Stern, Bender Knockout Opponents in Second

By BOB STRIEGEL

The San Jose State boxing team completely outclassed a game University of Nevada squad, 9 $\frac{1}{2}$ - $\frac{1}{2}$, last night in Spartan gym before a large turnout. The best the Wolfpack could do was to gain a draw in the 178-lb. division.

Plaque, Plaque Who's Got the Plaque?

The Freshman class again walked away with the honors of winning the Frosh-Soph Mixer for the second consecutive time last Friday night in the Women's gym—only to discover they didn't receive the plaque.

"It's no longer a laughing matter," President Bob Weiss said yesterday in the Freshman Council meeting. "The plaque was in safe keeping and should have been there as I promised. Neither class seems to know what happened to it."

He added that the plaque is school property, purchased from student body funds, and must be returned. No names will be reported or a serious offense made out of the theft if the plaque is returned, he said.

The freshmen won most of the activities at the Mixer because the "humble" sophomores "bowed out" of most of the activities, Weiss said.

In attendance the freshmen took 25 points with 159 present to only 49 sophomores.

SENIOR CLASS

This year's March graduates decided by a nearly unanimous vote at a meeting yesterday afternoon to wear caps and gowns for their graduation ceremonies.

Stating before the vote that the decision rested entirely in the hands of the students, Class President Bill Hushaw pointed out that this year's Fall quarter graduates were the first group aside from June graduates to wear the traditional robes and mortarboards.

March graduates also probably will use the same announcements chosen by the June class. The announcements are scheduled for selection at the meeting next week when three companies will have representatives on hand to display their products.

JUNIOR CLASS

The Sainte Claire hotel has been selected as the site of the Junior Prom to be held April 2, it was learned at yesterday's meeting of the Junior class council.

The band is still being considered, Paul Sakamoto, junior class president, explained.

Arrangements are being prepared by the various committees, but a great deal more help could be used, Sakamoto stated. An SOS

A shuffled San Jose line-up scored a total of nine victories. There were three different bouts in the 156-lb. division, and there was also a heavyweight match which originally was not scheduled. The Spartans took one encounter by the forfeit route.

Scoring knockout wins were Dick Bender, 156-lb., and Tom Stern, 165-lb., while Neal Hill, 156-lb., and Dave Fanner, heavyweight, went away with technical knockouts.

Winning decisions for the Spartans were John Hernandez, 125-lb.; Vic Harris, 139-lb.; Al White, 147-lb.; and John Freitas, 156-lb. Nevada did not have a boxer in the 132-lb. class and San Jose's Joe Rodriguez won by forfeit.

Nevada's light-heavyweight Bill Griggs and Spartan Ray Oberme, a replacement for Danny Hayes, battled on even terms, which gave the visitors a fractional one-half point.

San Jose's man with the dynamite, Dick Bender, in his first start this year, came through with an early second round knockout win over Nevada's Ed Hancock. After an even first frame, Bender trapped Hancock in a neutral corner and nailed him with every-was sounded for persons to assist in the preparation of the prom. Persons with art talent are particularly needed, he said.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

A gala faculty show is being planned by the Sophomore council to present faculty talent to the students. Proceeds of the show will go to World University Service, according to Don Fletcher, soph president. Hermie Jimenez is chairman of the show.

Other topics discussed at yesterday's Soph council meeting were the after-game dance Saturday, Feb. 6, and the coming Soph Doll contest.

Audio-Visual Service Center Shows 762 Films Last Quarter

A total of 762 films, including previews, rentals and loans, were handled here through the services of the college Audio-Visual Service Center last quarter, according to Mrs. Mary Bowers, department secretary.

Most of the movies shown on campus are handled through the services of the Center. According to Mrs. Bowers, a staff of 22 projectionists are employed by the department to show instructional films for college classes.

Male students work part-time between classes and are paid by the A-V Center for class showings. Campus organizations hire their own projectionists, usually through the center if they are available.

Projection boys show 668 of the films for college classes.

There are 644 instructional films now available in the library of the college Audio-Visual Service Center, Mrs. Bowers said.

Stones is charged with two violations of the election code. Court sessions are open to the student body.

BOXING in close, San Jose's Allan White, left, and Ted Contri of the University of Nevada are shown mixing it up. White, a junior from Glendale, is in his second year of varsity competition for the local squad. He pounded out his third decision of the year in the 147-lb. division last night.

Dieterle States New Building Nearly Ready

Work on the Speech and Drama building is progressing faster than ever, according to George J. Dieterle, construction superintendent of the state division of architecture, who reports that in addition to the Speech building construction there are five other jobs now in progress on campus.

A program-distribution system is being installed in the music building. This will consist of speakers and a complete sound system for recording music.

Clocks are being installed in the new Speech and Drama building and in the shops.

A freight elevator is being put in the science building and is about 85 per cent complete, according to Dieterle.

Men are currently working on the steam hookup between the boiler room and the Speech building. This is being done by bringing pipes through a tunnel between the boiler room and the main building underneath the Journalism building and then connecting them with pipes to the Speech Building. This job is 95 per cent complete.

Workers are now remedying defects in the air-conditioning system of the Music building. Inspectors found that the noise of the air in the outlets interfered with the recording of programs in the concert hall.

Dieterle expects the roofing of the Speech building to be finished this week, he says, and the lathing of the walls in preparation for plastering is almost complete. Plastering, however, is only 35 per cent completed.

Nature School Registers 240

Registration for the West Coast Nature School reached a total of 240 from 8:30-9 a.m. yesterday, Dr. Gertrude Cavins, professor of chemistry and science education, announced.

Only 30 science majors signed up for the Death Valley trip, March 21-27. The waiting list for the annual trip contains 100 names.

Raiders Seek Fifth Victory Tonight

Interclass Meet To Mark First Track Contest

Five home track meets are listed on the tentative Spartan interclass schedule released by Head Coach Bud Winter.

The all-colorful interclass meet will be the ice-breaker and is set for March 11-12. Winter explained, however, that the all-school event may be moved up a week to March 3 to make room for a possible event in Long Beach.

On March 27, the Spartans will entertain San Francisco State and the Santa Clara Youth Center. The stadium oval will be the scene of a dual meet between Winter's squad and the strong San Diego Naval Training Center on April 10.

College of the Pacific will be the guest of the Raider runners May 1, and the San Jose State All-Comers meet will be staged a week later.

The All-Comers spectacle will produce more participants in Spartaville than has been seen in a long time. Teams that have signed to appear here are Ft. Ord, SCYC, Cal Poly, Mather Field, Moffett Field, San Francisco State, and possibly the Olympic Club of San Francisco.

Something new will be added to the interclass meet this year, according to Winter. The coach said that an added 880-yd. relay will be run with fraternity teams competing for honors. Eight men will be allowed on each squad, with a permanent trophy going to the winner. Teams that place will also have points to give their respective sponsored squads.

Winter has issued a call for fraternities to sign up with him if they want to sponsor a team.

Captains for the squads will be named as soon as varsity competitors can be evenly divided into groups.

Following is the schedule:

- March 11-12—Interclass Meet, Spartan field.
- March 20—Open (to be filled)
- March 27—San Francisco State & Santa Clara Youth Center at Spartan field.
- April 3—California and Santa Clara Youth Center at Berkeley.

John Freitas evened his season's record at one and one as he pounded out a victory over the Wolfpack's Carl Looney. In winning, Freitas had to chase his opponent around the ring. He finally caught him in the San Jose corner in the final round and really fired away.

In the first attraction of the evening, John Hernandez hammered Nevada's Ray Brookman at will in coming out on top with his third win of the season.

Vic Harris, a letterman on the 1952 squad, took a close one from Bill Azbill. Aggressive Al White made it three straight in taking his bout over Ted Contri. Neal Hill, making his first start, stopped the Wolfpack's Jim Wittenberg. Tom Stern did the same to Don O'Day and Fanner scored a TKO over Nevada's freshman John Hawkins.

Spirited Spartans Underdogs to SC

By GIL CHESTERTON

It will be a battle of two extremes when Santa Clara and San Jose State clash tonight on the downtown Civic auditorium floor in the opening game of second-round CBA basketball action.

The contest will feature the front-running Broncos, recent victors over Stanford, and the tail-end Spartans, on the verge of tying a college record for consecutive defeats.

The cross-town rivalry will begin at 8:20 o'clock. It will be preceded by a freshman vie between the two schools beginning at 6:20. Students will need their student body cards and 50 cents to gain admittance.

Spartan Coach Walt McPherson will be hoping that Lady Luck will be with him tonight, instead of against him as she has been in his string of seven straight losses. All but two of the setbacks have been by the margin of three points or less. San Jose's 42-39 overtime loss to Santa Clara in the loop opener started the win famine.

Should the home-townners lose they will tie the 21-year-old mark set by H. C. McDonald's 1933 team which went winless eight times in a row. It is significant to note that Coach McPherson has never had a losing season in his 10 years at the helm of the Spartan basketball forces.

In California Basketball Assn. standings the locals have a 0-4 record, with an overall slate of 4 victories and 12 reverses. Santa Clara, improving as the season progresses, tops the loop with a 4-0 showing and an 11-3 seasonal mark.

Coach McPherson probably will open with his regular starting five consisting of Bud Hjelm and Tor Hansen at forwards, Don Fausset at center, and Bob Bondanza and Carroll Williams at guards.

Hjelm's injured leg has been responding to treatment and should permit him to operate at full effectiveness. The lanky forward's scoring has been improving after a rejuvenation in his shooting form, raising his point output to 12.4 per game.

If Mighty-Mouse Williams continues his current point pace he will break Stu Inman's 14.9 game average set in 1949. Williams has maintained a 16.3 mark in 16 games scoring 260 points.

As for the Broncos, their 68-59 triumph over Stanford Saturday night indicates that they didn't miss Dick Garabaldi, their ace guard who was flagged down because of scholastic difficulties. Gene Benedetti filled in for Garabaldi and tallied 15 points and stunned the frantic Indians with his defying ball-handling tactics.

Big Jim Sears, a 6-ft. 9-in. pre-season All-American choice, racked up 27 points for his best output of the season. Against San Jose in his initial appearance he tanked only one field goal and three free throws for a meager 5 points.

Santa Clara will tentatively open with Jim Young and Sears at forwards, Mickey Mount at center, and Gary Gatzert and Benedetti at the guard spots.

Although all of the contests have been close, San Jose has not defeated Santa Clara in the last three years.

When you come right down to it, you smoke for one simple reason . . . enjoyment. And smoking enjoyment is all a matter of taste. Yes, taste is what counts in a cigarette. And Luckies taste better.

Two facts explain why Luckies taste better. First, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco . . . light, mild, good-tasting tobacco. Second, Luckies are actually made better to taste better . . . always round, firm, fully packed to draw freely and smoke evenly.
