

Spartan Daily Bells Will Sound Air Alert; Map Shows Safety Regions

SAN JOSE STATE COLLEGE

Vol. XXXIX San Jose, Calif., Tuesday, Feb. 13, 1951 No. 86

A series of four short bells tomorrow will signal the San Jose State college practice air raid alert at a undisclosed time.

More than 6000 students and 400 instructors will file into designated safety areas in barracks and buildings at the air raid signal. The alert is being conducted to test the college Defense and Disaster committee's evacuation plan.

Each instructor has ascertained whether any students in his classes are assigned to special duties in an alert. Appointed student monitors will leave their classes to report to their stations.

The air view of the campus, taken last May, shows Washington Square divided into sections. Faculty and instructors in the designated sections should go to the following safety areas.

A—Persons go to the building's basement.

B—Persons remain in the library.

C—Persons in this area go through the arch to the Library Reference room.

D—Persons located here go to Rooms 30, 32 and 34 via stairway in front of Business office.

E—Persons in E go around the north side of main building to the library through arch, occupying corridor outside Reference room.

F—These persons go to Rooms 2 and 3 of Home Economics building.

G—Persons in G go to main building corridor.

H—Persons in H go to Rooms 14, 16, 20 and 24 of main building.

I—Persons in I go to first floor of Education building.

J—Persons in J go to first floor of Art building.

K—Persons in K go to new section of Women's gym.

L—Go to first floor of H.E. building.

M—Go to first floor and basement of Science building.

N—Go to first floor of Science building via new arch.

O—Go to Rooms 7 to 21.

P—Go to Science building basement via ramp on Fourth street.

Q—Go to stacks of main building library.

R—Go to south basement of main building via outside stairs.

S—Go to south basement of main building.

T—Persons remain where they are.

SJS Establishes Institute

By HAL BORCHERT

A long-time dream of San Jose State college social science professors has practically become a reality.

Dr. William H. Poytress, head of the Social Science department, has announced plans for establishment of an Industrial Arts institute with Dr. Edwin Shaw, assistant professor of economics, as head man.

The aim of the institute will be to relate the college courses in labor relations and industrial economics to the growing industries of Santa Clara valley.

Temporary headquarters for the institute have been set up at 254 S. Eighth street. A library and seminar room are planned for students as well as Santa Clara valley industrial and labor organizations who are being invited to take part in the institute.

Main objectives of the institute have been announced by Drs. Poytress and Shaw. They are:

1. To integrate labor, business, public officials and advanced students in industrial relations.
2. To aid the business community in a better understanding of local problems.

3. To graduate well-trained students in this field.

4. To make available latest information on local problems.

5. Possibly to form a part of the core of a future graduate program in industrial relations leading to a Master of Arts degree.

The Weather

"?" can't wait until this afternoon when the women invade the Spartan Daily office in an attempt to put out a paper. "Nothing like cluttering up a newspaper office with a bunch of frustrated females," says "?. But he feels that he's going to enjoy himself immensely.

The weather for most of the campus should be fair with little change in temperature, but storming on E. San Carlos street this afternoon.

Naval Representative Visits Campus; Considers Facilities

Mr. J. W. MacCauley, civilian adviser to the educational officer of the 12th Naval District, inspected the San Jose State college campus yesterday. He surveyed the college to determine how well it is suited for a proposed armed forces training program.

Dr. Charles Purdy, associate professor of mathematics, who is expeditor for the training on campus, directed Mr. MacCauley to the various departments.

Dr. Dwight Bentel, head of the Journalism department, gave Mr. MacCauley a 150-page, illustrated brochure describing the college. The brochure includes a description of the buildings and other facilities, a list of the courses offered, names and qualifications of the faculty and a description of the housing and feeding facilities.

President T. W. MacQuarrie said last week that the only weak point the college has standing in the way of a service program is its housing facilities. According to the brochure prepared by Dr. Bentel, the college is offering the high school, Spartan village Pratt hall, and the recently acquired property east of the college as facilities which may be used for housing.

Get Shots Today

Second-chance influenza immunizations will be given in the Health office between 2:30 and 4 p.m. today, according to Miss Margaret Twombly. About 60 spaces remained on the sign-up sheet late yesterday afternoon.

Women Establish Beach-head

GET OUT OF HERE — Bill Ernst, Spartan Daily business manager is being given the bum's rush by Daily staff members D. Dixie Wise (pointing) and Ardeth Maw (wielding the broom). The girls are clearing the way for the feminine invasion of the Spartan Daily office today, as Joan Hale, AWS president, becomes Editor-of-the-day.

Joan and her crew of AWS members will put out tomorrow's women's issue, giving a review of women's activities on campus.

The women's issue is one of the many activities of Women's Week, which began yesterday. It will reach its climax with the AWS Heart's Delight dance at the Scottish Rite temple on Friday evening. Girls can bring their dates to this dressy girl-ask-boy affair, and dance to the music of Bob Russell's orchestra from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Bids are on sale in the Library arch at $1 per couple.

When they buy their bids, girls will have a chance to vote for the Jack-of-hearts, who will reign over the dance.

Council Plans Action Today On Resignation

The Student Council will consider the resignation of Herb Patnoe, senior class representative, at this afternoon's meeting in the Student Union, according to Dave Down, ASB president.

Patnoe informed the Student Council last week that he was dropping out of school to accept a teaching position in South San Francisco. No action was taken by the Council at that time because a formal resignation had not been received.

The proposed changes in nomination procedures which were introduced to the Council last week by Tom Evans, sophomore representative and member of the Constitutional committee, will be the subject of further discussion today, Down stated.

The amendment would have class officers nominated by student petition instead of the present method of nomination by assembly.

Bob Madsen, ASB vice president, will report on the SJS recognition assembly which is scheduled for spring quarter.

Down emphasized that reports from all outgoing class officers and Council members are due. These students should submit a report stating what they accomplished while in office, and what their specific duties were.

Finalists to Clash For Bridge Honors

Four couples will vie for final championship in the campus bridge tournament as a result of last Thursday night's preliminary matches.

Burt Morris and H. Murray Clark, campus tournament directors, declared that these preliminary winners will have a chance at the Chicago finals if they continue to show the skill displayed last week.

The finals will be played late in February, according to a statement by Alice Hays, Social Affairs committee chairman in charge of the tournament at San Jose State college.

Preliminary game winners are partners George Terhune and R. Max Schwelbe, Ed Mitchell and George Spadafore, Ted Richmond and Warren Bishop, and John Stafford and Gene Drew.

Senior Class Donates $100 to Guide Dog Fund

The "Guide Dog for Lanini" fund reached $797.27 yesterday when the senior class council voted to contribute $100, and $57.27 was donated elsewhere on the campus, according to Dan Hruby, co-chairman of the drive to help provide a guide dog for Graduate Student Ed Lanini.

"It is extremely gratifying to receive such a donation," Hruby said. "The class' money is used to finance its annual picnic and Senior Ball. Despite the possibility of not having enough to defray the cost of these traditional functions, its members voted unanimously to help provide a guide dog for Ed, so that he may become a useful member of our community."

"Very seldom do we have the opportunity to help one of our own students," Hruby said. "Usually our aid is given some abstract cause. This time, however, we will be able to see the results."

Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., is a non-profit organization operating on contributions which thoughtful people give it. Its administration costs are kept at a bare minimum because literally hundreds of people volunteer their services, Hruby said.

The campus drive will end Friday, and booths will be maintained again tomorrow.

Who's Certificates

Dave Down, ASB president, asks that the following students pick up their Who's Who certificates in the Personnel office.

Phillip Bray, John J. Casey, Edward Gasper, Elwood Deras, Joan J. Hale, Lincoln Kimura, Robert C. King, Georgelyn M. MacDonald, Jack Scheberies, Melba F. Sills, Melvin Stien, Marian Swanson, and Margaret Weaver.

Hollywood Star Speaks Today

Coleen Townsend, former 20th Century-Fox star, will be on hand to give a short talk today, and Richard C. Halverson will give his second lecture.

Halverson, associate pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Hollywood, will speak on "Jesus and History" at 2:30 p.m. today, in the Little Theater.

Miss Townsend, who was featured in the film "Decision", has appeared in major roles in the movies "When Willie Comes Marching Home", "Chicken Every Sunday", "The Walls of Jericho", and others.

Only 20 tickets are left for Saturday night's Actor's Lab presentation of "Antigone", according to Mrs. Verda Jackson, of the college Speech office.

The Thursday and Friday night performances are completely sold out, Mrs. Jackson said yesterday. The play opens Thursday for a three-day run.

Because of space limitations, only 50 people can see the production each night.

Dr. C. A. Buss to Speak On U.S. Far East Policy

By LEN WALLACH

Dr. Claude A. Buss, professor of history and chairman of the committee on Pacific and East Asian studies at Stanford university, will speak in the Morris Dailey auditorium Friday at 11:30 a.m., according to Dr. William H. Vatcher, political science instructor.

Dr. Buss, who is a former Chinese language specialist in the U.S. State department's foreign service, will speak on the subject, "What are we doing and why in East Asia."

At the outbreak of World War II, Dr. Buss was executive assistant to the U.S. high commissioner of the Philippine Islands. When Japan captured the Philippines Dr. Buss was in charge of American interests in Manila. He was imprisoned by the Japanese for two years and later was repatriated to this country on the exchange ship Gripsholm.

According to Dr. Vatcher, Dr. Buss is one of the outstanding authorities on the Far East and has a great deal to offer to San Jose State college students.

Sartre Twists Plot for 'Flies'

The Drama department's production of Sartre's "The Flies" is now in rehearsal, according to Dr. James Clancy, faculty director of the show.

Although the play is based on an ancient Greek theme, Sartre has modernized it and given it a new twist. This theme was also the basis for O'Neill's "Mourning Becomes Electra", Dr. Clancy said yesterday.

Tom Patterson, Judith Levy, and Sherry Brigham will play the leads in the play. Supporting them will be Fred Adair, Warren Blomseth, Ronald Sego, Conrad Smith, William Coleman, Lawrence Berachoid, James Barnardi, Robert Collins, Dave Jenkinson, Warren Ramsey, Bert Graf, Joan McKibben, Marjorie Brown, Muriel Fritz, Dolores Ceraso, and Norma Welch.

Dancers, who will be under the direction of Marian Beeken, will be Barbara Kelly, Elaine Guey, Donna Wegner, Lorraine Davidson and Betsy Smith.

Dr. Clancy, professor of speech at SJS, also is directing the Actor's Lab production of "Antigone", which will open a three-day run in the Studio theater Feb. 15.

Tri Beta Frat Boosts Roster With Initiates

Epsilon Delta chapter of Tri Beta, honorary national biological science fraternity, gained 19 Spartan members Wednesday evening when the campus group held initiations, according to James St. Germaine, president.

The event took place in the Natural Science building, and was followed with refreshments.

Those who increased the roster of organization are Wayne Buck, Donald Burdick, Robert Hiller, Ben Ichikawa, Albert Johnston, Mayrene Kearney, Norman Lewis, Lois Lindberg, David Madsen, John Marcroft, Charles Matsumoto, Daryl Mutz, Alvin Nickel, Corwin Strong, Dale Uriu, Richard Villafuerto, May White, Fumio Yamakawa and Quen Young.

Pat Mason Places High in Bay Finals

Patricia Mason, SJS "Snow Queen", placed high in the final contest for the Bay Area Ski federation snow queen and took the post of queen attendant.

Pat will spend a week in the snow country for her winning of the local contest sponsored by the San Jose State college ski club. While at Donner ski ranch, Pat will reign as the local queen over the Bay Area Ski federation giant slalom races on Feb. 25. The races are being sponsored by the SJS Ski club.

Spinners Present Sweetheart Spin

"Spartan Spinners' Sweetheart Swing" is the title of the valentine folk dance to be held at the YWCA gym tonight at 7:30 o'clock, according to Robinette Woodside, publicity chairman.

Guests at the party will be the "Stanford Hoedowners" from Stanford university. Refreshments and program are planned.

Student Y Group Plans Taffy Pull

Valentine's day will be celebrated at the Student Y general meeting tomorrow night.

The Frosh Y is acting as planning committee for a valentine party to begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Student Y.

Games, taffy pulling and dancing will be offered.

General chairman is Kirby Campbell. Patt Stevens and Maggie Huff are in charge of games and refreshments, and the decorations are being planned by Eugene Secor, Laura French, and Bart Hammond.

Barrena Gets Wallet Back; Thief Keeps $40 Cash, Check

The saga of the missing wallet had its second and concluding chapter Friday when Charles Barrena, 23-year-old merchandising major, received a letter stating that his lost wallet had been found. Barrena had previously reported the wallet stolen from his gym locker.

The wallet was found in an ash can behind a glass shop on S. Market street. A personal check and $40 in cash was missing from the billfold when it was returned.

The Spartan boxer, a second lieutenant in the national guard, recovered military papers ordering him to report to Fort Knox, Kentucky, for Armored training next April. He also stated that his student body card was returned.

Lick High Students Examine Blo's Art

Students from Mr. Thomas Koskey's advanced art class at James Lick high school recently visited the one-man exposition of Peter Blo, Oakland artist, in the art wing.

The students are studying portraiture, and the Blo exhibit has many good examples of this type of painting, Mr. Koskey said. Student opinion of the work was highly favorable.

Accompanying Mr. Koskey was Mr. Lyle Meacham, former SJS student who is teaching in the James Lick art department.

Kerwin Sells Story

A feature story entitled, "Service Brings Success", netted its author, Keith Kerwin, senior English major, $50 last week.

The article will appear in the May issue of "Model Railroad Dealer". The feature was illustrated by Alfred Taylor, senior industrial arts major.

Spartans Prepare For S.F. Tourney

Finally living up to pre-season expectations, the Spartan cagers are preparing industriously this week for the Cow Palace's independent college tourney Friday and Saturday nights.

In their last two outings, against St. Mary's college and College of Pacific, Coach Walt McPherson's quintet hit its seasons peak with 66-51 and 58-56 wins, respectively.

Although the Spartans managed only a two-point victory over the Tigers, they were the "hottest" they have been all year. In the first half they connected for 48 per cent of their shots, and they maintained that average in the early stages of the second period.

The locals needed that outstanding average to nip the equally red-hot Tigers. COP was definitely on that night, hitting for more than 33 per cent of their shots.

The return to form by Center George Clark was instrumental in the San Jose State college win. Against the Bengals he was the Clark of old, controlling both backboards from COP's rebounding combination of Howie Pearce (6-7), Ron Detrick (6-5) and Bill Wirt (6-4).

Dean Giles and Chuck Cramp-ton performed a sensational duo shooting exhibition that broke the Tigers' backs. The pair racked up 37 of the Spartans' 58 points.

In the Cow Palace tourney the Spartans open against Santa Clara university in the feature game of Friday night's doubleheader. In the first game University of San Francisco battles St. Mary's college. The next night the winners and losers pair off.

San Jose State and USF rate the edge in their first round games. Earlier this season the Spartans defeated the Broncos and the Dons tumbled the Gaels.

USF will enter the tourney definitely weakened by the loss of its two-top centers, Mary Bowerman and Pat Boyle, because of scholastic difficulties. Coach Phil Woolpert will have to shift the center burden on to sophomore Dick Jensen, although Forward Jerry Hickey is not entirely unfamiliar with the pivot position.

If the Spartans capture the tourney title they would not be sole heirs of the Northern California independents' crown because of an earlier defeat to the Dons, 54-43. This would make the Spartans' final game of the season against USF a "natural."

Last year both teams entered their final game with one win apiece and tied for the Northern California honors.

COACH WALT McPHERSON

Portal Seeks 135-lb Boxer To Face Idaho

Coach Dee Portal stepped up the tempo of his boxing team's workouts yesterday in preparation for the Spartans' rugged encounter with the Idaho Vandals at Moscow Saturday night.

Three challenge matches were called off yesterday as Portal said they were "unnecessary". It was not known at press time who would fill the 135-lb. and 145-lb. spots on the Spartan squad which leaves for Moscow Friday morning at 1:15 o'clock.

Portal said yesterday that he is definitely concerned about who meets Idaho's Norm Walker in the 135-lb. division. Walker was a finalist in the 1949 NCAA tourney and has defeated Washington State's Ev Conley twice.

In the 145-lb. division, however, Portal says Idaho is fairly weak, whereas SJS is fairly strong.

The Spartan squad which will invade Moscow is headed by NCAA champ, Mac Martinez, who is slated to meet the Vandals' Franky Echevarria.

Al Tafoya will battle Idaho's DeForest Tovey in the 130-lb. division, and Bob Frazer is scheduled tentatively to meet the Vandals' NCAA champ, Len Walker.

Senior Nick Diez will face Vandal Verl King in the 165-lb. division.

Darrell Dukes will go up against Vandal Larry Moyer in the light-heavyweight division. Dukes defeated Ray Lehnkuhl last Thursday night to earn the trip to Idaho.

In the heavyweight division, Jack Scheberies will meet an unnamed opponent or possibly 234-lb. Mary Beguhl. Scheberies defeated Washington State's PCI champ, Hubert Christianson, in January.

Track Mentor Optimistic over Pole Vaulters

George Mattos, San Jose State college pole vault record holder, hopes to clear 14 ft. 10 in. in this, his senior year. Bud Winter, varsity cinder coach, says "George has an excellent chance to accomplish his objective."

The bamboo artist from Pacific Grove is working for more speed, his so-called only "weakness." He cleared 14 ft.-5 in. in the College of Pacific dual meet last spring. Mattos failed to clear 14 ft. in only two meets in 1950, and placed third in the NCAA meet at Minneapolis.

The enrollment of Bill Priddy, 13 ft.-6 in. vaulter from Bakersfield, gives the Spartans another top qualifier in the pole vault. Winter describes the oil city performer as having a fine competitive attitude.

"Priddy is a diligent worker and there seems to be no obstacle in his road to improvement," Winter said.

Fighting it out for the third spot in the bamboo event are Al Brenda, star freshman performer of last year, and Lloyd "Bud" Hamilton. The latter is 30 lbs. overweight and is busy starving himself back into condition.

Spartans May Play Cougar Grids in '51

Attempting to fill that Sept. 22 open date on their football schedule, San Jose State college athletic officials now are negotiating with Brigham Young university of the Sky-Line Six conference.

Danny Hill, SJS athletic news director, announced yesterday that the Spartans would meet the Cougars in the opening home game at Spartan stadium if negotiations are fulfilled satisfactorily.

In the past Brigham Young has met San Jose State four times on the gridiron without a single win to its credit. In the two institutions' last encounter, held in 1948, local fans saw the Spartans cop a high-scoring affair, 40-21.

Hill said that Spartan athletic authorities also are talking with another Sky Line school.

The college decided not to meet any service teams this fall, Hill said. The general consensus is that the Service elevens as yet would not be on a par with college ball this coming season.

Gymnasts Vie Against Cards, Olympic Club

Two powerful gymnastic teams, Stanford university and the Olympic Club of San Francisco, invade Spartan gym Friday night for a triangular meet with Coach Ted Mumby's San Jose State college gymnasts. First event is slated for 8 p.m.

Friday's affair will be the first start of the locals since their recent 60-28 defeat at the hands of Stanford. The Cards have dropped only one match this year, that was a 45-35 meet to the Olympic club.

The clubmen have two former Spartans on their roster. Glenn Walthall, one of the top gymnasts in the bay area, is scheduled to compete in four events against his former mates.

He will enter the free exercise event, high bars, rings and parallel bars. Dick Brown, who once captained a San Jose State gymnastic team, will be one of the favorites in the free exercise and parallel bar events.

Jim Melton, Stanford standout, also is a former Spartan.

Raider Wrestlers Meet Bruins, C.P. This Week

Coach Ted Mumby will accompany 10 San Jose State college wrestlers on a two-day excursion of southern California this week. The local matmen face Cal Poly at San Luis Obispo tomorrow night and the UCLA Bruins at Los Angeles Thursday afternoon.

Mumby said yesterday, "If we don't do better against our next two southland opponents than we did against two previous 1951 southern California foes, we will lose." He was referring to the San Diego Naval Training Center and San Diego State college squads, only teams to top the Spartans this year.

Trounced Mustangs

The locals have seen no action since the 15-14 loss to San Diego State here Saturday, Feb. 3. The Aztecs trounced the Mustangs in Crandall gym 24-3, but Mumby claims the farmers are not that bad.

Coach Sheldon Harden's Green and Gold mat crew boasts a 30-0 decision over San Francisco State. The Gaters were pre-match favorites but failed to win a single match. In dropping a 20-6 affair to the San Diego Naval Training center, Cal Poly wrestlers made most of their matches close.

Paul Fishbeck, who doubles as a boxer-wrestler, is the Mustang standout. Another Cal Poly ace is Webber Lawson. He lost a close decision to Billy Almack, SDNTC, who once was the Oklahoma state champion 130-lb. grappler.

The locals face Cal Poly at 8 o'clock tomorrow night, then travel to UCLA for a 3 p.m. meeting on Thursday.

Beat Bruins in '50

The UCLA mat crew is of unknown quantity, but Harry Broad-bent, San Diego State coach, describes the Westwood Bruins as "very strong". San Jose State defeated the Bruins 19-11 here last season.

Mumby describes his grapplers as being in good physical condition for the trip. The Raiders will be after their fourth and fifth victories of the season. They hold two lopsided wins over Stanford, and a 24-13 win over San Quentin.

Spartan grapplers accompanying Mumby on the southland tour will include Chuck Matsumoto, 115-lbs.; Bennie Ichikawa, 123-lbs.; Jack Cassidy, 130-lbs.; John Jackson, 137-lbs.; Ray Bunnell or Bill Waldrup, 147-lbs.; Co-Captains Frank Waxham or Lee Jordan, 157-lbs.; Ralph Morrocco or Jordan, 167-lbs.; Lou Menghini, 177-lbs.; Al Cadena, 191-lbs., and Jean Snyder, heavyweight.

Golfers Notice

All candidates for the varsity golf team are urged to meet at the Men's gym office at 12:30 this afternoon, according to Walt McPherson, team coach.
