SAN JOSE STATE COLLEGE

Vol. 42 SAN JOSE, CALIF., WEDNESDAY, NOV. 3, 1954 No. 31

Senate Committee Here Tomorrow

Tomorrow is the day for SJS students to stand up for their college, to support the institution's drive for a higher ceiling and higher budget. A public hearing will be conducted by the California Senate Interim committee on education at 10 a. m. in San Jose Civic Auditorium.

President John T. Wahlquist urges all students and faculty members to attend if they have no class conflicts.

Santa Clara County Board of Supervisors, in an answer to an appeal from President Wahlquist, Monday appointed County Executive Frank Thill to represent the county at the hearing and to point out the county's desire to see the college grow.

The interim committee is under the chairmanship of Nelson Dilworth.

Following the public hearing, the committee will be the guests of the college and tour the campus to inspect facilities.

President Wahlquist pointed out that the Legislature, to meet in January, probably will enact upon recommendations of the committee.

Students Still May Get Bids To Friday Ball

Bids for the Coronation Ball Friday are still available in the Graduate Manager's Office, according to Jim Cottrell, Social Affairs committee chairman.

By 2:30 p. m. yesterday, 1582 bids had been distributed. A total of 2000 were printed, Cottrell stated.

Students who did not pick up a bid may attend the ball by showing their student body card at the door.

The Coronation Ball will be held in the Civic Auditorium Friday from 9 p. m. to 1 a. m. Dress for men will be suits, while the women will be wearing formals or ballerina-length gowns.

Orrin Tucker, and his band, will play for the ball which is expected to attract approximately 4000 students.

The final Social Affairs committee meeting before the ball will be held in Room 117 tonight at 7 o'clock and business is expected to be finished in time for the exchange rally presented by COP.

Friday Designated As Pix Deadline

Publication deadlines must be met, and this Friday has been designated as the last day for graduating seniors to have their La Torre senior pictures taken, according to Joy Mitchell, graduate section manager.

There are still a few appointment dates available this Thursday and Friday, and no pictures will be taken after this date. Pictures will be taken until 5 p. m. Friday afternoon at the Hollywood Studios, 41 N. 1st, according to Miss Mitchell.

Election

Richard P. Graves, Democratic candidate for the California governorship, conceded the election to Governor Goodwin, J. Knight on the basis of incomplete returns shortly after midnight last night.

In a telegram to Governor Knight, Graves wished the Governor every success.

Other leaders early this morning were Harold J. Powers, Lieutenant governor; Robert Kirkwood, controller; Edmund G. Brown, attorney general; Thomas H. Kuchel, U.S. Senator.

Melvin Hawley was leading William H. Young for Santa Clara County Sheriff's post.

COP To Present Exchange Rally

"George's Hideaway" is the name of the COP exchange rally to be presented in the Morris Dailey Auditorium Thursday at 7:30 p. m., according to Jim Houston, entertainment committee chairman of the Rally committee.

The rally will feature "COP's Answer to the Rope Climbers," four singing coeds; a seven-piece pep band, two vocalists, the song girls, yell leaders, a singing waiter, and the "wife" of Spike Jones.

RALLY COMMITTEE

Final work for the College of Pacific game will take place at a committee meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the Student Union.

The group plans to work on card stunts and a float. Work also is expected to continue on the Homecoming float for the Stanford game.

An executive committee meeting will be held at 2:30 p. m. today in the Student Union.

San Jose, Stockton Mayors Exchange Warnings in Weekend Game Rivalry

San Jose State students aren't the only ones preparing for the big game with COP Saturday. Busily sending telegrams to each other yesterday were the mayors of San Jose and Stockton who have a very personal interest in the contest since its outcome means a modern day interpretation of Paul Revere's ride down the streets of the winning city by the mayor of the losing city.

From Harvey F. Stull, mayor of Stockton, to George Starbird, mayor of San Jose, yesterday:

"YOUR NAG IS IN THE BAG. DOCTOR'S FINE RESPONSE TO ADRENALIN SHOTS. HORSE WILL BE READY FOR YOUR TRIUMPHANT APPEARANCE NOVEMBER 8 IN STOCKTON."

To Stull from Starbird:

"SUGGEST YOU RESERVE SUPPLY OF ADRENALIN FOR THE HONORABLE BODY. AWAIT ARRIVAL OF MAYOR IN RAGS IN S. J. NOV. 8."

Addition planned for last night:

"A NAG'S BEST FRIEND IS A MAYOR IN RAGS. S. J. LOOKS FORWARD TO YOUR VISIT WITH ANTICIPATION AND THE BROOM BRIGADE ON NOV. 8," according to Saul Millan, public relations, San Jose Chamber of Commerce.

Millan commented yesterday about the Saturday afternoon parade, which is slated to feature the traditional symbol of rivalry between the schools, the SJS-COP victory bell, "First time COP will see the bell for many years."

8 Tigers Clean Up Initials

"Have it cleaned up and send us the bill," Edward Betz, College of Pacific Dean of Men, said yesterday when he learned that eight COP upperclassmen were apprehended here early Tuesday after they had splattered paint on SJS buildings.

ASB President Art Lund said, "Dean Betz' decision shows COP's desire to cooperate in fulfilling the obligations of our non-vandalism pact with them."

"Big COP letters were painted on nearly every major campus building and on sidewalks," a yawning, sleepy-eyed Robert Martin, associate dean of students, said yesterday.

After a brief, on-campus chase, San Jose police caught the eight men students about 2 a. m. yesterday and called Dean Martin from his home to handle the situation.

By 2:30 a. m., at Dean Martin's request, 10 members of Spartan Shields arrived on campus and equipped the eight COP Tigers with rags, soap and other cleaning equipment.

The Shields formed the Tigers into two work groups and had them scrub off paint.

"No permanent damage was done and the COP students were cooperative," Dean Martin declared explaining that the Tigers used water-base paint which washed off in most cases.

Red COP letters still can be seen on the Library Building, Women's Gym and Morris Dailey Auditorium as well as on some sidewalks.

Lund, Dean Martin, and Dr. Edward Clements, Student Council adviser, joined in urging students to uphold the non-vandalism pact with COP. "Our students shouldn't feel the need for revenge because COP was fully cooperative in making amends and the damage is negligible," they said.

The eight Tigers apparently had been around the SJS campus for some time before they began painting.

Earlier in the evening, San Jose Police questioned the Tigers and released them.

The Tigers told police officers they were just going to put up gum stickers reading "Beat San Jose;" however, several hours later, when sighted by the same officers the Tigers carried paint buckets in addition to the stickers.

Talk Heap Big Smoke But No Fire--Cresap

The recent opinions by State Attorney General Edmund G. Brown and the State Legislative Counsel on limiting admission to state institutions do not contribute to a determination of SJS's legal position, according to Dr. Dean R. Cresap, associate professor of political science.

Attorney General Brown has said that state college presidents cannot raise admission requirements above those set by the State Board of Education while the Legislative Counsel ruled that the state superintendent of public instruction can regulate the number of students admitted to state colleges.

"Any opinion such as these have no standing in law," Dr. Cresap said. "Only the courts can give a final interpretation of a law in our system of government."

A judicial interpretation of the laws under which entrance requirements are determined could come about only if a rejected student sued for admission.

"At any rate, the recent legal opinions are merely opinions and carry no more legal sanction than the opinion of Joe Doaks," he said.

However, Dr. Cresap feels the result of the conflicting opinions has been to highlight the needs of the state colleges and thus they have served a very important political purpose.

"It is likely that the present confusion over the law on admissions may be resolved without recourse to the courts," Dr. Cresap thinks.

"For example," he said, "the State Board of Education could raise entrance requirements at the state colleges and thus satisfy the attorney general's objections to procedures by which present requirements were raised, or the legislature could make its intention clearer in a new law."

Council Journeys On Inspection Tour

The Student Council will make a tour and inspection of the Health Cottage this afternoon following its regular 2:30 o'clock meeting in the Student Union.

ASB President Art Lund said the tour has been an annual affair and will be conducted by Miss Margaret M. Twombly, health service director.

Appointment of a chairman to command the newly formed three-man Public Relations committee will be made at the regular business meeting, Lund said.

Vern Perry, Homecoming committee chairman, will give a complete report on all plans for the event.

One May Die

Warning: don't let the COP victory bell ring your death knell. If previous year records hold true, an SJS student will be injured or killed returning from the COP game Saturday night. Will it be you?

Some 20-plus miles of the road to Stockton are marked by switchbacks, treacherous curves, blind hills and is extremely narrow in places. It is undoubtedly one of the worst roads, accident-wise, in Northern California, according to the state highway patrol.

Saturday night will see scores of students passing over this road. Warning: be careful, don't make your fellow students read your obituary next to the game results Monday.

A potluck dinner preceded the regular monthly social meeting of Alpha Beta Alpha, library fraternity, last week. The highlight of the meeting, according to Charlotte Holton, ABA member, was the showing of the movie, "The Impressionable Years."

The movie was produced by the New York Public Library. The story was about a little girl's first visit to a library and her growing interest in books. When she learned that she could not have a library card until she could write her name, she persevered until the day came when she proudly earned the right to take home a book.

Efforts to ward off a possible explosion and to cut down echoing noises in the Engineering Building find workers placing an insulated partition around a fan above, and rubber pads beneath the huge transformer in the Receiving Room of that building.

supervisor of direct construction, Monday said the partition is being built to prevent dust from gathering around the transformer. A fan is being installed in the roof of the partition to suck out the dust which creeps into the room.

Ten States Make Application For Federal Watershed Aid

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2 (UP)

More than 130 groups in 10 states have applied so far for watershed projects under a new upstream watershed development program.

Agriculture Department officials expect the number to keep climbing as more and more groups apply to and get cleared by local Soil Conservation Service officials for routing to Washington.

For example, about 66 projects are in the works in Texas, with 11 reportedly cleared and on their way to the Agriculture Department.

The 138 already received here are from groups in Delaware, Minnesota, South Carolina, Kentucky, South Dakota, Indiana, West Virginia, California, Nevada and Georgia.

Most—113—have come from Kentucky, and some of those are still just tentatively approved by officials in the state. The second biggest batch of applications have come in from California where 9 local groups are seeking to sponsor watershed projects.

Of the rest, six have come from Georgia; three from Indiana; two from South Dakota; and one each from the other states.

The fact that the applications have come to Washington means only they have cleared one of the hurdles in the process of getting projects for their areas. The applications have yet to be okayed by Secretary Ezra T. Benson, other federal agencies and congress.

Under the new watershed law, Public Law 566, local organizations must initiate and help plan and pay for projects. None of the applications so far contain estimated costs of the projects. That will be worked out later.

It may not be until late next year that actual work gets underway on projects that win final approval.

The Agriculture Department is now in the process of training 22 "work plan parties" who will develop detailed projects for the applications which are approved by the Department and passed on for consideration elsewhere.

At the conclusion of the trip John E. McDonald, auditor of the Santa Clara branch of the Fiberglass Corporation, gave a description of the cost accounting system employed at the corporation.

Attends Conclave

Miss Helen Bullock, college education librarian will attend a meeting of the California Teachers Assn., Saturday in San Francisco.

The meeting will be presided over by Dr. Arthur Corey, former CTA secretary. Pending legislation and current educational problems in California will be the main topics of discussion at the session.

Gil's Galley

By GIL CHESTERTON

Don't be surprised if you see College of Pacific players, coaches and rooters shudder when they hear the name of Roy Hiram announced over the loud speaker system at Stockton Saturday night overturning the Tiger-SJS grid traditional.

The COP pigskin warriors will have good reason for their actions since it was this same 155-pound swivel-hipped Hawaiian who "hulaed" through the Tiger line for 30 yards in the last 24 seconds of the game to bring the Spartans from behind a 21-20 deficit.

Much to the delight of our Stockton football-minded neighbors, the scabback, currently the No. 1 Raider scoring leader, sat out a year's eligibility with a bum knee.

This year the senior has returned to haunt the Tigers and, if that isn't enough, Roy has his brother Pat to help him demolish the COP foes.

Pat, who lettered last year as a sophomore, has overcome an early season injury and showed promise last Saturday when he reeled off a 78-yard run against North Texas State in Sparta's 27-20 victory.

COP Coach Jack Myers tossed in the crying towel early at the Northern Cal Football Writers luncheon Monday when he declared that "we don't expect to win." It was obviously an attempt by Myers to get a psychological jump on the Spartan mentor, Bob Bronzan, since he was the kickoff speaker.

Coach Bronzan countered by stating, "As far as I'm concerned it's an even ball game. He thought a moment and then disclosed that he believed it would be State's toughest encounter on the 11-game slate.

He revealed that Benny Pierce, whose hip pointer will be healed for the COP tilt, came out of the North Texas State contest luckier than the Texans' George Veit, who collided with the SJS signal caller. "Veit put his head right into Pierce's hip. We found out later that Veit suffered a broken neck," Coach Bronzan said.

Tennis Tourney

Twenty students have signed up for next week's Don Straub All-College tennis tourney, according to racquet tutor Hugh Mumby.

The deadline for filing entries has been slated for Friday, Coach Mumby said. They can be secured at Dink Clark's Tennis Shop or the Men's gym.

Three Games On Intramural Slate Today

Theta Xi and Pi Kappa Alpha will square off at 4 p.m. today in an American League intramural grid contest at Roosevelt Field, while Sigma Nu and Delta Sigma Phi will collide in a National loop contest at Willow St. Park.

Fernando's Hideaway and Alpha Phi Omega are scheduled to clash at Columbus Field in this afternoon's independent game.

In Monday's American League action, Theta Chi picked up its first victory with a 19-0 triumph over winless Sigma Chi. Jim Maher threw 55 yards to Gary Parks and 12 yards to Bob Cruzen for two touchdowns, while Bob Burnett passed to Steve DuFour for the third tally.

In the National League Monday, Chuck Reynolds led Delta Upsilon to a 24-13 victory over Alpha Tau Omega. Reynolds intercepted a pass and lateraled to Lou Pia for the first touchdown on a 50-yard play. He intercepted a second aerial and returned it 20 yards for a score. Reynolds scored the third tally on a 20-yard run and passed 30 yards to Lee Laugenour for the final score.

Maury Hammer paced the ATOs with touchdown passes to John Wilson and Dick Brady and a pitch to Fred Wool for a conversion.

Melahnies edged Newman Club 8-7 in an independent game. Jim Eggert provided the margin of victory when he trapped Joe D'Amico, Newman passer, for a safety. Dick Earthman ran 10 yards for the winners' TD.

D'Amico passed to Don Tallor for the Newman Club touchdown.

Hubbard Paces Raiders To Win Over Stanford

Don Hubbard continued his unbeaten cross country ways by leading the SJS harriers to a 23-32 victory over Stanford yesterday afternoon on the Spartan four-mile course.

Hubbard easily captured first place by outdistancing Golden Raider Don Barry, second place winner, by 490 yards in the fast time of 21:56, only 11 seconds off Bob McMullen's course record of 21:45.

Barry was clocked in 22:49 and San Jose's Jim Green finished third with a 22:53 time.

Stanford's highly touted William King was forced to settle for fourth place at 22:58 with his teammates Maury Graves and Bob Reed in fifth and sixth.

Other Spartans in the top ten were Geldon Stroud in seventh position and Frank Wulfstange tenth. The long striding Hubbard, undefeated this season, ran what was believed to be the fastest mile on the Spartan cross country course by covering the distance in 4:55.

Coach "Bud" Winter, pleased over the SJS fine showing, termed the feat a "team victory."

Students will be admitted to the College of Pacific game on ASB cards, while faculty members can buy tickets in the Graduate Manager's office.

SJS students should enter Gate 9 and sit in sections P, Q and R.

"Don't Shoot!"

From recent Student Council minutes:

CHAIRMAN: Next we come to the problem of the appalling dressing-habits of our freshman. We have noted such unorthodox attire as long-point collars, garishly colored shirts, some actually made of dotted swiss!

SCH. OF MUSIC REP.: Definitely not in harmony with our standards.

JOURNALISM REP.: To corn a phrase, they ain't on the ball team.

SCH. OF LOGIC REP.: Why not shoot 'em?

MED. SCHOOL REP.: Great idea! I'll work up a "Good Taste" serum, refined from some Van Heusen Oxfordian shirts. We'll inoculate 'em all!

PHILOSOPHY REP.: Who cares!

LAW SCHOOL REP.: (Happily) Yeah, inoculate 'em. Then maybe some of 'em will get sick, and I . . .

JOURNALISM REP.: Now let's don't go all around Rec Robin Hood's barn . . . what we need is a campaign to tell 'em about the Oxfordian . . . the silky, smooth oxford shirts with the smart, modern collar styles.

BUS. ADM. REP.: And don't forget . . . fine long-staple cotton, woven tighter to last longer . . . at the amazing price (thanks to excellent production facilities) of only $4.50.

JOURNALISM REP.: I think we got the gem of an idea here somewhere . . . but first off the bag, we gotta . . .

MED. SCHOOL REP.: Inoculate 'em.

LOGIC REP.: Yeah, shoot 'em.

CHAIRMAN: All in favor of mass inoculation say Aye. (MOTION CARRIES.)

JOURNALISM REP.: Maybe some of 'em already wear Van Heusen Oxfordians. Don't shoot 'til you see the whites of their shirts . . .

ART SCHOOL REP.: . . . and the colors! Don't forget Oxfordians come in the smartest colors this side of a Bonnard or a Klee.

The concert will be open to the student body and the public without charge.

Theater Veteran Dabbles in TV, Too

NEW YORK, Nov. 3 (UP)—What do veteran theater people who also happen to be in television really think of TV?

"Once in a while we get an uneasy feeling that we may be getting ready to cut our own throats—but then no one can ever really tell about these things," said Theresa Helburn, who has helped guide the Theater Guild through its 35 seasons.

"I imagine the best answer probably is that the living theater has been subjected to stresses and strains of every nature for centuries, and it still goes on."

Miss Helburn, her co-director of the Guild's destiny, Lawrence Langner, and Armina Marshall (Mrs. Lagner) are the guiding hands behind the "U. S. Steel Hour," on which an original TV drama is presented every other Tuesday on the ABC network.

The Guild also recently concluded a pact with the American Broadcasting Co. to serve as program and talent consulate for a long term during which ABC will have first refusal on TV use of any Guild play properties.

"Actually, there is a mixture of good and bad in television's effect on the stage," said the tiny, gray-haired dynamo who is generally conceded to have saved the Guild from financial wreckage in the pre-TV year of 1943 by insisting on the production of a show referred to laughingly as "Helburn's Folly". It turned out to be a melodic gold mine entitled "Oklahoma!"

SIGNALS, SLICK GIVE HOPE

KINDLEY AIR FORCE BASE, Bermuday, Nov. 2 Weak distress signals were intercepted today shortly after an oil slick was sighted in the Atlantic, stirring faint hope among officials conducting a search for 42 persons missing in a flight to the Azores.

Spartan Band To Salute Colleges During Game

"Salute to Day Area Colleges" will be the theme of half-time activities at Saturday's SJS-COP grid contest, according to Dr. Robert Fiester, director of the 82-piece marching band, which will perform on the field for the first time this season.

The gold and white clad musical group also is scheduled to appear in a parade in Stockton at 4 p. m.

Saturday afternoon. The parade, sponsored by the chambers of commerce of both cities and by the SJS-COP student bodies, will be telecast over KOVR-TV, channel 13.

Featured during the SJS portion of half-time activities will be the majorettes, regular flag twirlers and two specialty twirlers.

In a salute to University of California, the SJS band will form a heart pierced with an arrow and play "I Love You, California." St. Mary's will be honored by the formation of a bell and the playing of "The Bells of St. Mary's".

The formation of a cat and the playing of "Tiger Rag" will salute the day's football foe, COP.

The Santa Clara Broncos will be honored by the formation of a cowboy boot and the playing of "Don't Fence Me In."

Saluting the Stanford Indians, the marching band will form a tomahawk and play "Indian Dance." In the last formation, the band will play the SJS "Fight Song", while forming the initials of the school on the turf.

The band will participate in a special flag-raising ceremony preceding the game. The musical group will be seated high in the stands above the roofing section, Dr. Fiester said, instead of in its usual position below the section.

Specialty twirlers who will perform are Gwen Buckner and Natalie Fancher. Flag twirlers are Jacque Wood, Barbara Hams, Eleanor Kuntz, and Jeannie Webster. Majorettes are Jeannie Wakatsuki, Wanita Wilent, and Terry Preston.

Three Fall Festivities Fill Sig Chi Social Calendar

Pinnings for pledges, the quarterly scholarship banquet and an exchange have filled the Sigma Chi calendar.

Fraternity members with a high grade point average dined on steak recently, while their fraternity brothers ate either roast beef, spaghetti or mush, according to the respective scholastic achievements. Phil Baroni received the scholarship award for having maintained a 3.0 average for the past two quarters.

Even the evening's attire was determined by the grade point average of the members, Jim Cottrell explained. Men who had averages of 2.0 could wear anything; members with averages ranging from 1.55 to 2.0 were allowed to attend in school clothing; members with 1.0-1.54 were required to wear slacks and sweaters, while members with the lower averages wore suits.

Cottrell announced the Sigma Chi's and the Alpha Chi Omega's held an exchange at the Sigma Chi house recently. Theme for the evening was "crazy hats."

Prizes were awarded to Jim Falletti and Rayma Narbaitz for the funniest and most original hats.

Jim Barelay, Jim Curnutt and George Vevoda have been named pledge officers for the fall pledge class, according to Cottrell.

Greek Groups Trade Dinners

Delta Upsilon and Delta Gamma's held a dinner exchange last month, according to John Luckhardt, Delta Upsilon publicity chairman.

Luckhardt explained that 20 members of the sorority had dinner at the fraternity house while an equal number of DU's had dinner at the sorority house.

Following the dinner all members of the two groups gathered at the Delta Gamma house for entertainment and dancing. The pledges of both groups were introduced.

Announce Pinning

Two "knights" bearing shields on which were painted the crest of Bowles Hall announced the pinning of Glinda Battersby to Ken Wiersenia at the Gamma Phi Beta house Monday night.

Glinda is a junior art education major from San Jose, while Ken, a junior engineering major at the University of California, is a member of the social living group at Bowles Hall.

PiKA's, DG's Serenade Greeks From Fire Truck

Members of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity and Delta Gamma sorority toured San Jose Thursday evening on the Pi Kappa Alpha fire truck and serenaded local sororities and fraternities.

The mass serenade, a tribute to Halloween, included a song for each of the fraternal groups and presenting each group with a pumpkin, Bob Cracolice, publicity chairman, announced.

The groups also serenaded President and Mrs. John T. Wahlquist

ATO Observes Pinning Rites

and presented them with a pumpkin.

An exchange followed the serenade at the Pi Kappa Alpha house. The Pi Kappa Alpha's held their pledge dance at the Lyndon Hotel in Los Gatos Friday night, Cracolice stated. Doug Morgan's trio furnished the musical accompaniment for the evening's festivities.

Patrons for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Silvera and Boris Gregory.

John Magaddino and Don Odishoo, PiKA actives, were taken to Reno by the pledge class on Friday night. The 23 pledges poured flour on the floors and rugs of the fraternity house, messed up beds and upset tables before they fled with the actives to Nevada.

Pledges Discuss Joint Playday Plan

Members of the Delta Sigma Phi pledge class and the Sigma Kappa pledges are discussing plans for an all-pledge play-day to be sponsored jointly by the two pledge groups.

No date has been set for the affair but plans are being made to include games, refreshments and entertainment. An estimated 250 pledges will take part.

Two exchanges are scheduled for the Delta Sig pledges. Monday, Nov. 8, they will have a coffee date exchange with the Kappa Kappa Gamma pledges and on Nov. 22 they will hold a similar exchange with the Sigma Kappa pledges.

Girl Tells Twice

A pinning and an engagement at one house in the same evening causes a great deal of excitement—especially when both are announced by the same girl.

An hour later she revealed that the pinning was actually an engagement.

Saint Peter will welcome the costumed "former greats" and have them sign in the "golden book" at the beginning of the party. Dancing will follow entertainment provided by members of the two houses.

Phi Sig Exchange Has Greek Theme

The Parthenon was the name of the Phi Sigma Kappa house recently as Phi Sig's and Chi O's staged a Greek dessert exchange.

The Phi Sig house was decorated throughout with white pillars and ivy. Sheets were used as clothing to carry out the Grecian theme.

Dessert consisted of cake, grapes and a brand of the more expensive Greek wine—grape Kool-Ade.

After dessert, entertainment was supplied by both houses and then the groups adjourned to the patio for dancing.

Two Exchanges

The Sigma Pi's were the guests of the sorority, AOPi, on Oct. 13, where the "inside-out and backward party" theme was carried out. The fraternity members also wore crazy hats and socks.

On Oct. 27 the AOPi girls went to the Lambda Chi Alpha house for a Halloween masquerade. Dancing, games and refreshments were enjoyed at both parties, which the social chairman, June Whittaker, helped plan.

By GARY ENGELL

It's that time again!

The usually majestic looking SJS tower shivered in its foundations early last week as students of one of the now famous SJS photography classes undertook their first outside picture assignment.

They were out to get it—on film.

For years (some say centuries) tripods have been stuck in the ground in the Inner Quad and lenses have been pointed toward the ivy-walled structure.

As usual, students not acquainted with Mr. George Stone, his techniques and his teachings did not see all the humor in the actions of these shutter-bugs.

First sight of the students came as they emerged from the Science Building basement with brown boxes under one arm and a long tripod under the other.

They traipsed into the corridor between the Outer and Inner Quads, sort of hiding from any friends to save remaining shreds of dignity.

Old timers who have taken the class and others who read Lyke's expose of the photo department spotted the neophytes right away.

The action starts. Two students to each tripod and camera makes things easier. As one tries to put the tripod up the other person holds the box with the camera on it and tells the tripod stander-upper how to do it.

After the first person fails at placing three legs in the soft earth successfully, the camera holder tries his hand at it.

"Eureka! finally," yells the students as they complete the mission.

Later during the same week students who failed at their first attempt went through the process of photographing the ivy-walled tower again.

One pert, red-headed coed pointed the camera, focused it correctly, put the film holder in the right slot and then waited for the fluttering pigeons to settle down. She made the statement that this was her fourth attempt as she had "messed up" the first three negatives.

Although all seemed dim, her spirit was not broken; after snapping the shutter she neatly placed the camera and cloth back into the brown box and headed back to the darkroom to view the results.

As she headed toward the darkroom the tower seemed to sigh with relief, but little does the majestic monster know that there are still three other photo students who are trying to load their film holders.

"Such are the woes of life!"

Reading Room Offers SJSers Music and Art

SJS students who like to listen to records but can't afford to buy them, can go to the Arts and Recreation Reading Room in the college library where 7000 records are available for student use.

Most of the records are for reference and can be heard only in the reading room, but there is also a large selection that can be checked out. The collection includes classical, children's, dramas, poetry and musical comedy records.

For the convenience of listeners, the room has two listening booths and five earphone sets. There are facilities for listening to tape recordings.

The room has reference material for students studying the arts, movie, theater, sports and recreation.

Pictures from a collection of 14,400 prints can be checked out and a collection of larger prints can be studied in the room.

Also on file are books of rare quality, either out of print or hard to obtain, that can be checked out, and a file of microfilm musical scores.

Spartan... ..Squibs

Two SJS girls came walking up to "walk-wait" lights at 7th and San Antonio streets and one of them started across the street. The other shouted, "Stop, or you'll get your picture in the Spartan Daily!"

An SJS audio-visual class was discussing dramatic participation in the classroom. Donna Dillon, one of the panel members, told a story about the development of the tadpole to a frog using the first grade teacher approach.

To get into the act as dramatic participants, Miss Dillon had the class follow her around the room jumping like a frog. Did you know that frogs shake their two left legs and then the two right legs before they jump? It can be done. Ask any of the class members or the demonstrator.

Maybe this class has gone to the "FROGS."

Duncan of the Science Department has a new career. It seems that he is now a comic strip character in Vic Flint. So involved is he in the comic that he gets anonymous telegrams to meet strange women at the airport. This wouldn't be so unusual except the telegram was signed Bonnie, another character in the strip. We're wondering, could he be leading a double life?

Tell the truth, Doctor!

Tickets Available

Tickets are still available for all remaining performances of "School for Wives". Best tickets are for tonight's performance. They may be obtained from 1 to 5 p. m. in the Speech and Drama Department Office, Room SD-100.

The play will run tonight o'clock in the old Little Theater. Admission for the Moliere comedy is 75 cents for general admission and 50 cents for Student Body members.

Segregation Solutions Vary on SJS Campus

Feeling toward the recent outbreaks of racial segregation in the southern states is divided on the SJS campus.

A poll taken by two Spartan Daily reporters shows some students believe "the South should go along with the ruling of the Supreme Court," but others feel "the South should be allowed to work out the problem for itself."

The comments are:

John Taylor, 39, senior education major: "It seems to me that those persons who seem to understand and know how the problem can be solved do not live in the South, but actually the problem is a Southern issue and should be solved by Southerners."

Sheila Cohen, 18, freshman pre-veterinarian major: "I don't think it is right. I don't think high school students in the South, by striking, should try to change the Supreme Court's decision."

Jean Robbins, 18, English major: "The South is improving its educational facilities for Negroes and should be allowed to work out the problem of segregation for itself without interference from the government."

Barry Wright, 20, senior business administration major: "The reaction is very undemocratic and un-American. They are forgetting why the Civil War was fought."

Dave Nellis, 24, social science major: "The South definitely should go along with the ruling of the Supreme Court. Destiny of all races, not just the Negroes, is at stake. If the South is allowed to by-pass Supreme Court rulings it could mean the powers of the court may be nil."

Ray Meissner, 25, engineering major: "It is a southern problem and the South should be allowed to settle it for itself. It is a problem not too well understood in the North."

D. Reed, 22, junior philosophy major: "I'm ashamed of it!"

Dian Forbes, 18, freshman chemistry major: "I don't think that the South should try to change the Supreme Court's decision because the Supreme Court is the highest court in the land and should know what's best for the country."

WINSTON

Winston brings flavor back to filter smoking—full, rich, tobacco flavor! No wonder college smokers are flocking to Winston—on campuses across the country! Along with real flavor—the kind you've been missing in filter smokes—Winston brings you a finer filter. This exclusive Winston filter is unique, different, truly superior! It works so effectively, yet doesn't "thin" the taste or flatten the flavor. Winstons are king-size, too, for extra filtering action—and easy-drawing for extra good taste. Try a pack of Winstons!
