Valley Trip Reg. Opens Tomorrow

Registration for the West Coast Nature School Death Valley session from Mar. 20 to 26 will begin at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning in Room S-123, according to Miss Jean Hird, session secretary

There is room for 200 students to make the study trip, for which two quarter units credit are given, she said. However, 50 reservations have been specially set aside for science majors and those who have taken the trip before, she explain-

A waiting list will be started as soon as the limit is reached since some of those who register usually can not make the trip.

The new method of registration being used this year calls for students to line up at the 4th street door of the Science building where numbers will be issued. When registration opens, the numbers will be called in consecutive order, thus assuring a first come, first served proceedure, Dr. Gertrude, Cavins, session registrar, explained.

A total instruction fee of $15 must be paid at the time of registration, Dr. Cavins said. It includes the tuition fee of $10 and a registration fee of $5 which is not returnable in event of cancellation. Fees for food will be paid at a later organizational meeting, she said.

While Visions of Shiny New Horns ...

We probably never will do a thing like this again, but here goes a recommendation for rewards for hot air. (Gets bad around here by the end of the week).

We've seen ... or is it heard? ... plenty of that ... commodity in meeting chambers, classrooms and the Coop, but this years is the first that we've heard much of it in the men's gym at basketball and we think it's great.

By now, if you've ever read any Sherlock Holmes at all, you should have deduced that we're sneaking up to praising the pep band and suggesting that they get some kind of remembrance for

Yes, Watson, it's elementary that they've been doing a good job, that both the cheering section and the team like to have lem around at games and that they are getting little or no reward for their services other than a few minutes now and then in the TV spatlight. And even then, they're doing the college a service by displaying SJS spirit to the folks at home.

Probably not too much can be done for them this year, (the Awards Committee is operating on a budget long drawn up) but when the time is ripe. . we hope that the committee and the student body will seriously think it over.

We don't know what would be appropriate . . , pants get so worn and jackets are so common . . but deggone it, there should be SOMETHING! Just as a starter, how bout velvet-bound copies of When the Saints Go Marchin In?

'Living By Sword'

Dear Thrust and Parry, "He that liveth by the sword shall perish by the sword."

With the approaching crisis in Fermosa likely to precipitate a world war and the coming of "Religion-in-Life Week," it would seem proper that some consideration be given to this advice—or warning.

The U. S. is litterally "living by the sword." Sixty per cent of our national budget goes for "defense", with the economic welfare of the nation practically de-

at on this factor. Furth

War provided some of the reasons for the second, which in turn divided the world for a possible third and last war (God forbid).

Television station KOVR filmed Coach Julie Menendez' Thurs morning techniques of teaching toxing class last week. The station will attempt to sell the pilot film to a sponsor, and a regular program could elop out of the transaction.

If the deal goes through, the Spartan boxing team's home meets

WYATT AFTER RECORD

Herm Wyatt, former San Jose State high jumper and now in the army in the East, still is gunning for the world's indoor high jump record which he missed by a quarter of an inch two weeks ago. In training for next year's Olympic Games, Wyatt skipped the 6ft, 10 in. record and tried 6 ft. 11 in. at Philadelphia recently.

Herm related the details and informed Coach Bud Winter of the progress of other Spartans in training for the Olympics in a letter last week.

Herm wrote: "While trying 7 ft. the night I cleared 6-10, all that I needed was a little more confidence and inspiration and seven feet would have been mine, George Mattos (former SJS pole yaulter who participated in the 1852 Olympics and copped the AAU champ-ionship in 1953) told me that if you had been there I would have made seven feet easily; I agreed. All three attempts at seven feet were close—speinly th last two. I actually hit th bar harder at 6-10 than at 7, but I guess my luck held out only until 6-10. Hope to get another chance soon.

In Thursday Event

A preliminary constitution was drafted by the Academic Council at its Thursday afternoon meeting, according to Larry Gildea, council member.

This draft will be presented at Wednesday's scheduled meeting for changes or adoption by the body, he said. "All academic organizations participating in the council should send either their president or other delegate to represent them at this meeting," he was an informal talk by guest delegates sponsored by "Y" groups to visit the United States.

In her talk Miss Coker outlined problems in Africa and pointed out that many of the colorful customs have become lost because of British enforced laws. She stated that a great many foreign customs have caused the decline of culture customs.

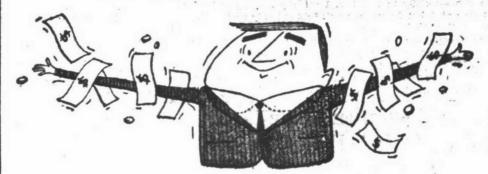

Highlight of the recent meeting, "In past years the African wedof Associated Women Students dings were vivid affairs with many tribal costumes. Nowadays the speaker Miss Miranda Coker of prospective brides have disgarded West Africa, who is one of the 15 their distinctive costumes in favor of wedding gowns," Miss Coker related.

"Since the coming of moving population, culture and language pictures to our country there has been a definite rise in juvenile delinquency. The adolescents learn from watching. Favorite movies are the westerns, and it is impossible for an adult to get a seat when a new western opens in town."

WE LOVE MONEY!

It's so crisp, so green, so useful.

The truth is out! We're not in business for our health. We're trying to fleece you. That's why we charge so much. For instance:

$1 for Phoenix Dacron socks

$3.95 for genuine Arrow white shirts

$13.45 for 100% wool flamel slacks tailored to perfection

$50 for an allwool charcoal flannel suit that won't last over 10 years.

What! You say that's not expensive? You know, you could be right!
