West States Foreign Students Are Powerful

"Formed in the unity that was felt by all nations after the second World War, the International Union of Students rapidly became an organ of Soviet propaganda directed at the under-developed parts of the world," said Mr. Robert West, speaking before a capacity crowd in the Little Theater yesterday. Mr. West, a member of the U.S. student observer group that attended the conference last summer, is now a member of the UNESCO organization.

Mr. West revealed that a three-man American delegation learned several important lessons from the conference. One was that the importance of student groups in other countries—especially in South-west Asia—is much more in evidence than might be believed.

He said that many of the high officials of Burma, for example, are only three or four years out of college, such is the demand for education in this "backward country."

Another lesson was that people who live differently, think differently, said Mr. West. Students of these countries must be convinced that Americans want to help them and the American delegation tried to emphasize U.S. sympathy with their problems.

Mr. West emphasized that the basic problems of the world are military ones; they are problems of economics, sociology, and politics. Those students of Southwestern Asia hold a great deal of power in their hands, he said, and at present hold a neutral attitude.

"They pose a tremendous challenge to all of us," said Mr. West. He felt that the Western nations must embark on a long-range plan of rebuilding and education, but that it must not conflict with the feeling that Asia is for the Asians. Through these methods, West felt the Western nations could show them that the "necessity of revolution . . . is false counsel."

Mr. West's speech was under the auspices of the World Affairs Council of Northern California and was arranged by the local International Relations club.

Frat Plans Speech

Mr. G. Johnson Smith of the British information service will speak to Phi Alpha Theta, national history fraternity, tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the Student Union, according to Richard Thompson, president.

Mr. Smith will discuss the British position in world politics. The group also will consider the possibility of new memberships.

Prof Shows Films

All interested students are invited to attend two movies, "Basic Business Economics" and "Consumer Economics," in Room 127 today at 1:30 p.m., according to Miss Lillian Lyntum, Commerce department secretary. Mr. Jay A. Burger, assistant professor of commerce, is sponsoring the films.

City Planners Still Quarrel Over SJS Land

By DAN HRUBY

Hint of a possible compromise on the street widening controversy between San Jose State college and the city of San Jose reportedly drifted from the city planning commission's meeting room Tuesday, but it did not strike a note of enthusiasm in Dr. Raymond Mosher.

Dr. Mosher, dean of summer quarter and commission member, declared yesterday, "Nothing was decided. Much was discussed but the commission agreed to make no definite moves until it can confer with Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie." Dr. MacQuarrie, college president, now is attending the convention of the American Association of School Administrators at Atlantic City, N.J. He is slated to return to San Jose Monday.

The problem stems from recent action by the commission to slice 33 feet from San Carlos and San Fernando street frontages, between Fifth and Seventh streets, for street widening purposes. This brought emphatic criticism from Dr. MacQuarrie, who maintained the college needs the space for new buildings.

Dr. Mosher emphasized that Tuesday's commission meeting yielded nothing tangible. The commission discussed three plans, he stated:

1. Taking the 33 feet off the street sides opposite the college property.
2. Leaving the street as it is, but discarding the commission's plan to install adequate parking between Seventh and Ninth streets.
3. Allowing the college to keep all the San Fernando street frontage, but adjusting the San Carlos demand to include dedication of not more than 20 feet for street purposes instead of 33 feet. The college then could build up the property lines without setbacks, and would lose only a five-foot strip of usable land for its building.

"If you are a member of an organization and find yourself unable to be loyal to superiors, you should resign."

Mr. Claude N. Settles, associate professor of sociology, made this statement when asked if he thought Deputy Sheriff Sherman Millard's "lone ranger" raid was justified. The young ex-marine took it upon himself to rid Santa Clara county of a few punchboards last week-end. He visited several night spots and, filling his car to capacity with boards and a variety of prizes, returned to headquarters.

Professor Settles believes that Millard took the wrong approach in attacking the problem on his own. "He should have resigned his office and then presented the problem to the various reform groups and have them back him," he said.

"The punchboards are only minor; nobody's losing his fortune on them. They're practically in the same class with church lotteries," Settles said.

Work Nets Suspension

The raid netted him nothing more than a 30-day suspension by Sheriff Howard Hornbuckle. The sheriff said Millard had no authority to collect the boards and described the deputy as an "irresponsible kid who is trying to ruin discipline" in his office. Hornbuckle said that his own investigation was ruined by the raid.

The fat is in the fire now, however. Several groups in the county are getting behind Millard. Others are demanding Hornbuckle's recall.

Deputy Sheriff Glenn Abell, SJS police school graduate, said in a letter to a local paper that conscientious officers are relegated to the "sticks" for enforcing the law.

Deputy Abell's letter read, in part:

"The Sheriff's office of this county has many college graduates and highly trained officers who could easily make this one of the most efficient law enforcement agencies in the country. This has not been possible because the knowledge and ability of these officers have been curbed to fulfill the needs of a few instead of the needs of the general public."

BOE Enters Picture

George R. Reilly of the State Board of Equalization has said that night spot proprietors found guilty of gambling charges will be penalized.

Dr. Earl C. Campbell, professor of social science at SJS and member of the county board of supervisors, said that the board had no authority in the matter.

County Counsel Howard Campen told Dr. Campbell and the board that, if there's malfeasance or nonfeasance on the part of an elected official, the only recourse to the public is a recall election.

Millard is preparing to appeal his suspension to the County Civil Service commission.

Silver Sabers Held Contest

A contest to name a theme for the annual Military Ball, restricted to ROTC students, will begin today according to Harry Holyfield, secretary of the Silver Sabers society.

The contest will run until March 5 and the winner will receive a bid to the ball to be held Friday, May 25, in the Empire room of the Sainte Claire hotel.

Ideas for a theme are to be given to Miss Muriel Truscott, secretary, in the ROTC office, Holyfield said.

Lanini Fund Tops $1300, Lacks $109

The Lanini Fund passed the $1300 mark yesterday, according to Co-chairman Dan Hruby.

An official figure of $1340.50 was reported by the Graduate Manager's office, Hruby said. This is $40.50 more than the amount raised throughout the entire county in a Guide Dog for the Blind fund raising campaign in 1950.

The sum as recorded by the Graduate Manager's office left only $109.50 to be raised to reach the campus drive's goal.

Recent contributions not previously reported are: Beta Sigma Phi, $10; Alpha Tau Omega, an additional $5.81; and Eta Mu Pi, $10.

Kirkwood Says State Colleges Need Better Lobbies in Capitol

A stronger lobby of state colleges is needed at the state capitol, according to Assemblyman Robert Kirkwood, who spoke to faculty members here yesterday.

State Senator Jack Thompson and Assemblyman Charles Gubser also spoke to the college AAUP group.

Assemblyman Kirkwood emphasized that college advisory boards and alumni associations should take a more active part in behalf of legislation concerning state colleges.

He added that as compared to University of California the state colleges have virtually no lobbyists speaking with members of the legislature and consequently may not get their appropriations.

Senator Thompson pointed out that it was impossible for members of the legislature to become familiar with the many bills introduced. He said there were 400 lobbyists registered at the last session and that many of them were helpful in offering pros and cons for proposed legislation.

Senator Thompson assured faculty members that they would get another five per cent increase in salary July 1 in addition to the last increase which is retroactive to Jan. 1.

The legislators affirmed their approval of the Levering Act which prescribes loyalty oaths for all state employees. A lively discussion of the merits and demerits of the act took place during the question period.

Scribes Await Fresno Visitor

Dr. Paul Sheehan, head of the Journalism department at Fresno State college, will visit the San Jose State college Journalism department today. He is making a survey of the various aspects of journalism departments in California state colleges for the State Department of Education, according to Dr. Dwight Bentel, head of the department of journalism.

Dr. Sheehan will spend the entire day inspecting the department and will have lunch with the faculty.

French Week Film To Be Shown Today

A short movie entitled "A Paris" will be shown in Room 21 at 12-noon today. The showing will be part of the current festivities of "French Week" at Washington Square. The narration for the film is entirely in French, but the movie is of such a nature as to be readily entertaining to persons who do not speak French, according to Miss Julie Alger, publicity chairman.

All interested persons are invited to attend, Miss Alger said.

Dancers to Speak

Dancers will be given speaking parts for the first time at San Jose State college when the Drama department's production of Sartre's "The Flies" is given in the Little Theater beginning March 1, according to Dr. James Clancy, director of the show.

"The dancers in 'The Flies' will not come on stage in a break in the action, but will dance while other characters carry on action," Dr. Clancy said yesterday. He added that the dancing in the play is not ballet, but rather modernistic.

Council Tables New Motion On ASB, Class Nominations

By CARL FERNANDES

Should ASB officers and class officers be nominated by student petition or by assembly? This is the question facing the Student Council.

Tom Evans, sophomore class representative and member of the Constitutional committee, proposed Tuesday that the Constitutional committee's recommendation that ASB and class officers be nominated by petition be adopted by the Student Council.

The proposal states that a student seeking a class office must obtain the signatures of 25 members of his class and that candidates for ASB positions must secure 75 signatures of ASB members.

Henry Down, sophomore representative, proposed an amendment to Evans' motion, which would delete the clause, "no student shall sign more than one petition for each office."

According to Student Council procedure, the motion and its amendment are tabled until next week, when a vote will be taken.

A committee composed of Bob Madsen, Ed Mosher, John Melendez, Mr. Edward Clements, and Mr. James Craig, was appointed by ASB President Dave Down to investigate and consider the proposal of the Rally committee that SJS yell leaders be elected by popular vote.

Yvonne Gineste, representing the Rally committee, asked the Student Council's permission to present the committee's show, "Just for Laughs", in the San Jose Civic auditorium Monday, March 5. The council approved.

Numerous appointments were made by the Student Council at Tuesday's meeting. Bob Custer was appointed Student Public Relations representative.

Council members Joan Velander and Barbara Gale were appointed to aid Mary Lou Carli on the Cultural committee.

Other appointments are: Doc Weaver, Health Cottage board; Lud Spolyar, Tom Mullan, Henry Down, and Joan Velander, Health Planning group; Henry Down, Revelries board; Tom Mullan, Student Activities board; Henry Down, Freshman camp; Joan Velander, Student Union board; and Herb Lister, Constitution committee.

Hartnell J. C. Students Pledge Aid to 'Dog for Lanini' Drive

Forum Meets in Y

Bob Fossgreen, sophomore pre-ministry student, will talk on the "Responsibility of the individual in working toward world peace," at today's Student Religious Forum meeting.

The Forum will meet at 11:30 a.m. in the Student Y to continue discussion on the general topic, "How Can Religion Work for World Peace?"

The "Dog for Lanini" campaign has spread to Hartnell college in Salinas, according to Dan Hruby, SJS drive co-chairman.

The Hartnell drive opens today to help defray the costs of raising and training Lanini's new dog.

Lanini attended Hartnell for two years before transferring to San Jose State college.

Paul Parsons, reporter for the Panther Sentinel, Hartnell newspaper which is co-sponsoring the drive, was on Washington Square last week conferring with Spartan Daily Editor Dan Hruby and Jack Gallagher, news editor, to determine how the SJS drive was conducted.

Miss Graves Explains Rules

Any veteran not enrolled in a course of study under P.L. 346 by the cut-off date, July 25, is in danger of forfeiting his remaining entitlement, according to Miss Edith Graves of the Veterans office.

Exceptions to this rule are vets who have been enrolled in a spring or summer term of 1951, she stated.

Other exceptions to the cut-off date are made for teachers taking summer training toward a degree, and for veterans who interrupt G.I. bill training to return to active military duty.

Miss Graves also warned those vets who plan to do graduate work in their major field after the deadline date must apply for the advance training before being graduated in June.

Club Schedules Ball for Drive

The Newman club will sponsor an after-game dance Tuesday night to raise money for the campus D.P. drive, according to Maurice Charlat, Newman club social chairman, who is in charge of the event.

The dance will be held in Newman hall from 9 to 12 o'clock following the San Jose-USF basketball game, Charlat said. Admission will be 25 cents.

Dale Rennie and his combo have donated their services to play for the dance, according to Charlat.

Spartans Meet Aztecs Twice on Local Court

Old CCAA rival San Diego State college comes to Washington Square this weekend for a pair of games with the Spartan cagers. Fresh from a 50-49 victory over the Santa Clara yearlings, the San Jose State college frosh meet the Leonard's Sport Shop quint

Frosh Track Team Enters Local Meet

The freshman track team will participate in the Novice class of the annual San Jose State college Inter-class track meet, March 1, Frosh Coach Don Bryant announced this week.

Set to perform for Capt. Jim Gillespie's crew are Freshmen Frank Hebard, Dan Estrada, Ardel Johnston, Roy Hodges and Don Wardrup.

Capt. Don Davis' squad will claim newcomers Skip Hill, Dick Inghram, Vern Wilson, Fred Thomas, and Vern Windrath.

Frank Morriss, captain of the third team, has signed Freshmen Ed Craddock, Jack Ruis, Paul Bower, K. Jensen, and Nick Hummel.

Team No. 4, led by Ron Maire, will field frosh Larry Schubert, Stan Schubert, Jim VanZant, and Dick Balfour.

Boyd Poreh's club will include yearlings George Croft, Terry Moss, Paul Flanagan, Searcy Miles and Bob Craddock.

Giant earthworms measuring 12 feet in length have been found in Australia.

Boxers Shine In Exhibitions

Coach Dee Portal's San Jose State college boxing team, minus the services of four first stringers, resumed its season pace last night with 13 exhibition bouts against Santa Clara university at Redwood City.

Sparked by regular varsity members Al Tafoya, Johnny Johnson, Nick Diez, and Jack Scherries, the Spartans displayed against the Broncos the form that has given them four collegiate victories already this season.

Not competing for the locals were Mac Martinez, Jerry Stern, Bob Frazer, and Darrell Dukes. Although there were no decisions rendered in the exhibition bouts, San Jose State dominated the evening's events.

Middleweight Bill Mendosa returned to action last night after a siege of illness when he met Bronco Tom Black.

Horsehidiers Name Johnson Captain

Walt "Little Train" Johnson, star catcher and 1950 letterman, was named captain of the San Jose State college baseball team, Walt Williams, Raider baseball coach, announced yesterday.

The slim Spartan splinter is a second cousin of the late Walter "Big Train" Johnson, who was regarded as one of the all-time great pitchers. The newly elected Spartan captain hails from Avenal, Calif.

Jim Collins, a southpaw, and Al VanAman, who played outfield last year.

in the Friday night preliminary, and Campbell high schol in the first game Saturday night.

Although San Diego State sports an unimpressive 7-15 record it still is a dangerous team to reckon with. Earlier this season the Aztecs led powerful Pepperdine college most of the way before dropping a 63-60 contest. The Aztecs held an eight point halftime advantage.

The Aztecs' scoring this season is on a par with the Spartans. They have averaged 55.3 points per game while allowing 57 points per game.

Last season the locals two-timed SDS 59-48 and 60-52.

San Jose State, the top Northern California independent quint, has won 10 out of its last 14 starts. The Spartans' season mark is 15 won and 11 lost.

Dean Giles' 17 points against COP Tuesday brought his season mark up to 326 points for a 12.5 game average. Giles is followed in scoring by the Spartans' four "Cs"—Chuck Crampton, 250 and 9.6; George Clark, 222 and 8.5; Bobby Crowe, 159 and 6.1; and Elmer Craig, 134 and 5.2.

Other Spartan scorers are Bob Enzensperger, 127; Mort Schorr 74; Billy Wilson, 73; Lee Jensen, 44; Duane Baptiste, 34; Ted Prescott, 14; and Lee Deming, six.

Coach Walt McPherson will have only the limited services of Crowe, who is having sacroiliac trouble. Although he started the COP game, Crowe was used sparingly in the contest.

Spartan Nine Faces Indians

The San Jose State college baseball line-up is slowly taking a definite form, according to an announcement by Danny Hill, SJS athletic news director yesterday.

The Spartans embark on a 24-game schedule next Monday when they tackle Stanford university at Palo Alto.

Coach Walt Williams has faced the problem of rebuilding his team this season. His only returning regular is catcher Walt Johnson.

Although a weak hitter last season, Johnson is vastly improved this year, according to Williams. He is a fine fielder and handles his pitchers well.

Williams has a quartet of pitchers but has not made his decision as to which of them will start against the Indians.

Con Maloney has shown improvement the last few weeks. He is a right-hander. Although possessing speed and a sharp curve, Ray Jacobus is still faced with wildness which plagued him last year.

Williams' other two pitchers are

Pre-Nursing Students To Get A-Bomb Tactics

Pre-nursing students at San Jose State college soon will have a chance to learn about nursing atomic bomb blast victims, according to Mrs. Rizpah Lindstrom of the Nursing Education office.

Mrs. Lindstrom attended an intensive five-day training course in Nursing Aspects of Atomic Warfare, given last week by the United States Public Health service and the National Security Resources board in San Francisco. She said the course was given to enable nursing educators background for teaching their students about nursing problems in case of atomic attack.

Tentative plans have been made for a class at SJS on this subject with Mrs. Lindstrom as instructor. Such a class probably would take one hour a week for a single quarter, she pointed out.

Instructing the five-day course were a physicist and a civil engineer from the NSRB and a physician from the Washington offices of the U.S. Public Health service. They lectured on such subjects as atomic and molecular structure, radiation detection, types of injuries from an atomic blast, contamination, and medical aspects of atomic warfare.

"One fact was clearly pointed out during the course; preparedness is our only means of survival; this even includes practice air raid drills on campus," emphasized Mrs. Lindstrom.

Drive Needs Job Assurance

Job assurances still are needed for two European displaced students, Jim Martin, Student Y executive secretary, announced yesterday. The assurances must be sent to the processing agency by March 1.

The Student-Y, coordinating agency for the D.P. Student drive, has collected $242.57 in cash, $120 in pledges for general expenses, and $1625 in pledges for specific purposes, including board and room for two girls, and books and school supplies for one.

Air Science Professor Gets New Gold Leaves

News of another promotion in the Air ROTC department was received yesterday when Capt. Donald C. Philpott received orders promoting him to the rank of major. The promotion was effective Feb. 15.

Major Philpott joined the Air Science staff on Nov. 21, 1950, when he transferred from Castle field. While at Castle field, he served as a squadron commanding officer and base transportation officer.

Major Philpott served with the 9th, 12th and 15th Air Forces in the Mediterranean theater during the last war. His military education includes transportation and ordnance schools.

Prior to World War II, Major Philpott was an enlisted man in the National Guard before joining the Air Force Reserve. He has held the temporary grade of captain for seven years.

Following the war, Major Philpott was assigned to a strategic bomb group in Alaska.

Elks to Give Scholarships

Scholarships totaling $12,000 are being offered by the California Elks' association, according to Mr. Edward Clements, chairman of the college service fund committee.

The awards ranging from $300 to $800 are open to both men and women students in any undergraduate class.

Awards will be granted on the basis of scholarship, personality, leadership, perseverance, resourcefulness, and general worthiness.

Applications must be filed by March 1. Further information and application forms may be obtained from Mr. Clements in Room 114.

Flying 20 to Meet

This afternoon at 12:30 o'clock Flying 20 members will meet at San Jose Municipal airport for La Torre pictures, according to Boris Boulder, publicity chairman.

Boulder requested all Flying 20 men to be present. "Those who don't show up will not have their pictures in the annual," he stressed.

SMOKE 'EM

MAKE THE TOBACCO GROWERS MILDNESS TEST YOURSELF...

YES... Compare Chesterfield with the brand you've been smoking... Open a pack... enjoy that milder Chesterfield aroma. And—tobaccos that smell milder, smoke milder. So smoke Chesterfields... they do smoke milder, and they're the only cigarette that combines MILDNESS with NO UNPLEASANT AFTER-TASTE.
