President Tells About Budget, Ceilings Today

A report to the faculty on the latest developments on enrollment ceiling, capital outlay budgets, and other matters pending in the state legislature will be made at a general faculty meeting today by Dr. John T. Wahlquist, college president.

Dr. Wahlquist currently is studying recommendations of the Faculty Council which propose that the number of recommending units for admission be raised, that subjects in which recommending units are earned be defined, and that regulations concerning disqualification and reinstatement of students be toughened.

The council also recommended at its last meeting that any ceiling imposed on the college by the state legislature be adhered to.

Dr. Wahlquist had no comment to make on the council's resolutions.

Copies of two publications will be distributed to those attending the faculty meeting. One is a brochure which graphically portrays the need for additional buildings by the state colleges. It was published by the Council of State College Presidents.

The second publication to be distributed is the February issue of the California Schools, which includes a feature on San Jose State and pictures the inner quad and tower on the cover. The drawing was done by John DeVincenzi of the art faculty.

JC Administrators To Visit Campus

Administrators of 19 junior colleges will visit the campus tomorrow for the second annual conference sponsored by the college to discuss mutual problems concerning transfer of students from the junior colleges to San Jose State.

No formal program has been planned, according to Dean of Students Joe E. West. Informal discussions will be held on problems reported by the visitors.

Executive Dean James DeVoss will lead the discussions.

Hartranft Raps Proposed Loop

By GIL CHESTERTON

The proposed formation of a new state college athletic league met with the disapproval today of Glen "Tiny" Hartranft, director of the Physical Education department.

"The idea would not be financially sound nor would the competition be on an equal basis," warned Hartranft in observing the athletic plan conceived by the Council of State College Presidents last week at Fresno.

Red Cross Drive Opens

College faculty and staff members will have an opportunity to contribute to the annual Red Cross membership campaign, which opens today on campus, according to Dr. Edward P. Shaw and Hugh Jackson, joint chairmen of the drive.

Quota for the college faculty and staff has been set at $1500 by the Community Service committee.

Departmental representatives are being appointed by division chairmen to handle the distribution of membership cards in each department.

He stated that he didn't know how such a plan would work unless they divided up the league into northern and southern divisions.

According to the plan, which would go into effect in 1956 if passed, the league would be composed of 10 state colleges. However, if San Jose continued its major team schedule, it was noted in the plan that for the success of the loop the Spartans should be omitted.

"We wouldn't be in favor of the idea unless we were forced into the league by action of the Presidents' Council or the State Department of Education," declared Hartranft.

Not only would it affect the football slate, but if the basketball team were forced to travel up and down the coast meeting its conference foes it would miss nine and a half days of school. The college would lose approximately $2,000, Hartranft said.

Under the present CBA setup the Spartans play their loop games in their "own back yard." Trips to Oregon, Arizona and Southern California only cost the Golden Raiders two days of school work and about $1000.

"Baseball would even be worse," Hartranft declared. He continued, "They carry 15 to 20 players and a trip to Los Angeles and San Diego would cost Walt Williams just about the entire budget."

The horseholders play UCLA down south, but get a guarantee for their appearance. Under the loop plan, State would participate on a home-and-home basis with the gate receipts very limited.

Dr. Julian McPhee, president of Cal Poly at San Luis Obispo, made the proposal to the presidents' council for the purpose of trying to standardize subsidy costs of procuring athletes.

A Cappella Choir Gives Annual Concert Tonight

Music will ring out tonight in the Concert hall of the Music building when the San Jose State a cappella choir, under the direction of William Erlendson, will present its yearly concert.

Seventy-one choir members will open the program with "I Will Not Let Thee Go" by Johann Christoph Bach. This is a motet for double choir. Following will be "Christus Factus Est" by Anerio, "Lost In The Night" by Christiansen with a soprano solo by Rita Marchoke and "The Nicene Creed" by Gretchaninoff with bass solo by Richard Magary.

WILLIAM ERLENDSON

Second portion of the program will open with Brahms' "Wherefore Is The Light Bestowed," in a motet for six-part chorus. Other numbers in this section include "Let Us Lift Up Our Hearts," "We Find Them Happy Which Endure in Patience" and "With Tranquil Joy My Way I Find."

"Reincarnations" by Samuel Barber and "An Apostrophe to the Heavenly Hosts" by Willan will conclude the program.

This program again will be offered Tuesday night at 8:15 o'clock in the Concert hall, according to Erlendson. Admission is free, he added.

Announcements, Tickets Are Ready

March graduates may pick up tickets to the Senior Banquet any time this week at the Graduate Manager's office, Bill Hushaw, senior class president announced Friday.

Tickets are free to all March graduates. Guest tickets may be purchased when free tickets are secured at a cost of $3.25 per guest.

The Senior Banquet for March grads will be held March 11 at 7:30 p.m. at the St. Claire Hotel.

Senior announcements for March graduates will be at the Spartan Shop today, according to Hushaw.

A limited number are available, about 1000, and are selling for 14 cents apiece. There will be no limit to the number graduates may purchase, Hushaw said.

Benz Proposes Student Rules For Eligibility

Dean of Men Stanley Benz sent copies of the student eligibility rules to department heads Friday for study and criticism but Benz stressed that the rules were "just proposals."

The rules covered five points: 1) The student who seeks office must be registered for 12 units and have a 1.0 average. (2) He must maintain a 1.0 average and be on clear standing. (3) He may not hold more than one major office at the same time. (4) He must be an undergraduate student. (5) He must have completed 12 units of work at SJS. This last does not apply to first term freshmen seeking freshmen offices.

The rules do not apply to requirements for membership in an organization, such as a fraternity or sorority.

The rules do not apply to student activities that are part of an instructional program, such as plays, debates, concerts, Spartan Daily, Lyke and La Torre offices.

Additional requirements may be asked by the sponsoring department in the case of drama or journalism, the ASB or the organization itself.

Eligibility rules do not apply to athletics since athletic conferences have their own rules.

"Revelries" director and main players, ASB officers and various ASB committee officers and officers of campus clubs would be affected by the rules.

Sophs Will Elect Treasurer, Discuss Hop and Contest Plans

The Sophomore class council will select a treasurer at its meeting today at 3:30 p.m. in Room 117, according to Don Fletcher, class president.

Alleen Sherry and Leone Condo are candidates for the position.

Final plans for the Soph Hop and the Soph Doll contest to be held March 5 at the Castlewood Country club will be discussed also. The SJS preliminary judging was held Sunday.

Fletcher said the council would discuss the new Soph constitution now being prepared by a committee under the chairmanship of Ron Gilpatrick.

Progress of the Soph Class sponsored Faculty show will be outlined by Chairman Hermie Jimenez.

"All sophomores are invited to the council meeting," Fletcher said. "With the Soph Hop and the Faculty show not too far in the future we need all the help we can get."

SENIOR CLASS

Senior class council will meet at 3:30 p.m. today in Room 21 to make final arrangements for the March banquet to be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Empire room of the Sainte Claire hotel. Speaker for the evening will be Dr. William Sweeney.

FRESHMAN CLASS

Planning committees for the annual "Spring Fling" will lead the discussion with various reports at this afternoon's meeting of the Fresh Council at 3:30 o'clock in Morris Dailey auditorium. President Bob Weiss announced.

JUNIOR CLASS

A report by the various committees on the Junior Prom is to be the main item of business at today's Junior class council meeting to be held in Room 127, according to Paul Sakamoto, president.

If time will permit, the council will again take up the discussion of possible money-making projects.

We Want the Facts

In today's Spartan Daily there is a story on the eligibility rules released by Stanley C. Benz, dean of men. The rules were released Friday, two hours before the Spartan Daily hit the stands, and students were reading comments concerning the rules in the editorial column.

The rules have been shown for the past five days, and they were shown to the Student Council Wednesday.

To Dean Benz and Edward W. Clements, we say, we are glad to get the rules for publication, even though we would have liked to have had them sooner.

Seniors in Long Division

The Senior Class will spend $17,000 today and next Monday on the coming June Senior Week activities.

If things go as we suspect, a small handful of "die-hard" seniors will probably turn up for the meeting to spend this large sum.

Latest figure turned in on the Senior Council attendance is approximately 15-20. Latest figure on enrollment of the Senior Class is 1,263. This averages out to approximately $13 apiece.

If 17 seniors attend today's meeting, each one will have the pleasure of spending $1,000.

Thrust & Parry

Just Blowhards!

Dear Thrust and Parry:
 ASB's 10, 902, 2844 and 89 made some interesting statements in their letter Feb. 26. But in the true sense of all those who talk loudly, they do nothing about it. If they think action against the Court is necessary, let them do something! Every student has the power to press charges, why don't they? If they are looking for an unbiased body to hear those charges, there is always the Personnel Dean's committee.

And as far as the 32 alleged handbills posted by Max Phillips and Bob Powell, the Student Court does not draw up or press charges, nor does it prosecute. That is the job of the prosecuting attorney. The Court only hears the charges brought before it. If they are going to imply such profound knowledge of the constitution and by-laws, they also should know about this.

We feel that the Court is a necessary branch of our student government. It is a part of the system of check and balance that is fundamental in a system of democracy, and it is the judiciary body that interprets the laws of the student body passed by the Student Council. Without it, law would be meaningless and worthless.

As a parting thought, if the authors of the T&P referred to are such staunch members of the student body, why didn't they have the courage to sign their letter?

ED GEHLRELT, ASB 4518.
 GEORGE RIME, ASB 5965.
 NORMA CASALI, ASB 3511.
 DANIEL HANNON, ASB 6565.

Seniors Urged To Include Orientation

Seniors planning their spring quarter schedules are cautioned to include senior orientation by Bill Hushaw, senior class president.

There has been some confusion as to whether public safety satisfies the requirement. Hushaw stressed that they are not the same. Both courses must be taken by seniors prior to graduation.

According to Hushaw, public safety is a one unit course required by the State of California, regardless of conflicting classes. Senior orientation is a one half unit course, arranged by the seniors themselves, to be taken if there are no conflicting classes.

Senior orientation will be offered every Thursday at 11:30 a.m. in Morris Dailey auditorium. Speakers include Dr. John T. Wahliquist, Dean DeVoss, Senator Jack Thompson, Dr. William Vatcher, Dr. Arthur B. Fallico and other prominent men of the community.

Registrar Gives Official Totals

San Jose State enrollment for the winter quarter totals 6708 students, according to the official tabulations announced yesterday by Leslie Ross, registrar.

Of the totals 6172 students attended during the fall quarter and 536 were new students.

Men outnumber women students in the college and in every class except the freshman, according to the statistical report.

A total of 3524 men are enrolled and 3184 women. The males predominate in every class except freshman where 1015 women and 987 men are enrolled.

Class totals are: freshman, 2004; sophomore, 1615; junior, 1487; senior, 1263; and graduate, 339.

The business division has the largest total enrollment outside the teacher training field. A total of 1119 students are enrolled in the seven fields offered by the business division.

In the teacher training field under the division of education 1286 students are seeking elementary school credentials.

'March Melodies' Wednesday Night

"March Melodies," sponsored each year by AWS, will be presented Wednesday night at 7 o'clock in Morris Dailey auditorium, according to Jan Adams, chairman.

Thirteen women's organizations will participate in the program.

Carolyn King will act as mistress of ceremonies. Other committee members include Betty Dwyer, decorations chairman; Pat Doll, program chairman, and Joan Harlan and Carol Brown, publicity co-chairmen.

Many of the old relics found at America's first successful ironworks at Saugus, Mass., have been cleaned, treated with a special preservative and are on display at the First Iron Works Museum.

Job Mart

On campus Wednesday will be members of the U.S. Civil Service examiners for engineers and scientists. They will interview seniors being graduated in engineering and physical science for junior and trainee positions in Navy research laboratories in California.

Interviewers to be here tomorrow from the San Bernardino Air Materials also will talk to undergraduates who wish summer employment as engineering aides and draftsmen, James Johnson, acting head of the Placement office, has announced.

Here Thursday will be representatives from the Mare Island Naval Shipyard where engineers and naval architects are needed.

Applications are being taken for counseling positions at several summer camps, Mrs. Nancy Diez has announced.

The first interviews are scheduled for Tuesday, March 9, when representatives from the Chaffey Girl Scout Council will be on campus. Positions open include camp director, assistant director, unit leader and many others.

Casabans Battle USF For CBA Second Place; Spartans End Season

By GIL CHESTERTON

San Jose State's cagers, eager to cinch second place in CBA standings, close out their 1954 casaba season when they meet USF tonight at Kezar pavilion. Game time is 8:20 o'clock.

The Spartans sport a 6-5 league mark while the Dons had a 5-4 record going into Friday night's clash with College of Pacific.

San Jose and USF split their first pair of games. For the benefit of those who came in late, the Dons whipped the locals, 57-50, up north and the home-towners won out locally, 66-49.

Carroll Williams, winner of the alumni trophy as the most valuable player of the year, will have his last chance to assault the Spartan record books this season. The lively junior guard, already the second highest scorer in Spartan history, had 418 points going into Friday night's tiff with Fresno. This is already more points than has ever been registered by a Spartan on a 27-game schedule.

Mighty Mouse, the 5 ft. 10 in. captain, has enjoyed good nights via the scoring column in both bouts against the Dons. In their first bout he collected 23 points and in the return go he tallied 20.

Head coach Walt McPherson will probably open with his regular starting five consisting of Bob Steinbach, a senior playing his last game for San Jose, and Bud Hjelm at forwards; Don Fausset at center; and Bob Bondanza and Williams at guards.

USF mentor Phil Woolpert will probably rely on his 6-ft., 9-in. center Bill Russell to carry the bulk of the Don offense. Russell, CBA scoring leader, has been averaging 20.7 per game.

After having his original starting five riddled with early season injuries, Woolpert has survived with a regular line-up that includes Jerry Mullen and Bob Wiebusch at forwards; Russell at center and Carl Lawson and Dick Mohr at guards.

BOB STEINBACH ... in last game

Mullen returned to the Hilltopper line-up a couple of weeks ago after being out of action with an injured elbow. After trouncing California's Bears in the seasonal opener, the Dons lost their highly-touted guard Casey Jones for the year with an appendicitis attack.

Gloemen Take Easy Win From Cal Poly Mustangs

By BOB STRIEGEL

The San Jose State boxers continued their West Coast supremacy by whipping the Cal Poly Mustangs, 6½-2½, Saturday night in Spartan gym. It was their seventh dual meet victory in eight starts and their second over San Luis Obispo's gloemen.

Four Poly mittmen failed to go the full distance as Spartans Vic Harris, 139; Al White, 139; Dick Bender, 156; and Tom Stern, 165, stopped their opponents.

Spartan coach Julie Menendez latest sensation, lightweight Ray O'Beirne sowed he will be a leading contender for the Pacific Coast title as he held unbeaten Ted Trompeter to a draw in a bout that went only two rounds. Trompeter's bad shoulder kept him from appearing in the final round.

San Jose welterweight John Freitas showed the greatest improvement of any other Spartan since the first meeting of these two squads. According to the official scoring cards, his bout with Jack Bettencourt was scored a draw, but one judge originally failed to take a point away from Bettencourt, who was penalized for hitting on the break, and the Mustang was announced as the winner. Spartan officials did not contest the decision.

Heavyweight Jim Herra scored Cal Poly's other point by outclassing his much lighter opponent, the Spartans' Bill Walker, who was making his second start in collegiate competition.

Amazing Dick Bender, SJS's contender for national honors, called his punches and floored Judd Morse twice during the first round before the referee halted the contest.

Kim Kanaya of San Jose won his first bout in whipping Poly's Frank Hernandez in the heavy-weight class.

Harris stopped Mustang Ken McNellis in the second as did White over Poly's Alex Penovarov. Middleweight Tom Stern of San Jose took his seventh straight in stopping Jim Miller in the first stanza. Joe Rodriguez, unbeaten Spartan lightweight, won by forfeit.

Stanford Man Sets Record

A new Spartan pool record in the 440 was set by Stanford's Dan Osborne Friday afternoon as the powerful Indian swimming team scored a 60-24 victory over San Jose State.

Most of the Spartan points were scored on the strength of third place showings. SJS's diving ace, Bill Base, however, won the three-meter diving event.

Osborne's record-breaking time in the 440 was 4:43.4. The former Spartan pool record was 4:45.

Williams Accepts Alumni Trophy During Halftime

Carroll Williams, high scorer and captain of the Spartan basketball squad, was awarded the annual Alumni trophy for the "most valuable" player of the year Friday night.

The presentation was made by Alumni president Emerson "Doc" Arends between halves of the Fresno State-SJS cage battle in the Spartan gym.

The trophy was awarded on the basis of a survey taken of radio and pressmen who have covered San Jose basketball this season.

Past winners of the award include Bob Wuestuoff, Dean Giles, George Clark and Lee Jensen.

Cagers Blast Fresno, 78-63; Williams Collects 22 Points

It was a case of cat and mouse Friday night as the fast-finishing San Jose State Spartans toyed with the Fresno State Bulldogs before dumping the visitors, 78-63, in a non-conference game in the local gym.

The victory marked the eighth win in nine starts for Walt McPherson's cagers who now sport a 12-14 record. Fresno had to be content with their 16th setback against 11 triumphs.

Carroll Williams led the hometown club to avenge an early season, 60-58, loss to the Bulldogs. The mighty one collected 22 points, hitting on nine field goals in 18 attempts for a 50 per cent mark.

The remainder of the San Jose scoring was distributed between Bob Steinbach with 14, Bob Bondanza 13, Tor Hansen 9, Bud Hjelm 7, Don Fausset 6, Bill Lamson 3, and Merle Flattley and George King with 2.

Bondanza started off the fireworks with a 25 footer to get the Spartans out of the starting blocks and boost them to a 19-12 first period lead.

Some brilliant offensive play by Williams netted State a 42-30 halftime margin and from here McPherson substituted freely as the locals rolled to a 61-45 third stanza mark.

In the field goal department San Jose netted 27 shots in 76 tries for a 35.5 percentage. Fresno State also finished second best here, hitting 20 of 61 attempts for 29.4 per cent.

San Jose Tire Service dumped the State Junior Varsity, 82-67, despite Bill Lamson's 15 and George King's 13 points for the losers.

THE COXSAIN WHO WANTED TO BE A NUDIST

The coxswain of a leading university crew didn't like to be tossed in the water after a victory. He didn't like it so much the crew started tossing him in the water any old time they saw him near it.

He complained bitterly that it was ruining all his sportshirts. He liked nice sportshirts, but all he owned had either shrunk or streaked or spotted. He was not a happy coxswain. With no more sportshirts, he contemplated joining a nudist colony.

He told the whole wretched tale to the Dean of Men.

The Dean said, "You like really good sportshirts, eh? Something like a fine gabardine?"

"Uh huh," the coxswain beamed.

"Try this—take $5.95 down to the nearest men's store and get a Van Heusen Van Gab. It's the best-looking gabardine sportshirt you've ever owned and it's completely washable—any kind of water. What's more, it's got real pick-stitching on the collar, pockets and cuffs... it's got a Sportown collar that looks as smart with a tie as without. Van Heusen really knows how to make 'em."

Said coxswain is now sportshirt king of the campus. Owns Van Gabs in all smart non-fade colors. Called best-natured coxswain on east coast. Doesn't want to be dunked by crew. Jumps in, Van Gab and all.

Officials To Interview Future Teachers Here

Administrators from San Leandro and Norwalk elementary schools will be on campus to conduct interviews tomorrow, Miss Doris K. Robinson, director of teacher placement, has announced.

Also available in July in the Norwalk area are positions with a new youth authority center. The center needs arts and crafts and homemaking instructors, supervisors, therapists and persons in several other fields.

Miss Robinson also has announced that positions are open for experienced teachers in elementary, junior and senior high schools in

Library Case Shows Exhibit On Opera Star

An exhibit on Marie Van Zandt, opera singer, is being displayed in the library showcase.

She was the creator of the role of "Lakme," an opera written for her voice by Leo Delibes.

Personalized cards from Delibes, a letter from Arthur Sullivan and a note from the pianist and composer, Anton Rubenstein, to Marie Van Zandt are also in the display.

Fans belonging to Marie Van Zandt are on display and are included in paintings by Mildred Kaucher, sister of Dr. Dorothy Kaucher, and Marian Van Zandt Smith, both students of H. Milton Snyder.

"Faith for Moderns" is the theme chosen for Religion-in-Life Week to be held April 25 to 30 at San Jose State College, Jim Martin, executive secretary of the Student Y, announced last week.

The Rev. Boyce Van Osdel of the Calvary Baptist Church of San Bernardino will be the speaker at the opening program which is to be held at 7:30 p.m. April 25.

At the closing banquet Rallie J. Jones Jr., head of the USF night school, will speak.

Advisers to the program are Father John S. Duryea and the Rev. James Martin, according to Debbie Snaith, publicity chairman of Newman club.

New AWS Club To Meet Thursday

The Commuter's Luncheon club, sponsored by the Associated Women Students, will hold its first informal meeting of the quarter Thursday at 12:30 p.m., according to Stella Ottaviano, chairman.

All women students commuting are invited to come and bring their lunch. Cookies and soft drinks will be served, she said.

Women will meet at the picnic tables by the Women's gym.

Pancake Supper

Canterbury club will hold its third annual "Pancake Supper" in the Trinity Episcopal church tomorrow at 5:30 p.m., according to July Titus, chairman of the dinner.

Shrove Tuesday, the Tuesday before Lent, was chosen as the day for the supper because of an "old church tradition."

Tickets may be obtained at the church office for 75 cents to adults and 50 cents to children; the supper is open to the public.

Six Students In Storytelling Hour Program

Last storytelling hour of the quarter will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Chi Omega sorority house, 435 S. 6th St., according to Dr. Dorothy Kaucher, speech instructor.

Students participating in the program will be Lalorie Chung, Donna Harclerod, Margaret Gard, Terri McGraw, Marion Sparks and Jan Yonce.

Storytelling hour is a monthly event put on by Education 398 classes under the direction of Wallace Murphy and Dr. Kaucher.

These hours are open to anyone free of charge and chaperoned children always are welcome, added Dr. Kaucher.

Three Films Will Be Shown By Journalism Classes Tonight

Three films on papermaking, journalism careers and magazine production will be shown tonight from 7:30 to 9 o'clock in Room J8, according to Mrs. Dolores Spurgeon, assistant professor of journalism.

The films will be shown for the combined secondary school journalism class, taught by Mrs. Spurgeon, and the magazine writing class offered by Charles Kappen, associate professor of journalism.

Open to the public, the program will include "The Gift of T'sai Lun," a story of papermaking by the Hammmill Paper Co.; "Journalism," a vocational guidance film; and "Magazine Magic," a story of how magazines including the Saturday Evening Post, Ladies Home Journal and Holiday are published.

Ushers Needed

Ushers are needed for the Drama department production of "Volpone," according to an office announcement. Interested students are requested to sign up in Room 57. The play will run March 5, 6, 11, 12 and 13.
