Move Placement To New Location

Placement problems will be handled from a new place tomorrow, Dr. Vernon A. Ouellette, placement officer, said yesterday.

The new office, to be known as Placement Services, will be housed in Room 100, formerly the Registrar's office. Business, technical and teacher placement officers will be moved there from Room 108, and the part-time and temporary placement office will be transferred from the Dean of Men's office to Room 100.

All three areas will be co-ordinated to provide more jobs for more students and graduates, according to Dr. Ouellette.

Dr. Ouellette will continue to handle business and technical placement. Miss Doris Robinson will supervise the placement of graduates in teaching positions, and Mrs. Florence Cardoza will direct part-time and temporary employment.

Room 100 has been completely renovated for the move, according to Byron Bollinger, superintendent of buildings and grounds. The room has been re-partitioned and re-painted, and new radiators have been installed.

Dr. Ouellette's office is located to the left of the room, next to an interview room, to be used by candidates for employment and local businessmen. To the right is Miss Robinson's office, with an interview room for teaching candidates and school superintendents adjoining.

The central section of the office will be devoted to part-time and temporary placement. Secretaries of Dr. Ouellette and Miss Robinson also will channel business to their respective directors from this room.

Adjunct to the teaching candidates' interview room is a conference room which may be partitioned into three separate interview rooms when necessary, Dr. Ouellette said.

The new office has a separate room for files, which will contain complete records of all present and former students interested in employment while in college. Records of applicants for employment following graduation also will be filed.

Each applicant will be screened by the use of aptitude and interest tests, personnel interviews with trained counselors and evaluation of recommendations of former employers and faculty members.

The new placement set-up is primarily a service agency for present and former students, Dr. Ouellette emphasized. Activities will be mainly directed toward having adequate jobs available and finding work for which each applicant is specifically qualified.

During moving, no appointments will be scheduled in Room 108.

Police to Stop Yule Traffic

Spartan drivers may find their cars stopped starting Dec. 21 when roadblocks will be set up by bay area police, highway patrolmen and auxiliary policemen over the holiday season, according to a United Press release.

The roadblocks—to deter drunken drivers and correct defective auto mechanisms—will be set up in an attempt to minimize the holiday death toll on the highways.

The checks will be made in San Francisco, Alameda, Contra Costa, Sonoma, Napa, Marin and Santa Clara counties Dec. 21, and in San Mateo and Solano counties the following night.

The Weather

You know, I have the cutest cat—she's just fascinated by water. Well, in an effort to determine the weather for today I turned on both the hot and cold water faucets and set the cat on the rim of the washbowl. She immediately stuck her paw in the hot water. "Warm weather ahead, beware of over-ripe salami."

Senior Council Chooses Grad Announcement

The Senior Class council yesterday agreed to purchase graduation announcements from the Danworth company. They will be sold at the Spartan Shop at 15 cents per announcement.

John Moeller, senior class representative on the Student Council, told the Senior council that he would be unable to serve on the Student Council winter quarter because he would be student teaching.

He said that a temporary appointment would be available to any male or female senior who "was acquainted with the functions of student government."

Sign by Tomorrow For Junior Justice

Applications for the position of Junior Justice of the Student Court will be accepted at the ASB office until 3:30 p.m. tomorrow, according to Chuck Wing, Sophomore Justice.

Any male ASB card holder with junior academic standing may submit an application.

The student chosen will serve on the Student Court during winter quarter. He will fill the position recently vacated by Ken Black.

Pre-Register for Psych Courses

Pre-registration will be required for psychology classes 117B, 165B and C, and 201 and 243, according to Dr. Charles W. Telford, Psychology department head.

Students planning to take a field work course during the winter quarter must apply at the Psychology office, 192 S. Seventh street, by Friday, Dec. 14.

Return Books

All books must be returned, all fines paid and all lost books paid for by Tuesday, Dec. 18, Miss Donna Bornman, circulation librarian, announced yesterday.

"Clear your record," she urged. "Failure to do so may result in grades being withheld."

Annual Dance Draws Many SJS Couples

About 900 Spartan couples turned out for the annual Winter-mist dance held Saturday night in the Civic auditorium, Cliff Lindsey, chairman of the Social Affairs committee, said yesterday.

"This was the largest crowd to attend an ASB dance this year," he said.

The dance featured the music of Ernie Hechseher and his orchestra. Site of the semi-formal affair was converted into a snow scene.

Jay McCabe, manager of the auditorium, described the Saturday event as "the nicest dance and crowd that San Jose State college has had for years in the Civic auditorium." He said he was very pleased with the conduct of Spartans and the general atmosphere of the affair.

Students Set German Party

Students of the Modern Language department will hold their German Christmas party at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night in the Student Union, according to Dr. William Hermanns.

Entertainment will be provided by mixed choirs and a solo by James Wright, who will be accompanied on the piano by Miss Margaret Huff, he said. A German play also will be presented.

All students and faculty members are invited, Dr. Hermanns said.

SAN JOSE STATE COLLEGE

Record Lyke Issue Will Go on Sale Tomorrow

The largest issue of Lyke ever published will be on sale tomorrow morning.

Lyke, campus feature magazine, is "concise, funny and entertaining," said Bob Osborne, publicity director.

Editor Dave Woods has described this issue as "designed for the quick-perusal type reader."

The magazine will feature five pages of drawings and cartoons by Bob Miller, two pages of cartoons by Ed Conkle, art editor, and several sections of photos.

One of the photo sections is entitled, "Or so Sez the Bulletin," and is a satire on exaggerated phrases used in that publication.

Heads of Lyke staff this quarter were: Editor, Dave Woods; Business Manager, Bob Neall; Assistant Editor, Ann Tremaine; Make-up Editor, Bob Kimura.

Photographs were taken by the publications photo staff which also takes pictures for the Spartan Daily and La Torre. It is supervised by Dick Zimmerman.

Articles in the magazine are all brief and are "predominantly satire and feature," said Woods. A pro and con article on sororities and fraternities will probably cause a lot of smoke, said Woods.

The large 48-page issue was made possible only through the extensive effort of all members of the staff, Woods added. Members of the staff combined to form the most successful ad sale force since the book was first published, he mentioned.

Theme of the magazine for this quarter is campus construction, Woods said. A map on the construction idea done in cartoon style points up the theme.

Play Try-outs Slated Today

Today is the last day for student try-outs for the third major dramatic production of the season—"What Every Woman Knows."

Try-outs will be held in the Little Theater at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The comedy concerns the strange bargain of a humorless young Scotsman and a well-to-do family. The earnest young man steals into the home of a wealthy family in order to get books to help him get his start in life. He is caught and the family strikes a bargain with him—they will support him until he gets his start and in return he is to marry their very plain daughter.

Directed by Miss Elizabeth Loeffler, assistant professor of speech, the play will be staged Feb. 1 through 6 in the Little Theater.

United Press Roundup

President, Advisers Consider Foreign, Domestic Problems

Washington.—President Truman and his military and diplomatic advisers discussed the Korean truce talks and the rest of the world situation for an hour yesterday but "no policy decisions were made."

Mr. Truman huddled with his advisers after abruptly ending his Florida vacation to give his personal attention to foreign and domestic problems, particularly the tax scandals.

He postponed, at least until today, his plans for a conference with Atty. Gen. J. Howard McGrath and other Justice department officials on a possible dramatic move to rid the administration of corruption.

U.N. Slams 'Blackmailers'

Panmunjom, Korea.—The United Nations accused the Communists yesterday of blackmail "a thousand times more repulsive" than that of the lowest gangsters and demanded the Reds begin talks today on an exchange of war prisoners.

Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, head of the U.N. Truce delegation, couched his demand for prisoner discussions in terms approaching an ultimatum.

But Brig. Gen. William P. Muckols, spokesman for the delegation, later told newsmen there is nothing the Allies can do about it at this stage if the Reds reject the demand.

U.N. Troops Fight in Snow Eighth Army Headquarters, Korea.—United Nations troops beat off four minor Communist probing attacks in a snowstorm on the icy East-Central front yesterday.

An 8th Army communique reported only routine patrol activity along the remainder of the 145-mile front. Temperatures dropped to five degrees above zero near the east coast.

Thrust and Parry

Portal Praises

Dear Thrust and Parry:

Periodically during the past few months I've heard some people remark that San Jose State lacks spirit. They're crazy!

The student body attended the Novice boxing tournament en masse Friday evening. You could not hear yourself think from 7:30 till 11 p.m. It's doubtful if even real cannibals, clowns or devils could generate and maintain such plain unadulterated noise.

The secret planning, and the creative ingenuity demonstrated along with this fun and enthusiasm is once again evident proof of why San Jose State always has been and always will be a dynamic institution.

It has been said, "When a boy voluntarily enters a public boxing contest, he thereby stamps himself as a brave man." The average spectator will never be able to fully appreciate the tremendous fortitude needed for such a premeditated and yet voluntary act as demonstrated by our San Jose State boxers last week. In addition to this rather special verile quality, the challenge demanded careful diet, weight control, road work, sweat and self sacrifice. It is men such as these who made America great. As long as 103 men voluntarily enter such a nerve racking event, people like Stalin and Hitler never will be able to prevail. These young boxers also provide answer to those critics who say this younger generation has gone soft.

This Novice tournament was an all-student production. Not a single faculty member or outside person was officially connected with this program, except the three judges who were selected for obvious reasons.

To the losers who made the champions great—to the champions—their managers and seconds—the Spartan Daily—judges—referees—timekeepers—varsity boxing managers—sororities—fraternities—footing sections—and general student body members, congratulations on a great show and my sincere appreciation to all.

Dear Thrust and Parry:

We, the undersigned, feel that there is a need for the construction of additional sidewalks on the San Jose State college campus. The unsightly and muddy foot-paths do not advertise San Jose State college as the modern institution which we know it to be.

Particular attention should be given to the northwest section of the campus.

If funds can not be obtained elsewhere, we would like a generous proportion of compulsory student body fees to go for the construction of the needed sidewalks.

Spartan Spinners, SJS folk dancing organization, entertained the Stanford university folk dancing group at a Christmas party which was held Tuesday evening in the Women's gym, according to Marilyn C. Draper, publicity chairman.

The gym was colorfully decorated in a holiday theme, and refreshments were served.

In spite of the rainy weather, the attendance was large, and everyone enjoyed a festive evening. Miss Draper said.

Spartan Spinners meet every Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Women's gym.

Popular Aeronautics Prof to Leave SJS to Return to Aircraft Industry

Students and faculty of San Jose State college, and aeronautics majors in particular, soon will be saying farewell to James D. Ross, aeronautics instructor here for the past four years.

According to Mr. Tom Leonard, head of the Aeronautics department, Mr. Ross' resignation officially will be in effect as of Jan. 1, 1952, since he came to SJS on Jan. 1, 1948. He is returning to the aircraft industry. Mr. Ross said, because he feels it is to his financial advantage.

During the four years he spent at the college, Mr. Ross was responsible for a great number of changes and improvements in the Aeronautics department. During this time he served as an adviser to the Flying 20 club, organized and then conducted a number of aeronautics courses and was instrumental in the Aeronautics school's obtaining CAA certification. Through his knowledge of present equipment in the aircraft industry, Mr. Leonard said, Mr. Ross equipped the shops with modern tools, "so that the students work with the same equipment they will encounter in the field."

From 1929 until he came to SJS, Mr. Ross had worked with many of the major aircraft manufacturing companies and airlines. A great deal of this time was spent with the Lockheed Aircraft company.

"When I first went to work for Lockheed, 75 men were considered a big crew. When I left there, they had 90,000 employees," Mr. Ross said.

He has worked on every model aircraft Lockheed produced until 1941 and many of their major models after that. Mr. Ross worked on the first jet airplanes produced by Lockheed, and just prior to coming to SJS was foreman of six allied shops of the Matson Aviation Maintenance company.

"I don't know where we are going to find a man to take Mr.

Ross' place," Mr. Leonard said. "But we were fortunate to have had his services as long as we did."

SJS Boxers Face 'Best-ever' Schedule

Varsity Due For Toughest Boxing Season

Step aside and make room for the toughest varsity boxing scheduled in San Jose State ring annals!

Coach Dee Portal yesterday released a list of nine dual opponents for the forthcoming 1952 intercollegiate boxing campaign. And what a challenge! SJS boxers have won 19 consecutive dual meets since the 1949 season.

"This is the kind of schedule we always wanted," Portal exuberated. "It's going to be a very interesting one. Our home slate is the best we've ever had." It should be! Portal's varsity boxers are booked for five home battles and four scraps on the road.

The Spartans will play host to powerful Michigan State, defending NCAA champs, University of Minnesota, Nevada, Idaho and San Francisco State, with all engagements in the Spartan gym. They will open the intercollegiate season Jan. 18 in San Luis Obispo against Cal Poly. Other strong dates include UCLA at Los Angeles, Washington State in Pullman and Gonzaga in Spokane. What roadwork!

Coach Dee Portal will speak to all novice, junior and varsity boxers tonight in a special meeting at 8 o'clock at 470 S. 11th street. He will discuss the novice and junior tourney and plans for the coming season.

In addition, the local boys may figure prominently in the coming Intermountain Tournament at Pocatello, the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate at Sacramento, and the NCAA championships in Madison, Wis. Also, Olympic year is in the offing. So, all in all, Portal's punchers are in for a full dose of top flight boxing competition.

Right now, Portal anxiously is sizing up his varsity personnel. He won't know until after the All-College Boxing Tourney on Jan. 10 and 11 who his top men in each weight division will be. The All-College affair, slated for the third week of winter quarter, will pit prospects battling for positions on the varsity.

Portal has a big rebuilding job ahead of him since he lost four outstanding men in Mac Martinez, 1950 NCAA 125-lb. king, Al Tafoya at 130 lbs., Johnny Johnson, 145, Nick Diez, 165, and bombing Jack Scheberies, heavyweight.

Returning to form a strong nucleus are Chuck Adkins, former 135-lb. AAU champ, Don Camp, 125; Jerry Stern, 145; Bill Mendosa, 155; and Darrell Dukes, 165. Dukes boxed in the 175-lb. division last year.

Portal indicated he saw several good boys with varsity potential perform in last week's Novice and Junior tournament.

Cagers Play SFS, Utah State Here

Following a successful road trip to Fresno, the Spartan cagers come home for a week-end stand against San Francisco State and Utah State colleges.

Coach Walt McPherson's quintet, with a three and zero slate for the young 1951-52 basketball season, meet All-coast Kevin Duggan and his SFS five on Friday and the Aggies from Utah State on Saturday.

San Jose hit high gear in rolling over Fresno State 72-58 last Saturday night down south. The

Sidelines

by ROY HURLBERT

Stanford announced last week that the Indians would open the 1952 football season against the University of San Francisco Dons.

The date? Sept. 20. Where does this leave the Spartans on the Indian grid calendar? Or, better still, will SJS be included on the Stanford list next fall?

It has been the custom since '48 for the SJS-Stanford game to be played early in the season. Now that the hierarchy on the Farm has booked USF for the inaugural the story is changed.

The problem presently confronting our athletic policy makers is whether Stanford will "find" room for us on their schedule. Possibly they feel they won't be able to accommodate three independent games and will confine their regional rivalry to Santa Clara and USF. Perhaps two is company and three is a crowd, and SJS unfortunately is that third party!

Coach Chuck Taylor shouldn't have much trouble finding opponents for his Tribe in '52. The Rose Bowl reputation and the drawing card angle will provide many willing foes.

Stanford, therefore, stands in a convenient position to simply say "so sorry" to us next year. Convenient is the right word for it. USF will be considerably weaker and Bob Bronzan figures to field a much stronger club.

We hope Stanford proves us wrong!

Spartan JV Cagers Face Menlo Five

San Jose State college's high scoring jayvee basketball team gets its first major test of the season tonight when it tangles with a strong Menlo J.C. five at Menlo Park.

The peninsula quintet boasts a potent outfit headed by Center Jerry Crane, who towers some 6'7".

Coach Bob Wuestoff's club has averaged 60 points a game in chalking up a pair of impressive victories in two outings. The Spartan jayvees will counter Menlo's height advantage with a winning fivesome consisting of Forward Larry Heffner, who has averaged 13 points a game; Center Bud Hjelm, with a 10 point figure; Slim Hodgeson, forward, Dick Brady and Carroll Williams, guards.

Spartans hit 28 of 75 shots from the floor for a 37 per cent average. They were even more proficient from the free throw line, hitting 16 out of 18 attempted.

Forward Lee Jensen's 21 point output at the expense of the Bulldogs gave him the scoring leadership for the three games played to date. The "thin man" of the Spartan cage squad has 38 digits for a 12.7 average per game.

With a campaign of "stop Duggan" the Spartans will try and rig up a defense to muzzle the amazing Mr. Duggan. The 6'4" Gater put on a one-man struggle in the second game of last year's series when he poured through 40 points for a new SFS record. The Duggan of 1951 is just as good, if not better. Just last week he broke that figure with a 41 point spree against Arizona State.

Utah's Aggies wind up a two-game coast invasion when they move into San Jose Saturday night. The Utes will be in Sacramento tonight to battle the State Hornets, a club San Jose whipped 61-49 last week.

The Rocky Mountain boys have a mediocre club off last year's poor 12 and 22 record. Their only consolation was a victory over Brigham Young, 1950 NIT champs. Bertram Cook, a high scoring forward who tallied 589 points last year, is back as the Aggies' fast breaking mainstay.

Following is the Spartans' three game scoring record to date:

Tafoya Crowned 135-lb. Champion In Golden Gloves

Spartan Al Tafoya, 1950 NCAA finalist, boxed his way to the 135-pound Senior championship of the annual Golden Gloves boxing tournament over San Francisco's Richard Garcia, last Friday night in San Francisco's Winterland.

Tafoya, representing the Santa Clara Youth center, won a close three-round decision over Garcia in what was classed as "one of the greatest lightweight boxing matches in Golden Glove ring history."

The 135-pound San Jose State college student was a member of Coach Dee Portal's varsity boxing team in 1949-50 and '51.

Opportunities 'Good' For Property Agents

"Employment opportunities continue to be excellent in the classification of junior real property agent," according to a letter received by Dr. Vernon A. Ouellette, placement officer, from the California State Personnel board.

Senior students and recent graduates are eligible to take an examination for the position on Mar. 8, according to the letter. A college degree in any major will qualify applicants for the exam, although duties of the job are directed more to those with majors in business administration and economics.

Final date for filing applications is Feb. 9.

Magazine Article On Journalism Prof

Charles V. Kappen, associate professor of Journalism now on leave with the armed forces, currently is featured in an article in the November issue of Calcoin News, official publication of the California State Numismatic association.

Mr. Kappen is a former editor of the magazine.

At the present time Major Kappen is at his home in San Jose on sick leave from Camp Roberts.

Junior real property agent is a training class in which employees are indoctrinated in specialized appraisal and evaluation work and in negotiating for the donation or purchase of real property and the semilegal work connected with its acquisition.

Also scheduled for Mar. 8 is an examination for junior staff technicians. Application deadline to take this test also is Feb. 9.

To be eligible, one year of full-time experience in technical analysis or research work in administration or fiscal, socio-economic or procedural matters is required. The same amount of experience in technical personnel work or technical work also is qualifying.

Twelve graduate units in economics, public administration, business administration or political science may be substituted for the required experience.

Applications for both examinations are available in the Placement office, Room 108.

Choral Ensemble, Orchestra Score with Handel's 'Messiah'

By BARBARA RILEY

The college Choral Ensemble presented an outstanding performance of Handel's "Messiah" Sunday afternoon before a capacity audience in Morris Dailey auditorium.

Dr. Lyle Downey conducted the 258-member chorus, accompanied by 40 members of the symphony orchestra, in an enthusiastic rendition of the magnificent oratorio.

The ten soloists who were featured with the Choral Ensemble did creditable work. Trained by Mr. Gus Lease and Miss Maurine Thompson of the Music department faculty, they were: Yvonne Michie, Rosalind Rogers, Shirley Underhill, Evelyn Shaffer, Joanne Soderstrom, Gloria Surian Collins, Arthur Huff, John Morrison, Paul Collins and Raymond Johnson.

Especially notable were the solos by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Collins.

"College concerts are given to keep the music groups interested and to provide a cultural contribution to the campus and town," said Dr. Downey, head of the Music department.
