Lewis Explains Velde Subpoena

By JERRY BELCHER
(Spartan Daily Editor)

"I was a member of the Communist party for a short time in the middle 1930's, and dropped out after I had learned the true nature of the organization."

Dr. Richard B. Lewis, head of the audio-visual service center at the college, made this statement to the Daily yesterday after being subpoenaed to appear before the House Un-American activities committee in Los Angeles Mar. 23.

"Since that time," Dr. Lewis continued, "I have cooperated with government agencies in safeguarding national security."

My participation is a matter of record. In 1942 I was commissioned an officer in the United States Navy, after a full investigation of my record.

"My record in education speaks for itself and will stand any scrutiny: I will assist the House committee in any way I can."

Dr. James C. DeVoss, executive dean and acting president in the absence of Dr. John T. Wahlquist, said in an official statement yesterday, "I urge all students and faculty members not to consider this (subpoena) an implication that Dr. Lewis is Un-American."

Dr. Lewis served as a lieutenant commander in the Navy four years during World War II and came to this college in 1949. He was graduated from San Jose State college in 1930 with an AB, in speech, and earned his MA and doctorate of education at Stanford university.

The subpoena was served by Sheriff Howard Hornbuckle, an ex-classmate of Dr. Lewis'. The United Press quoted Dr. Lewis as saying, "I'm very much surprised at this action. I thought all of this was water under the bridge."

Dean DeVoss stated that this was the first case of its type to come up at the college. "This college has a reputation for being free of the communist taint," he said.

The House committee, headed by Rep. Harold H. Velde (R-Ill.), has heard testimony from professors at Harvard university, Brooklyn college and Queen's college of New York in the past few weeks.

Members of the committee have pledged to the Congress that its investigation of communism in college's "will not be a witch-hunt."

'Sheep Well' Seats Completely Sold

All tickets to "The Sheep Well," by Lope de Vega, have been sold, according to the Speech office. The Spanish play opened Friday night and will continue Thursday through Saturday. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m.

Tickets Available For Grad Banquet

Tickets for the Senior Banquet to be held graduation day, Mar. 12, are available in the Graduate Manager's office, Room 16.

They will be issued free to March graduates during this week, according to Dr. James C. DeVoss, commencement committee chairman.

Seniors may purchase $3 guest tickets Mar. 9 and 10.

Graduation day schedule follows:

Deadline to arrive at the auditorium is 3 p.m.

Commencement will begin at 3:30 p.m.

The Senior Banquet is to be held in the Empire room of the St. Claire hotel at 7 p.m.

Cancellations End

Today is the last day for cancelling Death Valley trip reservations, said Dr. Gertrude Cavins, professor of chemistry. Cancellations may be made in Room S100.

'Jack of Hearts' To Reign Over Annual AWS March Melodies

Don Camp, "Jack of Hearts" at the recent Women's Week, will serve as master of ceremonies at the AWS March Melodies tomorrow night.

Thirteen independent and sorority living groups will present a series of 25 melodies at the women's songfest, beginning at 7:30 p.m. in Morris Dailey auditorium.

The perpetual trophy, won last year by Mary George Coop, will be awarded to the house presenting the outstanding vocalizations. Trophies also will be given to second and third place winners.

Judges will make awards on the basis of presentation, interpretation and general appearance.

Judging the song competition will be Jack Mighell, of Ferguson's music store; Thomas Fagan, associate professor of music, and Mrs. Noreen Mitchell, instructor in speech.

Pianist Fay Kidder will provide incidental music while each group takes its place on the stage in the auditorium.

The annual function which is sponsored by AWS is open to the student body free-of-charge. Co-chairmen of March Melodies are Janet Adams and Pat Engerud.

Lyke To Hit Stands Early

Approximately 500 copies of the winter quarter edition of Lyke will go on sale tomorrow at 7 o'clock, announced Bob Pettei and Joyce Burrell, co-editors of the feature magazine.

This quarter's edition of Lyke will contain a pictorial feature of the Ski club, and an entertainment guide designed to help the social chairmen of the various campus organizations.

A story on the future of sports at the college also is appearing along with the traditional jokes and campus humor.

Women's Club Has Tea Today

The Women's Faculty club will hold a tea for the Faculty Wives club in Room 2 of the Women's gym today from 3 to 5 p.m.

The two clubs rotate hostess and guest positions at the annual affair. Dr. Alice Dement, associate professor of psychology and Women's Faculty club president, said yesterday.

Seven former faculty members will pour, said Mrs. Izzetta Pritchard, hostess chairman. They are Miss Helen Mignon, professor-emeritus of home economics; Miss Alma Lowry William, assistant professor-emeritus of music; Miss Elizabeth McFadden, professor-emeritus of health and hygiene; Dr. Margaret Letzler, professor-emeritus of speech and drama; Miss Emily DeVore, associate professor of education; Miss Susan Byrne, assistant professor-emeritus of art.

Magazine Prints Articles by Grad

Two articles by Mrs. Catherine Jones Urban of Saratoga, a graduate of the college, appears in the March issue of the Instructor. The magazine is published in Danville, N.Y.

German Plays To Run Tonight

Three one-act German plays will be presented tonight and tomorrow night in the Actor's Lab by the modern language department.

The performances, which are under the direction of Dr. Theodore Verhaaren, associate professor of modern languages, will begin at 8 o'clock.

Tickets for the productions, which will be presented entirely in German, can be purchased in modern language office for 25 cents.

The plays were written by Hans Sachs, 16th century German poet and Meistersinger.

Students presenting the plays include Louis Gregory, Hal Aldrich, Cleo Cebulla and Mirelle Guers. Other students participating in the productions are Dieter Schulz, Mrs. Johanna Castro, Mrs. Beatrice Orwitz, Helen Pigarow, Pohl Rohlhammer and Jens Shurk.

College Debating Team Ties for First in Contest

The SJS debate team of Bill Johnson and Luther Clark tied for first place with the San Francisco State college in the open tournament at the University of San Francisco Saturday.

Another Spartan team, Bill Tyler and Gary Park, took second place. The tournament was organized so that several debates were running at the same time, winners meeting winners and losers being disqualified. Approximately 40 teams competed.

The subject was "Resolved: That the Congress of the United States should pass a compulsory fair employment practice law." The tournament was sponsored by the Northern California Forensics association.

Other colleges participating were Stanford, University of California, College of Pacific, City College of San Francisco, Stockton junior college, St. Mary's university, the University of San Francisco, University of Santa Clara, and San Francisco state.

The next big tournament will be at Pepperdine college Mar. 12-14. From 75 to 100 colleges in the Western United States will take part, according to Dr. Lawrence H. Mouat, forensics coach.

New Russ Charge

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UP) — Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky charged yesterday that President Eisenhower's order ending the "neutralization" of Formosa is "clear evidence" of United States desire to expand the Korean war.

Government Test Registration Ends

Today is the last day for seniors graduating in June to sign up to take the California state government test to be given tomorrow afternoon, according to Dr. S. Laird Swagert, associate professor of political science.

The test, which will be based on material in Gray's "California, the State and Its Government," will be given in Morris Dailey auditorium.

Students are requested to bring an IBM pencil with them.

To be exempt from taking the test, a student must of had one of the following courses this year or last year: history 17A, B, and C (9 units); history 171A, B, and C (9 units); or history 8A, B, and C (9 units).

Other courses which meet the requirements are political science 3, (6 units, must have been taken no earlier than spring quarter of 1952); political science 51A and B (9 units); history 189B (3 units); history 189S (3 units); political science 112A (3 units) and political science 172C (3 units).

On Conclusion Jumping

Yesterday a professor at this college, Dr. Richard B. Lewis, was subpoenaed to appear before the House Committee on Un-American activities in Los Angeles.

In some cases, rash or unthoughtful persons have jumped to the conclusion, that because a man appears before such committee, he automatically is "Un-American."

This simply is not true and is as absurd as concluding that, because a man is a witness in a murder trial, he automatically is a murderer.

Ardent anti-communists appear almost daily before this committee, earnestly seeking to stop the spread of communism. Many ex-communists, such as Dr. Lewis, also have appeared to renounce their affiliation with the movement and to try to help all Americans avoid its snares.

Another shallow-minded argument is put forth by those who rail, "You can't trust these ex-communists. They were crazy to join in the first place." Here is another abominable form of conclusion-jumping.

Many young Americans, seeing their country in the throes of a terrible depression in the 1930's, sought some way to cure America's ailing economy. Some thought communism was that cure. They were wrong, but they should not be denounced merely for having once been wrong.

Those who were wrong and who have admitted it and renounce communism are, we think, to be admired, not censured. Any of us can be wrong, but it takes a big man to admit and try to rectify his mistake.

Competition for the second annual J. Wendell Johnson award for stage design begins today, according to Dr. Edward Clements, personnel counselor.

The award is made each year from a fund set up by an anonymous donor, Dr. Clements said.

This year's award will be approximately $50. Students registered at the college Spring quarter are eligible to enter the contest.

Lists of plays from which the designs are to be made will be available in the Speech and Drama office, Room 57, Friday.

Students may enter the contest in one of three ways, he said. Entries may be: pictorial and structural designs of each setting; sketches of stage designs and costumes for each character; or detailed costume designs and notes on the stage settings.

Judging will be held at the end of the Spring quarter, and designs will be placed on exhibition.

Grad Applications Finish This Week

Candidates for June and summer session graduation may schedule application appointments through Thursday, according to C. W. Quinley jr., acting registrar. No appointments will be made during finals week.

Department heads' approval of majors and minors should be filed in the Registrar's office before applying for graduation.

Ward's Slates Job Interviews

Representatives of Montgomery Ward will be on campus tomorrow to interview students for positions in the retail store and mail order branches of the company.

Interested students may obtain interview appointments in the Placement office, Room 100. Unfilled interview dates are between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., Dr. Vernon A. Guellette, director of business and technical placement, said.

Young men selected from these interviews will be given every opportunity for rapid advancement, according to a Ward's announcement. Opportunities are unlimited in the mail order and retail store branches of the business, it was reported.

Third Coffee Hour Set for Tomorrow

The Social Affairs committee will sponsor the quarter's third Coffee Hour from 9:30 to 11 a.m. tomorrow in the Student Union.

Purpose of the affair, said Del Bowles, committee head, is to help students and faculty members become acquainted.

The Coffee Hour is free, he added.

Payment of Alumni Dues Will Afford Many Advantages to College Seniors

What do I get out of the $5 I pay for alumni dues? This question has been voiced by many seniors who are graduating in March or June.

It would be easy to list two or three benefits and conclude. But there are many more privileges which the graduating senior receives through his dues payment.

The alumni breakfast and unrestricted use of the college library are two benefits. The "Alumni Review," a 16-page magazine devoted to news of alumni is sent free for one year to all graduates. When graduates join alumni chapters their membership becomes automatic through the initial dues payment.

Artie Shaw Life Story Among 225 New Books

Artie Shaw, Robert Browning, Walt Disney, and Abraham Lincoln joined other dignitaries on the shelves of the college library this week.

Books written by or about them are among 225 newly-received volumes, said Head Librarian Joyce Backus.

Flight Forerunner Now Being Shown

Leonardo da Vinci's 16th Century model of an aerial screw is on display in the Reserve Book room.

Roberto A. Guatelli, in charge of the da Vinci exhibit in the Women's gym, built the model from the artist-inventor's designs.

Authorities believed the aerial screw was a forerunner of the helicopter and airplane propeller. Reproductions of da Vinci's prints and paintings are on display in the second floor of the science building.

Chapel Service Features Talk

Max Watson, county director of adult corrections, will speak this morning at Student Y chapel services, according to Shirley White, worship committee chairman.

Watson will speak on "Religion in Readjustment." The service will be held in the college Memorial Chapel at 10:45 a.m., and is open to the entire student body, Miss White announced.

Watson was the county adult probation officer for 25 years and had worked in San Diego on the first project of the California jail farm system.

"The Trouble with Cinderella" tells how Arthur Arshawsky, from New York's East Side, becomes clarinetist Artie Shaw. In the book, Shaw reportedly attempts an honest analysis of himself.

Walt Disney's version of "Alice in Wonderland" is illustrated with cartoons from his 1951 movie.

Lincoln is represented by a collection of his speeches, edited by Archer H. Shaw. J. M. Cohen has written a new biography of Robert Browning, the romantic and intellectual English poet.

"To Live As We Wish," by M. A. Aldanov, tells of members of the international set, who are fleeing Eastern European Communism for American free enterprise. However, they can't resist dreaming of a paternal dictator who will think of them.

The independent African state of Liberia can be a valuable friend to the U.S., claims Robert Anderson in "Liberia, America's African friend."

"India and the Passing of Empire," chronicles 4,000 years of Indian history. The author, Sir George Dunbar, was in the Indian army.

For the music lover are these books: "Music Through the Centuries," by Adam von Ahn Carse; "How Music Expresses Ideas," by Sidney Finkelstein; "Music in Contemporary American Civilization," by Howard Hanson.

Teachers Hear Institute Talk

Dr. Frederick G. Sawyer will describe the Stanford university research institute and its purposes at a meeting of science and mathematics teachers Thursday at 7:45 p.m. in Room 112 of the Natural Science building.

Dr. Sawyer is the assistant to the director of the institute. His lecture is expected to draw science and mathematics teachers from the entire Santa Clara county. The talk will be supplemented by pictures of the various functions of the institute.

Need Sponsor For Interclass Cinder Squad

One more sorority is needed as co-sponsor for the annual interclass track meet to be held at the Spartan field Thursday afternoon.

The team captained by Lang Stanley, 880 varsity runner, is being sponsored by Theta Chi fraternity but as yet no sorority has signed to act as co-sponsor.

A trophy will be awarded to the best combined rooting section, and another to the sponsors of the winning team.

Sponsors that have signed include Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Delta Gamma for Dick Stults' entry; Sigma Pi and Chi Omega for Walt Burnett's team; Delta Upsilon and Kappa Alpha Theta will root for Bill Priddy's squad; and Ken Doler's tracksters will be sponsored by Alpha Tau Omega and Alpha Phi.

SJS Judoists Tourney's Best At Marin JC

Spartan judoists won two-thirds of all awards given at the Northern California Judo Promotional tournament at Marin junior college Sunday. There were 170 contestants, representing 23 schools, in the tourney.

Advancements were as follows:

Pete Gorvad and Chris Bell, from first degree brown belt to first degree black belt; Win Dahl, Harp Didier, Bill Thompson, and Dan Santiago, from second degree brown belt to first degree brown belt; Roy Hiram, Bill Hubbard, and Rocky Scholtz, from third to second degree brown belt; Joe Sepulveda, Eric Olsen, Don Edwards, Joe Lopez, Ken Giles, and Charles Roy, from white belt to third degree brown belt.

Lyle Hunt failed in his second attempt to equal the record of former Spartan George Best in attainment of the second degree black belt rating. His efforts for the day were one win, one draw, and one loss.

Baseball Squad To Engage Hard-hitting Cards Today

The Spartan baseball team travels to Palo Alto today to meet an undefeated Stanford squad.

The game will begin at 3:15 p.m. in the Sunken diamond.

Coach Walt Williams' team will be seeking its first win of the season, having fought to a 13-inning, 2-2 tie with the Palo Alto Oaks Saturday, in their initial 1953 outing.

For the Indians, it will be an attempt to annex their fourth victory in as many attempts. They gave the Oaks a 12-3 drubbing earlier in the year.

Williams has selected southpaw Johnny Oldham to pitch against the power-laden Palo Alto nine. He has a tough assignment, with such players as Chuck Essegian, Jack Shepard, and Warren Goodrich opposing him.

In Saturday's game, Oldham allowed only two hits in five innings but was bothered by lack of control, giving seven free passes, two of which were manufactured into runs.

Oldham will have a strong defensive team behind him, but one which as yet has shown little ability to produce runs.

Bob Poole, hustling letterman from last year's squad, will do the receiving for Oldham. In the infield will be Don Visconti, first base; Ron Palma, second base; Cookie Camara, shortstop; and Jack Richards, third base. All were members of the 1952 aggregation, except Visconti, who transferred from San Mateo junior college.

Ralph Cleland, Jim Coalter,

and Gene Salvador will patrol the outfield for the Spartans. Cleland is the only letterman in the outfield. Coalter is a transfer from Modesto junior college, and Salvador attended SJS last year but was not a member of the team.

Coach Clint Evans' Indian nine has seven returning lettermen, and has shown tremendous power at ford squad, Essegian, a linebatter on the Indian football team, smashed ten home runs last year, and has been hitting the long ball again. In Friday's game against Alameda, he drove the ball more than 400 feet.

Shepard, number two man in the CIBA "hit parade" last year, with a .379 average, has his batting eye pretty well sharpened. He leads his team from the catcher position and is hitting well over the .500 mark.

Goodrich finished the 1952 campaign with the fourth-best batting average in the CIBA.

The Cards are not without good pitching. They won the first two games of the season by shutouts.

Tomorrow's game will be the first of three rugged encounters for SJS this week. They meet Stanford again on Friday, at Municipal stadium, and California Saturday at Berkeley.

Williams said he probably will start Ron Kauffman on the mound Friday. The little righthander from West Contra Costa junior college handcuffed the Oaks for eight innings Saturday, giving up only two hits and striking out nine batters.

Doug Boehner, veteran from last year's squad, may get the nod from Williams to pitch the Saturday game. The righthander has yet to see action this year, but had one of the best earned-run averages on the team last season as a freshman.

The Spartan team embarked on its toughest schedule in SJS history last Saturday against the Oaks. Besides California and Stanford, Williams' diamondmen will play UCLA, the University of Southern California, Oregon State, and a number of potent service clubs.

JOHNNY OLDHAM . . . He has drawn a tough assignment—pitching against the hard-hitting Stanford Indians this afternoon.

Webb May Box Heinrich In ISC Match Friday

Ellsworth Webb, 1952 NCAA 156 lb. champion, and member of the Olympic team, probably will box Ed Heinrich Friday night when the Spartans meet Idaho State college in Men's gym.

ISC Coach "Dubby" Holt, in a letter to SJS Coach Chuck Adkins, said he would like to have Webb box. The national champ has not been in great demand by college boxers because of his superior ring ability. Webb is a hard puncher, and can end a bout with one punch.

Heinrich also is a hard hitter and has lost only two college bouts. Adkins is not certain if he will match Heinrich against the ISC belter.

Holt said that Paddy Garver, his ace 132 lb. gloveman, has the flu and will not be able to make the trip south. Garver is one reason why the Bengals are being considered as the team to beat for the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate title later this month. He defeated Joe Rodriguez when the Spartans lost to the Northwestern squad last month, 5-4. Tim Brennan, who has no previous college experience, according to Holt, will take Garver's place.

Old Man Flu has handed Darrel Dukes a knockout blow, too. The Spartan, able to box in but one match this season because of illness, will not see action Friday night. This leaves the light-heavyweight spot open for either Norman Carter or Paul Reuter.

Reuter, a heavyweight, may be able to lose enough weight to qualify for the 178 lb. bout, but he probably will have to defeat Carter in a challenge match to participate against the Bengals.

Reuter defeated Carter in the All-College meet in January, but the latter has shown improvement since then.

An exhibition between Don Camp, assistant boxing coach, and Ruggles Larson, former Washington State college star, will be staged Friday night. Larson, now in the navy at Alameda, has had difficulty getting matches.

Winning Coach

Spartan cagers ended their basketball season with a 15-11 record, thus keeping alive Coach Walt McPherson's record of never having had a losing season at SJS.

McPherson's ten-year record shows 181 wins and 101 losses. In 1948 and 1949 McPherson's teams won 19 straight CCAA contests.

Spartans Lose Cager to Army

Spartan's hopes for three returning first-stringers for next season's cage squad died yesterday when Coach Walt McPherson announced that center Fred Niemann will not be around when fall practice begins.

Niemann will report for induction into the armed services on Mar. 13.

McPherson said he was counting heavily on Niemann's services for his next year's squad.

Niemann is the third regular lost to the casabamen since the closing game against San Diego State. Guard Lee Jensen and forward Don Edwards, co-captains, are seniors and have used their eligibility.

Language-Art Majors Get Requirements Cut

Language-art majors will have 24 units cut from their required list of subjects.

Administrative officers and department heads decided at a meeting Friday to give the majors more individual selection in their programs. Dr. Fred F. Harclerod, dean of instruction, said.

At present 176 units of required subjects must be taken to complete the Language-Art course.

Four departments offer the course jointly. The program is so arranged that the students take several classes in the English, Art, Speech and Journalism departments.

The course is designed to meet the need for teachers capable of instructing classes in the four areas, according to Dr. James C. DeVoss, executive dean.

Dr. DeVoss, Dr. Harclerod, Dr. Raymond Barry, English department head; Dr. Dwight Bentel, Journalism department head, and Dr. Harry T. Jensen, professor of education, were at the meeting.

Parents Find Kids 'Normal'

At a recent meeting in the child laboratory, a group of parents learned their children were "normal."

Miss Joyce Bolton, nursery school head, suggested the meeting of parents whose children attend the college nursery school. They discussed problems connected with rearing their youngsters.

Walter Plant, psychology instructor, lead the discussion. Miss Betsy Amick and Miss Jacqueline Hooley, education majors, spoke on social development and play activities.

Seventeen of the twenty-one nursery school children were represented by their parents, Miss Bolton said. Many fathers also attended.

"The parents were most comforted to realize others have similar problems with their children," Miss Bolton observed. Many found their children's behavior to be normal, after all."

Education TV Discussion Set

A "Little Governor's Conference for Educational TV" was selected as the medium to discuss an educational television station for the San Jose area last week.

The decision was made at a meeting of the five-county committee headed by Dr. Richard B. Lewis, audio-visual professor at the college.

The conference will be modeled after the governor's conference on educational TV held at Sacramento recently and will take place May 9. Russell Timpany, assistant county superintendent of schools and Ernest Renzel Jr., San Jose wholesale grocer, represented this area at the conference.

A policy of underwriting all applications for channels allocated to education will be pushed at the state capital by the two San Jose men, it was decided at last week's committee meeting.

The committee also voted to request the State Department of Education to make an engineering survey of the San Jose area.

College Video Show Planned

Television station KRON in San Francisco may ask that some students from the college participate in an educational program about the college, it was revealed recently by Dr. Richard Lewis, head of the college television committee.

Dr. Lewis will report to the college committee on the matter this week.

College Plans New Psychology Course

A new mental hygiene course will be offered Spring quarter.

The class, to be taught by Dr. M. Ruth-Tiedeman, professor of psychology, will not duplicate the present hygiene course and is open to any student.

The new course will be given Monday - Wednesday - Friday at 11:30 a.m. in Room T207.

Group Will Convene To Discuss Ski Races Date and Divisions

The Ski club will meet tonight in Room S-112 at 7:30 o'clock to discuss possible dates for its annual ski races.

John Bishop, club president, said the races will consist of novice, intermediate, and advanced divisions. Each division will have men's and women's awards. "We are particularly emphasizing the novice races, as we want to acquaint new skiers with the intricacies of fast skiing," Bishop said.

The Ski club will assist anyone wishing to obtain ski reservations during the coming mid-quarter vacation.

All members are urged to attend tonight's meeting. The La Torre group picture will be taken.

Finals Change Deadline Given

Tomorrow is the last day for students to file petitions for a change in finals schedule. They may be filed in Room 120.

Students who have four finals in one day, are participating in the March commencement, or have other valid reasons to make petition for changes of finals, according to Dr. Harrison Heath, examination committee chairman.

The examination committee will meet Thursday to pass on the petitions, he said. Students may learn the decisions of the committee immediately following the meeting.

The bell now hanging in the small tower at the right of the main entrance to the Administration building was purchased for the college in 1881 for $1217.
