronnie Maire, Bill Gallagher and Dick Fortier all had on and off days. Maire got out the greatest distance in this event with a 23 ft. 6 1/2 in. effort, followed by Fortier's 23 ft. 11/4 in. leap. The latter suffered from injuries all season, but also managed to do a respectable 12 ft. 6 in. in the pole vault.

Gallagher, a highly touted J.C. transfer, got out 22 ft. 5 in., but looked like another year of seasoning wouldn't do him a bit of harm.

George Mattos broke the State college vaulting record no less than three times during the season, ending up with a very good 14 ft. 11/4 in. He cleared 14 ft. several times and with the exception of the Compton meet, always managed to get into the scoring ledger, even in competition among top pole specialists in the U.S.

Bud Hamilton, newcomer to Spartan track and field ranks, also fought injuries, but nevertheless attained his best height ever at 12 ft. 6 in. in the vault.

High Jumpers

High jumpers Mel Martin, Ivan Bland and Junior Morgan had on and off days, but Martin was easily the outstanding leaper by virtue of his new school mark of 6 ft. 6 7/16 in., a good effort in anybody's league. Bland cleared 6 ft. 2 in. and Morgan, when not busy with spring football, managed to clear 6 ft. 2 in. on occasions.

Other tracksters, who came into their own at times, were Tom Ross, quarter miler; Loren Meredith, hop, step and jump, and Lloyd Warthan, 440 and 880 runner.

No small credit can be extended to the work of the managers: Stan Nigg, Orv Johnson and John Dewey. Trainers Link Kimora, Bob Gillis, Lorry Jasper and George Egan were also instrumental in preparing the trackmen for their run, jump and throw efforts.

SPARTAN DAILY 3

Top Amateur Stars Compete at Fresno

FRESNO, Cal. (UP)—J. Flint Hanner, Director of the National AAU track meet here June 24 and 25, today boasted that Ratcliffe stadium will play host to the greatest aggregation of track and field stars since the 1932 Olympics. The annual AAU classic promises to bring more than 800 of the world's finest cindermen to Fresno, Hanner declared.

Heading the list of champion amateurs are Herb McKenley, world 400 meter and 440 yard record holder; Lloyd LaBeach, co-holder of the 100 meter record and possessor of the 200 meter mark, and Harrison Dillard, low and high hurdle champion.

Don Gehrman, leading American miler, will also lay his title on the line, along with Wilbur Thompson, Olympic shot put champion; Mal Whitefield, 800 meter tilist, and Dr. Steve Seymour, the nation's top javelin hurler. For 24 years, Hanner has tended the 440-yard cushioned clay oval which he believes is far superior to the eastern cinder tracks.

The surface is plowed daily with a spike drag, smoothed off with special equipment, and then sprayed with water. Hanner explained that the idea is to keep just enough moisture in the clay and add a smooth cushioned surface.

CSEA Car Stickers Are Now Available

The placement office announced recently that California State Employees association car stickers are now available for active members.

Graduating seniors who have registered with the Placement office are reminded to clear with that office before leaving school for the summer. It is imperative that the Placement office be notified of all changes of address so that placements can be made as soon as possible, Miss Doris Robinson, Placement office, stated.

Can't Pay WSSF? Mail Money Later

Persons who can't pay World Student Service Fund pledges before the end of school may mail their money to the Graduate Manager, San Jose State college, WSSF Chairman Marsh Pitman announced Friday.

Pitman also expressed his belated thanks to the many persons whose cooperation and hard work made the World Student Service Fund drive a success.

Schmidt To Speak At Civitan Club

Mr. Willard E. "Huck" Schmidt, director of the Police school, will address the Civitan club Thursday at 12:30 in the De Anza hotel.

The San Jose State college professor will outline the police problems of today and the part scientific investigation plays in criminal investigation.

The 11th annual conference of the California Newspaper Publishers association at Stanford university Friday will hear Mr. Schmidt describe "Police-Press Relations." Also on the roster of speakers during the first afternoon session is Mr. Dwight Bentel, SJSC Journalism department head. He will show the pitfalls in libel which face publishers at all times.

Publishers throughout the state will convene at the Stanford Faculty Women's clubhouse June 24-25.

Berkeley Book Co. To Buy Old Texts

Spartans will have a chance to rid themselves of second hand books Wednesday and Thursday when a Berkeley book company takes over Spartan Shop to buy used text books.

According to Mr. R. M. Atkinson, Spartan Shop manager, the out-of-town company will buy many books that are no longer used at State, as their facilities for selling them elsewhere are large.

Atkinson stated that the Spartan Shop is glad to present this opportunity to San Jose State students. It is the first venture of this kind for the campus bookstore.

Faculty Considers First Constitution

San Jose State college chapter of the American Association of University Professors began adoption of its first constitution Thursday, according to Dr. Harrison Heath, president.

Dr. Heath explained that the AAUP had settled main points on the constitution, but more work has to be done in forming by-laws. Dr. Ben Naylor, Dr. H. Murray Clark, Dr. Gertrude Cavins, Miss Mary Booth, and Mr. Hartley Jackson will prepare details for the final adoption at the next meeting in October.

Books Due Tomorrow

Tomorrow is the deadline for the return of library books and the payment of fines and lost book fees, according to Miss Barbara Wood of the circulation desk.

Failure of students to clear records will result in grades being withheld, she said.

The library will close at 5:30

Thursday of finals week, according to Miss Joyce Backus, head librarian.

On Friday, June 24, the reading rooms in the main library will stay open from 8-1; the circulation desk and the Reserve Book room will remain open until 3 p.m.

Library hours on Saturday, June 25, will be the same as usual.

Fags Tax Proposed

SACRAMENTO, June 17 (UP). A proposed five cents a pack tax on cigarettes to finance increased state aid to schools was tentatively approved by the Assembly Ways and Means committee today.

At the same time, the Senate Governmental Efficiency committee killed a liquor tax bill sponsored by Gov. Earl Warren to place an additional tax of 14 cents on every fifth of liquor sold.

The cigarette tax proposal was amended by the Ways and Means committee into a bill by Assemblyman John Babbage, R., Riverside, to appropriate $25 million for emergency school house construction. The estimated $55 million in new revenue expected from the tax also would be used partially to pay for a $36 million proposed increase in present state aid to school districts.
