Student Council Appoints Winter Publication Chiefs For Spartan Daily, Lyke

'Lyke' Sells Out In Record Time; 3000 Copies Sold

"Rapid sell-out of Lyke yesterday morning set a record," said Editor Dave Woods. By 10:30 a.m. over 3000 copies of the feature magazine had been grabbed up by eager students.

Last year, the edition was sold by 12 o'clock. This set a new record by one hour over previous sales, according to Bob Neal, business manager. Neal added that 500 more copies were printed this quarter than for preceding editions.

A student council representative arrived with a microphone to aid selling in the inner quad at 10:30 a.m., only to discover that salesmen were ready to leave the booth.

Despite the heavy sale, Lyke will just break even this quarter, Woods mentioned.

Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie stated that it is "a commendable production. The best issue of Lyke I've seen in years. It is evident that some very good thinking was done on it." He was particularly pleased, he said, with the "good looking cover, the beautiful photography, and the fine drawings."

Lyke staff loses Editor Woods and Business Manager Neal after this quarter. Woods and Neal, who have been on the magazine staff for three and four quarters, respectively, are resigning because of other activities, Woods said.

Neal, a graduate student in commercial art, has been the business manager for three of his four quarters. He designed the Santa-peeking-at-San-Jose-State-college-construction cover.

"Without Neal plugging away at the ad staff it would have been impossible to publish a magazine this quarter," Woods stated. He also commended the entire staff for their fine work and cooperation.

Holiday Hopes To Be Raised By Cake Sales

"Provide a Merry Christmas for a Needy Family" is the slogan of the Kappa Tau fraternity cake sale being held today and tomorrow from 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at the Library arch, reports Gene Standfield, Kappa Tau publicity chairman.

The proceeds of the benefit sale will be used to buy a Christmas tree, a complete turkey dinner and assorted Christmas presents for families in San Jose unable to provide for the necessary "Christmas trimmings." The needy families to receive the sales' benefits will be selected by the Salvation Army.

The pastries to be sold have been donated by local bakeries and are selling at 10 cents a slice.

Gene Standfield and Jim Nash Kappa Tau members, are in charge of the charity sale.

Will Serenade Student Body

The Choral Ensemble will serenade the student body in the Inner Quad this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, said Mr. Gus Lease, choir director.

Helen Kimzey, music student, will accompany the group on a portable army organ. The 258-member chorus has dedicated the program of Christmas carols to Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie because it will be his last Christmas as president of SJS.

"A full schedule is planned for the coming quarter," said Mr. Lease, "and anyone who likes to sing should come and try out for the ensemble."

Frosh Hold Final Meet of Quarter

The final meeting of the freshman orientation class this quarter will be held this morning at 11:30 o'clock in the Morris Dailey auditorium, Dr. Stanley C. Benz, dean of men, announced yesterday.

The theme for this morning's session is "Getting the Most Out of College," he added.

Dean Benz will address the freshman group on "Effective Relationships Between Myself and My College."

The Weather

Showed our landlady the large wet spots on the ceiling and she raised the rent. "Adds to the Bohemian atmosphere of the place," she said. "Yeah, along with the straw mattress and the candle-light" I muttered.

I have noticed a nasty disposition on her part ever since we had a Charleston marathon in our living room the other night and scattered their downstairs bedroom with bits of plaster. It's getting warmer where I live, how about you? (Sprinkles tomorrow).

Recital to Feature String Quartet in Auditorium Today

Highlights of a student recital to be held this afternoon at 12:30 o'clock in Morris Dailey auditorium will be a string quartet playing "Op. 16 in D Minor," by Haydn.

John Loban and DeNise Elder will perform the violin parts, with Ray Robinson and Leonard Freiser playing the viola and violoncello, respectively.

Other students participating in the program are Darklin Hageman, Florinda DiLorenzo, Marilyn Williams, Wayne Walker, Judith Huff and Joyce Buswell.

Miss DiLorenzo, soprano, will sing "Let All My Life Be Music," by Sprosa, and Mrs. Huff, soprano, will sing "I Hate Music," by Bernstein.

"These recitals have been given during the quarter to accustom students to performing before the public," Dr. Lyle Downey, head of the Music department, stated.

Co-Rec to Hold Dance, Party In Gym Tonite

Climaxing quarterly activities for Co-Rec will be a dance and Christmas party in Room 22 of the Women's gym tonight, 7:30 to 10 o'clock, Miss Ardith Frost, adviser, said yesterday.

"Live music" by a jazz band recently featured on television will create a festive spirit for the occasion, Barbara Hoepner, chairman, announced. Refreshments will be served.

Nancy Camp and Warren Van Dusen won the Mixed Doubles Badminton tournament held last Thursday, Miss Hoepner said. They were awarded official championship certificates from the Co-Rec committee.

Runners-up for the badminton title were Joan Conway and Philip Latimer.

Students Report

Requested to report to the Graduate Manager's office are Robert Azevedo, Jean Fitzgerald, Patricia Nacey, Barbara Metherall, Joseph Roberts and Charles H. Wells Jr.

Late Registration Is Allowed Second Sign-up Day, Jan. 2

Dean of Students Joe H. West yesterday reiterated that students who are scheduled to register Dec. 31 may register late on Jan. 2 without penalty.

Dean West also suggested that students see their departmental advisers some time before the end of the present quarter. He said that planning for next quarter's program facilitates speedier registration.

Students whose last names begin with Mac, N, O, P, Q, R, S, T, U, V, W, X, Y, Z, A, B, C, D, E or F are scheduled to register on Dec. 31. All others are to register on Jan. 2.

Monte Dayton to Head Scribes; Al Hooning to Direct Ad Staff

The Student Council yesterday appointed winter quarter publication chiefs of the Spartan Daily and co-editors and business manager for Lyke, as nominated by Dr. Dwight Bentel, head of the Journalism department.

Monte Dayton, senior journalism major from Pacific Grove, was chosen editor-in-chief of the Spartan Daily.

Technical Only Students Must Be Counseled

Technical only students who did not take Psychology T-1 this quarter should report to the office of the Coordinator of Technical Curricula immediately, Dr. Harrison Heath announced yesterday.

Dr. Heath said that such students will be counseled on their objectives for next quarter.

According to Dr. Heath, technical only students, even though they have made grades to qualify for the four-year course, will be unable to achieve regular college standing until they have filled out a proposed objective blank. Technical only students who filled out these blanks in spring quarter must fill out another one this quarter.

The office of the Director of Technical Curricula is in Room 120.

UNITED PRESS ROUNDUP

Reds Still Hold Up Prisoner Exchange

Panmunjom, Korea—The United Nations last night warned that the Communists may try to hold back "sizeable numbers" of captured Allied soldiers from any exchange of war prisoners.

A UN command communique said the Reds, for the second straight day, refused in a subcommittee meeting to provide even a list of UN war prisoners until the Allies agree to release all 120,000 or more Communist war prisoners.

Hungary's Note "Ridiculous" Washington—The State Department branded as "patently ridiculous" yesterday Hungary's note accusing the United States of using spies.

The Hungarian note ignored demands for the release of four American airmen forced down in Hungary on Nov. 10.

Typhoons Riddle Philippines

Manila, Philippines—Red Cross reports last night said that 174 persons were known killed in a typhoon which swept the central Philippines in the wake of a volcano eruption and earthquake.

President Elpidio Quirino proclaimed a state of disaster in the area as weather experts reported a new typhoon approaching from a point 800 miles east of Surigao on Mindano island.

Teenagers Crack Down on Dope

Modesto, Calif.—Modesto's teenagers declared yesterday there has been "too much talk and too little action" by adults in solving the problem of narcotics use among minors.

In a petition signed by 2200 students at Modesto High school, the teenagers demanded the death penalty for anyone convicted of selling narcotics to minors.

Diplomas May Be Withheld

No diplomas will be given to December graduates who do not pick up their tickets for the Senior banquet by 5 p.m. today, Mrs. Alma Evans of the Graduate Manager's office announced yesterday.

The graduation dinner has been slated for Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Prime Rib restaurant, Mrs. Evans said.

There are a limited number of tickets left, she added. No one will be admitted to the banquet without a ticket.

Bring Grades

C. W. Quinley, acting registrar, yesterday urged all students to bring their grade reports on registration day.

"Students will find it much easier and faster to register if they have their grades on hand," Quinley said.

Reports will be mailed to all students who drop self-addressed envelopes into the box in front of the Registrar's office.

Band Try-outs

Try-outs for membership in the SJS Concert band will begin this week, said Mr. Robert Olson, band director.

Interested persons may contact Olson through the Music department office, M 1, or in the Morris Dailey auditorium on MWF at 12:30 p.m. or TTh at 3:30 p.m.

Sign for Grad Work

Students who are to be graduated this quarter and who expect to return to San Jose State college for post-graduate study must apply for graduate classification before Dec. 20, according to Miss Viola Palmer, admissions officer.

False 'Brotherhood' Decried

"If we go to the Red Cross blood bank to donate blood, will we get our pictures and a story into the newspaper?"

So goes the most recent in a flood of requests for pure publicity from individuals and representatives of recognized campus organizations.

What has happened to that spirit of brotherhood which once motivated man to act in the service of his fellow man?

The above request seems to indicate—on this campus, at least—that it is being utilized as a fleece under which to hide the more unsavory motive of inflating a mass of individual and disorganized egos.

If we, the "better educated" leaders of tomorrow, feel no greater responsibility toward the welfare of the society in which we live than to make it a means of attaining selfish publicity, our future world has a hard row to hoe—to say nothing of all the individual "worlds" so selfishly created.

Let us consider, for a moment, the recent request from community organizations for college cooperation in the current San Jose pedestrian safety campaign. Seven out of every eight traffic deaths in the city to date this year were pedestrians. Civic leaders saw a need for better pedestrian education. The position of San Jose State college in this community drive was recognized by reason of its more than 7000 persons, who daily cross before the bumpers of speeding automobiles.

A plea for aid and cooperation in the saving of student lives went out to appropriate student organizations. Approximately one dozen college students were needed to offer a few hours per day for three days during the drive. The response, to date, has been almost wholly one of alibis. A few stalwarts have volunteered and are, as usual, the ones left to carry the entire load.

Now there may be effective ways of getting into print—for instance, as a corpse under the wheels of a passing truck. Or perhaps your own urgent need for a pint of blood may get you there. But either of these is a rather awkward position from which to be asking yourself the following question:

Am I really free to ignore the responsibility of an orbit in the present universe of society?

The Philosophy club will hold an open meeting in the Student Union at 8 o'clock tonight, according to Earl Singer, president.

Elmo Robinson, professor of philosophy, and Dr. George A. Muench, associate professor of psychology, will discuss values in connection with mental hygiene.

'Y' Members Held Party

"Christmas around the World" was the theme of the Student Y's Christmas party held last night from 7:30 o'clock to 10 o'clock at the Y, S. Seventh street, according to Barbara Price and Carol Stewart, co-chairmen.

The evening's games, carols, worship and decorations followed various customs of celebrating Christmas in foreign countries. The breaking of a Mexican Pinata was one of the program's highlights.

Included in the refreshments was English wassail.

Suitor-Choice Stumps Star

Two Newcomers, Veteran Starred

By AGNES BOLTER

Two newcomers to the Little Theater stage and one veteran performer took the leading roles in the current SJS production, "The Swan," which ended a five-day run last night.

Hugh Heller, senior major in radio speech, and Mike Casey, sophomore drama major were the new stars, while Mrs. Georgene Bowen, senior drama major, is well versed in Little Theater roles.

Mrs. Bowen was the star in "Lil-lom" and "Dever Road" during her sophomore year, and played in "Antigone" and "Phedra" while a junior. In addition, she performed in several summer shows.

Out-of-state experience includes work in a Pilgrimage play, "The Life of Christ," in the Hollywood Bowl, "the most exciting thing that ever happened to me."

She was married in 1950 to David Bowen, engineering graduate of last March. Her future lies in "keeping house, with some community theater work."

"A career and marriage don't mix," she said. "Housekeeping is a full-time job."

However sparse their SJS acting experience may be, Heller and Casey had long histories in histrionics.

Heller, who hails from Ana-moose, N.D., started San Mateo Junior college as a music major, then changed to radio-speech when he enrolled here.

Spartans probably know him best as co-director and singing star of the "Spartan Review" radio show.

Radio-wise, he has done everything from singing, announcing and providing sound effects to taking leading roles and character parts. On-stage experience includes high school plays and Veterans' theater shows in San Mateo.

Heller hopes eventually to have his own television show, combining directing and emceeing with singing roles.

TV also is the goal of Casey.

"Of course, every actor's dream is to play on Broadway," he said, "but it's hard to get that 'big break.' Television seems more promising."

Already behind him in the long trek upward is a summer's experience writing and directing his own television program, a teenage talent show.

This was before he enrolled at Fullerton Junior college. During his first year there he performed in seven school plays and four community theater shows. He also wrote the "Blue and Gold," Fullerton counterpart of Spartan Revelries.

In his spare time, Casey wrote for western magazines. Unlike many famous writers who received untold rejection slips before breaking into print, he sold the second story he wrote.

"The problem in characterizing Prince Albert," Casey said, "is to be affable and friendly, with a constant undertone of sophistication and sarcasm."

"Alexandra," said Mrs. Bowen, "is poised, regal, and queenly. I hope my interpretation of her lives up to that standard."

Heller interprets Nicholas as a very serious young man, who, when he finds out "there are women in the world, picks the wrong one."

Health Department Threesome Attend Occidental Confab

Miss Margaret M. Twombly, director of the Student Health service, Dr. Anita D. Laton, professor of health and hygiene, and Miss Catherine Wallace, physical therapist, attended the American Student Health association conference Dec. 7-8.

Representatives from 29 colleges were present at Occidental college in Glendale to hear various medical reports, according to Miss Twombly.

Members of the association also visited the new $3,000,000 health center at USC.

"Students pay $6 a semester for medical service at the health center, as compared with the $2 a year students pay at San Jose State college," Miss Twombly pointed out.

HERE 'n' THERE

By BILL WELDY

Much has been written and said about sororities being discriminatory organizations. However, a reverse situation occurred at the Northwestern university campus over the Thanksgiving holiday. Sorority girls who remained on the Evanston, Ill., campus during the Thanksgiving vacation were forced to move out of their rooms and take refuge at nearby hotels during the four-day holiday.

For some strange reason, there is a rule at Northwestern that all sorority houses must be locked at 6 p.m. on the day before Thanksgiving. The Greek gals, who remain on campus, must shift for themselves. To make matters even more ridiculous, dormitory girls, who do go home for the vacation, are not allowed to permit sorority girls to utilize their rooms while they are away.

Lassen Cancels Schedule

According to a recent wire service release, Lassen junior college has cancelled its 14 remaining scheduled basketball games. The reason given for this action was that two key Lassen players were injured in an automobile accident and would not be able to play basketball this season. Lassen officials stated the team would not be able to give their opponents adequate opposition without these two key players. Shasta junior college trounced Lassen, 77-20, just prior to the announcement.

We don't know too much about Lassen junior college, but win, lose or draw, it doesn't seem right for any athletic team to "throw in the towel" merely because two top men will not be able to compete. We wonder how the remaining members of the team feel about the cancellation. Evidently, Lassen officials have forgotten that the actual playing of the game is the important factor.

New Blood Record Set

Students at Washington State college have smashed the national collegiate blood donor record to smithereens. The University of Idaho, WSC's arch rival, recently set the national mark at 1014 pints for one drive. However, the Cougar student body evidently got fired-up and held a six-day campus blood campaign which netted the Red Cross 1831 pints of blood.

You might think that a mark such as 1831 pints would stand for a long time, but don't count on it. A contingent of students at the University of Connecticut have set a goal of 3000 pints for their forthcoming drive.

ASB Election Results

While 79 per cent of the students who voted in the compulsory student body card election held at San Jose State college voted in favor of the measure, the issue received 83 per cent support from San Francisco State college students and 52 per cent at San Diego State college.

The San Diego vote was the closest victory margin achieved at any of the state colleges.

Chivalry's Dead, and Cal Scribe Says He's Glad

By NORM GOLDS
Daily Californian Staff

They say that chivalry is dead. We say good. We won't even send flowers.

If this means the end of the clinging vine type girl, the cute little miss who has a fainting spell every time she has to open a door for herself, we are quite happy.

Not that we propose a Babe Didrickson type, but well, take the example of a typical date with a University of California girl.

After waiting three hours for her, she finally traipses down the stairs, oblivious to the situation, and the first thing she does is hand her coat to you.

"But, I'm not cold," you say. She looks embarrassingly away from you, and mumbles, "No silly, you put it on me."

What's the matter, did she break her arm?

Following this medieval formality, you saunter over to the door, and find her standing there. Just standing. No expression, merley standing.

You guessed it. Her broken arm keeps her from opening doors, too. And so on through the evening.

How do girls ever get anywhere without men to dress them, open doors for them, walk them across the street, etc.?

I suppose that they simply sit in one spot until a man comes along.

My worthy opponent (the slob) has stated there are not enough girls in this University interested in just being girls. What is a girl supposed to do—sit around and admire her flowing locks all day?

Not that I propose that every girl become editor of the Daily Californian. But as long as they have accepted the vote, and as long as they hold 80 per cent (or whatever it is) of the nation's money, they should accept a bit of the responsibility that goes with it.

Chivalry? Who needs it? I don't, that's who!

P.S.: Stealing his public? Ha! That slob Manzano is jealous because I've got big, brown eyes.

SHEPHERDSTOWN, W. Va. (UP)—Dr. John Goulding, instructor in science at Shepherd college, had his hand caught in machinery on his farm, so fellow faculty members decided to help. While Goulding was being treated at a hospital, faculty members and students pitched in to husk the corn crop on the Goulding farm.

'Daily' Scribes Tell Of Wedding Plans

Romance blossomed above the roar of typewriters in the Spartan Daily office. The engagement of Ernestine Vosper, of the society desk, to Boris Stankevich, wire editor, was announced yesterday afternoon with the posting of an exclusive release on the staff bulletin board.

The engagement came as a climax to a heated argument between "Ernie" and Boris over feminine pulchritude. "Ernie" won!

Ernestine is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Vosper of Oakland. Before coming to San Jose State college she attended Willamette university in Salem, Ore. She is a senior journalism major, and achieved fame in the field of dramatics with her portrayal of a corpse in a photo journalism class.

Boris, the son of Mr. and Mrs. V. Stankevich of Claremont, also is a senior journalism major. Many Spartans are familiar with Boris' column "Greener Pastures," which is devoted to discussions of worldly subjects and women.

The couple are planning an April wedding.

Former Spartans Say Nuptial Vows

Jean Ann Quadros recently became the bride of Allen Richard Morton at a marriage ceremony performed in Gardnerville, Nev. The newlyweds now are living in San Jose.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Morton were graduated from San Jose State college in March. Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn Quadros of San Jose, was a commerce major and a member of Chi Omega sorority. Allen, son of Mr. Frank Morton and Mrs. E. E. Morton, majored in accounting and was affiliated with Kappa Alpha fraternity.

Seven Neophytes Join Pi Omega Pi

Seven members were initiated into the Alpha Alpha chapter of Pi Omega Pi, honorary business education fraternity, Thursday evening, Dec. 6, at the Student Union. Initiates were Hart Crabtree, Alice Hays, Joseph MacDonald, Walter Maus, Carmen Norfolk, Doris Parker and Chester Rasmussen.

Participating in the initiation ceremonies were Dan Peterson, president of the chapter, and Dr. Earl Atkinson, commerce professor and speaker for the evening. Chester Rasmussen represented the neophytes.

The committee in charge included Miss Sophie Leas, Miss Ruth Marzotto and Miss Yvonne Anderson, commerce instructor.

Crafts on Sale

"Spartans may do some of their Christmas shopping on campus," says J. George Eimers, chairman for the Delta Phi Delta craft sale. The sale is being conducted by members of the national honorary art fraternity during this week in the Art building.

Articles on sale, according to Eimers, include such items as sterling silver necklaces, pins, pendants and cuff links, enameled hair clasps, belts, and various ceramic pieces.

Sigma Nus to Hold Holiday Formal

Sigma Nu's White Rose formal will be held Friday, Dec. 21, from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. in the Peacock room of the Mark Hopkins hotel in San Francisco, according to John Lincoln, publicity chairman.

The dance is expected to be one of the outstanding holiday dances on the west coast, Lincoln said. Attending the formal will be Sigma Nu members and alumni from chapters at the universities of California, Stanford, Washington, Oregon, Nevada and Santa Clara, San Jose State, Fresno State and Davis colleges.

The function, sponsored by the University of California, previously was open only to Sigma Nus from Cal, Stanford and Nevada.

Forty-five couples from the Zeta Iota chapter at SJS are planning to attend the affair. White roses and engraved favors will be presented to the Sigma Nus' dates.

Musical setting will be provided by Bert Whiting and his orchestra.

Greek Groups Hold Christmas Parties to Entertain Children

DG-PCA

Forty Mexican children, between the ages of four and eight years old, will be guests at a Christmas party sponsored by Delta Gamma sorority and Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity Friday afternoon at the sorority chapter house, reports Carl Fernandes.

This is the third annual Christmas party sponsored by the two groups. Arrangements to entertain the children were made through Mrs. A. Christ of the Catholic Women's center.

A DG quartet will entertain with Christmas carols, and Pi K A Bill Hurst will sing "Silent Night." Group singing and children's games will be under the direction of Mary Pahl.

Santa Claus is scheduled to stop at the DG house on his trip from the North Pole and distribute stockings filled with gifts to the children. Ice cream and cookies will be served.

Co-chairmen for the event are Marilyn Thatcher, Delta Gamma, and Maurice Charlat, Pi Kappa Alpha.

DZ-TX

Delta Zeta sorority will usher in the holiday season with a Christmas dance Friday evening from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. at the chapter house, according to Shirlee Kerwith, publicity chairman.

It will be a dressy affair, and music will be supplied by records.

Sixteen children from the Home of Benevolence will be entertained at the Theta Xi-Delta Zeta annual exchange Christmas party for orphans to be held Sunday at the Theta Xi fraternity house.

The children will spend an evening of party games and refreshments. "Santa Claus," Art Adams, will appear at the party, bringing Christmas cheer, and a sack well-laden with gifts for the orphans.

Alice Hays of Delta Zeta and Jim Moore of Theta Xi, are chairmen for the orphanage party.

KAT-SAE

Fifteen children from the Home of Benevolence were entertained by members of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity last Sunday evening.

The Greek groups hold a Christmas party for the children annually, according to Barbara Driscoll, publicity chairman for KAT. The young guests were entertained with games, refreshments and a visit by Santa Claus.

The annual Christmas party for KAT alumnae and Mothers' club was held Monday evening, with a skit by the actives opening an evening of entertainment. Alice Dougherty recited her original poem, "The Littlest Christmas Tree," and Barbara Queener led the group in singing carols.

Professor Writes Text For English Teachers

By BARBARA RILEY

"Many English teachers dictate the rules of grammar as if they are pronouncing the Ten Commandments," said Dr. Paul Roberts of the English department faculty.

Dr. Roberts is completing a text which is designed especially for use by teachers. It is scheduled for publication in 1953. Dr. Roberts said.

"I am convinced," Dr. Roberts explained, "that proper grammar is that which sounds correct in the situation in which it is used."

He hastened to add that he did not mean, by this, that students should ignore the rules of good English. "Most students," Dr. Roberts stated, "are striving for a higher social group and, therefore, their speech should be as correct as the group's for which they are reaching."

"I am a purist, myself," said the instructor, "but I do not believe in forcing my mode of speech on students."

Dr. Roberts' first text, "Preface to Composition," is now used in Fundamentals of English classes here. The book has sold about 40,000 copies, he mentioned. Dr. Roberts and Dr. Wesley Goddard of the French department wrote the book.

A second handbook was recently completed by Dr. Roberts in collaboration with the editors of Harper and Bros. It is to be used by members of regular composition classes.

The third book, for teachers, will contain a description of American English usage and a definition of the terms used by English instructors.

Dr. Roberts considers that the greatest innovation in his texts is "the attempt to use language which is a little spry. English texts are so often inclined to be stuffy and professorial."

Bibliophiles Trade 'White Elephant' Gifts at Party

A Christmas party at the home of President Marilyn Bone was held last evening by Bibliophiles, a club for majors and minors in librarianship, according to Mrs. Marjorie G. Limbocker, adviser.

Members of the club exchanged "white elephant" gifts. The party served as the climax of the organization's clothing collection project, which was carried on throughout the quarter. Clothing assembled last night will be turned over to the Santa Clara Welfare department for distribution to needy families in the San Jose area.

Officers of Bibliophiles are Miss Bone, president; Betty Potter, vice president; Roberta Stine, secretary; Lorraine Miranda, treasurer.

Initiate 22 Into Local I.A. Frat

Twenty-two SJS industrial arts students were formally initiated into Epsilon Pi Tau, national honorary I.A. fraternity, at a four-chapter ceremony Saturday evening in Stockton, according to Goodwin G. Petersen, local chapter adviser.

The students were part of a group of 50 initiated that evening. The group included neophytes from Chico State college and Fresno State college in addition to those from San Jose State college.

Members of the local Rho chapter of EPT comprised the initiating team. They included Bennie Low, Louis Melo, George Argyres, Ted Geritz, Jim Browning, Art Suhr and Don Forbes.

Acceptance into the fraternity was based on the factors of scholarship, skill, research and philosophy of education.

Following the initiation ceremony, Dr. Heber A. Sotzin, chairman of the Division of Applied Arts, addressed the group on "The Era of Challenge—Let's Face It."

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No. 29...THE HYENA

Hysteria reigned from the moment he heard the details of those quick-trick cigarette mildness tests. First he giggled . . . then he guffawed . . . wound-up rolling in the aisle! He knew that the "single sniff" test or the "one puff" test didn't prove anything! Millions of smokers have reached the same conclusion — there's just one test that really proves cigarette flavor and mildness!

It's the sensible test . . . the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke — on a pack-after-pack, day-after-day basis. No snap judgments! Once you've enjoyed Camels for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why . . .

High Scoring Kev Duggan To Lead Gaters Tomorrow

San Francisco State Cagers Beat 3 Wins

A lad touted as one of the best basketball players on the Pacific Coast, Kevin Duggan, will lead the San Francisco State college Golden Gaters when the fog city five tangles with Walt McPherson's Spartan cagers tomorrow night in the Men's gym.

Duggan, a 6'3" postman, is currently 3 of a point off of his 1950-51 average of 24.5 a game. The big Irishman has tanked 97 points in four games this season for an average of 24.2. He enjoyed the best performance of his career in a contest against Arizona State college of Flagstaff on Dec. 6. In this contest Duggan tallied 19 field goals and three free throws for 41 markers.

During the 1950-51 season, Duggan tallied 686 points. His top performance was against Redlands university. In this contest he racked up 40 markers. In a Cow Palace game against Los Angeles State, the Golden Gater ace poured 34 points through the Bovine Barn hoops.

If Walt McPherson's men press Duggan they had better avoid fouls because "big Dugg" posted an 83.33 free shot percentage last season.

Coaching the SFS squad is Dan Farmer, who has had only one losing season during his 17 years of basketball mentoring at the Gater institution.

So far this campaign, Farmer's forces have won three contests while dropping one encounter. In their last outing, the Gaters, paced by Duggan, trounced Arizona State, 76-52. Previously they had whipped Ensor Athletic club and West Coast Industries. The lone setback was a defeat administered by the California Golden Bears in Berkeley. Even in defeat, the Gaters looked good as they lost by a respectable 70-58 score.

Aside from Duggan, Coach Farmer has several other fine hoopers on his team. Heading the list are a pair of two-year lettermen, John Walsh and Al Athanosopoulos. Both are excellent ball handlers and good all-around floor men. Al Desin, a one-year veteran, has been Duggan's top aide in the scoring columns this season. The 6'3" forward hit for 14 points against California.

Glydon Mayfield, a 5'11" guard, is another letterman who may give SJS trouble. Maurice Dunnean, who played on the SJS freshman team while enrolled as a junior college student last season, is listed on the Gater roster and may see action with the SFS j.v.'s in the preliminary game.

Free with ASB

Students with ASB cards and faculty members with honorary cards will be admitted to both the SJS-SFS and SJS-Utah State basketball games Friday and Saturday nights, respectively. Mrs. Lee Stuck of the Graduate Manager's office, announced yesterday.

Utah St. Receives Little Hospitality

Utah State's barnstorming Aggies duck into San Jose Saturday evening on the final lap of a week-long west coast invasion.

The Skyline conference invaders of Coach Cecil Baker have not been greeted with any great hospitality by their Pacific neighbors and have suffered a pair of defeats.

Sacramento State's Hornets, whom the Spartans dumped 61-49 a week ago, waylaid the Utes in their debut Tuesday night with a 69-64 victory. The following evening, against the Wolfpack of Nevada university, the Aggies dropped another, 60-51.

This may sound like the Utah quintet is on the impotent side, but the Aggies, perennial late cage starters, have not found their early season shooting eyes. Paced by their All-Rocky Mountain forward, Bert Cook, the Aggies display a breakneck, racehorse style of basketball. They are a rugged crew hailing from one of the nation's outstanding cage sections, the tough Skyline conference, which boasts such clubs as Brigham Young, last year's NIT champions, Wyoming, and Utah. These Big Three are usually right up there in national ratings, which proves the caliber of ball played in the region.

Although not as strong as their larger opponents, Coach Baker's boys hold their own, as witness their stunning 72-68 upset of BYU last season.

The versatile Cook, who broke Utah State's scoring record in 1950 with a 587 point output and a 17.3 digit average per game, is the chief scoring punch of the 1951-52 Aggie quint.

The Skyliners lost their second high scorer via graduation in LaDell Andrews, an All-Conference forward who tallied 412 markers last campaign. Junior Darrell Tucker may take up the slack somewhat with his aggressive brand of ball. He may prove the Aggies' key player behind Cook.

The Utes are anything but Mountain toppers. Bill Hull is the top Aggie at 6' 5". The next drop is to the all-around Cook at 6' 2". The remainder of the starting five are all under this figure with Tucker, 6' 1", Pete Sewell, a 5' 11" forward, and Jack Weiss, the mid-get of the squad at 5' 10".

PKAs Meet DSGs In Final Game

The heavens permitting, Pi Kappa Alpha can put the finishing touches on an undefeated intramural season when members tangle with Delta Sigma Gamma today in the inter-fraternity league.

A victory over DSG, which boasts a six and one slate, will give PKA the drawn-out IFL title, and the right to meet Delta Upsilon, independent kingpins, for the undisputed intramural title. The PKAs have run up ten impressive triumphs.

In the only other tilt, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, which could make it a three-way tie if DSG pulls an upset, meets Kappa Alpha.

Riflemen Explode Against Cal Aggies

Ten members of the varsity rifle team will represent San Jose State college tomorrow at Berkeley in a rifle match against the California Aggies, according to Sgt. Richard Hosking.

Although little is known about the Aggies' present record, Sgt. Hosking said, the Spartans are determined to avenge last year's two defeats.

Grapplers Meet Bears In Berkeley Tonight

San Jose State's varsity and junior varsity wrestling squads match holds with the University of California Bears tonight at Berkeley in their second dual meet of the season. The matches will begin at 6:30 p.m.

The jayvee team whipped the Alameda NAS last week in the Spartan's initial victory of the 1951-52 mat campaign.

Coach Ted Mumby will haul an 18-man combined outfit against the strong Bears. Frank Waxham, three times Pacific Coast Intercollegiate 157-pound titlist, heads the Spartan grapplers.

Al Cadena, a PCI finalist last year, will be the only varsity matman unable to make the Berkeley jaunt. Cadena injured his leg in practice last week.

Following is the line-up of Spartan wrestlers and weight classification for the meet: Varsity—Joe Ross, 123 lb.; Ko Nagareda, 130 lb.; John Jackson, 137 lb.; Brook Vincent, 147 lb.; Waxham, 157 lb.; Joe Thornley or Ray Bunnell, 167 lb.; Paul Reuter or Jim Van Houten, 177 lb., and Jean Snyder, heavyweight.

Junior varsity—Frank Fuentes, 123 lb.; Kay Toyota, 125 lb.; Joe Tiago, 142 lb.; Bob Hall, 150 lb.; Joe Thornley or Ray Bunnell, 167 lb.; Paul Reuter or Jim Van Houten, 177 lb.; Bob Roebuck or Martin Bergen, heavyweight. Coach Mumby announced that ten bay area wrestling teams have signed up for the annual Pacific Association AAU wrestling tournament to be held this Saturday in the Men's gym.

College to Offer New Courses

Two new courses in political science will be offered by the Social Science department next quarter, Dr. William H. Poytress, department head, announced yesterday.

Political Science 136A, a three-unit course on international law, is being given by Dr. S. Laird Swagert, associate professor of political science, Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 1:30 p.m., he said.

Music Prof Plays Handel Harp Work

The rarely performed "Harp Concerto in B Flat" by Handel was presented yesterday at 9:30 a.m. in M108 by Mrs. Lydia Boothby of the Music department faculty.

It was the last concert of the quarter in the Music 117A series. The class has heard combination lecture-concerts throughout the quarter.

"Nothing like it has ever been presented before at the college," said Mr. Walters. The course is scheduled for the same time next quarter.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Collins, music students, also sang during the class meeting. They recently performed solo parts at the recent "Messiah" concert.

Mrs. Collins, the former Gloria Surian, sang the "Gloria" from "Elijah" among other numbers, and Mr. Collins rendered the "Now Heaven in Fullest Glory Shone" from "The Creation" by Haydn.

"Although this class has been listed in the college bulletin for two years, this is the first time the department has been able to offer it," he said.

Political Science 172B, "American Political Parties: Political Process," is a three-unit course being given by Mr. Dena R. Cresap, assistant professor of social science, Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 8:30 a.m.

Dr. Poytress pointed out that "American Political Parties" is the continuation of Political Science 172A.

Business Courses

Courses in real estate and insurance will be offered by San Jose State college to limited students taking less than six units during winter quarter, according to Dr. C. L. Suffield, professor of commerce, who will be the instructor.

Two identical classes in real estate appraisal will be offered. The Monday class will meet from 3:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. and the Wednesday class will meet from 7:10 to 9:30 p.m.

Two property insurance courses also will be offered. Both are approved by the State Department of Insurance. They will be taught Tuesdays and Thursdays at 7:10 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.

Full college credit is given for each course successfully completed. "On campus" courses will be $5, while "off campus" courses will cost $12.

Prof Battles Sukiyaki Feed, Chopsticks in S.F. Restaurant

A three-way battle between himself, a pair of chopsticks and a dish of sukuyaki Saturday night will remain among the most pleasant memories of Dr. William Hermanns, assistant professor of Modern Languages.

After he had attended a ballet in the San Francisco Opera house, Dr. Hermanns was invited by several students to accompany them to a Japanese restaurant. It was the first time in his life that he had such a mealtime experience, he said.

"I have never eaten for so long a period in one sitting in all my life," he said. He explained that his greatest difficulty arose from his inability to manipulate his chopsticks. "They continually slipped from my fingers. When I had mastered them to some degree," he continued, "the rice, onions and meat refused to cooperate."

Eating such a meal requires patience, he pointed out. "I never could understand why the Japanese and the Chinese are so composed in everything they undertake. I think that eating in this manner accounts for their great poise."

While one-tenth of his meal was successfully carried upon his chopsticks, Dr. Hermanns said, the other nine-tenths either accumulated on his tie or remained in the vicinity of his plate.

"It was a most enjoyable evening," he declared. "The students even insisted that I shouldn't pay for the meal."

"From now on I am going to spend all my available time in San Francisco attending the various shows and waiting for students to take me to dinner."

Science Clubs Hold Christmas Party

A joint Christmas party will be held tomorrow evening by the Entomology club and Tri Beta, honorary biological science fraternity, Dr. Carl D. Duncan, head of the Natural Science department, said yesterday. The party will begin at 6 o'clock in the evening in S31.

Alumni of both clubs are invited to the Yuletide party.

German Woman Makes Inspection Of Rec Facilities

Miss Mary Wiley, of the Women's Physical Education department, conducted Miss Margaret Bidlingmaier here on a visit from Germany, on a tour of campus recreation facilities yesterday.

Miss Bidlingmaier will be in the United States for three months studying methods of recreation. She is a director of recreation in Germany.

Miss Wiley was asked by the California State Recreation commission to plan a tour of campus and city for Miss Bidlingmaier's five-day stay in this district.

Three recreation classes were attended yesterday by the German visitor and during the week she is scheduled to appear at meetings of the CWC, YWCA, Girl and Boy Scouts and the Camp Fire girls, among others.

Teaching Jobs Open in Texas

Kindergarten-primary majors with a yen for the wide-open spaces may apply for a teaching position in Austin, Tex., according to Miss Doris Robinson, director of teacher placement. The job is at a demonstration school connected with the University of Texas, she said. There is a regular salary plus a bonus from the university.

According to the letter she received, Miss Robinson said, the school program is one of the most outstanding in the state.

Talks to Students

Dr. Stewart L. Anderson, president of Pacific School of Religion, will visit the Student Y today from 1:30 to 5 p.m. to talk with students interested in making the ministry their vocation, according to the Rev. James Martin, executive secretary.

Bridge Tournament Scheduled

Bridge enthusiasts may have an opportunity to put their Student Union practice to good use in February, according to Cliff Lindsey, chairman of the Social Affairs committee.

During that month, the annual National Intercollegiate Bridge tournament will begin. Spartans interested in competing should sign up with Dr. Bert M. Morris, associate professor of chemistry, by Dec. 15.

Included in the tourney will be semi-final rounds by mail and face-to-face finals at a dinner meeting in Chicago. Dr. Morris may be contacted for further information regarding rules of the contest.

The bigger we grow the smaller we get!

1. Today, Union Oil Company does an annual business of over $250 million. This seems like a whale of a lot of business when you consider that back in 1910 (when we were 20 years old) we did an annual business of $12 million.

2. But back in 1910 there were only 468,500 cars in the U.S. and the average American used only one quart of petroleum products a day. Today there are over 44 million cars in the U.S. and the average American uses 1 9/10 gallons of petroleum products every day.

4. Today we are among the nation's 100 largest corporations and are 20 times as big as we were in 1910. But here's the important point: 42 years ago we did about 23% of the oil business in the 5 western states—our major marketing area. Today, in spite of our growth, we do only 13% of the oil business in the 5 western states!

5. In view of all this, it seems rather strange to hear so much talk about bigness. Of course, individual oil companies are bigger. They have to be bigger to serve the bigger need. But the vast majority aren't as big in proportion to the total business as they were 42 years ago. In fact, they are getting "smaller" all the time.

3. To supply this steadily increasing demand for petroleum products, long-established companies had to expand and many new companies have entered the field. As a result, competition has increased. In 1951 there were 4 1/2 times as many oil companies in the U.S. as there were in 1910—all in competition for your business.
