Students may use their ASB cards to get into the Fresno State game Friday night, according to the Graduate Manager's Office. Tickets will not be necessary.

IRC Plans Large-Scale World Affairs Conclave

An inter-collegiate conference on world affairs, the first to be held at SJS, will be sponsored this spring by the International Relations Club, Jim Starrs, president of the organization, announced yesterday.

The conference will be open to all California, and perhaps all west coast, colleges and universities, Starrs said, with a well-known speaker and more than 200 students participating. Date and topic for the event will be selected later.

Starrs explained that SJS students are well qualified to sponsor a conclave on world affairs, though one never has been held on campus, since they have joined in those given at other institutions.

He cited the examples of two organization members, Carl Pagter and Bob Harris, who will play prominent roles in the Leadership Conference slated for Dec. 4 at San Francisco State. Pagter will present the summary address at the conclusion of the meeting while Harris will serve as chairman for the affair.

Detailed plans for the campus conclave, which Starrs hopes will become an annual affair, will be submitted for approval in the near future to President John T. Wahlquist and Dr. Leo P. Kibby, head of the Social Affairs Department.

SAC Will Meet

Reports on the Coronation Ball and the Homecoming Parade will be given at a meeting of the Social Affairs committee tonight at 7 o'clock in Room 117, according to Pat Burch, publicity chairman.

Miss Burch also asked that all members bring their blood donation cards to the meeting. There will be an executive council meeting this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Student Union, Miss Burch announced.

World News Briefs

U.S. Lays Down Law

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (UP) The United States told Russia today that unless it takes steps to prevent any further attacks on U. S. planes flying in the Japan area this government will be forced "to provide the necessary defensive protection" for such planes.

The warning was contained in a second U. S. note to Moscow protesting against the shooting down of a B-29 photographic plane in the Hokkaido area of Japan by two Soviet MIG fighters on Nov. 7.

Greene To Talk On Radiology

Dr. Earnest Greene, professor of chemistry and physics, will speak on "Radiology" tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the Engineering auditorium.

Radiology consists of a Unit that determines the half-lives of substances and determines what the radiation amount is. The Unit has a valuable use in both war time and peace time. In war time, it can be used to determine if an area is safe to inhabit following an atomic attack.

In peace time, it can be used to measure the radiation count of the air, soil, water, sewage and industrial wastes.

Along with explaining the functions of the Unit, Dr. Greene will demonstrate it.

All persons interested are urged to attend the talk. Coffee will be served.

'Gorgeous Gams' Contest Pictures Due in by Nov. 22

Campus men who wish to have their legs judged in the "Gorgeous Gams" contest must enter four photographs of their legs by Monday, Nov. 22.

According to Betty Easton, chairman of the Freshman Fund Raising committee sponsoring the event, the pictures must show the legs bare from the knees down and the contestant cannot wear shoes or socks to be considered.

Also to be eligible, leg contestants must be sponsored by a fraternity, sorority, living group or other organization. Invitations have been sent to groups, she said.

SJS students will select the shapeliest legs by voting on Nov. 30, Dec. 1 and 2. Votes, Miss Easton said, will cost one cent and students may vote as many times as they wish.

The entry blank must be sent to Pat Parish, c/o the Student Union.

A prize will be awarded the winner and a trophy to the sponsoring group.

Attention, Frosh

Freshman Class presidential candidates are requested to call at the Spartan Daily office in the Journalism Building between 1:30 and 4:20 p.m. to arrange for the taking of pictures.

Poelman Chosen Queen Candidate

SJS Students Open 8-Month Blood Drive

Seeking a fourth win of the Red Cross's $4000 commemorative trophy given to the Coast College contributing the most blood during the year, SJS kicks off an eight month blood drive this month, according to Louise Wester, drive chairman.

As part of the drive, various organizations will join "credit clubs" when donating. The blood will be available for emergency use by members of the organization and their families, Miss Wester explained. The donor establishes "credit" by giving one pint a year.

It takes 45 minutes to process the donor who must be at least 18 years old and have parent's permission if under 21.

Pledges already have come in from the four class councils, Rally and Social Affairs committees.

Mobile donor units will be set up in the Student Union, Nov. 29, when the pledges become payable, she said.

Members of the AROTC have donated more than 110 pints already this quarter.

All social and living groups are expected to take part in the campaign which contributes to the Armed Forces overseas, and to hospitals in the San Jose Area.

Dept. of Finance Asks New Fees

SJS out-of-town-students may not find California education "free" in the future, if the Department of Education approves a State Department of Finance proposal, according to Glen Guttormsen, accounting officer. Out-of-staters here who may be charged $75 per semester fee for their California education, total 262.

"California is one of the few states that does not require an out-of-state fee to help defray educational costs," Guttormsen stated.

He explained that since it costs the state $600 or more to educate each student, those who aren't helping to support California colleges and universities through taxes should pay a small portion of the total cost.

"We don't know what the Department of Education's reaction will be yet, but if the proposal is to be included in the 1955-1956 state college budget, action must be decided soon," he concluded.

Oral Reading Hour

The second Oral Reading Hour of the fall quarter will be held today. It will start at 3:30 p. m. in Room 118 of the Speech and Drama Building.

Readers will be Paul Thomsen, Kanela Vrenios, Luaine Wickwire, Bill O'Neill, Deana Reed and Kenneth Sterling. They will present selections ranging from the light and humorous to the serious and dramatic.

Alden Smith and Mrs. Noreen Mitchell of the Speech and Drama staff are in charge of the program. All students and faculty are invited to attend.

Student Council Votes To Hire Full-Time ASB Committee Secretary

Wanted: One full-time secretary in the ASB office. The Student Council yesterday voted to hire a secretary who would work full-time on ASB committee secretarial work. The Council estimated a $200 per month salary would be paid.

This action will appear before the Board of Control who have final veto powers on all money matters.

Fraternity Group Forms Committees To Study Problems

Three committees were set up at a meeting of fraternity presidents and advisers Tuesday night to study and make recommendations on several SJS fraternity problems, Bob Goforth, Inter-Fraternity Council president, announced yesterday.

The committees are slated to consider the possibilities of forming an IFC court to enforce Council rulings, a rushing code, and the general structure and constitution of the board, according to Goforth and Adviser Robert S. Martin, associate dean of students.

Forming of the committees came as the result of discussion upon methods for improving inter-fraternity relations and strengthening the IFC, they said. The meeting, which was one of a series of get-togethers held upon occasion in order to talk over mutual problems, was conducted at the home of Dr. Stanley C. Benz, dean of students.

Committee reports will be submitted to the IFC in about two weeks, Goforth said. The group which met does not have administrative authority but only discusses problems.

Director Deadline

Applications are being taken in the ASE office for Freshman Camp director and assistant director. Deadline for completing the application is Tuesday at noon.

Tentative plans call for two Freshman camps with 400 students each to handle the expected enrollment.

Pre-Game Hymn To Highlight Fresno State Game Festivities

Something new in before game activities will take place Friday when SJS meet Fresno State College at Spartan Stadium, according to Shunji Ito, Rally committee chairman.

Ito explained that the rooting Committee Head

SHUNJI ITO

Order Cap, Gown Before Deadline

December graduates should order their caps and gowns before the deadline Nov. 24. Orders can be made in the campus bookstore.

Main duties of this secretary, as outlined by Student Body President Art Lund, will be:

1. Provide continuity between all ASB committees.
2. Keep all files up to date. "They are not up to date now," he stated.

3. Answer the telephone and be able to inform anyone of correct dates and times of ASB activities and functions.

"This plan will be on a trial basis. If it does not work to complete satisfaction of the Council, it will be discontinued," he added. "Presently, student receptionists answer the telephone, but the secretary will do this along with the above functions."

Lund requests the missing banner advertising Religion Week at College of Pacific taken before the SJS-COP game be turned in at the ASB office in the Student Union. "COP has asked for $10 or the banner," he said. "Stanford also wants their sign board returned. It was the one which stated 'Smash the Spartans' and is valued at $150. The Council feels some SJS group has it."

A committee was formed to obtain more information on inviting the Russian editors to the United States. In other Council action Doloris Mathias and Don Bedante were appointed co-chairmen of the World University Service drive.

Latvian Students Observe Holiday

SJS Latvian students will observe the 36th anniversary of Latvian Independence Day with a special program tonight, over KLOK at 9 o'clock, according to Guido Augusts, student chairman.

Appearing on the show will be local members of the group along with representatives from the Northern California area.

section would sing "Hail, Spartan, Hail" before the game begins Friday. After the band forms "Glory Alley", through which the team will run before the game, the Spartan rooters will sing the school hymn.

Right after the hymn, the Spartan football team will run through a huge paper banner and down "Glory Alley" as the band plays "The San Jose State Fight Song."

Ito recommended that everyone attending the game sit in the center section and wear white. He also stressed that students may get into the game by showing their student body cards at the gate.

"Spardi" will make his third appearance of the season at the game and the yell leaders and song girls will perform as usual. The bands of both schools are expected to march also.

The SJS Marching Band with Dr. Robert Fiester, director, is expected to salute several departments at State. They are the Music Department, Chemistry Department, Engineering Department, Physical Education Department, Business Department, and Police Department.

More Than One Way...

Social fraternities take note. Regarding college policy as something to be heeded, members of Alpha Eta Sigma, honorary accounting society, have come up with what is called a "field trip" (see story page 3) and turns out to be a sly way of getting around the ruling that no alcoholic beverages be served at rush functions. Officers announced yesterday that their rush function will be a "tour of the Falstaff Brewing Corp." With the tour, the conniving prospective accountants are outdoing anything the social fraternities have ever dreamed of. While social fraternity men's eyes gleam at the sight of a keg of suds, the Alpha Eta Sigmas have a whole brewery at their disposal!

Thrust and Parry

Editors' Note—Pros and cons of the current SJS issue regarding the yell leaders and of the issue regarding eye glasses vs. beauty have been aired thoroughly in Thrust and Parry columns. Letters on these issues will no longer be printed.

Thimply Thwell

Dear Thrust and Parry,
Why Mr. Spardi?
Mr. Spardi is just about the cutest little thing we have ever seen. It makes us feel simply thwell to have his thweet pixie face beaming up at the grandstands during our games. It makes us feel thimply wonderful to have such a stirring and proud figure representing dear old Thparta. Our beanies are off to you.
Robbie Kennedy, ASB 6247; Robbie Mott, ASB 6583; Dickie Kissick, ASB 6266, Robbie Padden, ASB 7677.

No Interest

Dear Thrust and Parry:
As a school paper, your interest in the Stanford game seemed nil. The write-up was about the same size of your write-up for the Homecoming Queen. The San Francisco papers (Examiner and Chronicle) each devoted two whole pages in pictures and writeups about the upset. Each had a whole page of pictures of the game and big headlines. Why should they be more interested in San Jose State's football fortunes than our own Spartan Daily? The write-up was incomplete and poorly written. Also, how about the idea of inviting those schools that have no football teams to the New Mexico game as non-paying guests of SJS. COP did this for their COP-Marquette game and it worked quite well. Any meeting of student bodies tends to build the spirit of the participating students and this would renew a healthy rivalry with such schools as USF, St. Mary's and Santa Clara.
Larry Clemens, ASB 5812

THAT's News

Dear Thrust and Parry,
When a dog bites a man, it's not news. But when a man bites a dog, that's news.
In the year 1900 A. D. San Jose State played Stanford in football for the first time. In the following 54 years they met 11 more times, with Stanford coming out on top each time. Then Saturday, Nov. 13, 1954, after 54 years, San Jose was victorious by the score of 19 to 14. By putting together a great team effort the players and coaching staff of San Jose State pulled its biggest upset in the history of the college.
This is not to criticize Gil Chesterton, sports editor of the Daily, who is limited by space to the write-ups he can give individual athletic games; but this is the shortest write-up we have ever seen after such a great game that brought more national publicity throughout the United States than any previous game played by the Spartans.
Might we suggest some improvements that could have been made:
1. Pictures of the players and of the key plays in the upset, more than one action picture.
2. Complete statistics on the game.
3. "Color" notes on the game (locker-room interview after the game.)
4. Play by play of the game.
We feel that the Spartan Daily completely "dropped the ball." Do you think that if Stanford beats Cal, the Stanford paper will limit the account of the game to 10 inches? In Monday's edition, more space was taken up by the Thrust and Parry than by the game story.
In summary, we feel that a great injustice has been done to the student body as a whole, and especially to Coach Bob Bronzan and the football team, who again we say turned in one of the finest football games in the history of San Jose State.
Steve DuFour, ASB 6055; George Anderson, ASB 5536; John Denny, ASB 5897; Gary Park, ASB 7678; Bob Fena, ASB 5966.
Editors' Note—Any Spartan Daily copy turned in after Friday night is limited by the printers to 20 inches, including headlines. This space limitation prevents the Spartan Daily from giving as complete coverage of football games and weekend events as the editors and the T&P writers would like.

High Schoolers Check Library

SJS Library facilities will be inspected by a group of students from Willow Glen High School today according to Miss Joyce Backus, college librarian. The students are from the school's Student Library Club and visit some library annually. This year they picked the college library. Their adviser is Miss Marian Werner.

Seniors Appear At Symphony

Senior music students John Loban and Gilda Mazzanti, violinists, will appear as soloists with the San Jose Symphony Orchestra in a concert tonight at Civic Auditorium.

Loban is a student of Gibson Walters, associate professor of music, and Miss Mazzanti studies with Frances Robinson, assistant professor of music.

The pair will play the Vivaldi concerto for two violins in duet.

Loban has made appearances with the Monterey County Symphony, the SJS Symphony, the California All High School Orchestra and the San Jose Civic Symphony.

Miss Mazzanti has studied violin for 10 years.

DECEMBER AND MAY: ACT II

Synopsis of Act I: A middle-aged English Professor named Phipps has fallen desperately in love with a rosy-kneed coed named McFetridge. Phipps doesn't know how to go about courting Miss McFetridge, for, after all, he is a professor in the autumn of his life, and she is a coed with rosy knees. Professor Twonkey, who shares an office with Phipps, proposes the following plan: Phipps will ask Miss McFetridge to come to his office for a conference late in the afternoon. He will be urbane and charming and make frightfully witty remarks about English lit, and Miss McFetridge will laugh and laugh. After an hour of this high-type hilarity, Phipps will look at his watch, exclaim at the lateness of the hour, and insist on driving Miss McFetridge home. On the way home, he will pass a theatre that shows French movies. They'll see the movie, then have an exquisite French dinner, and Miss McFetridge will be so enchanted that she cannot but yield to his suit.

So at the beginning of Act II, we find Phipps in his office awaiting the arrival of the poor young innocent. His hair is brushed; his nails are clean; he has new leather patches on his elbows. There is a knock on the door. He opens it and admits a gorgeous creature with blue eyes and pink kneecaps.

PHIPPS: Ah, Miss McFetridge. Come in, my dear. Won't you sit down? Cigarette?

MISS MCF: Ooh, Philip Morris! I think they're marvy, don't you?

PHIPPS: I do indeed.

MISS MCF: Hey, prof, would you mind opening a fresh pack?

PHIPPS: But I just opened this one a little while ago. It's perfectly fresh.

MISS MCF: I know, prof, but I like to hear the snap when the pack opens.

PHIPPS: Very well, my dear.

(He opens a fresh snap-open pack of Philip Morris. Miss McFetridge claps her hands delightedly when she hears the snap.)

MISS MCF: Hey, that fractures me! Man, I flip when I hear that crazy snap! Do another one.

PHIPPS: All right.

(He snaps open another pack of Philip Morris.)

MISS MCF: (Ecstatically) Isn't that the living, breathing end? Do two at once.

PHIPPS: Well, if you insist...

(He does two at once.)

MISS MCF: More! More!

PHIPPS: I'm afraid that's all I have.

MISS MCF: Oh... Well, what's up, prof? What did you want to see me about?

PHIPPS: Oh, nothing in particular. Just wanted to have a little chat, find out how you're enjoying the Shakespeare lectures.

MISS MCF: I don't know, prof. By me Shakespeare is strictly a square.

PHIPPS: Indeed? Well, I must say I find your attitude refreshing. One is so inclined toward slavish admiration when it comes to the Bard. People forget that in many quarters Shakespeare is regarded quite critically. Take, for example, the opinion of Shaw.

MISS MCF: Artie?

PHIPPS: George Bernard... You know, of course, his famous words.

MISS MCF: I sure don't, dad.

PHIPPS: Shaw said he would like to dig up Shakespeare and throw stones at him.

MISS MCF: Did he dig him?

PHIPPS: No, I don't believe so.

MISS MCF: I don't dig him either.

PHIPPS: (Looking at watch) Good heavens, I had no idea it was so late. Come, my dear, I'll drive you home.

MISS MCF: No, thanks. I always walk home. It's good for the circulation in your legs. I got the best circulation in my legs of the whole sophomore class. Ever notice how rosy my knees are?

PHIPPS: As a matter of fact, yes... Look, you sure you don't want a ride home? There's an excellent French movie on the way.

MISS MCF: Not me, dad. I hate French pictures. The sub-titles always disappear before I can read 'em. But if you want to go to the movies, there's a new Tony Curtis picture downtown—a real gut-buster. Tony plays this beggar, see, but he's really a prince only he doesn't know it on account of his sneaky uncle who switched babies when Tony got born. Then Tony finds this magic lamp, see, and he gets into the palace where he meets this crazy girl, only she's engaged to the fake prince, but then they have this mad sword fight, and Tony licks about a million guys, and then he finds out he's the prince and it's real crazy. Wanna go? I've only seen it three or four times.

PHIPPS: As a matter of fact, I just remembered a previous engagement. Sorry.

MISS MCF: That's all right. Thanks for the Philip Morris. 'Bye.

(Exit Miss McFetridge. For a moment Phipps sits in stunned silence, mopping his brow. Then a smile appears on his face. He is a happy man again—out of love. Contentedly he lights up a Philip Morris.)

SJS Presbyterians Will Attend Bible Origin Showing Sunday

All Presbyterian students and faculty members are invited to attend a film on "Our Bible—How It Came to Us," Sunday evening. The showing will begin at 7 o'clock at the First Presbyterian Church, 60 N. 3rd St., according to the Rev. Jim Martin, director of the Student Y and university pastor for Presbyterian students.

This is the second fall quarter activity sponsored for all students and faculty members of Presbyterian preference by the San Jose Westminster Foundation committee.

Produced over a ten year period by the American Bible Society, the film was first released last spring and depicts the history of the writing, transmission, printing and revisions of the Bible from its beginning to the present.

Following the showing of the film, which will run about 90 minutes, Calvin Club, the church college-age group, will serve refreshments.

"This event is for all Presbyterians at SJS, whether or not they are regular members of any college-age youth group or church here in town," the Rev. Martin said.

The 30-man drill team from the military detachment here next will compete against the University of California, Stanford and San Francisco State College at Edwards Field in Berkeley Nov. 30, Anthony Cook, drillmaster, said yesterday.

WHO ARE INDUSTRY'S TOP YOUNG SCIENTISTS ?

Ten men between the ages of 26 and 40 were featured in a recent national magazine article which presented a portrait of the young scientist in America today. These particular men are a sample of the most brilliant young scientific minds in industry.

It's interesting to note that three of the ten are with Bell Telephone Laboratories, three with General Electric and one each with four other companies.

The variety of opportunity in research and other phases of telephone work has always attracted an unusually high percentage of the nation's best young men.

Consult your Placement Officer about opportunities with Bell Laboratories . . . also with the Bell Telephone Companies, Western Electric and Sandia Corporation. Your Placement Officer will be glad to give you details.

THREE OF THE TEN ARE AT BELL TELEPHONE LABORATORIES—

Mathematician Claude Shannon won fame for his Communication Theory

Physical Chemist William Baker introduced new concepts that have improved synthetic rubber and fibers

Physicist Herring is known for his understanding of the quantum mechanics of the solid state

Wrestlers Open Season Against Bears Tonight

Opening the 1954 wrestling season tonight, the Spartan varsity grapplers meet the University of California matmen in the Spartan gym at 8 o'clock.

The Spartans will be led by Dick Francis, Gus Talbot, George Lao, Ken Rugg and Kyoshi Oshiba. The Bears' leading wrestler is Wayne Loucks, 137-pound Pacific Coast Intercollegiate champion last year.

Coach Hugh Mumby has three 137-pounders from whom to choose as opponent for the Cal ace. Leading 137-pounders are Benny Fernandez, Gail Hevie and Bob Rothwell. Ron Stingley, last season's letter winner in the 137-pound division, will not be ready for tonight's encounter with the Berkeley squad.

Another letterman who will not be in tonight's match is Jerry Ruse, 191. Ruse currently is playing football.

Spartans Return Home For Fresno State Game

Bronzan Praises Several SJS Gridders

Spartan football followers will get their first glimpse of the SJS grid machine in action locally since September when the Raiders meet Fresno State College tomorrow night in Spartan Stadium.

The Washington Square pigskinners, victim of an away-from-home schedule, haven't trod the turf of the local stadium since they defeated Utah State, 20-0, in the season opener the weekend before SJS began classes.

Since then the team has hit the trail for encounters with Idaho, California, Arizona State, North Texas State, College of Pacific and Stanford. The trips have resulted in an overall record of five victories and three setbacks.

Coach Bob Bronzan sent his gridders through contact drills last night and came out of the session praising the showing of several players.

Bronzan commented on the improvement of Guard Hank Sekoch, who has moved up to second string behind Tom Louderback from a fifth string berth. Another lineman, Bob Light, has been looking good and has been shifted to right tackle to strengthen that position.

He was pleased with a trio of hardworking halfbacks, Fred Delgadillo, Pat Hiram and Stan Beasley for their break-away running last night.

Center Tom Yagi, who missed the COP clash because of an eye injury, sustained a charley horse but will be ready for tomorrow night's fracas.

Kappa Alpha Beats Sigma Pi in Mud

Undeclared Kappa Alpha picked up its fifth intramural football victory Tuesday afternoon with a 12-6 win over Sigma Pi in an American League game on a muddy field at Roosevelt Junior High School.

Sigma Pi became the first team to score a touchdown on the tough K.A. gridders while suffering its first loss in three games. Kappa Alpha scored three touchdowns on passes. Dick Fey threw 20 yards to Tom Haine and 35 yards to Bill Lamson. Sigma Pi scored on an aerial from George Bowman to Bob Kircher.

The Phi Sigma Kappa-Kappa Tau game in the National League was declared a forfeit to the K.T.s by Referees Lou Gambello and Jon Peterson when the Phi Sigs failed to show up for the contest.

Feud Brewing Among Entries For Gobble Go

Two personal feuds are brewing among the entrants for the annual three-mile Alpha Phi Omega Turkey Trot slated for Tuesday.

Sprinter Jack Albani, who will be given a three-block handicap, declared that he not only expects to win the novice division turkey, trophy and victory kiss from Queen Joan Dalton—but feels he can upset cross-countryman Don Hubbard.

"With my three-block head start over Hubbard, I feel confident that I can win," Albani said.

Another novice entrant, Gene Antone, accepted Albani's challenge. He ran the Spartan cross-country course to condition himself for the grind and in the process finished the run two seconds under Albani's clocking.

The Turkey Trot runners will begin at 4th street, proceed to 7th street, turn left, and go to Spartan Stadium. They will circle the stadium and return by the same route.

A fraternity shuttle relay race will be run between 4th and 7th streets during the middle of the long grind.

P.E. Department Gets Team Cars

Two new 1955 Ford station wagons were delivered to the Men's P.E. Department yesterday for official use, Glenn Hartranft, P.E. director, announced.

The autos will be used to transport Spartan athletic teams to and from games, Hartranft said.

Louderback was declared "Mr. Pass Protector" with eight hits in eight tries, while Hardy copped "Mr. Downfield" honors with 136 points.

Guards Jim Hughes and Stan Galas trailed Louderback with four hits in four attempts apiece, while Tackle Jack Adams had seven for eight and Center Tom Yagi had four for six.
