

'Volpone' Opening Plays To Responsive Audience

By BILL SHANDS

"Volpone," a lusty, satirical comedy by Ben Jonson, opened Friday night before a responsive audience who laughed at the wily Volpone, hated his parasite Mosca and cheered the efforts of Bonario and Celia to prove their innocence.

Volpone, a magnifico who pretends he is dying to finagle gifts from friends who hope to become his heir, is portrayed by Robert Dietle. The role of Mosca, his parasite, is handled by Richard Risso.

In the subordinate roles are Gerald Charlebois as Voltore, the advocate, Joseph LoBue as Corbaccio, Brad Curtis as Corvino, a merchant, Donald Barr as Bonario, son of Corvino and Rosemarie Pilcher as Corvino's wife Celia.

Tumbling about on the small Little Theatre stage were Kenneth Rugg, Lewis Campbell and Ron Sheriffs who played the parts of Volpone's three jesters.

Others in the cast are Kenneth Slough, Darwin Hageman, Ronald Stokes, Gordon Kendrick, Sandra Lewis, Barbara Forbes, Celia Cross, Joan Morris, Gary Waller, Jay Fox, Craig Thush and William Brown.

The play is directed by Dr. James Clancy with settings by Wendell Johnson and authentic costumes by Berneice Frisk.

The authentic Venice street scene sets were done by Wendell Johnson.

The play will be presented again Friday and Saturday, March 12 and 13 in the Little Theatre. Curtain time is 8:15 for all performances.

"Hedda Gabler," by Hendrik Ibsen, the next production staged in the Little Theatre April 30, May 1, 6, 7 and 8 under the direction of Elizabeth Loeffler.

March Banquet Committee Will Make Report to Seniors

The entertainment committee for the March graduate banquet to be held Thursday night, will report at today's meeting of the Senior class, Bill Hushaw, class president, announced Friday. The meeting is scheduled for 3:30 p.m. in Room 24.

The banquet, which is free to graduating seniors, will be held in the Empire room of the Sainte

Fee Enforcement To Be Difficult

President John T. Wahlquist said Friday that the $150 annual non-resident fee, approved last week by the Assembly Ways and Means committee, would be difficult to enforce in colleges like San Jose State.

"The state education office opposed the non-resident fee in the past," the president said, "because the fee has been tried before and it was learned to be difficult to enforce."

He said that in some universities where there are law students and instructors to determine whether a student is non-resident, the fee will not be a burden.

"If we have to charge the fee here at San Jose State, we will have to have a lawyer on the payroll, or at least somebody to work continuously on the job," Dr. Wahlquist said.

According to the president, there are 199 out-of-state students, 67 from US territories and 43 from foreign countries at San Jose State who would be affected by the fee.

He added that there is no use in opposing the fee because it already has passed the committee, and the state auditor's office has made a thorough study of other states charging fees.

"The auditor's office learned that three-fourths of the states incorporate a non-resident fee on the grounds that states shouldn't educate students from other states without charging them," the president said.

Earlier the Ways and Means committee approved an increase on materials from $15 a year to $22 and to allow a $3 placement service fee and a $2 evaluation of transcript fee. The latter two fees would be optional with the student.

The committee turned down a recommendation in Gov. Goodwin J. Knight's budget to increase tuition at state colleges from $25 a year to $40.

According to a United Press release, Assemblyman Stewart Hinekey (R.-Redlands) made the motion to levy an out-of-state fee at state colleges. He said most other states have such a fee, ranging from $60 a year at one state college in Alabama to a high of $450 a year at New Hampshire State College.

He disagreed with the contention that the charge would be difficult to enforce.

Aitken Says 'No Request'

ASB President John Aitken said Friday that the Student Council "made no official request to the Senior class concerning the scheduling of a Campus Day during its June Senior Week activities. It was purely a recommendation that the class reconsider the event", Aitken said, and emphasized that the seniors are free to do as they wish in the matter.

He pointed out that the Council "has no control over the class unless it should exceed its budget."

Stating that he considered the Council action "out of place," Bill Hushaw, class president, declared recently that "the matter of Senior Week activities is a class affair to be settled without interference from the Student Council."

Council members Wednesday advised reconsideration of the event, planned for visiting parents, after a report indicated that opinion on the event is divided within the class.

Work on Faculty Show Will Begin

Work on the Sophomore-sponsored Faculty Show will "really begin in earnest" at the next meeting of the Sophomore council April 5, according to Don Fletcher, Soph president.

The meeting originally scheduled for today, was canceled because of "dead week" activities, Fletcher said.

Music Head To Conduct Orchestra

Dr. Lyle Downey, Music department head, will raise his baton to lead the San Jose State College Music department symphony orchestra concert tonight at 8:15 o'clock in the Concert hall.

This same program will be presented tomorrow evening at the same time.

Downey will be assisted by Gibson Walters, assistant conductor. Featured soloists on the program will be John Loban, violinist, and Rita Marchoke, soprano.

The 71-piece orchestra will present a program including "Symphony No. 1 in C Minor" by Anton Bruckner; "Introduction and Rondo Capriccioso, Op. 28," by C. Saint-Saens, featuring John Loban on the violin.

Solo, Ferduta Abbandonata from "Manon Lescaut," by Giacomo Puccini, featuring Rita Marchoke as soprano; and "Prelude to the Mastersingers of Nuremberg" by Richard Wagner.

President Meets Finance Group

President John T. Wahlquist is in Sacramento today meeting with members of the Senate Finance committee.

The president said Friday that Senator Jack Thompson (R.-San Jose) would introduce him to the committee, consisting of nine state senators.

Claire Hotel. Guest tickets are $3.25.

Other business to come before the class will be final decisions on activities for the June Senior Week, including the "controversial Campus Day," Hushaw said.

FRESHMAN CLASS

"Spring Fling," an afternoon and evening social affair to be held May 14, for the Freshman class, tentatively has been set for Adobe Creek Lodge. According to President Bob Weiss final details concerning the event will be hashed out at this afternoon's meeting of Frosh council at 3:30 o'clock in Morris Dailey auditorium.

It is to be the biggest party of the year and a lot of interest and help is needed to make it a success, Weiss said.

JUNIOR CLASS

Discussion of the Junior Prom continues to head items of business on the agenda of the Junior class council which is to meet today in Room 127, according to Paul Sakamoto, president.

The names of those persons who have been selected to sell tickets for the prom are to be revealed, Sakamoto said.

Broyles Will Discuss Loyalty Oath at Confab

By BILL SHANDS

Owen Broyles will bring back statewide teacher opinion on the constitutionality of the loyalty oath and the Steinmetz case when he attends the meeting of the California State College Instructors Assn. meeting in Los Angeles March 13 and 14.

Broyles, president of the local chapter of the CSTA, said yesterday that "every teacher should be interested in the loyalty oath legislation and the Steinmetz case."

San Diego State College instructor

Dr. Harry S. Steinmetz was ousted from his teaching post after he refused to answer questions during a loyalty hearing on the grounds of the fifth amendment.

"This is a test case," Broyles said, "but teachers should follow it closely. They should uphold the hard-won privileges of being an American citizen. We are overlooking reality when we disregard the Steinmetz case as being unimportant."

Broyles continued, "Instructors should be concerned with finding out just what the loyalty oath legislation means, since something like this snowballs."

He pointed out that at the present time the loyalty oath laws—the Levering Act, the Luckel Bill and the Dilworth Bill—extend even to veterans who fought during the war. "We find that veterans who have risked their lives fighting for the United States must prove that they are loyal before they can receive veterans benefits."

Instructors generally are opposed to this type of legislation, according to Broyles. "It is a threat to academic freedom and definitely not right to have a man subjected to numerous hearings at his own expense."

"It is the theory we are worried about. It is leading to national hysteria, irrational action and unhappy results," Broyles remarked.

Broyles asked that instructors send suggestions for topics they would like discussed at the conference to him as soon as possible.

He also said that dues for the local chapter may be paid to any CSTA officer or to Mrs. Barbara Keil in Room 30.

students enrolled at SJS are of interest.

An informal poll conducted after the statistical study was released by the registrar, disclosed that students attended State from areas remote from San Jose because of curriculums offered which were not available at home colleges, because of recommendations of former State students, marriage to a former State student, and because a particular curriculum was better than that offered at a school near home.

Among the curriculums mentioned as being offered either more completely or only by San Jose State were drama, aeronautical courses, journalism, police school, psychology and art.

Many students had varied reasons. George Faulkner, a junior aeronautics major from Pomona, Calif., said that San Jose State was one of two schools which offer an approved aeronautics course. "Cal Poly is the other," he said, "and there are no women there."

A woman also figured in the reasons of Martin Tucker, a science major from Susanville, Calif. Tucker married an ex-SJS student who extolled the virtues of the school to him.

Kenneth Zook, a junior police major from Upland, Calif., came to San Jose State because the Police school here was recommended to him by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The Art department at SJS was recommended to Ken Lessler of Long Beach by an art institute as being outstanding.

George Dunn, a psychology major from Redding, came to San Jose because the Psychology department is better than at any school near his home.

Connie MacLean, junior drama major from Napa, stated that she had planned to enroll at another college after finishing high school, but worked with some San Jose State drama majors at a summer theater and was impressed with their work.

32% of SJS Enrollment Live In Areas With State Colleges

(This is the second in a series of articles on San Jose State College enrollment. — Editor's note.)

By JOHN STORMER

More than 32 per cent of all SJS students live in areas served by other state colleges and universities, according to statistics released early this week by the Registrar's office.

With comments made recently by some California educators that enrollment in the 10 state colleges be limited geographically, the reasons why these more than 2000

No Official Dead Week, Says Heath

There is no such thing as dead week officially, according to college testing officer Dr. Harrison F. Heath. Dr. Heath pointed out Friday that "dead week" is not recognized by students so far as social and athletic events are concerned.

It is possible for exams to be given without penalty. He does remind instructors, however, of Rule 7 in the schedule of classes governing final examinations, which recommends that no tests be given during the next to last week of the quarter.

Vets May Sign Forms Reg Day

Veterans attending college under the Korean GI Bill may sign March attendance forms while registering for spring quarter Mar. 29, Mrs. Janet Ashley, veterans counselor, announced Friday.

The forms may be signed at a special table registration day or anytime before April 5 in the Registrar's office.

March graduates and students not planning to return for the spring quarter should sign the attendance forms on the last day of the winter quarter, Mrs. Ashley said.

Senior Orientation

Seniors graduating in August, December or March of next year should sign up for senior orientation spring quarter as it is offered only once a year, according to Bill Hushaw, senior class president.

Lyke Sales To Begin Wednesday

Crossword puzzle fans will get a treat in the St. Patrick's issue of Lyke, which goes on sale Wednesday, according to Hubert Vargas, co-editor of the feature magazine.

Carole Simmons, a member of the magazine staff, has compiled a crossword puzzle based exclusively on San Jose State terms, definitions, and amusing directions.

The puzzle is the first time any project of the kind has been tried by Lyke and the editors feel it will be liked by readers.

"Anyone will be able to work the puzzle if they have been at San Jose State for several quarters," Duane Fiorini, the other co-editor, stated, adding, "if they are dumb enough."

Another outstanding feature of the magazine is an ad which will appeal to the more juvenile readers who enjoy cutting out paper dolls, Fiorini said.

The advertisement pictures a lovely bathing beauty, and on the same page a collection of bathing suits which may be cut out and pinned to the figure. This is the first time a feature of this sort has been used in a college magazine, the editors, say.

While the feature was planned for the more juvenile (or slightly wacky) readers, according to Fiorini and Vargas, they feel it also may hold some interest for male readers because of the female beauty who is pictured.

Adlai Decries College Attack

CHICAGO (UP) — Adlai E. Stevenson said Friday that academic freedom is under attack in America both from communists and from "men in our midst, affecting to oppose communist totalitarianism."

Stevenson, in a statement written for the ninth annual Conference on Higher Education, said ". . . higher education itself has rarely been under more sustained and ugly attack."

"The attack on education comes first from the fanatics of totalitarianism, whose purpose is to destroy free education and to erect on its ruins cruel and coercive systems of indoctrination," he said.

The educational conference, which will continue through Saturday, is sponsored by the National Education Assn. and has attracted about 850 college educators.

$200 Million Asked For State Colleges

SACRAMENTO (UP) — A bill to put before the voters a $200,000,000 bond issue for construction of new facilities for state colleges was introduced in the Assembly Friday.

Assemblyman Wallace D. Henderson (D-Fresno), authored the proposed amendment to the constitution. Henderson said the money would be used for construction over the next 10 years.

Henderson said present state college facilities will be inadequate to accommodate the upsurge in enrollment from population increase which will be felt in the next 10 years.

Dr. Mackay To Speak To Presbyterians Today

DR. JOHN MACKAY

Dr. John Mackay, president of Princeton Theological Seminary and moderator of the Presbyterian General Assembly, will speak at a luncheon at 12:30 p.m. today in the YWCA, located on Second and San Antonio Sts.

The luncheon, sponsored by the San Jose Westminster Foundation, will be for Presbyterian students and faculty members, according to Jim Martin, executive secretary of the Student Y.

Dr. Mackay is the author of the slogan, "Let the Church Be the Church," and is a leading promoter of the idea that the ecumenical movement must concern itself with mission of the church and with the unity of the church.

Dr. Mackay is the author of books both in English and Spanish. His books in English are "The Other Spanish Christ," "That Other America," "A Preface to Christian Theology," "Heritage and Destiny" and "Christianity on the Frontier." His latest book, "God's Order: The Ephesian Letter and This Present Time," appeared in February 1953.

Public Safety Course Given In Russel City

An extension course in public safety — comparable to the N.S. 110 course offered on campus — has been established by James Craig, bacteriologist, in Russel City and has been received with wholehearted approval there, according to Dr. Carl Duncan, chairman of the Natural Science division.

Craig presently has some 50 persons in his class, Natural Science 114. The course was established, Dr. Duncan explained, to provide secondary school instructors with the background to teach it in high school, where it also is a state-required subject.

As a result of his work in public safety, Craig has been asked to instruct the fire department in San Jose and in Hayward in the science and nature of fire, Dr. Duncan added.

Wahlquist Probes Alumni Interest

President John T. Wahlquist discussed affairs of the alumni with the President of St. Mary's College and the chancellor of the University of California at the Berkeley campus Friday.

In a special session of the Pacific Alumni Education Workshop, Dr. Wahlquist talked over "The Blind Spots in Alumni Understanding of Alma Mater" with Brother W. Thomas, F.S.C., and Chancellor Clark Kerr.

The president discussed the shortcomings of the alumnus who graduated from college then forgets the institution.

Dean Addresses Faculty Luncheon

Approximately 25 faculty members attended a luncheon Friday, the first of a series planned by the San Jose chapter of the American Assn. of University Professors, according to Dr. Glen Reed, chapter chairman.

The luncheon was an experiment, Dr. Reed said, and was successful enough to warrant additional meetings to discuss faculty problems of general interest during the spring quarter.

Dr. James DeVoss, executive dean, addressed the meeting on problems encountered in administering the sabbatical leave program.

Raiders Lose, 8-3; Meet SU Today

Curve-baller Doug Boehner is Coach Walt Williams' pick to handle the pitching chores for the Spartans today when they face the strong Stanford Indians at the Municipal Stadium at 3:15 o'clock.

Williams' nine will be looking for a revenge victory over the Palo Altans as the Indians climbed "on the Spartans' ace left-hander John Oldham Saturday on the Sunken Diamond for an 8-3 win.

For Boehner, it will be his second start of the infant season. The San Leandro junior was tagged for an 11-8 loss by the Alameda Navy in last Thursday's opener.

In Saturday's tussle, Stanford scored three runs in each of the third and fourth innings to overcome a 1-0 San Jose lead and chalk up its second straight win of the campaign. They trounced USF in an earlier appearance, 26-5, to make it three wins in four tries.

The Spartans opened the scoring in the second when Ron Palma singled and tallied two errors later. They added another in the fifth on two walks and a one-baser by Ron Kauffman. Singles by Jim Coalter and Don Odishoo produced the final SJS marker in the ninth, although they threatened many times.

Oldham fanned 10 batters and walked five while giving up only four earned runs. Stanford garnered nine hits to the Spartans' seven and committed five errors but one miscue in the fourth proved to be disastrous.

Oldham nipped Sid Hall, Stanford centerfielder, off base but Dick Brady's throw, in running down Hall, hit the runner and he was safe. It would have been the third out.

Three hits in a row, including Dandurand's triple, enabled the hosts to score three times.

Lambert Leads Frosh Swimmers

San Jose State frosh swimmers scored one of their most exciting wins of the season Friday afternoon in the Berkeley tank as they whipped the Cal frosh, 43-41.

Art Lambert led the Spartababe triumph as he gained two first-place spots and one second to help down the Bears.

Lambert won the 50- and 100-yard freestyle events and was runner-up in the 440-yd. freestyle relay.

SC-KKG Score 81 Points To Win Interclass Title

By GIL CHESTERTON

Six meet records were broken and two tied as Sigma Chi and Kappa Kappa Gamma captured the interclass track meet with 81 1/4 points Friday afternoon on the Spartan oval.

Delta Upsilon and Delta Gamma took runner-up honors with 62 1/2, Kappa Tau and Chi Omega third with 60, and Kappa Alpha and Kappa Alpha Theta had 58 3/4 and Phi Sigma Kappa 58 1/2.

Don Armstrong, voted the afternoon's outstanding performer, was high point man for the meet with 18 1/4 points. Armstrong, holder of the world interscholastic low hurdle mark, shattered a pair of novice records as he collected three firsts and one second.

Armstrong, performing for Sigma Chi-Kappa Kappa Gamma, ran the 120 low hurdles in 17.4 to break Phil Hatzepiller's 1951 mark of 18.3. In the 180 yard sprint he clipped a tenth of a second off Carl Harrison's 17.8 record set in 1950. He also captured the 75 yard dash in 7.7 and was second in the 70 yard high hurdles.

Phi Sigma Kappa and Alpha Phi were judged the best fraternity and sorority rooting section. Each received gold cups for the award.

Herm Stokes, Kappa Tau-Chi Omega, broke the only varsity record of the day. Stokes got off a leap of 23 ft. 2 1/4 in. in the broad jump to surpass Ronnie Marre's 22 ft. 11 in. set in 1950.

Ed Kreyenhager, Delta Upsilon-Delta Gamma, tied the 70 yard high hurdle standard of 8.8 held jointly by brothers Jack and Bill Passey, set in '49 and '50, respectively.

One of the highlights of the novice division was Billy Joe Wright, Phi Sigma Kappa-Chi Omega, who broke the shot put record by over four feet. Wright got off a tremendous heave of 47 ft. 7 1/2 in. to top the old record of 43 ft. 6 in. held jointly by Dave Psaltis and Vern Windrath.

Wright also tied with basketballer Carroll Williams for first in the high jump, both clearing 5 ft. 10 in., the same height turned in by the varsity leapers.

Ned Warriner, Phi Sigma Kappa-Chi Omega, knocked off a 1:29.3 race in the 660 to break George Raine's record of 1:29.9 set in last year's meet.

Two tenths of a second was chopped off the 352 yard mark when Bob Burns, Sigma Chi-Kappa Kappa Gamma, churned the distance in 39.8, beating Terry Moss' 40 flat race in '51.

Joe Mears, Kappa Tau-Chi Omega, ran the 70 yard high hurdles in 9 seconds to tie Dick Welles' mark set in 1950.

Boxers, Gators Split NIT Honors

By BOB STRIEGEL

By having all three of their finalists coming out on top, the San Jose State boxers of Coach Julie Menendez captured five trophies in sharing the team championship with San Francisco State in the second annual Northern Invitational Tournament held Friday and Saturday evenings in San Francisco State gym.

San Jose's pride and joy, Dick Bender, tied with SFS's Vic Vaino for the outstanding boxer in the tournament for which the Dee Portal memorial trophy was awarded.

Besides Bender, the winners for Sparta were Joe Rodriguez and Allan White. All three received a nine-inch individual trophy for winning in their weight division.

A huge fifth trophy went to the Golden Raiders for being the tourney co-champions.

The San Francisco State Gators also had three winners while California, Nevada, and Cal Poly each had one. Chico State and Santa Clara were the only schools in the tournament which did not have a champion.

Lightweight Rodriguez, undefeated this year, outpointed Bill Wiswall of Santa Clara in the finals Saturday night. He previously knocked off the Gatos' John Fawcett Friday night in the semi-finals.

White, who drew a bye into the finals, stopped Chico State's Ivan Morris of the first round in the 139-lb. title bout. The Spartan opened up with a nice body attack that sent Morris to the canvas and ended the bout in quick order.

Dispensing his master ring style, Bender, who also drew a bye into the finals, decisioned Dick Kelley, a tough Gator mittman, in the 156-lb. class. Bender had the San Franciscan in trouble several times and decked him for a long count in the second round.

Greek Cagers Battle Tonight For Title Hope

With a chance to play in the Inter-Fraternity league play-offs hanging in the balance of the outcome, Alpha Tau Omega and Kappa Alpha clash in the Men's gym tonight in the final contests of the regularly scheduled Intramural basketball league.

The 8 o'clock game will see KA put its unbeaten season's mark on the line against the once-dumped ATO. If the latter wins tonight, a second game will be necessary to determine which team is to meet Sigma Alpha Epsilon in Tuesday night's opening round of the championship bracket.

In the Independent division, Phi Epsilon Kappa, 6-0, will go into the play-offs against either the Collegians or Royal Hawaiians, depending on the results of the Collegians game with the Westwood Apts. tonight. The Collegians have a 4-0 record to protect.

Shields, Spears Join For Service Activities

Spartan Shields, honorary college service organization of Sophomore men, currently are combining their service activities with the Spartan Spears, Sophomore women's society. Member George McFaddin reports they are assisting the West Coast Nature School in getting out pamphlets and letters for the Death Valley trip.

Both service organizations function separately as groups, meeting weekly and planning projects during the year, but they usually combine their services at general college functions, such as helping on registration days, McFaddin said.

"The Spears are the alert gals serving coffee and offering a helping hand to the lost newcomers on those hectic days. The Shields are the informed gentlemen who carry on the information booth for the bewildered." They also act as guides for the handicapped, he said.

Shields are making plans now for the Science Open House, an annual spring project. They will assist in preparation for displays, guides for the tours and handling of programs. Other current activities include working with the committee on Religious Emphasis week and handling the sale of refreshments at all sports events, McFaddin said.

Membership to the newly formed Pre-Medical society, under the supervision of Dr. Marvin Shrewsbury and Dr. Paul Freeman, still is open to any interested student whose major is pre-medicine or any related science.

The group, which is to meet twice monthly, was formed to provide interested students with valuable intellectual and cultural experiences pertaining to the medical sciences.

Unwanted Fugitive Kicked Out of Jail

OKLAHOMA CITY (UP)—Officers kicked a self-named California "suspect" out of jail Thursday even though he claimed he was wanted in two states for car theft and bigamy.

"No one wants him and we can't hold him," said chief deputy sheriff Ross Biggers. "He's going to have to find some place to live besides our jail."

The unwanted "fugitive," David Lee Wright, 25, Pasadena, Calif., surrendered to sheriff's officers here Wednesday night but said he didn't know exactly what he was charged with.

"They want me in California," he said. "The suspense is killing me." He added that he had married two women.

$8,000,000 School Support Proposed

SACRAMENTO — An amendment to the state budget to chop $8,000,000 from the fairs and exposition fund and put it in the general fund for support of schools, was proposed Friday by Assemblyman Thomas Erwin (R-Puente).

The amendment will be discussed at a meeting of the Assembly Ways and Means committee next Thursday.

Erwin said he was dissatisfied with the "push" distribution of money off the top of the fund to fairs when more than $400,000,000 is needed for support of school districts.

Contest Winner

AWS Commuters Choose Officers

Officers were elected at AWS's Commuters' meeting Thursday, according to Carole Brost, newly-elected publicity chairman.

Other officers include Stella Ottaviano, chairman; Robin Fincher, representative-at-large to AWS; Joyce De Benedetti, alternate; Dorothy Carvelli, secretary-treasurer and Shirley Layler, program chairman.

The club is designed for all women students commuting to the college, to become better acquainted with their fellow commuters.

SJS Graduate Gets Commission

John K. McConihe, 1952 San Jose State graduate in biological science, was among 770 officers commissioned in exercises at the Navy's Officer Candidate School in Newport, R. I.

Two other former SJS students, Ronald D. Nelson, B.S. engineering 1953, and John E. Pate, B. A. business administration 1953, were among 195 men completing the eight-week indoctrination course at the school.

Nelson and Pate now will report to the service schools maintained by their respective corps for further study and training in their specialties.

Other guests at the banquet were: Mrs. De Voss; Dr. and Mrs. John Wahlquist; Dr. and Mrs. James E. Curtis; Dean Helen Dimmick; Mrs. Izetta Pritchard; Miss Margaret M. Twombly; Dr. Anita D. Laton and Mrs. Jean Lees.

Bridge Work Contracted

SACRAMENTO (UP)—A $4-194,461 contract was awarded Friday for improvements to the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge distribution structure in Oakland.

Director of Public Works Frank Durkee said the contract went to Macdonald, Young & Nelson and Morrison-Knudson Co., San Francisco.

The project approximately will double the capacity of the structure.

New ramps connecting the bridge with MacArthur Boulevard will be built above the present structure at the third level. A curved ramp also will be added from MacArthur Blvd. to the Eastshore freeway on the north.
