

FROM THE RIDICULOUS...

These are just a sampling of the "gams" on display this week for the annual "Gorgeous Gams" contest, sponsored by the Senior Class. Pennies deposited in jars in the Outer and Library Quads will count as votes. The winner will be announced at the after-game dance, Saturday night.

Past Prexy To Talk To Hillel Foundation

Frank Brann, attorney and past president of B'nai B'rith, will speak on "The UN Declaration of Human Rights" today at 3:30 p.m. in the lecture hall of the new Science Building.

The lecture will highlight the week-long campus observance of UN Day, which is sponsored by the International Relations Club.

Later in the day, SJS foreign students will be honored at a dinner to be attended by IRC and ISO members and sponsored by the Santa Clara Chapter of the American Assn. for the United Nations.

Engineering Profs To Tour Atomic Plant

The role SJS will play in the training of atomic engineers may be determined today.

A group of state, industrial, and college officials will tour the General Electric Atomic Energy Plant in Vallecitos today from 10:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. to consider atomic reactors that may be authorized for instructional use in state colleges, according to Norman O. Gunderson, Engineering Department head.

State officials later will make a report to the State Legislature, which will be asked to consider appropriation of funds for a nuclear reactor facility at SJS in the proposed 1958-59 State Budget.

If authorized, a nuclear reactor facility would be included in new SJS engineering building plans and would be completed by 1962.

Although the request for the project was made about a year ago, Gunderson said, "tentative acceptance" was received recently. The facility would be used for the training of atomic engineers.

"With the rapidly increasing uses of atomic energy, it is important that student engineers become acquainted with reactors and the many uses of atomic energy," Gunderson said, noting that 100,000 people in the United States are employed in atomic fields ranging from medicine to missiles.

Assemblyman Bruce Allen of Santa Clara County also will take part in the tour. Representing the college will be Executive Dean C. Grant Burton; Angelo C. Centanni, assistant to Dean Burton; Dr. Fred F. Harclerod, dean of the college; E. S. Thompson, business manager; Glen E. Guttormsen, accounting officer; and Dr. Benjamin F. Naylor, Chemistry Department head.

Bats in the Belfry Bother Habitués of Reserve Room

By BARBARA HARTMAN

The Reserve Book Room was no place to study Tuesday night. Heads swiveled on their sockets and giggles came from all parts of the room. The loudest of these originated in the librarians' corner. What was the cause of this undignified disturbance? Was it a fat girl in bulging Bermudas or a slim chick in sleek slacks?

No. It was a refugee from the Science Department. A very lively bat was busily dive-bombing the area.

CNPA Delegates Meet Tomorrow For Ad Seminar

Dr. Dwight Bentel, head of Journalism and Advertising Department, will greet the expected 75 delegates to the California Newspaper Publishers Assn. advertising seminar to be held Friday and Saturday at San Jose State.

Registration will begin at 8:30 a.m. Friday in Newman Hall, 79 S. 5th St. The fee, $8 per person, is to cover cost of the seminar.

A. W. Bramwell, publisher of the Chico Enterprise-Record, will also present a welcome address.

Friday morning lectures and round table discussions will pertain to salesmanship and selling problems. Topics for afternoon sessions will be copy and layout and production.

Markets and planning for the customer will be items for Saturday's seminar discussions.

President Speaks To SJS Patrons

President John T. Wahlquist, Dr. Elizabeth Greenleaf, associate dean of students, Don Ryan, ASB president and Jeannie Oakleaf, AWS president, addressed the SJS Patrons at their first meeting of the year yesterday.

President Wahlquist reported on the latest developments in the school's academic and building programs. Dr. Greenleaf outlined her plans for the year, and Ryan and Miss Oakleaf discussed student activities.

One of the male occupants was asked to try to catch the misplaced mammal. Did you ever try to catch an animated bat in a box? Did you ever hear the expression, like a bat out of —? Well, that's how it was going!

When last seen, the bat still had the librarians baffled. It disappeared in the book stacks and people were busy stooping and peering amongst the shelves.

All that can be said is that the reserve book room must not be getting enough use lately, if the bats have taken over!

A Thrill-A Bill?

WASHINGTON — (UP) — A taxicab driver, when directed to drive to the military air terminal here yesterday morning asked his passenger, "Going to meet Old Mac?"

His passenger, a United Press reporter, replied that if the driver was referring to British Prime Minister Harold MacMillan, the answer was yes.

A few moments of silence, then this observation came from the front seat:

"They sent us the Queen to give us a thrill; now comes MacMillan to bring us the bill."

'OPEN' MEET FLOPS

Council OKs Peace Probe, Asks Rally Committee Aid

By RAY BARCH

The Student Council, meeting in near-vacant Morris Dailey Auditorium, yesterday authorized President Don Ryan to investigate the possibility of a peace pact with Fresno State college, gave a vote of confidence to the Rally Committee and tabled until next week the proposed revision of by-laws of the Awards Committee.

The auditorium, peopled by four spectators, marked the "open" council meeting a spectacular flop. The meeting had been set up to give students a first-hand view of the workings of student government.

His voice echoing in the chamber, Ryan observed that rainy weather, a flu outbreak, sorority rushing—and lack of publicity—had thwarted a turnout.

The peace bid came in the form of a letter from the ASB president of Fresno, Ryan said. Vandalism, reportedly from Cal Poly, painted Fresno buildings and sidewalks following Saturday's Fresno-Cal Poly game, causing some $1200 damage.

Ryan suggested that the council investigate signing pacts with football opponents in the San Jose vicinity. A pact has already been negotiated with College of Pacific and will be signed prior to the Nov. 9 Homecoming game.

Council support of the Rally Committee came at the request of Mickey Simonet, committee chairman, who urged a confidence vote for the committee's segregation order in football rooting sections.

Miss Simonet told the council that the committee advocated "wear white" in the rooting section for the two remaining Spartan home games.

Ryan commended the committee for its work in trying to build school spirit and urged student cooperation and participation in the rally programs.

A surprise feature for Homecoming was hinted at by the Rally leader, who told the council that an unnamed female celebrity was being sought. Miss Simonet said the committee hoped to furnish a male escort for the festivities.

The council voted to table proposed revision of by-laws of the Awards Committee to permit it to meet in executive session Monday with Larry Lack, committee chairman pro tem.

The council seeks authorization which will give it power to name the committee chairman, a power it has with other ASB subcommittees.

The change will decrease membership of the committee and will give faculty representatives a vote.

Dale Scott, student public relations director, told the council that Sparta Key, student directory, will be published this week and should go on sale Nov. 8, at 50 cents a copy.

In other matters, the council tabled the request for recognition of Alpha Eta Sigma, English department honorary society, until the organization presents a list of charter members as required by the ASB constitution.

referred to the Student Court the proposed Constitution of the Class of 1960. The council requested a decision on whether the class also was required to list its members.

Intermittent Wet

Intermittent rain is the weatherman's prediction for Santa Clara Valley residents today. The forecaster foresees little change in temperature, with a high between 64 and 70 degrees, and southerly winds ranging between 15 and 25 miles an hour.

Gams Drive Nets $9.73, DSP Leads

A total of $9.73 was collected yesterday in the Gorgeous Gams contest, sponsored by the Senior Class, according to Jan Bruderer, contest chairman.

Mike Colby, sponsored by Delta Sigma Phi, was ahead at the end of the first day of voting, with $3.59. He was followed by Jack Sidlow, Alpha Phi Omega, who had $1.27.

Other candidates, their sponsoring organizations and totals are as follows: Ron Robinson, Kappa Delta, 31 cents; Leigh Weimers, Sigma Chi, 88 cents; Jack Norton, Halls of Ivy, 70 cents; Pat Maloney, Kappa Kappa Gamma, 31 cents; Bruce O'Neil, Marimur Hall, 42 cents; John Webb, Delta Gamma, seven cents; Bob Daggett, Alpha Omicron Pi, 87 cents.

Keith Ferris, Phi Sigma Kappa, 4 cents; Ted Terzakis, Kappa Alpha Theta, 26 cents; Bob Richards, Ivy Hall, 12 cents; Lee Howard, Sigma Kappa, 13 cents; Wayne Montgomery, Phi Mu, 76 cents; Charlie Bratton, Kappa Alpha, nothing.

The contest will last through Friday. Saturday night the Senior Class will sponsor a Gorgeous Gams Dance, in the Women's Gym, after the North Texas State football game.

Brownell Resigns

WASHINGTON — (UP) — The White House yesterday announced the resignation of Attorney General Herbert Brownell Jr.

Wife of Sociology Prof Gets Polio on Expedition

By ANTHONY TARAVELLA

Life in the tropics is not as romantic as Hollywood pictures it, and Dr. Joseph A. Hester, assistant professor of sociology, can attest to that fact. Dr. Hester and his wife, Evelyn, endured hardships greater than those caused by climatic conditions while on an archeological expedition in the jungle area of Central America this summer. Mrs. Hester came down with polio.

Conditions in the tropics made digging operations more difficult because vegetation grows as much as a foot a week. Insect control goes on constantly. "There is more work trying to live comfortably there than on any rugged camping trip in the U.S.," Dr. Hester declared. Scorpions are always a hazard, although they are not deadly.

Sanitation is poor in the tropics, and it is especially bad in the region where the scientists were doing their work. Dr. Hester suspects that his wife contracted the polio virus through something she ate at the supper table at the excavation site. "Everyone there got sick," he said.

Dr. Hester believes that polio is prevalent among most of the Indian children in Mexico up to the age of three, but that they all overcome the disease through some kind of immunity that has been built up over a period of time. "Nowhere in Mexico did I see an Indian who

Freshmen Will Stage Skit at Rally Tonight

"Who's Got the Sword?" freshman skit, will highlight tonight's rally scheduled for 7:30 p.m. in Morris Dailey Auditorium.

Tonight's Freshman Class presentation will inaugurate a campus tradition, since the class will prepare a similar skit for all future rallies, according to Jack Clarke, entertainment chairman of Rally Committee.

Featured performer will be Paul Thompson, who sings calypso and popular music at the Kerosene Club, local night spot, on Wednesday and Saturday evenings, Clarke said.

The Bill Canihan Combo will play. Louise Haydock will sing, and a singing-comedy act is planned by Sally and Cindy. "The Shaw Twins."

Clarke added that Mary Ellen Geimer, who performs at home games of the San Francisco '49ers, professional football team, will present a baton act.

Bob Daggett is scheduled to emcee.

Fashion Show Introduces Contestants

Students who watched 22 of the 30 Homecoming queen candidates model in the fashion show yesterday at 1:30 p.m. in Morris Dailey Auditorium have seen the Homecoming Queen and her four princesses.

The identity of the five winners is still unknown since they will be chosen later by a panel of judges.

Eight contestants were unable to appear in the fashion show due to the flu.

Today an election is being held in which everyone may vote for ten Homecoming queen finalists. Pictures of the 30 candidates are posted in front of the Morris Dailey Auditorium.

Contestants for this year's queen and their sponsoring organizations include: Jane Amsden, Chi Omega; Joyce Armfield, Alpha Phi Omega; Mary Lou Benson, Newman Club and Catholic Women's Center.

Florence Marie Bianco, El Circulo Castellano; Carole Bill, Phi Sigma Kappa; Rhea Neil Chase, Alpha Tau Omega; Diane Dawson, Alpha Phi; Dianne Dober, Delta Gamma.

Anne Dowrick, Independent Housing and Tranquil Manor; Mary Elliskovich, Lambda Chi Alpha; Shirley Ewen, Sigma Kappa; Dorothy Fairburn, Kappa Alpha Theta; Patti Fischle, Sigma Chi.

Margaret Gemmill, Melody Hall; Judy Hanson, Kappa Tau; Margie Jackson, Alpha Chi Omega; Marilyn Jones, Delta Sigma Phi; Mitzl Kirk, Gamma Phi Beta; Gabi Lasser, I.S.O.; Marcia Malatesta, Pi Kappa Alpha.

Linda Montgomery, Sigma Nu; Beverly Nally, Theta Xi; Betsy O'Gara, Chi Pi Sigma; Shirley Ann Reith, Phi Mu; Chris Richards, Alpha Omicron Pi; Carol Sandell, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Carol Simararian, Kappa Deltas; Patty Slayton, Kappa Phi; Sylvia Somers, Delta Gamma; and Claire Wellenkamp, 184 Club.

The play stars Ivan Paulsen and Gail Anderson in the lead roles. Miss Elizabeth Loeffler is the director.

Viet Nam Leader Accuses Reds

SAIGON — (UP) — A communique issued today by President Ngo Dinh Diem blamed communists for the bombing of U.S. buildings and vehicles Tuesday in which 13 Americans were injured.

Play Ticket Sales 'Extremely Heavy'

"Extremely heavy" ticket sales for the final performances of "Man and Superman" on Thursday, Friday and Saturday have been reported by the College Theatre box office.

The play stars Ivan Paulsen and Gail Anderson in the lead roles. Miss Elizabeth Loeffler is the director.

SAN JOSE STATE COLLEGE

Editorial

The Cold War

We hope that, at long last, you are becoming philosophical about Asian flu. In fact, this is about all that can be done about it.

Throughout the nation, more than one million persons have been visited by the virus. It has spared no region or sector in its travels, San Jose State included.

Since the start of school, approximately 850 of you have staggered to the Health Office for treatment of "respiratory infections and conditions classified as 'possibly flu-like'."

But don't go looking for an epidemic to strike, accompanied by mass vaccinations, face masks, and inhalers. We say this because it won't happen. Or if it does, you won't know it anyway.

The word epidemic is a doubtful one. Using purely subjective judgments, an individual in a position of command could declare an epidemic today.

However, people aren't giving out Asian flu vaccine in large quantities or at low cost. To send out the epidemic cry would swamp health facilities with hordes of worried little people, all asking for protection. You can easily imagine the hassle that would result.

So, we again ask you to sit back and try to weather the plague philosophically. Cough quietly to yourself. Try not to notice the people around you, all wheezing and gasping, choking and collapsing.

There will not be an epidemic. Period. This cold business is all in your head.

Iraqi Bachelor Goes 'Searchin'

By DON STEVENS

Faleh Sayid-Hatim is one of the very few students now attending San Jose State who may one day have four wives—all at the same time. So it is only natural that the question most frequently asked of him is, "How many wives do you have now?"

But Faleh, a student in the Engineering Department, is quick to explain, to the disappointment of his eager questioners, that, in spite of his religion and the customs of his country, he is still a bachelor.

Faleh, who came to SJS from Mosul, Iraq, also is a Moslem. The Moslem Religion permits a man to have four wives.

And chances are that Faleh, who certainly could not be called a confirmed bachelor, may some day go for broke.

SEARCHERS

"I have been running all my life in search of wife number one," he said. "I just haven't been able to catch her yet."

His observation on the courtship and marriage process in this country is that "people try to make it too complicated."

His advice for the unmarried American male is, "Don't be too fussy. Get married as soon as you have a chance."

Faleh, who rose to the rank of captain while serving 10 years as a fighter pilot in his country's air force, decided to come to the United States after he crashed his third plane. He joined when he was 16 years old.

As a result of injuries suffered in the third crash, he was given a medical discharge and a partial disability pension. This enabled him to come to California in search of higher education.

FRIENDS RIGHT

"At first," he said, "I thought I would go to Missouri. But then I got to know several Americans in Iraq. They suggested I come to California. They said I would like it here. They were right."

While here, Faleh hopes to do as much as possible to correct some of the erroneous ideas Americans have regarding the Moslem Religion.

He explains that a Moslem believes in one God, the prophets, the Old and New Testaments, the Koran and a second world.

A Moslem prays five times a day, nearly five minutes each time. Before praying he washes his mouth, nose, face, hands, arms and feet.

The times for praying are before the sun rises, at noon, between noon and sunset, at sunset, and an hour and a half after sunset.

The Moslem must fast once a year in order to give his stomach a rest and to remember those who are so poverty stricken that they cannot afford to eat as they should.

PILGRIMAGE TO MECCA

Every Moslem who can afford it should make a pilgrimage to Mecca and Medina.

The laws of the State and of the Moslem Religion, which are the same, state that a man may have four wives but that he must not discriminate between them. "But it is very seldom that you can find more than one wife," Faleh added.

A Moslem may divorce his wife if she fails to provide him with an heir.

"I know quite a few women," Faleh said, "who started looking for other wives for their husbands when they discovered they were sterile."

A Moslem may charge no interest when he lends money.

"Above all," Faleh emphasized, "a Moslem must live with love and brotherhood and understanding. There should be no hostility between people of different faiths. We are all striving to accomplish God's will."

Now a senior, Faleh plans to work in the United States for about a year after he is graduated. Then he will go back home, where three brothers and four sisters will be waiting to greet him.

"My father died two years ago," he explained, "and my family needs my help."

"But one day I will return to the United States, my second home."

Matter of Opinion

By JIM DRENNAN

The old British lion is used to having his tail twisted; Khrushchev, Nasser and Hussein all have gotten away with it.

But where the old boy's enemies have left off, his friends have taken up. A recent issue of a magazine not known as a member of the anti-British set posed the rhetorical question, "Has Britain lost her greatness?" It then went on to show that indeed she has.

Has Britain lost her greatness? From a purely practical standpoint, yes. The once almighty British navy now is fighting desperately for third place in the world. The tight little island is a sitting duck for Red missiles. The once-great British Empire has shrunk to a mere shadow of its former self.

In material assets, thus, Britain definitely has declined. But the greatness of a nation cannot be measured in material terms alone.

Britain has lost her empire, but has replaced it with a commonwealth of free nations, giving self-government and education to many peoples who, before British rule, were burdened with extreme poverty and ignorance. Britain's material wealth has declined, but her ideals of freedom, of human rights and of the dignity of the individual will live as long as men enjoy or hope to enjoy the benefits of these ideals.

We wonder if the heritage of her enemies will be as long remembered and beloved.

 Offensive Guns
 For Eagle Tilt

By RANDIE E. POE

RABBIT

Hopeful SJS waxed its offensive cannon yesterday, priming for Saturday night's grid tiff with North Texas State. Kickoff time is 8 p.m.

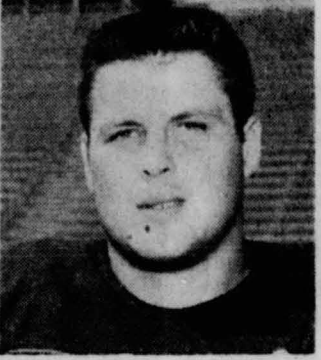

Line coach Marty Feldman disclosed that "our blocking as a whole is very much improved, especially at ends. Jim Moore, Dan Colchico and Al Conley all turned in good jobs last week."

North Texas has dropped four of its five outings thus far but its foes lost just once during the initial four weeks of the season.

Tulsa Coach Bobby Dodd, who is supplying SJS with scouting tips on NTS, warned that "they're big and mean and just outroughed us last week." The Eagles tripped Tulsa, 14-12, in a game which wasn't as tight as the score might suggest.

HUNTER

Abner Hayes (top), North Texas State's Jackrabbit halfback, hopes to outspeed Spartan tackle Bill Atkins and other SJS linemen (above) in Saturday night's 8 o'clock tiff at Spartan Stadium. Hayes, who has rolled up 256 rushing yards this year, will be a hunted man.

THIRD MEETING

Saturday's battle will mark the third get-together for SJS and NTS. In 1954 the Spartans captured a 27-20 victory at Denton; in '53 the teams grappled to a 13-13 standoff.

The contest will count as a Missouri Valley Conference league game for the Eagles. NTS and Cincinnati are brand-new members of the MVC this season.

GRAY FOR TACKLE

Feldman believes North Texas has "the best college tackle I've seen this year" in Edgar Gray, a 235-pounder who must feel that bones are for crushing.

Negro halfback Abner Hayes and 205-lb. fullback Bill Groce are the Texans' big ground horses, with Ray Toole handling the quarterback post.

Three Spartans are still on the gimpy list. Tackle Nick Sanger has a sprained knee and is a doubtful participant Saturday. Center Ron Earl, with a dislocated wrist, also is questionable, and quarterback Mike Jones, out for three weeks with an injured leg, might remain in sick bay for another week.

Water Polo Action

San Jose State's varsity and frosh water polo teams resume action this afternoon, with both tilts scheduled away from the local campus. The varsity travels to Stockton to meet College of Pacific, while the Spartababes tackle Sunnyvale High in the latter's pool. Both games start at 3:30 p.m.

Tracksters
 Duel UCLA,
 Cal, Indians

Led by the durable one, Wes Bond, San Jose's cross-country track team journeys to the farm at Stanford Saturday for its first real test of the year. Starting time: 10 a.m.

It was believed that the Spartans would receive this test last Friday, but SJS's tracksters had absolutely no trouble at all whipping SF State 50-15, as the Golden raiders finished the first 15 men before SF State could finish one.

On Saturday, it will be the blue shirts—the men with the best times—who will compete in the varsity event, with the rest of the squad running junior varsity.

Varsity men are Wes Bond, Jerry Des Roches, Sam Holt, Carl Maloney, Bill Morgan, Ken Napier, Grady Neal, Carlos Saldivar, Bob Tafuya, and Mike Yeager.

As to the competition, SJS will meet UCLA, Stanford, and the Cal Bears. UCLA has four meets under its belt, and according to Winter, should be favored. In addition, Stanford beat Cal last week, but by a close margin. Where the Spartans fit in the picture proves a big question, but Saturday's meet should produce an answer.

Other men scheduled to participate for SJS: Chuck Belcher, L. D. Bennett, Fred Druet, Ralph Dykes, Rolf Godon, Ron Gross, Ed Kelley, Larry Lack, Don Lee, Richard McDonell, Curt Mehlhaffi, John Nelson, Louis Rodriguez, and Dan Torres.

1957 Cross Country Schedule:
 Oct. 26—Stanford, UCLA, Cal at Stanford, 10 a.m.
 Nov. 1—Stanford at Stanford, 4 p.m.
 Nov. 9—Cal at Berkeley, 11 a.m.
 Nov. 15—All-comers at SJ, 4 p.m.
 Nov. 26—Turkey Trot at SJ, 12 noon.
