LEFT HOLDING THE BAG . . . but happy about it, is Joe Juliano, as he appeared yesterday following senior orientation meeting in Morris Dailey auditorium. Juliano, new Alumni director, came through with the old dramatic punch—oft displayed in his undergraduate days, as he talked a group of seniors out of $13.85. Contributions started flowing into the bag as Juliano told a story of a high school girl who hasn't the money to matriculate at San Jose State college. The seniors' bag o' coins will be first step toward a new scholarship fund, said Juliano, as his "promotion-plus personality" paid off again. —photo by Stone

Compulsory ASB Card Bill Stalled by State Senators

Bill Fails to Gain Senate Vote; Additional Committee Study Due

By ELWYN KNIGHT

Senate Bill No. 289, which would require all State college students to buy student body cards, seems to be headed for a slow death in the Senate Education committee, according to an Associated Press dispatch.

The bill, introduced by Senator Verne Hoffman, came up on the Senate floor Tuesday, but without coming up for a vote, was referred back to the committee—a process usually employed to give a measure the deep freeze by keeping it off the agenda.

Dean Joe H. West, dean of general education, expressed his disappointment at the Senate's action in pigeon-holing the bill in the committee. "I certainly think it is a shame the bill wasn't passed, especially after it had passed the Senate Committee on Education by a unanimous vote," Dean West said.

"I hope this isn't a deep-freeze," Mr. West added, "but that they weigh the bill on its merits."

Under provision of the bill all State college students would have to pay the fee, as yet undetermined, as a prerequisite to enrollment in college.

The student body card in a college generally entitles the holder to attend school athletic contests, dances and other functions without further payment, or at a reduced price.

Section 5 of the bill lists the following as the facts constituting the necessity of the bills passage: "Unless student body organization fees are required by a college, the veteran student does not receive the amount of the fees in the education aid which the Federal Government extends to veterans."

"Under the existing law, many State colleges will find it necessary to discontinue the student activities which are supported by student body organization fees and which are a necessary and integral part of an adequate program for college education."

The bill is an act to add the five sections included in the bill to the education code of California.

If the bill is called out of committee and passed by the Senate, it will go into effect Sept. 1, 1951.

The Weather

Forming a contrite expression on his usually bland countenance, Phil P h o e b o u n d, philosopher, peered out from under a murky cloud and said, "About yesterday's report, in the vernacular of the boys from 10th and Keyes, we pulled a booboo.

"When these late rains come along we try to warn those who have late classes. It's in no way of an award for studiousness to be drizzled upon when coming out of a semi-nocturnal seminar.

"A neighboring strato-cumulus is fogging up our crystal, but we see 'Fair today, temperature around 64-70,' but we don't put much stock in our ball lately."

Students Report

Mr. William Felse, graduate manager, requests that the following students report to the Graduate Manager's office as soon as possible:

Patricia A. Hand, Keith C. Lampson, Roy Bevin, Mary Ruth Morse, Margaret Nakamura, Barbara Polito, Richard Thompson, Sally Seacord, and Jerome M. Seitz.

TDP Contest Ends Soon

The leading grade point improvement for the Tau Delta Phi Scholarship award to date is 1.02, according to Sidney Siegel, award committee chairman.

Applications will be accepted in the Dean of Men's office until noon Friday.

The award of $25 and a scroll of achievement will be presented to the applicant having the highest grade point improvement for fall '50 to winter '51.

GI Insurance: First Checks Sent to Vets

It will be a toss-up as to who will be the happiest—the veterans or the veterans' wives—as word has come over the teletype that the first checks for a special dividend of $685,000,000 to be paid holders of some 8,000,000 G.I. insurance policies were mailed this week by the veterans administration.

The checks cover dividends due on National Service life insurance policies with anniversary dates in January. The dividends are on those policies which have been in force three months or longer during 1948-1951. This applies to both term and permanent policies, including those which have lapsed or were terminated by death of the insured.

V.A. asked policy holders not to make inquiries about the dividend before they receive their checks. But after a policy holder has received his check and he has a question about the payment, he should write to the V.A. district office handling his account.

Dividends on policies with anniversary dates in succeeding months will be paid in order. The agency estimated the bulk of the dividend will be distributed by April, 1952.

Rally Head Asks Committee Cut

Fran Poleck, newly appointed Rally committee chairman, told the Student Council that plans were being made to limit the Rally committee to around 70 members.

He gave as his reason for limiting members to this number the fact that every year a large group of entering freshmen join the committee but drop out before the work of the committee has been completed.

Ed Gasper, senior class representative, objected to the idea as expressed by Poleck. "The Rally committee is one of the few groups that freshmen can enter and I think membership should not be limited," he said.

Yvonne Michie, who has been acting as temporary ASB recording secretary, was appointed as full-time recording secretary.

Pat Anthony, senior art major, was appointed to the temporary position of senior justice on the Student Court. She was appointed by the council to take the place of Lynn Erickson, a senior justice, who is student teaching this quarter. The appointment was only for the rest of this quarter.

Bob King, chief justice, announced that petitions for Student Council and Student Court candidate nominations would be filed the week of May 7 through May 11.

'French' to Participate In Mock UN Meeting

By JOANNE WILSON

Representing France, 15 delegates from San Jose State college travel to Stanford university today to participate in the first Pacific Coast conference of a model United Nations, according to Tom Cameron, president of the International Relations club.

The official delegates include Cameron, Maurice Duke, chairman, Betsy Wallick, Richard Robb, Ann Buitrago, Dolores McDonald, Lare Gabriel, Charles Benson, Doris Field, and Jim Moore.

Other delegates are Julie Alger, Ann Droubay, Robert Cross, Fred Brown, and James DeCou, members of the French club, Iota Delta Phi. Dr. George Bruntz will accompany the delegation as adviser.

Dr. Ralph Bunche, winner of the 1950 Nobel Peace prize and director of the United Nations department of trusteeship, will serve as president of the General Assembly, whose delegates will include representatives from 60 Pacific colleges and universities.

California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Wyoming, Montana, Utah, New Mexico, Arizona, and Nevada are expected to attend the three-day conference which is sponsored by the Stanford Institute of International Relations, a student organization, and the Collegiate Council for the United Nations.

Others assisting the conference are the World Affairs council, the American Association for the United Nations, the Student

World Affairs council, World Affairs Council of Northern California, and the Hoover institute and library.

Each college delegation will represent a country of the U.N. and will conduct its conference business within the views of that country. Stanford students, "as a gesture of courtesy as hosts," will represent the Soviet delegation.

Meetings of the General Assembly, Security Council, and economic and social commissions have been scheduled. As a climax to the conference, Dr. Bunche will give a formal talk on the United Nations.

The agenda for the model U.N. will deal with Korea, and related problems such as Chinese representation in the U.N. and Formosa; the satellite states of Yugoslavia; an emergency situation, and a debate on World Federalism, including the pro and con of U.N. power to tax, and to control armies.

Some delegations, including SJS, will speak in the language of their representative country. There will be consecutive interpretation by the Stanford "secretariat", comprised partly of Stanford foreign students.

To date, 20 embassies in Washington have sent material for use by the student delegations, each of whom will be "acting", in that they will attempt, in their General Assembly speeches, to present the viewpoint of the nation they represent.

Advisers for the conference include college presidents Robert Sproul, University of California; Wallace Sterling, Stanford university; Raymond Allen, University of Washington; Wilson Compton, Washington State; Carl McIntosh, Idaho State; H. K. Newburn, University of Oregon; A. L. Strand, Oregon State; Brother Thomas, St. Mary's; and Dr. Easton Rothwell, vice-chairman of the Hoover institute and library.

Among the guest speakers other than Dr. Bunche are Dr. Sterling, president of Stanford university, and Clark Eichelberger, executive director of the American Association for the United Nations.

Mr. Karl Robinson To Show Child Film

Tomorrow morning's Chinese film-lecture program by Mr. Karl Robinson in the Morris Dailey auditorium is expected to attract student body, faculty and general public interest.

Mr. Robinson's 90-minute presentation of the Chinese scene should prove valuable in understanding the present Far Eastern situation. The program, starting at 10:30 a.m. and ending at noon, will be free to both students and the public.

"China Journey", the two-reel color movie, has added value because Mr. Robinson took it just before the Communist forces occupied the ancient nation.

DRAFT THE STUDENT?

In a recent issue of Quick News Weekly there was an editorial cartoon entitled "Isn't Education Grand", reprinted from the Philadelphia Inquirer, and a slam at the draft deferment plan for college students.

The cartoon depicts a statue of an individual known as "Joe College" mounted upon a pedestal which is being admired by "The Average Guy".

"The Average Guy", hat in hand, is exclaiming "GEE!" as he examines this tribute, to "Joe College" who stands upon the pedestal in Napoleonic fashion, hand in coat, hat brim turned skyward.

Sharp-edged sarcasm can be noted in the following inscription cut into the base of the monument: (in tribute to) "Joe College—Super-Citizen—Far and above the Crass and Sordid Defense of Country".

This cartoon affects the majority of male college students attending school throughout the nation, since the 1950 college and university enrollments include a minority of veterans.

"Crass and Sordid Defense" is a misrepresentation of "Joe College" as portraying the average college student. According to the cartoon, the typical college student is a draft-dodger who is attempting to shirk the armed services.

Certainly it is a truism that college life is a "bed of roses" compared to a rigorous army life, but the relinquishment of this draft deferment plan would stem the flow of specialists in every field.

During World War II, war workers in essential industry and many farmers were given deferments because they were aiding the "war effort".

Why should the college student who can prove his value and desire to serve his country in the best manner possible be excluded from this group of essential workers until graduation.

It is not a question of whether one group is privileged and the other non-privileged.

The answer is to be found in another question: Can a student with training in a specialized field better serve his country? C.D.

Reitzel to Explain Art in TV Debut

Dr. Marques Reitzel, head of the San Jose State college Art department, said yesterday that he will make his video debut today on the Les Malloy show at 4 p.m. over station KGO-TV.

"From what I know about the show, I think I will be able to take some of the corn out of it," Dr. Reitzel remarked.

Dr. Reitzel plans to give a demonstration on painting, keeping up a running commentary as he works.

"In addition to explaining my painting, I will do my best to get in some good plugs for San Jose State college," Dr. Reitzel said.

The Les Malloy show is a regular afternoon feature telecast from 4 to 5 p.m. on channel seven, KGO-TV.

Rare Coin Display Exhibit in Library

"Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's."

The coin calling forth this statement is one of the many which can be seen now in a library exhibit shown by Mr. Charles V. Kappen, assistant professor of journalism, to feature National Coin week.

Purpose of the exhibit, according to Mr. Kappen, is to show the precariousness of the emperor's position. Coins dating from 48 B.C. to 408 A.D. are displayed with headlines which indicate how the emperor of each period met a violent end.

This exhibit won second prize at the state convention of the Numismatic society early in April.

Coins of Great Britain, Switzerland, and Mexico, complete the display.

Mr. Kappen, president of the San Jose Coin club, has been collecting coins since 1937. He is editor of the State Numismatic association bi-monthly, the Calcoin News, and is a member of the state board of directors.

Horsehide Nine Defeats Santa Barbara Gauchos

By HAL BORCHERT

A big sixth inning uprising in which they pushed five runners across the plate enabled the Spartan horsehiders to come from behind and down the Santa Barbara Gauchos 12-8 in a game played at Municipal stadium yesterday afternoon.

With two out in the sixth and trailing 8-7 the Spartans started rolling. Dean Giles slammed a clothesline single to left. Ed Hallberg was safe when third baseman Matias bobbled a grounder. Dick Lane then filled the bags with a short single. Bobby Graves brought all three men in with a single to left. Con Maloney kept the rally alive with another one-bagger. Joe Bonfiglio slapped his second hit of the day to drive in two more runs, but was out when he tried to stretch the hit into a double.

Con Maloney, working in relief for Starter Ray Jacobus, won his first game this season. Except for the third inning when he came into the game with the bags loaded, Maloney was never in serious trouble. The Gauchos jumped on Jacobus in the first inning when they scored four runs on three hits. Jacobus had trouble finding the plate and gave up three free passes in the initial frame.

The locals came right back in the first and chased Starter Jerry Lavarro to the showers with four runs of their own. Andy Miller's four-bagger over the left field wall was the big blow. Big Corky Johnson put out the fire for the Gauchos and had the Spartans under control until the fourth when they collected three more tallies on three hits.

The Spartans, riding the crest of a four-game win streak, meet the Fresno State Bulldogs in two games this week-end.

Spartan Gridders Continue Practice Despite Weather

By BILL GOSSETT

Practice as usual continues to be the order of the day at San Jose State college spring football practice sessions despite inclement weather.

Coach Bob Bronzan and his staff, despite cold winds and cloudy skies, plan to hold grid drills daily until absolutely halted by adverse weather.

With the major part of spring practice devoted to teaching the grid newcomers the basic offensive and defensive patterns used by the Spartans, the coaching staff believes that daily drills are essential.

Line Coach Bill Perry praised the improved play of yesterday's rugged but frigid practice.

Offensively the down field blocking of Guard Ed Salvadalena, from the frosh team, and Tackle Bob Roebuck of Hartnell college, was outstanding. End Russ Phillip from Marin J.C. and Fullback Dempsey Farrier of Modesto J.C. also starred with their blocking.

Impressive on defense were Lou Heckler of E.L.A. J.C., Gale Summers from Riverside J.C., tackles, and Guard Al Cadena.

Alum Rock Gets Council Okeh For Annual Frosh-Soph Mixer

Recommendation by the college administration resulted in changing of the site of the Frosh-Soph Mixer from Santa Cruz to Alum Rock park Tuesday.

The freshman council approved the Alum Rock location after James F. Jacobs, freshman adviser, summarized the proceedings of a special meeting. Mrs. Helen Dimmick, dean of women, Mr. Joe H. West, dean of student personnel and guidance, and class advisers attended the special session.

Mr. Jacobs said the group believed that because the Frosh-Soph Mixer always has been a campus activity, it should be held somewhere in the San Jose area.

350 Enjoy Prom

About 350 persons were on hand to enjoy the "best ever" Junior Prom decorations at "Chinese Moonmist" Saturday night, according to Beth Calvin, junior class president.

"Howard Frederic's band was excellent and the crowd was unusually congenial," Miss Calvin said. It definitely was a success socially if not financially, according to Mr. Donald P. Sevrens, class adviser. The financial outcome of the dance has not yet been determined.

The decorations in the main dance hall included a fountain, an Oriental garden, a Chinese pagoda, and Chinese dragons. A tapestry-like backdrop was designed by Lita Howard.

The garden's proprietors liked the barren fruit trees and asked if they could keep them, Miss Calvin said. The trees were sprayed black and had brilliant colored artificial flowers and fruit attached.

College Aids Men Destined To Enter Army

"It is the policy of the administration to assist students entering the service in every way," stated Dr. J. C. DeVoss, executive dean of general staff, yesterday.

Dr. DeVoss was referring primarily to the allotment of credits to students who must discontinue their education to enter military service.

A proposal to grant some credit was introduced at the State College Deans' conference in Los Angeles last month, but no definite action was taken. The amount of units to be allotted was undecided.

An approval by the State Department of Education would be necessary before a definite policy could be arranged.

Possibly, if a student was a few units short of graduation and was called into the service, some arrangement could be made, Dr. DeVoss remarked.

He emphasized that men whose education is interrupted for military service should consult one of the deans and the Registrar's office to make sure of their status.

The American Council of Education is responsible for the evaluation of veterans' credits. Nine units are granted for basic or boot training for veterans who served in the Armed Forces prior to Jan. 1, 1947. Under this system, ex-servicemen also are exempt from the six quarters of required physical education and one quarter of hygiene.

All service school training is evaluated by the Registrar's office and credit granted in accordance with a directive issued by the American Council of Education.

Men serving after the deadline are excluded from the P.E. and hygiene requirements, but receive no units for these courses.

Coop to Get Bird

"Come and get your frahed chicken today," Mrs. Margaret Romando, manager of the coop, advised hungry Spartans. The fried chicken dinner will cost 65 cents and will include mashed potatoes, green peas, roll and butter, and choice of drink.

Today is the only day the dinner is being served.

According to Mrs. Romando, there was not enough chicken to go around when the dinner was served a week ago Wednesday. A demand for the dinner had been greater than was anticipated. Mrs. Romando assures Spartans that there will be plenty of chicken this time.

Also, some students would have to cut classes in order to get to Santa Cruz on time, he said.

The freshman proposal now must be approved by the sophomore class. The date remains the same, Friday, May 4.

The afternoon will be devoted to competitive games between the two classes, followed by a small meal. Climaxing the affair will be a dance at one of the two halls in Alum Rock park.

Included in the menu proposed by the food committee is chili, tossed salad, garlic bread, and ice cream or cake. According to the committee, the cost would be about fifty cents per person.

Two changes in the constitution of the Class of '54, upon recommendation of the Student Council, were passed, one proposing that all members of the class have the right to vote at the first three council meetings of each quarter. The constitution read before the change provided that no member would have the voting privilege for the first three meetings.

A two-thirds vote of the freshman council is now the necessary requirement for passage of an amendment to the class constitution.
