

Student Union Sees Half Century of Service

Spartan Daily

SAN JOSE STATE COLLEGE

Vol. 42 SAN JOSE, CALIF., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 3, 1954 No. 48

DOING A SPRING polishing job on the 1902 cornerstone of the Student Union, one of the oldest campus buildings still in use, is Pete Miller, custodian. "Pete," as he is known to the student body, became daytime manager of the building last fall after seven years spent in owning his own business.

PLAYING A little game of cards, students sit around one of the tables in the Union on a typical afternoon. One of Pete's jobs, he says, is "seeing that the children have something to play with." George Singewald takes over during the Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings when the Union is open until 10 p.m. for recreation. JUST STROLLING past the Union are two students between classes. The building, which was originally the city library constructed from a $50,000 Carnegie grant, has been in use since its completion in 1903 and has served as the Spartan social center since it was purchased by the state in 1937.

11 Groups To Perform At AWS March Melodies

The Associated Women Students will present "March Melodies" tonight at 7 o'clock in the Morris Dailey auditorium, according to Jan Adams, chairman.

Thirteen entries have been received. They are Marimur hall, "For You" and "The Green Cathedral"; Kappa Kappa Gamma, "Stairway to The Stars" and "In the Still of The Night";

Kappa Alpha Theta, "Bewitched, Bothered and Bewildered" and "How High The Moon"; Alpha Phi, "Fools Rush In" and "How Do You Speak To An Angel"; Kappa Phi, "They Call The Wind Maria" and "Coming Thru The Rye."

Delta Zeta, "Cindy" and "Sometimes I Feel Like A Motherless Child"; Gamma Phi Beta, "Hymn to a Hero" and "There's a Rainbow 'Round My Shoulder"; Sigma Kappa, "Stormy Weather," "Singing In The Rain" and "Rain."

Alpha Omicron Pi, medley: "Little Bit Of Heaven," "Peggy O'Neil," "Harrigan," "My Wild Irish Rose," "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," and "Irish Lullaby"; Mary George hall, "Teddy Bear Song" and "Winter Lullaby."

Chi Omega, "September Song" and Cornell's Alma Mater; Delta Gamma, "Give Me You're Tired, You're Poor" and "Hallelujah"; Alpha Chi Omega, "Blue Skies," "September Song" and "Somewhere Over The Rainbow."

College Lets New Contract

A contract to tear up the old sidewalk on the corner of San Fernando and 7th streets bounding the old high school campus and replace it with fresh cement was awarded to A. J. Riesch Paving Co. by the State Dept. of Architecture Tuesday.

Byron Bollinger, supervisor of construction and repair, said yesterday that the company "will have to begin work within 30 days" and it "will take about a week to complete the job."

Mardi Gras Time

NEW ORLEANS, March 2 (UP)—The King of the Zulus stepped from a barge at the foot of Canal street today to signal the start of the last and most frantic hours of New Orleans' gayest Mardi Gras.

Camp Group Meets Today; Plans Reports

Main business at the Spartan-camp committee meeting this afternoon will be work on reports of the conference held last fall. Sara Cozad, new chairman of the group, announced recently.

When completed, the reports will be distributed to students who attended the camp, the Personnel Deans and other interested persons on campus, according to Miss Cozad.

Oct. 16 and 17 have been tentatively scheduled as the dates for the conference next fall, she said. Those dates were selected because no football games are planned for those days and the committee has been assured by Athletic Director Danny Hill that "none probably will be scheduled," according to Miss Cozad.

Possible topics for the Activities Evaluation picnic to be held spring quarter were discussed at the last meeting of the group.

Miss Cozad said that subjects discussed as possible topics for the picnic include the conduct of student elections and problems similar to those now under consideration by the Activities Evaluation committee.

James Jacobs was named as a second adviser to the group, subject to the approval of the President's Council.

AEC Digs Into First Problems

The Activities Evaluation committee began in earnest yesterday afternoon to dig into the vast amount of material which it will study this year and several years to follow, by attempting to break down the work into specific categories.

Pat Engerud, secretary for the group, gave the specific objective of the committee as "the defining of problems and proof of where they exist among the 126 organizations on campus."

Installation Heads Council Agenda

Heading the agenda for the Student Council at its last meeting of the quarter this afternoon is the installation of Al Behr as freshman representative for a half-year term and Bob Beth as senior representative. Other class representatives to the Council were installed last week.

Other business to come before the Council will be a report by Vern Perry, Social Affairs committee chairman, and consideration of the proposed constitutional amendment establishing the Recognition Day committee as an official ASB board.

The first problem singled out for discussion by the newly created student-faculty board was "the inadequate number of advisers and chaperones which are available to sponsor student activities."

Bill Eckert, chairman of the board, commented that "the committee has been given the project of evaluating every phase of student life on campus." "If by June," he said, "we have defined and limited the problems so that next year's committee can work on them and submit recommendations by June of 1955, we will have done very well."

"It's going to do wonders for the college," he predicted, "but it's going to take an awfully long time."

World Famous Potter Will Speak Tomorrow

MARGUERITE WILDENHAIN

Marguerite Wildenhain, one of the world's foremost potters, will speak on "Teaching Art" in the Engineering building lecture hall tomorrow at 9:30 a.m., according to Dr. Mary Hamilton, professor of English.

Native of France, Mrs. Wildenhain possesses a broad knowledge of music, literature, painting and pottery. "When Gordon Herr, founder of the famous Pond Farm Workshops, was seeking the best persons in all fields of the arts for his school, he selected Mrs. Wildenhain and her husband to teach the pottery section.

Mrs. Wildenhain also consented to give an exhibition of "throwing" at 10:30 a.m. following her talk. The demonstration will be presented in the college ceramics shop.

Examples of her work will be displayed in the library.

Students Seek Reading Award

Six students will compete for the $25 Dr. Dorothy Kaucher Oral Reading Award today at 3:30 p.m. in Room 158 of the Music Building.

Competing students have been chosen from the classes of Miss Elizabeth Loeffler, Alden Smith, Dr. Lawrence Moutat, Mrs. Courtney Brooks and Dr. Kaucher.

Entrants and their selections are Jeri Mitchell, Edward Bliss' "When Not In Rome," a humorous essay; Mary Moyer, "Tom Tit Tot," a mountain folk tale; Nancy Shultz, introduction to "Canterbury Tales" and "Frankie and Johnnie."

Joretta Titus, "The Congo," by Ratiel Lindsay; and Richard Riss, Edna St. Vincent Malay's "Ballad of the Harp Weaver." The last participant will represent Miss Loeffler's class.

Judges for the afternoon are Miss Ruth Milford, Wallace Murray and Miss Margaret Chamberlin.

Student chairman for the reading hour is Tom Luce, winner of last quarter's award.

Pre-Meds Plan To Hear Talk

Dr. Robert Dennis, pathologist at San Jose Hospital, is to speak on "The Pre-Medical Student" at tonight's meeting of the newly-formed Pre-Medical society in Room S210 at 7:30 o'clock.

According to Dr. Marvin M. Shrewsbury, adviser, the society is open to all pre-medical majors or any related science major. The group is to meet twice monthly at which time speakers and movies will be featured.

Nobody Quit

Walt McPherson's casabamen deserve a pat on the back.

The last whistle has blown, and the Spartans finished third in CBA play. It hasn't been the easiest season on record, but it has been the most exciting and at times the most heart-breaking.

At the first of the season, when the losses piled up and the fans began to call the team "hard-luck," not once did the team falter. It came right back and fought its way up the ladder to third place. In the process they dumped USF and Santa Clara, the first and second place teams, with convincing victories.

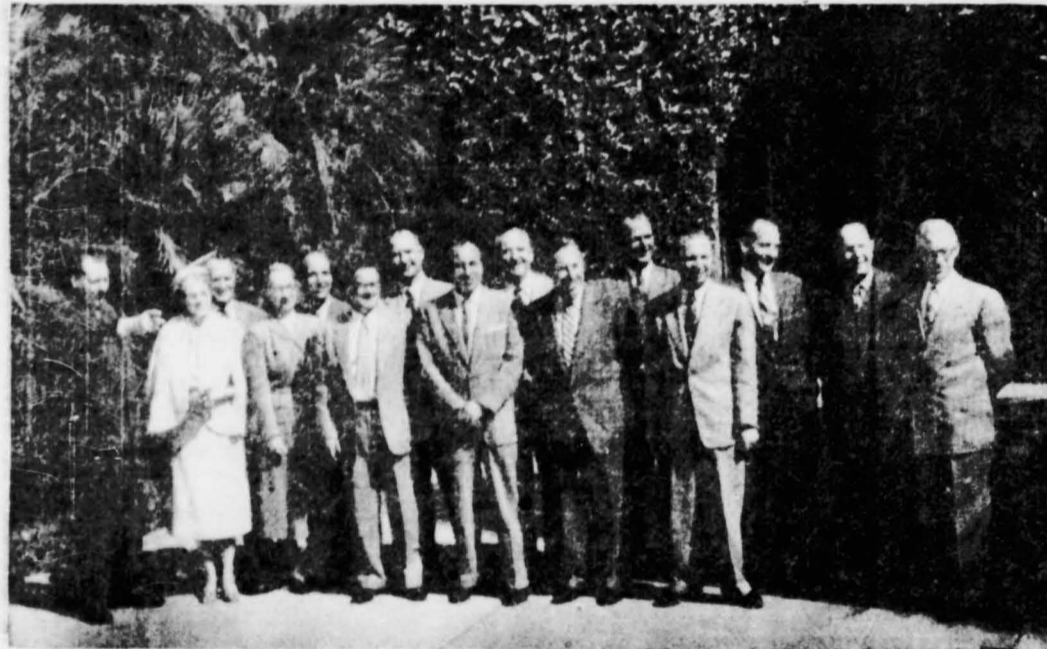

And the fans, too. They didn't quit. The stands were crammed with students for every game, even when we had lost five games in a row!

The fans sat through those close games. They yelled and jumped up and down in their seats, and after the game they walked away shaking their heads.

Then the Spartans snapped. They couldn't do anything wrong. They won six league games in a row and climbed from rock bottom to third place.

Just goes to show what a little fortitude and persistence can do.

Thrust and Parry

Irate TEXANS

Dear Thrust and Parry:

The revolution between TEXAS and the other states may be gone and forgotten, but there is going to be a new revolution between red-blooded TEXANS and a Spartan Daily editor. TEXAS Independence Day may have been forgotten; but, now deep in the heart of every TEXAN here on campus there is the reminder: people still don't understand the TEXAN. There are people who are still trying to tear down all that General Sam Houston built.

Imagine this vile and contemptible editor who puts the name of TEXAS in small print! Not even a capital letter designating a proper name! Not just once in the headline but all through his satirical editorial on TEXAS Independence Day. We loyal, red-blooded TEXANS tell the editor to stick to slurring the Student Council and leave the Republic of TEXAS alone.

Make Way for News

Dear Thrust and Parry:

We are but a few of the many students who object to the "gigantic" masthead as it appears in the Spartan Daily. We are in favor of cutting this section down to include only the editor, business manager and make-up editor. Save space for something more newsworthy.

College Keglers Resume Race

The 1954 version of the San Jose State College bowling league will get under way this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at Bridgeman's Recreation Center on West Santa Clara Ave., stated league chairman Dick Reese.

Reese said yesterday that the success of the league will depend largely on the initial turnout. "We would like to have 12 teams enter, five men to each club, and will welcome any fraternity bowlers," the chairman said.

Entrants in the league will be handicapped as they were last year.

SF Gators Cancel Wrestling Match

Last night's scheduled wrestling match between the Spartans and San Francisco State in the Men's gym was cancelled by the Gators, according to SJS Coach Hugh Mumby.

Mumby said the Gators called the meet off due to a shortage of eligible men.

Next action for the grapplers will be at the Far Western Wrestling Tournament in Oakland next weekend.

Greek Relay Will Give Sponsor Victory Cups

The eight-man fraternity relay race of the interclass track festival Friday at Spartan field will mark the first time that the Greeks have had a chance to win the sponsorship cups for themselves.

In the past, sponsors had to be content to sit in the stands and hope for the best, but now that Coach Bud Winter has installed the Greek relay, sponsors can earn their own points, maybe enough to win the coveted crown.

Nine fraternities have signed up for the race, Winter said. Points will be given for the first four places and trophies will be awarded to the first three places.

Entrants, as of yesterday, include Delta Upsilon, Sigma Chi, Phi Sigma Kappa, Kappa Alpha, Kappa Tau, Pi Kappa Alpha, Delta Sigma Phi, Sigma Pi and Alpha Tau Omega.

Sports Fans May Need ASB Cards Plus Cash

The day may come when students will pay a small fee, besides showing their student body cards, to get into athletic events, Glenn "Tiny" Hartranft, head of the P.E. department, said last week.

"If we initiate this fee, it will vary according to the expense of the event, he said, citing 10 to 50 cents as the probable charges.

A committee, now studying privilege cards, Spartan Stadium parking, seating and admission to games, is investigating the possibility of charging students for admission to games.

Hartranft said the reason they are considering the student fee is that many athletic events are not self supporting. Many times the gate receipts fall short of the expenses, he said, and a fee should be charged to make up for the deficit.

Serving on the committee are Bill Eckert and John Aitken, vice president and president of the student body; E. S. Thompson, business manager; William Felse, graduate manager; Hartranft, Bill Hubbard, director of athletics; Robert Johnson and Dr. H. Murray Clark, of the faculty; and Jerry Vroom, athletic graduate manager.

"The time also may come when students will have their pictures on the student body cards," Hartranft said. "Members of the committee are investigating that possibility."

Recommendations of the committee will be referred to the athletic advisory board and Dr. Wahlquist for approval, according to Hartranft. Aitken and Eckert will report to the Student Council any decisions the committee makes.

On the other side of the privilege card set-up, San Jose State and one other college are the only schools in California allowing faculty free admission to games.

Hartranft said, "Three hundred faculty privilege tickets have been issued to resident teachers, and faculty seating consumes an entire section in Spartan Stadium.

"The committee also is considering moving the faculty section of the Spartan Stadium from 'U' to 'T', one section closer to the end zone, and making room for more students."

Sparta's Ski Club Wins Two Second Places

San Jose State College's ski club placed second in both the Tri-College Ski festival and the Bay Area Ski Federation team championships during the weekend, local Ski club president Lee Yip announced yesterday.

University of California took the Tri-College with 197 points to San Jose's 128. Tom Weese, Jay Fox and Jim Triplett won merchandise orders given by the San Jose club. Marion Bessonette and Karen Sharick tied for first and split two merchandise orders in the women's division. Marguerite McIver also won a merchandise order.

Five men and two women represented San Jose State in the Bay Area Championships. The Alpiners of San Francisco won the team title with a composite time of 307.4. San Jose was second with 317.7 and University of California third with 323.6.

Yip turned in the best San Jose time in the Giant Slalom with a 42.4. Lief Sommereth of University of California had the best time for the event with 40.8. Yip took fourth in men's competition.

Marion Bessonette and Karen Sharick took third and fourth in the women's event with 56.5 and 57.6 respectively.
