

Twombly Blasts 'Gripe Session'

Health and Hygiene Head Brands Town Meeting As 'Notorious Session'

By JERRY THOMAS

"Any implication that I walked out or failed to appear when expected is unwarranted," said Miss Margaret Twombly, head of the Health and Hygiene department, commenting on her absence from the Town Meeting Thursday night.

"I informed the president of the student body on the 19th of January, and reminded him on the 20th and 25th of January that I would not be at the meeting of the 26th," Miss Twombly said. "I accepted at first an invitation to appear and discuss the college health service at a town meeting. I subsequently rejected the invitation when I learned that it was to be a 'gripe session'."

Defines 'Gripe Session'

When asked what she meant by a "gripe session", Miss Twombly answered, "It is a notorious session at which the malcontents express their opinions freely and without any regard for the rules of decorum or courtesy about anything which frustrates them."

Miss Twombly asserted that these sessions "are by no means comparable to the 'Town Meeting of the Air.' Originally they were invented as 'gripe dinners,' held downtown, from which all faculty and administrative personnel were excluded, she said. "The fact that a 'gripe session' is now transferred to the campus with faculty invited to act as 'piece de resistance' is no compliment to present-day courtesy," added Miss Twombly.

Welcomes Office Calls

"I am glad to see in my office at any time, any student who is really interested in information about the college health service. I am equally glad to see in my office, any student who has any comment of whatever nature to make upon any phase of the service."

"I am sorry that those persons whose comments upon the service have shown their need of such information, have not come to my office to ask for it," Miss Twombly concluded.

Schaeffer Takes Blame for Mix-up

ASB President Don Schaeffer says that he was informed by Miss Margaret Twombly on Jan. 19, 20, and 25 that she would not appear at the "Town Meeting" scheduled for Jan. 26.

"It was my fault for not seeing that the posters were changed, and that my column in Wednesday's Daily was not clearer," Don said.

Schaeffer was emphatic in absolving Miss Twombly of any blame for the misunderstanding.

"It was my fault, not hers," Schaeffer reaffirmed.

Summer Session Bulletin Available

The preliminary bulletin of the 1950 San Jose State college summer sessions is now available to students in Room 120B.

This announcement was made today by Dr. Raymond Mosher, summer session director.

The bulletin contains a list of the 200 courses being offered, special features planned for the sessions and general information.

According to Mosher, the sessions will last nine weeks: the first from July 3 to August 11, six weeks; and the other from August 14 to September 2, three weeks. Students may attend one or both of the sessions.

The regular summer session catalogue will be released the latter part of March, Mosher says.

Holt to Speak To Teachers Here Thursday

Dr. Andrew Holt, newly elected president of the National Educational association, will address members of the California Teachers association and the California Student Teachers' association at Woodrow Wilson Junior high school Thursday afternoon, according to CSTA President Dick Cirigliano.

Dr. Holt's visit is being sponsored by the Santa Clara county Teachers association and San Jose Teachers association, Cirigliano said.

With the exception of a three year interruption for military service during the war, Dr. Holt has served as executive secretary of the Tennessee Education association since 1937.

Cirigliano invites all CSTA members and their friends to hear Dr. Holt, and also to attend tomorrow's CSTA meeting at 4 p.m. in A-1. Mr. Richard Conniff will address tomorrow's meeting on "Establishing Good Student-Teacher Relationships."

ed of three members of the band, is to be an added entertainment feature at the Prom. Dan Field, Bob Thurlow, and Hal Roberts are the three members. Roberts plays the violin in the band, sings comedy songs, and is considered a first class comedian.

The "Band of Gold" has as its music arranger Pete Rugalo. He is pianist-arranger for Stan Kenton.

Drama Department Schedules Two Extra Performances of 'Shrew'

Two performance nights have been added to "Taming of The Shrew", according to Dr. Hugh Gillis, Speech Department head. The additional nights are Thursday, Feb. 9 and Friday, Feb. 10. Tickets for these dates went on sale this morning in Room 57, Speech office.

Shakespeare's comedy will be presented eight days in the college's Little Theater, three days more than originally scheduled.

"Taming of The Shrew" will be the third longest running play in the history of the Speech and Drama department, Dr. Gillis explained. Shakespeare's "Hamlet" is first, with 17 performance nights. The play was directed by Dr. Gillis, and the title role was played by Dr. James Clancy, then a student.

The second longest running play was "Medea," presented in March, 1948. Dorothy Lyons played the title role, and the show was directed by Dr. Clancy. "Medea" had nine performances on campus with several presentations in the Stanford theater.

Miss Elizabeth Loeffler is directing "Taming of The Shrew."

"Faust," presented as the first production of the 1949-50 Speech and Drama season, is fourth with a seven day run. John R. Kerr was director.

Student admission to "Taming of The Shrew" is 60 cents; general admission is 90 cents. To facilitate matters students are requested to bring their Student Body cards, and are urged to get their tickets now. There will be no additional performances added, Dr. Gillis said.

Comedy to Run Eight Days

Jim Jensen recites Shakespeare's most amorous poetry to pretty Pat Brizee in the romantic lead roles of Lucentio and Bianca in "Taming of The Shrew", opening Thursday night. Two additional performance nights have been added allowing for an eight-day run of this Shakespearean comedy.

Thurman Opens Religious Forum

Noted Speakers to Appear in Morris Dailey; Also Will Lead 'Skeptics Hour' Discussion

By FRANCIS ERROTA

Dr. Howard Thurman opens the two-day Forum on Religion today, speaking on "The Quest for Stability" at 2:30 p.m. in Morris Dailey auditorium. Dr. Ralph Hyslop and Rabbi William Sajowitz will be tomorrow's speakers.

President Don Schaeffer will preside over today's meeting, and

Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, San Jose State college president, will introduce Dr. Thurman.

Theme Announced

Theme for the two-day event is "Faith for an Age of Frustration", and is sponsored by the College Religious conference supported by the student council, associated Women Students, Pan-Hellenic, and Interfraternity council.

Following Dr. Thurman's talk this afternoon, he will preside over a question period or skeptics hour in S112 at 4 o'clock.

At 11:30 o'clock tomorrow morning, Dr. Hyslop and Rabbi Sajowitz will speak on "My Responsibility for Building a Better World". At 2:30 p.m. tomorrow, a skeptics hour will be held in S112, with Dr. Hyslop and Rabbi Sajowitz presiding.

A faculty luncheon will take place at 12:30 p.m. tomorrow; in the Home Economics tea-room with Tuesday's two speakers in attendance.

As a part of the two day re-

Court Revamps

Meeting for the first time at the new hour of 4:30 o'clock, the student court will today continue its revamping of the present outmoded court procedure.

ligious meeting, seven living groups, four sororities and three fraternities, will conduct informal discussions. Questions raised during the two day meet will be discussed and answered, with faculty members leading the discussions.

Mr. Wilbur F. Luick and Dean James DeVoss, will lead a discussion in the Student "Y" tomorrow evening. This meeting will be open to any interested students.

Groups Take Part

The two organized living groups meeting this evening include Gamma Phi Beta sorority, with the discussion to be led by Dr. Mary Grace Hamilton, and Kappa Alpha fraternity with Dean Paul M. Pitman leading the discussion.

Tuesday evening meeting and discussion leaders include, Chi Omega sorority, Mrs. Florence Bryant; Alpha Chi Omega sorority, Mr. Charles Guichard; Delta Upsilon fraternity, Dr. Elmo Robinson; and Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity, Dr. Harrison F. Heath in charge.

Dr. Arturo Fallico will lead a Thursday night discussion for Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

UP ROUNDUP

Eight Allies Sign Mutual Aid Pact

The United States and eight Atlantic Pact allies last week signed formal mutual-aid agreements providing for rush delivery of $1,000,000,000 of American arms to free Western Europe within the next few months.

In return, the eight nations, getting free weapons promised to use them to prepare their defenses against a possible Soviet attack. They promised to help arm each other and to give the United States what bases and strategic materials they can without endangering their own economy.

The agreements, supplementing the Atlantic Pact, bound the United States into the closest peacetime alliance in its history.

SEND DIPLOMATS

Chancellor Konrad Adenauer last week accepted an invitation from Western high commissioners to send West German consular representatives to Washington, Paris and London.

Dr. Ferris Addresses SJS Entomology Club On Chinese Insects

"I can't tell you anything about Chinese scale insects because I don't know anything about them. All I did was collect," said Dr. G. F. Ferris, entomology professor at Stanford university, opening his address before more than 100 San Jose State college Entomology club members and their guests last week at Stanford university.

Group Plans Obscure Music Presentations

A society for the promotion of neglected musical works is being formed by students interested in music, according to C. Allen Gove, chairman of the group.

The aim of the society is to perform works of early and modern composers which are rarely heard publicly. There are to be at least three recitals a quarter. They will be open to the public and students, and will be given without charge, according to Gove. The first recital date has not yet been announced, but it is expected to take place within the next three or four weeks and will be held during the noon hour in the music building. The recitals will be given by students.

"It is hoped that the society will encourage interest in student music recitals as this is sorely lacking at the present," said Gove. "If these programs are successfully accepted they may become evening recitals."

Mr. Thomas Ryan, instructor of music, is adviser to the society.

Composers to be represented in the first recital are: Couperin, Frescobaldi, Gibbons, Lawes, Honneger, Hindemith, Schonberg, Milhaud, Bartok, Ives, Villa Lobos.

Hillel Club Will Sponsor Dance Tonight for Polio

The Hillel Club of San Jose State college will present "The March of Dimes" dance tonight at 8:30 o'clock in Alexandria hall of the YMCA.

All proceeds from the dance will go to the San Jose State college polio campaign fund.

Arnold Levine, president, announced that there will be special entertainment features and all students and their friends are invited to attend the affair.

No set admission price has been planned for the dance since proceeds will be given to the worthy cause.

Debate for Today

Jim Bell and Sam Datri will defend the proposition: "That the United States should nationalize the basic non-agricultural industries" in a debate in B-4 at 11:30 o'clock today.

A two-man team from Stanford university will take the negative side.

All students are invited to attend, Mr. Wilbur F. Luick, adviser to the Forensic club, said.

Dr. Ferris has just completed a trip to China collecting scale insects, but has not as yet made a careful study of them.

He made the trip through the auspices of governmental exchange of scientists between foreign countries and the United States, he said.

Centering his talk around living and traveling conditions in China, he said that "you have to know someone who knows someone in order to get anywhere at all." Dr. Ferris knew a professor at Ling Nan university in Canton, he said. He explained that food was excellent in most of the Chinese temples where he stayed while traveling through what is left of Chinese vegetation and forests.

Monks Cook Well

"The monks are wonderful cooks. They even served us beetles that were really good and tasted much like shrimp," he said.

In showing slides he explained that the beauty of China is found in the sparsely forested mountain areas contrasted with the "ugly city of Canton where I stayed in between trips." He attributes the present forest areas to the conservation effort of the monks.

Department Gets Insect Journal

An entomological journal compiled at Kyushu university in Fukuoka, Japan, was recently received by the Natural Science department at San Jose State college, according to Dr. Carl Duncan, head of the department.

Dr. Duncan said that he has been communicating with Mr. Reizo Yasumatsu of the Japanese university, and it was from him that Dr. Duncan received the pamphlets concerning Japanese insects. Yasumatsu is the author of several of the research papers. Some of the work is printed in Japanese.

Dr. Duncan said he was expecting packages of Japanese insects,

WAA Basketball Teams Hold Second Playoffs

San Jose State college WAA basketball players got their second workout in the present tourney Thursday night when five games were played in the Women's gym.

College Staff Librarians Attend Meet

Miss Elaine L. Brigham and Mrs. Doris London of the Library staff represented San Jose State college at the national convention of the Music Library association held at the San Francisco Public library last weekend.

School and public librarians from all sections of the country attended the three-day convention. The program included a tour of peninsula and east bay libraries Sunday. Among them were San Jose State college, Stanford university, San Jose Public library, Mission San Jose, and Mills college. Exhibits dealing with music were displayed at each library.

Musical instruments from the collection of Miss Alma Williams, assistant professor of music, were displayed in the Library cases and will remain on exhibition throughout this week.

SPARTAN DAILY

Spartans Sweep Two Games From Wolf Pack

By MANNIE ALVES
Spartan Daily Sports Writer

RENO, Nevada—Jan. 29—Spartan basketballers got back into the win column with a clean sweep of their two weekend games with the snarling Wolf Pack of the University of Nevada at Reno last Friday and Saturday nights by 64-62 and 71-66 scores.

Top scoring honors in the Friday game were divided between George Clark and Nevada's Jim Hayes with 16 markers each. Saturday night's top scorer was Spartan Stu Inman who hit for 18 tallies while the Pack's Joe Libke led the Nevadans with 16 points.

In their farewell game Saturday night, the Staters left the playing floor under the protection of the local gendarmes who rushed onto the floor as a melee was set off when two of the opposing players collided. That was all the Nevada homefolk needed as they surged onto the court and started throwing fists.

The Spartans were leading in the closing seconds 69-65, with Nevada trying desperately to get possession of the ball, when Harold Hayes, Nevada forward, rammed into Dean Giles. The rhubarb was on, but was over as quickly as it started. San Jose moved on to take the exciting 71-66 tilt.

Friday night in the opener, the two quintets began the game by trading shots in the opening seconds with Inman tanking a set shot for the visiting Spartans. Successive shots by Center Clark and Forward Don McCaslin put the Spartans in a lead that they kept until halftime, at times widening the gap to nine points. Nevada left its home floor trailing 25-31 at the half.

The second half was a closer affair as the pack traded shots with the Staters. Some of the best basketball played by the Spartans was displayed as swishers by Clark, Bob Wuesthoff and Inman whistled through the net.

Beating off a late Nevada rally, the Spartans showed the locals some of the cleverest ball handling seen in these parts as they put on a two and one-half minute freeze to win the game by a 64-32 margin.

Showing unerring accuracy on the free-throw line, both teams made a high percentage of charity tosses. In both games the decisive factor was the accuracy on the foul line and most important, the aggressiveness of a spirited San Jose State team that shook off the doldrums and got moving in high gear when the going got rough.

The weekend showed some of

San Jose Boxers Pound CCSF; Scheberies Wins

San Jose State's boxing team successfully opened its regular season last night with a decisive 13 1/2 to 3 1/2 win over City College of San Francisco in Spartan gym before 2200 excited fans.

Coach Dee Portal's men won 13 bouts and registered seven TKO's and one knockout, while losing only three. One was a draw.

Wrestlers On Top In Berkeley Bouts, Payne Gets Award

Before a small but enthusiastic gathering Saturday night at the Berkeley YMCA, the San Jose State college grunt and groaners tallied 37 points to win their fourth straight Northern California Junior Wrestling Crown. Ralph Payne, who triumphed for the Spartans in the 145-lb. class, was awarded the Most Valuable Performer award. Bill Wardrup, 136-lb. division, and Lee Jordan, 165-lb. class, were the other local winners.

The University of Stanford, with 13 points, followed the Spartans in scoring, and Treasure Island, 12; Olympic Club, 12; University of California, 8; Alameda Naval Air Station, 8; and San Francisco State college, 6, came next in order.

Jordan, in order to win, had to wrestle Dick Campbell who also hails from Washington Square, and the match ended in a 3-3 deadlock after three periods of action. However, the officials conferred and decided in favor of Jordan.

Another referee decision was handed down in the 155-lb. bout and Ray Bunnell was declared the loser in his scrap with Byron Nelson of the Navy. The Spartan and sailor were knotted at 2-2 after the regulation limit.

Three other local matmen gained the semi-finals, Lou Menghini and Noboru Yonemoto in the 131-lb. and 115-lb. classes respectively, and Dale Wolfe in the 121-lb. division. Menghini was hampered somewhat because of a recent injury that kept him from being in tip-top condition.

Payne scored a fall in his foray against Rattiff of the University of Santa Clara in 1 minute and 30 seconds of the first period.

Gymnastic Team Opens Sked Feb. 8

Nine events will be performed by the San Jose State college gymnastic teams this season when they take on the Stanford university Indians in their first meet Feb. 8, at 7:30 p.m. in the Men's gym.

The Indian-Spartan brawl was scheduled for Feb. 16 but was changed Friday, Coach Mumby announced.

Assisting Mumby is Dick Brown who is arranging the program which will include the rope climb, high-bar, side horse, rings, parallel bars, tumbling, doubles, and trampoline games.

As expected, the heavyweight match between Jack Scheberies of San Jose and Frank Sueuga of CCSF turned out to be the best on the card, with Scheberies coming through with an upset TKO. Sueuga gained an early lead, but two knockdowns by Scheberies in the second heat set up the Ram heavyweight for a third-round TKO.

Following are the results of the bouts:

120—Ernie Paramo (SJ) dec. Roxie Navarro.

120—Keith Bayne (SJ) tko Telmo Frisco (3).

135—Don Camp (SJ) tko Bill Revilla (2).

130—Vic Harris (SJ) dec. Len Garcia.

Eastern Foes Play State in 'Palace'

Intersectional opponents head the biggest week of basketball for the Spartans this season.

Bowling Green university, year after year a colossus of the hardwoods, meets San Jose State college in the Cow Palace Friday night in a tilt that means more to the locals than any other single affair of the season.

West Virginia State college offers competition on the Cow Palace floor Saturday evening. The West Virginians visited the coast in 1949 and left a favorable impression. Undoubtedly the quintet from across the nation will feel more at home on this occasion.

But before San Jose tips-off against these teams from other sections, it'll attempt to sweep its two game series with San Francisco State college in Spartan gym Wednesday night. The Joseans just did nudge the Golden 'Gators, 51-49, two weeks ago.

Patrons Announce Plan For Freshman Award

Rooters to Be White-Clad

A white-clad Spartan rooting section will welcome students of San Francisco State college Wednesday night, when their basketball quintets clash at the local Men's gym, according to Ed Mosher, rally chairman. The tip-off is scheduled for 8:15 o'clock.

"Only those students wearing white will be allowed to sit in the east-side section," Mosher said. Plans for half-time include a basketball contest on miniature scale, with two local grammar schools competing for honors.

Half-time highlights later in the quarter will include a jitterbug contest, fencing exhibitions, and comedy skits as well as previously announced trampoline and wrestling acts, the chairman said.

"Better support of our baseball and track teams during spring is the goal of the Rally committee this quarter," said Mosher. "Also within the next few weeks plans for card stunts during 1950 football season will be drawn up."

Ad Frat Approves Jr. Club Formation

Alpha Delta Sigma, national professional advertising fraternity, held a regular meeting Wednesday, at which time they approved plans for the formation of the Junior Advertising club. The club will be composed of ADS and the women's auxiliary, Gamma Alpha Chi, according to Vince Scampini, publicity director for ADS.

Plans were also made for the coming spring program. Jim Caputo, ADS president, appointed Bill Francis, historian; Ray Lyons, pledgmaster; and Vince Scampini, publicity director.

Patrons' Association Will Give Two Prizes

The San Jose State college Patrons' association will award two $50 scholarships in March to freshman students meeting the requirements set by the group, according to Mrs. R. I. Bodah, president of the organization.

Last year, the association awarded a $100 scholarship to Mildred A. Hawkins of San Mateo. This year the amount will be divided equally between a male and female freshman student.

The association also is offering a $25 prize for creative work done by a freshman student in connection with his or her college course. Last year's award went to Evelyn McCurdy, who has appeared in leading roles in many college dramatic productions.

The $50 scholarships are to be awarded on a basis of scholastic attainment and need. Women applicants should apply to Miss Helen Dimmick, dean of women, and men to Dean of Men Paul M. Pitman. All applications will be considered by a committee representing the faculty and awards will be made at the March 23 meeting of the association.

Purdue Team Gets 'All-Out' Backing

PURDUE UNIVERSITY.—Students are once more going all out to show their team they have 100 per cent backing regardless of temporary setbacks or defeats.

Beside, better-organized yells and stepped-up cheer programs of the usual kind, booster tickets have been printed and will be issued for the next and all future basketball games. The yellow tags, with "Win or Lose, We'll Back Purdue" on them will be given out to students between classes on the campus sometime this week by the Reamer Club, and other fans.

Other evidence of school spirit was noticed Sunday at the Big Four Station, where students and fans had gathered to greet the returning team from Minnesota. Actually the team missed the welcome because of a mix-up in train connections, but the big turnout was encouraging.

Schulz-Renews La Torre Plea Therapy Majors Assist At Veteran Group Party

Despite numerous requests, both verbally and through the Spartan Daily, 16 organizations have disregarded the plea to make financial arrangements for space in the 1950 La Torre.

Once again La Torre Business Manager Bill Schulz urges representatives of the following organizations to pay for their space or to give some indication of their intentions. Fees and reports will be received at the Graduate Manager's office, room 16.

Alpha Omicron Pi, Black Masque, Delta Nu Theta, Kappa Delta Pi, Lutheran Students association, Mu Phi Epsilon, Phi Mu Alpha, Phi Upsilon Pi, Sojourners, Presbyterian hall, Rally committee, Seekers, Sigma Kappa, Tau Delta Phi, Gamma Alpha Chi, Spartan Ski club.

Students from the social recreation course will assist hostesses in the group party to be given at the Veterans hospital in Palo Alto tonight at 7 o'clock.

This course, open to occupational therapy majors only, enables the students to meet people and patients that they will encounter in their future profession, according to Miss Mary Booth, assistant professor of occupational therapy at San Jose State college.

The class is taught by Mrs. Sarah Wilson, assistant professor of physical education and recreation for women.

In addition to planning parties and other recreational activities for the veterans, the group will stage a group party for the adult blind at the Women's gym next month.
