San Jose, California, Friday, April 7, 1950

No. 107

Registration Figures Below Last Quarter

A total of 7074 full-time students have registered for spring quarter at San Jose State college, with 6284 registered in the State college and 790 in the Junior college.

Mr. Glen E. Guttormsen, college accounting officer, says that in addition approximately 150 part-time and 50 full-time students

Students Say Cheating Rare On Campus

Dishonesty among students of San Jose State college has been found rare, according to a recent survey conducted by the Fairness committee.

Approximately 1350 students of 9:30 a.m. classes replied to questionnaires last March concerning relative honesty of fellow students with respect to papers and examinations.

The great majority of students were voted honest. Percentage breakdown of the poll revealed honesty to be: frequent, 49.5; almost universal, 40; occasional, 8.2; rare, 2.3.

In the 9:30 classes polled dishonesty was found to be: rare, 63.9 per cent; occasional, 25.3 per cent; frequent, 7.4 per cent; almost universal, 3.4 per cent.

Comparative figures show a decrease in cheating since the previous poll conducted a few semesters ago. Student opinion also revealed that dishonesty has declined since the inauguration of the Fairness committee.

Dr. Donald Alden, associate professor of English, gave a report before the Fairness committee at a recent meeting concerning new penalty systems for violators of the Fairness code. The committee approved his recommendation that grade pressure should not be used by instructors for classroom misbehavior, and his investigations will be used as a basis for a new Fairness code.

Forensic Members In Quarter-Finals

The team of Sam Datri and John Mix of San Jose State college's Forensic club reached the quarter-finals in the Pi Kappa Delta Provincial Invitational Debate tournament held April 3-5 at College of Pacific, Stockton.

In the upper division section which the Datri-Mix team competed in, 37 teams were entered. The debate proposition called for nationalization of basic non-agricultural industries, and each team debated five times, alternating negative and positive sides.

Teams participating in the quarter-final were ones that had no more than one defeat in the first five rounds. The San Jose State college team had no defeats before the quarter-finals.

Other San Jose State teams entered in the Stockton meet were Leslie Groshong and Robert Whitall, who had three wins and two losses, and Willis Morris and Jim Maynard, who had two wins and three losses.

Forty colleges and universities registered at the meet, including Stanford, Nevada, Washington State college, and University of Southern California.

will register before registrations close.

By Monday night 5334 students had enrolled and at the end of the second day of registration, registrations totaled 7044.

Vets Last Stand

There are 2359 veterans enrolled in the State college and 140 in the Junior college. The largest veteran class entered its last quarter this week. In the fall of 1946, 2846 ex-G.I.'s registered. Last quarter 2624 vets still were in attendance.

State college non-veterans enrolled this quarter total 3925, and 650 non-veterans are registered in the Junior college.

The State college enrollment of 6284 is in line with the Strayer committee's report which set 6000 as a maximum. The 6000 figure is in full-time units, figuring 15 units per student.

Autumn quarter 8019 full-time students were enrolled, with 6922 in the State college.

Women Outnumbered

Last quarter 6530 full-time students were registered in the State college and 870 in the Junior college. Of the total of 7400 students, 4634 were men and 2766 were women. Limited students taking five and one-half units or less totaled 304, with 122 men and 182 women.

Mr. Joe H. West, dean of student personnel and guidance, when asked to comment on this quarter's enrollment said everything went off smoothly as most students knew what to do.

Regarding the reduction in total enrollment, Mr. West said the college has become more strict with respect to admissions and in enforcing disqualification rules.

Enrollment Reduced

Reduction in enrollment was partly due to the fact that enrollment in the winter and spring quarters normally is less than that for the autumn quarter.

"We would feel a little better about the enrollment if a few of those in the State college were in the Junior college, but we hope for more success next year in balancing the two divisions of the college," Mr. West explained.

Deadline Today For New Courses

The deadline for adding new courses this quarter is 5 p.m. tonight, according to Mrs. Nan Joesten, registration office secretary.

Mrs. Joesten says students wishing to add or drop courses should pick up change of program cards to match the color of their registration book at the registrar's office. The cards must be filled out and signed by both instructor and adviser.

Students who drop a course unofficially will be assigned a failing mark. Those who fail to file a change of program card to add a course will find it necessary to petition for credit at the end of the quarter.

Fill out the following questionnaire and return to the Spartan Daily office at your earliest convenience.

Nationally famous Freddy Martin and his orchestra have been signed by the San Jose State college class of 1950 for their senior ball, to be held June 17 at the Bay Meadows Jockey club, in San Mateo, Dance Chairman Gale Morelock announced this week.

The biggest name ever to be contracted by San Jose State college, Martin was featured for many years at the Coconut Grove in the Ambassador hotel in Los Angeles. Popular pianist Jack Finna, featured regularly at the Claremont hotel in Berkeley, got his start with Martin at the Ambassador, as have other well-known musicians.

Featuring the "Martin Men", his saxophone and orchestra, the famous band leader will furnish the dance tempo for more than 300 couples who will gather at the exclusive peninsula club to celebrate the beginning of Senior Week activities, Morelock said.

Under the leadership of Class President Fred Michels, Ball Chairmen Morelock and Russ Benioff, and their committee promise that this will be the most outstanding Senior Ball in State college history.

the first held since 1947, when the Spartan Knights sponsored the observance. Marsh Pitman is chairman of the planning committee, assisted by Phil Ward, Ray Bishop and Dick Shaffer.

The services will begin at 6:30 a.m. with the Invocation, by Rev. James Martin, executive secretary of the SJSC Student Y. Scripture and prayer readings by Phil Ward follow, and Gloria Surian, soloist, will sing Granier's "Hosanna." She will be accompanied by Richard Jesson, organist.

Dr. R. E. Fitch Has Numerous Experiences

Dr. Robert Elliot Fitch, professor of Christian ethics at the Pacific School of Religion in Berkeley, brings to his San Jose State college audience on Easter Sunday a wealth of religious experience and knowledge.

The son of American Presbyterian missionaries, Dr. Fitch was born in Ningpo, China, and received his elementary education there. He studied in Switzerland before coming to this country, completing his high school education at St. Luke's school in Wayne, Pa., in 1919.

He received his A.B. degree from Yale university in 1923, his B.D. from Union Theological Seminary in 1926, and studied at the University of Paris from 1926 to 1927. Returning to the U.S., he attended Columbia university, receiving his M.A. in 1929 and his Ph.D. in 1935.

During the last war, he served in the U.S. Navy as chaplain aboard an attack transport in the Pacific. Dr. Fitch has taught at numerous universities and colleges, is an active member of religious and educational organizations and has written several books on philosophy and the American mood.

SJS Exhibit

An art exhibit by San Jose State college students is being presented at Montalvo in Saratoga, announced Dr. Marques Reitzel, Art department head yesterday.

Water colors, oils, lithographs, jewelry, ceramics, weaving, leather craft and design constitute the exhibit by the college students.

The exhibition was prepared by Mrs. Gladys Vogelmann, Robert R. Coleman, William C. Randal, and John Mottram, instructors in the college art department.

San Jose Gets Budget Bill From Warren

An operating budget of $2,643,788 for the fiscal year of 1950-51 was granted San Jose State college Monday, when Governor Earl Warren signed the 1950-51 budget bill for the state of California. According to E. S. Thompson, business manager of the college, the 1950-51 budget exceeds the 1949-50 figure by $134,636.

Mr. Thompson said that the operating budget includes salaries, instructional materials, and equipment, and that it is figured on a ratio of 19 students to one teacher. This ratio, as set up by the state department of education, is the basis for the budget and budget approval by the department of education and the state legislature.

Figures for capital outlay, also designated in the new budget, but entirely divorced from the operating expenses, include a $685,000 grant for the building of a new engineering building, and a $756,700 grant for the construction of a new music building, according to Mr. Thompson.

Project expenditures coming under capital outlay include expenditures of $97,800 to be used for the repair and improvement of electrical facilities, $1,700 for electrical fixtures in the men's gym, and $1,215 for the renovation of heating in the reserve book room.

Mr. Thompson pointed out that the 5.4 per cent increase in the operating budget, is comparatively small when you consider the increase in terms of college growth and past fiscal budgets.

Teacher Leaves

Dr. Lee Clinton Newby, head of the Modern Language department of San Jose State college, reports that Mrs. Barbara Butler is planning to leave this spring for Columbia university to further her studies.

Mrs. Butler taught first year French and was secretary of the Modern Language department. Dr. Newby took over her class.

Mrs. Georgette Smith has replaced Mrs. Butler as secretary of the Modern Language department.

SJS Gets 130 Tickets For Employment Meet

San Jose State college has been allotted 130 of the 300 tickets available for the Santa Clara valley employment seminar to be held April 20, at 7:30 p.m. in the Montgomery theater, Dr. William H. Poytress, head of the social science department, announced yesterday.

In cooperation with the San Jose Chamber of Commerce and the Personnel Association of Santa Clara valley, Dr. Poytress and Dr. Earl C. Campbell, professor of political science, have been representing San Jose State college as members of the seminar's steering committee.

The college had been given 100 tickets, but 30 more were allocated due to the large number of faculty and students desiring to attend the gathering.

Robert N. Klein, city personnel director, will head the affair as leading business, industrial, government, and educational leaders of the area discuss problems facing their respective sections.

Stanford and Santa Clara universities will be represented at the evening meeting.

Dr. Poytress said, "If this year's meeting is successful, plans will be made to hold a bigger and more extensive one in 1951."

This year's program will include introductory remarks citing reasons for a seminar program and the problems facing employer and employee in job situations.

Speakers on the program will come from industrial, banking, retail, and government fields.

An evaluation committee made up of Mr. Klein, Dr. Charles Dirksen, dean of the college of business administration, University of Santa Clara, Dr. Poytress, and Dr. Campbell, will send out questionnaires to students of the three institutions attending the seminar.

Busy Day Set For 'Y' Group

Members of the San Jose Student Y will leave at 8 o'clock Saturday morning for "Camp Campbell Day." The "Y" activity day will be held at Camp Campbell in the Santa Cruz mountains, according to Lu Weaver, publicity chairman of the Student Y.

Jean Justice is chairman for the event. An active recreation program is planned, including hiking, volleyball, and baseball. A dance will be held in the evening.

The after-dinner program will feature two one-hour discussions of the activities held last quarter by the Student Y. Members hope that suggestions offered by the discussion groups will aid the Student Y in improving their program for this quarter.

Revelries Block Tickets On Sale

All organizations desiring block tickets for the opening night of Revelries, April 26, are urged to make reservations in the Graduate Manager's office before Tuesday, April 11, according to Nick Diez, business manager.

Reservations must be picked up before April 19, otherwise these tickets will go on sale to the general public and student body.

Opening night of "Low Button Shoes" is less than three weeks away. Dick Pritchard announced that rehearsals have been going on for more than a month and all parts have been cast. Revelries usually is presented during Winter quarter each year, but this year because of difficulties arising from misinterpreted regulations, the show was postponed until Spring.

This course, known as Window Display 196C, will meet from 4-6 MWF in A-1. The class is offered once each year and is an excellent opportunity for Commerce majors to become acquainted with the art of display work, Dr. Reitzel said.

Other courses of possible interest to commerce majors are Brush lettering 17 3:30-5:20 MWF in A-29 to be taught by Roger Condon. Art 106C, Merchandising, will be given at 4:30 TTh in A-23. ## Students Get Disease Shots; Sign-up Today

Immunization shots for smallpox are to be given Tuesday and all students wishing to be "shot" should sign their names on the sheets posted outside the Health office today, Miss Margaret M. Twombly, head of the Health and Hygiene department, announced yesterday.

All students taking six or more units are eligible for the shots. Those signing up may come to the Health office anytime between 11 a.m. and 1:45 Tuesday to be vaccinated, Miss Twombly said.

The Health office head also stressed the fact that money for these immunizations will come out of the funds of the McFadden Health cottage and the health clinic will only administer the shots. A student does not have to have an ASB card to be immunized.

A sign-up sheet is also posted for those wishing to take Schick tests for diphtheria next week. These shots come in series of three, each shot a week apart, and if a student signs up for one it is assumed that he intends to take the others also, Miss Twombly said.

She added that these shots are only to determine if a person is positive or negative and will not prevent contraction of the disease.

A guest artist, Pat Ironside, former drama major at the college, will play the leading role of Mrs. Conway. Pat has had several years of acting and directing experience on Broadway, and her appearance will inaugurate a policy which will continue in some of next season's plays.

REASONABLE EASTER

THERE IS AN ANSWER for the honest contemporary mind to the problem of human mortality.

NOT IN MAGIC OR SUPERNATURALISM does the answer lie, but rather in the wisdom and heroism of human nature.

DEATH IS NOT THE ULTIMATE DEFEAT of the real values of human living. Men can say with John Donne:

"DEATH BE NOT PROUD!"

This is the title of the Easter sermon which will be preached by the Rev. Nathaniel Lauriat at 11:00 o'clock service this Sunday morning. You are cordially invited to share in this service, the Fellowship Coffee Hour which follows it, and the nursery and Church School which run concurrently. At 7:30 p.m. the Channing Club for college-age young people will meet in the Fireside Room to discuss "Social Action: Why and How?" Any interested young person will be welcome.

Commerce Prof Takes CEBA Post

Dr. Milburn D. Wright, associate professor of commerce, was elected secretary of the California Business Education association Tuesday at the annual convention of the association in Hotel Sainte Claire.

About 400 business teachers from all over the state attended the two-day convention on Monday and Tuesday. Ten of the San Jose State college Commerce department faculty were on the convention program. This necessitated shifting around of the advisers on registration day.

Dr. Earl W. Atkinson, head of the Commerce department, pointed out:

"If some of the commerce faculty appeared to be a little drowsy the last few days, it is undoubtedly due to the running back and forth from the convention to the college to take care of the registering students."

Dr. Atkinson was general program chairman of the convention, while Dr. Wright was general chairman.

Two State Students to Sing Civic Auditorium Opera Leads

Churchill Jackson and Don Logie, San Jose State college students, will play the leads in "Impresario" and "Cavalleria Rusticana" to be presented April 14, at the Civic auditorium.

Logie, a baritone, will play the part of Alfio in Pietro Mascagni's folk-opera "Cavalleria Rusticana."

Hal Willard and Joe Guzzetti, students at San Jose State college, worked on the scenery for the productions.

Hal Upson worked on the costume design.

Tickets are on sale at the Denny

Watrous box office, Sherman Clay music store, and Ferguson's music store.

Revelries Lead Teethed On Theatrical Tradition

Curly-haired Cliff Roche, who takes the part of Mack, one of the two comedy leads in "Low Button Shoes", 1950 Revelries production, lives, eats and breathes theater.

He claims to have been interested in show business ever since he can remember—partly because of his family's interest in the theater and partly because of a natural dramatic talent. His sister has also appeared on the stage.

Cliff is a senior drama major who will graduate in June. He has been attending San Jose State college since 1946, but after his graduation will work for a Master's degree at the University of California at Los Angeles.

He has had previous experience working on Revelries shows, having taken the part of Jack Powell, comedy lead in the 1947 Revelries show, "Up Powell." In "Low Button Shoes" Cliff portrays a flip, wisecracking ex-G.I., the big shot of the almost all-coed San Jose Normal school campus in post-World War I days.

In the show, Cliff has a way with women and—but need I say more?

Cliff took the part of Frank

Lippincott in the San Jose State college presentation of "My Sister Eileen." He played the lead in "Androcles and the Lion," another major production of the Speech and Drama department.

Other plays in which Roche has appeared here at the college include: "The Wanhope Building," "Love for Love," "John Loves Mary," "Crispine," "Kiss and Tell" and "The Assassin."

The 23-year-old drama major helped to organize both the San Jose Players, honorary drama organization, and the Radio Guild here at San Jose State college.

He was married in February to the former Pat Baker, also a San Jose State college student.

ASB Card Holders Urged to Plan Social Affairs

"Anyone holding an ASB card may participate fully in the activities of the Social Affairs committee," according to Duke Deras, chairman of the group.

"Attendance at three meetings establishes membership," he adds.

The chief function of the Social Affairs committee is the planning and conducting of student body dances. During the past year the group has carried out a number of clever and unusual themes in the presentation of a full schedule of unforgettable college social events. These included Homecoming activities, the Red Cross dance, the Registration dances, Wintermist, and the Leprechaun Leap.

Girls far outnumber the boys in attendance at meetings of the Social Affairs committee, Chairman Deras observes. ASB card holders are reminded that the group meets every Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Student Union.

Mrs. Evelyn Baggs 'Spectre of Rose' Starts Movie Series Has Lab Sections In Science Dept.

"I just didn't have time to get first-lecture-fright," Mrs. Evelyn Baggs, new addition to the natural science faculty, said recently in regard to her first experience of talking to a group of listening students.

"I was so wrapped up in the subject matter I was trying to get across that I didn't have time to think about myself," the former San Jose State college student stated.

Mrs. Baggs' courses in elementary botany and biology are both laboratories. She received her bachelor's degree from San Jose State college in 1940 and continued at UCLA in psychology and science graduate work. Her master's degree was awarded in 1942.

Upon being questioned as to what she thought was the biggest change in the Spartan campus since her graduation, she immediately replied, "the barracks!" She declared that they seem to mar the beauty of the campus, "but I guess they are a necessity. The college has doubled its enrollment since I attended ten years ago."

Mrs. Baggs said many of her former professors recognized her. She stated that the science faculty have been most helpful in assisting her adjustment to the new profession. "They have been wonderful," she explained.

"Spectre of the Rose", the first of six movies to be featured in the Unusual Movie series sponsored by the San Jose Players, will be presented Wednesday evening, April 12, in the Little Theater. Starting time is 8:15. Starred in the movie are Judith Anderson, Michael Chekov, and two young ballet stars, Viola Essen and Ivan Kirov. Season books for the series will be on sale Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in Room 57; Speech office, from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m. The books sell for $1.50. Single tickets will be sold at the door. Admission is 30 cents.

A TRADITION IN SAN JOSE

Golf Team Bows To Bears in NCI

San Jose State college, defending champs, were dethroned yesterday as the University of California won the Northern California Intercollegiate golf team title with a total of 294 over a tricky Pasatiempo course.

The Spartans came in with 301 followed by Stanford's 303.

A record entry of 110 golfers from 18 colleges and universities participated in the fourth annual tourney. With team laurels decided by medal play, the lads today will aim for individual honors. Led by medalist Don Brunk, Cal junior and brother of Frank the football star, 32 players have qualified for the championship flight. Brunk had a card of 70, one under par. Ken Venturi and George Bruno, two Spartan linkers, turned in rounds of 71. Unlike yesterday, match play will prevail throughout the tourney.

Eight golfers from San Jose gained the top bracket. In addition to Bruno and Venturi, Warren MacCarty (74), Bill King (73), Joe Zakarian (73), Len Osborne (76), Jay Hopkins (76), and Bud Watts (77) all will try to gain the crown vacated by defending champ, Al Nelson of St. Mary's.

The Spartans received a tough break in the draw as Bruno is pitted against teammate Hopkins. They are two of the better golfers on Coach Walt McPherson's squad.

Record Turnout Attends Banquet

A huge turnout of 160 people honored the San Jose boxing team at Vahl's restaurant, Wednesday night. Heading the list of guest speakers was Carol Hansen, KCBS sportscaster, Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, Coach Dee Portal, and Mac Martinez, the 125-lb. NCAA champion.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity sponsored the affair. Movies, financed by the Ringsiders, were shown. All of the Spartan's fights in the PCI tournament were covered in the movies. Martinez received a trophy donated by Duncan O'Neal, Charles Luckhardt, and Walter Alden for his sportsmanship and outstanding scholastic record. Martinez proved he was a champion on the floor also when he gave a stirring speech of gratitude.

Portal gave a brief explanation of tournament fighting and rules.

Spartan Nine to Face Mustangs Tomorrow

By ROSS MASSEY

The Washington Square horsehiders, who ran wild on the base-paths to beat San Diego Thursday, 5-3, and took a lacing from Compton college Friday, 8-2, prepare to engage in CCAA wars, Saturday, April 9, at Municipal stadium when they meet Cal Poly's Mustangs in a doubleheader. Game time is 12:30 o'clock.

Coach Walt Williams paraded his whole mound staff to the hill in the two games. Glenn Davis, Ralph Romero, and Pete Mesa were the most effective hurlers, holding San Diego to three hits.

The Aztecs scored twice in the third frame when Bob Nelson, first sacker transfer from Minnesota, cracked a tremendous 350-foot home run and Bass, leftfielder, countered on an error at third base.

In the fifth inning, Tom Okagaki was safe on a push-drive past the pitcher and Burch, rightfielder, beat out a hit to shortstop. Concklin loaded the bases when he surprised the Aztec infield with a bunt after taking two strikes. Lopes scored Okagaki and Burch with a Texas league single that the centerfielder got a glove on but could not hold. Later Concklin and Lopes countered on errors.

Concklin scored in the seventh inning on a wild pitch to finish State's scoring. Romero, second Spartan pitcher, received credit for the win.

Compton, after being held in check for six innings, broke out with six runs in the seventh and ninth innings to win going away. A walk, an error, plus a single and a double produced three runs in the seventh. In the ninth frame, Russell, a pinchhitter, singled with the bases loaded to provide the clincher.

San Jose got a run in the fifth on two consecutive singles, a sacrifice, and an outfield fly by Dick Lane. In the sixth, Don Lopes hit a towering 340-foot home run over the left field fence to end State's scoring.

"Lefty" Joe Collins, Marv Miller, and Ray Jacobus hurled against Compton and Jacobus received the loss. Miller stifled Compton for three innings, holding them for no hits and runs.

Collins made his first appearance in a San Jose uniform and pitched creditably, allowing only three hits and two runs. He was hindered when Shva, plate umpire, called two balks against him.

Venturi Captures 12th Golfing Title

Throughout the years, San Jose State college has fielded a strong golf team of championship caliber. Recently, link stars like Bobby Harris, Morgan Fottrell, Bill Ogden, and Eli Bariteau have played major roles in winning the 1948 NCAA title and the 1949 NCI and CCAA tournaments.

This year a star of equal brilliance appears on the Spartan golf horizon in the person of Ken Venturi.

Venturi, 19-year-old freshman, is well known throughout Bay area golfing circles. He has acquired practically more titles than years in his brief but rapid rise to the top of the amateur ladder.

Last week the San Francisco Amateur title was added to Venturi's growing collection of trophies — the 12th major tourney trophy within four years. The Lincoln high (S.F.) graduate bested a field of 64 top-notch golfers during six weeks of grueling match play that found older and more experienced men fall by the roughside.

While still in high school, the lanky 170-lb. youth won eight championships and was runner-up to two. Last year he walked off with top honors in the Northern California Junior tourney and placed second in the national tournament.

Quintet May Take Midwestern Trip

The SJSC 1950-51 basketball squad probably will make an eastern junket during Christmas vacation, according to Coach Walt McPherson, who recently returned from the NCAA basketball coaches convention in New York City.

McPherson, who attended his first NCAA convention, said that Bradley, Hamline, Notre Dame, Marshall and Bowling Green are "possibles" for the new schedule.

Big business at the convention, McPherson said, was the elimination of the controversial two-minute rule.

The move to return to 40 minutes of straight basketball received a heavy vote from the coaches.

The casaba mentor witnessed the NIT and NCAA basketball tourneys in New York and Kansas City. Bradley, CCNY and BYU looked very good, McPherson said, although Baylor was not impressive on the nights he saw them play. Both meets were won by CNY in an unprecedented grand slam.

Softball Notice

Next Friday, April 14, is the deadline for intramural softball signups. Director Bill Perry announced.

Four fields are available for games and if enough teams sign two leagues will be formed.

All interested parties are requested to see Perry before 3 p.m. Friday.

Boxers Spread Good Will at NCAA Tourney

By DAN HRUBY

"Ambassadors of good will" were the words used by Coach Dee Portal to describe the conduct of his team of San Jose State college boxers at the NCAA fistic tourney in State College, Pa., over the recent vacation.

The quintet of leather-throwers, who placed fifth in the meet, were given words of praise by their affable mentor in a recent interview.

"The boys were the targets of much comment concerning their sportsmanship both inside and outside the ring," Dee said. "The losers took their defeats without a squawk and our winner, Mac Martinez, said even less. San Jose made many friends in the tournament."

"We had a good trip," Dee continued. "The meet was the toughest I've seen in a long time. Five titlists failed to defend their crowns. The coast gained much prestige in winning six out of eight individual titles."

Asked if the officiating was well-received, Portal declared that it was not. The Minnesota boxing coach openly showed his displeasure with the judges in leaving the tourney before it was over. Tafoya's loss to Thrash of LSU was the most unpopular decision, he said, and a few other bouts drew sneers and frowns when the result was announced.

"The much-debated Martinez-Moss fight of last year still received considerable mention," Dee added. "Many college coaches approached our party and expressed their opinion of the fight. After seeing the movies, not one coach voted against Martinez; if we had won that bout, we would have taken the championship."

"Diez, Tafoya, Scheberies and Schaeffer were in excellent shape, and not one San Jose boxer failed to put up a good fight," Dee explained, "Martinez was the hero of the meet. In marvelous condition, he won six fights, including two titles, in less than 10 days. Carlson of Idaho was named the outstanding boxer of the tourney because he has taken three titles in as many years, but Martinez was the overwhelming favorite this year."

No 125-pounder welcomed a fight with Martinez, Portal said. The little guy, who punches like a street corner jackhammer, was unbeatable. He ran from the dressing room to the ring, and when the bell sounded, came from his corner like a Remington shot.

In the finals, Martinez was unleashed on Amos of Michigan State, and according to the Spartan boxing pilot, it wasn't even close. "Two judges gave Mac the fight 30 points to 22, and 30 to 24, respectively," Portal commented, "yet the other judge, who was troublesome to many boxers, gave Martinez the edge, 29 to 27."

Portal believes that 175-lb. Don Schaeffer fought a better fight at Penn State than at Sacramento against the shrewd Maxey of Gonzaga, who won both diadems in nine days. Schaeffer finished strong and, according to the coach, with a few breaks would have taken the match.

Portal also praised Scheberies. "If Scheberies, who fights in spurts, had started his barrage a little earlier," Portal asserted, "he might have won. Diez fought clean and hard against the tops in competition, Carlson of Idaho, and gave a good account of himself."

The Spartan mentor said that the boxing schedule for next year will be different from this season's, but no matches have been made with distant schools. Michigan State, which probably will host next year's NCAA tournament, University of Minnesota, Gonzaga, Washington State and Idaho all intimated they are interested in scheduling the Gold and White institution.

Frosh Beat Bucs; Coffey Hurls Win

San Jose State college freshman baseball team won its fourth game of the early season by edging out a 2-1 victory over Campubell high. Their only loss was to San Jose high last quarter.

Yesterday's game was a pitcher's battle as Bob Coffey of State and John Oldham of Campbell each allowed three hits. Hitting for the frosh were Ernie King, Fritz Betero, and Pat Higgins. In addition to his hitting, Higgins stood out with his work in the field.

Martin, Mattos To Travel to S.B.

Two San Jose State college field-events men will compete in the Santa Barbara relays in the Channel city, tomorrow. Coach Bud Winter said yesterday. They are high jumper Mel Martin and pole vaulter George Mattos.

Martin probably faces his hottest competition since last year's NCAA meet when he tangles with Jack Razzetto of San Diego State and Willie Dancer of Santa Barbara. Sophomore Razzetto tied for first place last week in the Texas Relays at 6 ft. 8 1/4 in. and Dancer already has done 6 ft. 6 1/2 in. this season. Martin topped USC and Fresno last week with 6 ft. 5 in.

Mattos hooks up with another 14 footer, NCAA champ Bob Smith, also from San Diego State.

McConnell to Dive Against Gaters

San Jose State and San Francisco State resume swimming relations tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the home pool after a lapse of some 12 years. The action is the first in a series of home engagements for the Spartans and Gaters.

The old reliable, Diver Pat McConnell, is being counted on to lead his teammates to victory. George Haines, entered in the 50 and 100-yard freestyles, should be high in point totals.

Wash. State, SFS to Duel Tennis Squads

Coach Ted Mumby's San Jose State college tennis team hosts a touring Washington State college aggregation on the Spartan Village courts at 1:30 this afternoon, and will meet San Francisco State college on the Gater courts at 1:30 tomorrow. Tomorrow's matches will conclude a busy week of tennis for the Mumby-men, who lost to the powerful Golden Bears of California at Berkeley last Wednesday afternoon, 8-1.

Today's court action against the Washington State Cougars will find the local racket-wielders slightly favored. The Cougar netmen have won four of the five meetings on their current tour, losing only to an improving Santa Clara university net team.

Tomorrow's matches in San Francisco will find Mentor Mumby's men meeting the Gaters for the second time this season. The local courtmen won the earlier meeting on the home courts.

Butch Krikorian, Chet Bulwa, Dick Russo, Bob Castle, Don Gale and Dave Parney will probably hold down singles berths for the two week-end matches, with Krikorian and Bulwa playing first doubles, Castle and Gale second doubles, and Parney and Russo in third doubles.
