Attention Students; It Is Your Duty To Vote for Your Student Body Officers

Students, hear ye! Student Body elections are upon us once more. As members of the government of San Jose State we have voting privileges. It is up to us to use them. If in your mind, the wrong candidate gets the office it is partly your fault—if you don't vote. If you do vote, don't cast your ballot for a candidate because your "pal" says,

Development Corporation Working on Plans for Stadium

The San Jose State College Development Corporation is still holding regular meetings with the hope that a stadium might yet be constructed for the next football season, despite the difficulty in securing the money deposited with two local building and loan associations by the Student Body.

The board, composed of Mr. H. F. Minssen, chairman, Mr. N. O. Thomas, Dr. P. V. Petersen, Mr. H. C. McDonald, John L. Horning, and Leon Warmke, president and vice president, respectively, of the Student Body, was first constituted about six weeks ago to execute the plans formulated by the members for a new $27,000 stadium to be erected in time for the 1932 football season.

The Student Body Association has $21,000 invested in two local building and loan associations, $12,000 in the California Mutual and $9,000 in the San Jose Pacific.

When hope of getting any sizable amount to make the letting of bids possible was about dissipated, Mr. Crothers of the California Mutual implied that there still existed a possibility of securing the funds.

Consequently the stadium board has proceeded with its plans, which envisage the letting of contracts to college people for the most part.

A man from the Industrial Arts department may get the engineering job, while the excavation work may also go to a person connected with the college.

If it should be impossible to have the stadium constructed in time for next football season, the board will nevertheless continue its efforts and erect a new grid-iron as soon as conditions permit.

Stylization Features Players Production of Wilde's Comedy

"IMPORTANCE OF BEING EARNEST" PRESENTED JUNE 2 AND 3

San Jose Players are presenting Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being Earnest" on June 2 and 3, with a stylization that promises to be the most effective staging used by Players this year.

By the intricate use of stylized black, green, and silver screens, Players are achieving a touch of unreality that is so necessary for the effectiveness of the satire used in Wilde's comedy.

This stylization is also carried out in the action which establishes the characters as to position in the plot of mistaken identity, and adds to ridiculousness of the situation.

Yaney Williams and Bob Stefens, veteran comedians, are to be seen in the roles of John and Algernon, the would-be Ernests, and in character, voice, and carriage they are direct opposites.

Playing opposite these will be Marie Anderson and Edna Wolford—one sophisticated and the other naive and innocent.

Ruth Montgomery, president of San Jose Players, is to be seen in the comedy lead of the play, Miss Prism. Ruth is remembered for her role of Mrs. Montgomery in "Cock Robin", and this role surpasses the first in possibilities.

Dick Sanders, who has been seen in "House Party," and "Romeo and Juliet," will be seen as Doctor Chasuble, the clerical "womanthrop."

Louise Mee Isohn in her first role for San Jose Players is creating the role of Lady Bracknell a character that will undoubtedly establish her as Players leading comedienne.

Other prominent Players in the cast are: Jim Fitzgerald, and Alfred Dunn.

Tickets for the production may be reserved in Players' club room.

An excellent opportunity for some first rate apple polishing is afforded education students by Miss Elsie Toles' request for volunteers to furnish transportation to Belmont on the night of June 2, when students in the rural education classes will participate in the graduation program at the elementary school there.

Those wishing to take advantage of this opportunity are advised to see Miss Toles at once.

Spartan Glee Club Gives Annual Concert on June 1

Keeping up their custom of giving an annual concert, the Spartan Glee Club will appear in the Morris Dailey auditorium on the evening of June 1, at 8:30, when they will give the cantata, "The Vision of Sir Launfal," by Cadman.

This concert, which will be the ninth annual one, will be free to the public, though the Music department is going to a good deal of expense to prepare the program. The club will be accompanied by a piano and organ. The organ for the evening will be brought down from San Francisco, and it is the belief of Mr. Matthews, who is in charge of the glee club, that the concert will be greatly helped by this instrument. Mr. Matthews' fine work with the glee club in previous concerts will be remembered by those who have had the pleasure of hearing them.

Although the concert is free to the public, special reserved seat tickets may be had from any member of the glee club, or by calling at Mr. Matthews' office.

NOTICE

There will be a meeting of the English Club on Thursday at 10:30 in Room 3 of the Home-Making Building. All members are urged to attend.

DO-X Returns from a Trip to South America

The German flying boat DO-X, largest heavier-than-air craft, completed its transatlantic travels of almost two years with a mad spurt through storm areas over Mueggel Lake, on the outskirts of Berlin, without incident.

Thousands gathered along the wooded lake shores in the southeastern environs of Berlin cheered wildly when the airliner appeared against the evening sky to complete a voyage of approximately 16,000 miles, in which it visited both South and North America, as well as Africa.

The smartly dressed Fraulein Antonia Strassman, who as one of the DO-X crew was the first European woman to cross the Atlantic by plane, was enraptured by the experience.

In the excitement of meeting her parents and the reception which took place on a small excursion steamer she did not forget to pay tribute to Mrs. Amelia Earhart Putnam for the latter's flight from Newfoundland to northern Ireland, started the day before the DO-X left Newfoundland.

Bel Canto Director

Miss Alma Lowry Williams, director of Bel Canto, which gave its seventh annual concert last evening, will present the introductions to selections presented by the group over Station KQW on San Jose State College's sixth of a series of radio programs sponsored by local merchants.

Bel Canto Seventh Annual Concert Is Given in Memory of George Washington

Honoring the bicentennial of George Washington, father of his country, and Franz Joseph Haydn, father of the symphony, the Bel Canto Club of the San Jose State College appeared last evening in their seventh annual concert. Doris Kinne, violinist, and Stephen Merrill, tenor, were the soloists. Elda Frederickson was accompanist for the Bel Canto numbers.

The program opened with a group of folksongs, "Twenty, Eighteen," from the English, a Russian number, "Dark Eyes," a Swedish one, "When I Was Seventeen," and an Irish one, "Follow Me Down to Carlow," all delightfully given.

Novelty Numbers

Miss Kinne proved herself an artist of no little ability in her numbers. Beethoven's Turkish March from "The Ruins of Athens," the Allegro from the "Symphonie Espagnole" by Lalo, and Musin's "Mazurka de Concert" were her selections, showing varied moods and all sympathetically interpreted. Emily Schwartz was her accompanist.

The second group by the Bel Canto Club opened with Chadwick's "Miss Nancy's Gown," which was given a pleasing visual expression by a minuet danced by Eileen Summers, Margaret Nelson, Daina Stidham, Pauline Luther, Alta Miller, Margaret Furlong, Lois Hill, and Margaret Davenport. The Haydn "Toy Symphony," a novelty number, was also greatly enjoyed. Francella Joy and Maudine Zander carried the violin part; Lois Webber the violoncello; Marye Bantam, the bass viol; Elda Frederickson, piano; Alice Regli, nightingale; Antoinette Botelho, cuckoo; Marie Mothorn, quail; Dorothy Loretz, triangle; Gladys Rood, trumpet; Audrey Colby, drum; and Floriene Goldeen, rattle.

Merrill Scores

Stephen Merrill's numbers were "Tes Yeux," by Rabey and "La Reve" from "Manon," by Massenet. Both numbers were so enthusiastically received that he responded with an encore, "God Touched the Rose" (Brown), to which Miss Kine played a violin obligato. In response to the insistent applause he gave a second encore, "A Brown Bird Singing" (Wood). Marjorie Johns was accompanist.

"The Pool of Quietness" (Cator) "Romance" (Debussy), and "The Butterfly" (Jenins), comprised the next group by the Bel Canto club, and the final selection by the club was "Maid of the Mist" by Gadman, with Stephen Merrill as soloist and Miss Johns playing the accompaniment.

Alma Lowry Williams, founder and director of the Bel Canto club, conducted the ensemble numbers. The girls presented a charming stage picture for their numbers, in their sheer gowns of pastel shades.

State Professors Publish New Sight Singing Examination

STANFORD WILL RELEASE BOOK DURING MONTH

A Sight Singing Test, written by Adolf Otterstein, head of the Music department, and Dr. Raymond Mosher, to be used for prognostication purposes in the music department, has just been accepted for publication by the Stanford Press, and will be out sometime next month.

Otterstein and Mosher are almost unique in writing this test in that very few like tests have ever been published, and none at all have been written recently.

It will be used in high schools and colleges to determine whether people who intend to teach are really capable of teaching singing.

Baseball Team Unable To Go Out for the Intra-Murals

There has been a new policy introduced into intra-mural sports this year, that of barring the men who play on the varsity teams from playing on the intra-mural teams. This is a good idea because it keeps the men who are good in a sport from all getting on the same team and monopolizing the league. The baseball men who survived the first cut are all barred from the intra-mural league. They are as follows:

Gilbert Bishop, Steve Casaleglio, Frank Covello, Hal De Fraga, Carroll De Selle, Erwin De Selle, Sam Filice, Harry Hardiman, Richard Hughes, Frances Pura, Leland Russell, Dario Simon, Joe Langatgne, Rogers Thurber, Fred Turner, Arvey Hurst, John Hurst, Bart Concannon, Cecil George, Milton Gates, Breck Reed, J. Toucher, Humpbert and Dave Arthur.

Further particulars about the baseball league are that the committee composed of Hal De Fraga, Ted Henderson, Bob Elliott, and Charles Walker will settle all arguments on the spot which they occur.

The official rules books will be the play ground rules book, a copy of which is in the possession of Coach Walker. A few of the major changes are as follows:

The baselines are 45 feet. The pitcher's box is 35 feet back and the pitcher must pitch underhand. The ball is to be a 12 in. regulation playground ball. A runner cannot leave the base until the ball leaves the pitcher's hand. A batter cannot bunt—penalty man is out. A man cannot score on a passed ball. The games are to run 7 innings. The bat to be used is a smaller one than is used in hard ball. A team is composed of 10 men, but if 8 men are present the game can start.

The umpires for the league are to be Pura and the De Selle brothers.

Judge Lubowski Sits on Case of Accused Murderess

DEFENSE ATTORNEY GIVES PASSIONATE PLEA FOR GIRL

This morning at eight o'clock Judge Lubowski's court convened in one of the most spectacular murder cases on record. Charges were brought against Barbara Topham by States Attorney Helen Silva for the murder of Mitchevo Posemuckel in the latter's apartment on the evening of April 25.

Incriminating evidence held by Posemuckel against Miss Topham is believed to have been the motive for the latter entering the apartment of Posemuckel. Negotiations for the desired evidence failed and Miss Topham used violence in obtaining the information.

Evidence Given

According to Fred Wilson, elevator boy at Posemuckel's apartment house, Miss Topham entered the apartment at 10 o'clock on the evening of the 25th and had not left when he went off duty at midnight.

At that time Miss Topham was clad in a scarlet evening gown, wearing a white fur evening wrap. She wore also diamond ear-rings and necklace, which indicated that she had come from or was intending to attend a social function of some prominence on the evening of the murder.

Defense Work

Attorney for the defense, Bob Leland, brought a surprise attack in his evidence this morning, defending the motive that instigated the act.

Jury service for the trial was vested in Elizabeth Scott, Mary Helen Mills, Warren Patton, George Praisewater, Katherine McNally, Frank Sakata, Bernard Sweet, Fuji Okomoto, Ruth Jones, Alice Thompson, Frances Warwarorsky. Alternate member of the jury was John Bourret.

The trial was presented before a packed court room and promises to cumulate in a sweeping finale tomorrow.

Sociology Class Gets Sudden Holiday

Swimmers Hold a Return Meet With Menlo J. C. Mermen

HIGUCHI LEADS ENTRANTS IN THE DIVING EXHIBITION

Today at four o'clock, the San Jose State swimming team will hold a return meet with Menlo J. C., the peninsular school acting as host. Remembering the first clash, which Menlo won, the Spartans will endeavor to even the score at one all, and at the same time place State in the select swimming circles.

Many of the fellows went into the first intercollegiate match last week, and being inexperienced, did not show their true form. Today, feeling better with their first meet a thing of the past, Coach Walker's men are out to duplicate the fast times turned in during last week's practice.

State's fancy diving entries will be Higuchi and Mahaffey. Higuchi is reliable, and will give his usual performance. Mahaffey is expected to make a good showing on the one-meter board, his speciality.

In Draper, State has a sure point winner in the 220-yard dash and the 75-yard medley. Lynn is constantly improving his time in the medley, and the battle may be between him and Draper.

Scotfield should better his back stroke time today; as also should Bonnickson. These two boys may account for a number of points this afternoon.

The 100-yard free style event should see Plat and Stromquist among the leaders. Both are lowering their practice times. Rankin is also expected to prove dangerous to Menlo's chances.

Walker is expecting two new men out for the squad. One is Floyd Stewart, former San Jose High swimmer. Both are expected to strengthen the team.

State is due for some strong competition today, as only last

Georgia Women Horseback Riders Are Unique

A recent news dispatch quoted Georgia as probably the only school in the south where women students enjoy horseback riding as recreation and at the same time get credit toward their degrees for doing it. And they have been doing it, as part of the regular physical education curriculum, for the past two years at the University of Georgia.

Maybe Georgia is the only school in the south boasting this innovation, but San Jose State wishes to assert itself by announcing that horseback riding has been in the physical education curriculum of this institution for three years. San Jose High also boasts horseback riding classes and has for over a year.

The next step for the fair equestriennes might be the organization of polo teams and play-off matches between the high school and the college. Who knows? Anyway, it's an idea.

Los Gatos High Places First in Fiesta Meet

Completely outclassing five other rivals, the Los Gatos high school track team easily won the Santa Clara Valley league unlimited championship held at Spartan Field last Friday in conjunction with the Fiesta Olympics.

Scoring 51 points, Los Gatos led Mountain View, who followed in second place with 35. Fremont's 27½ points easily captured third place from Santa Clara, who finished fourth with 19. Live Oak and Campbell trailed with 7½ and 3 respectively.

Coach Douglas Helm's men came through with a surprise victory, as Mountain View was favored to take the meet. Herb Wells, Wildcat distance ace, performed as expected, and set up a new record of 4:51.3 for the mile. A strong wind probably prevented other records from falling.

In spite of the unfavorable week Menlo placed second in the Junior College championships at Sacramento, being nosed out for first place by the powerful Sacramento squad.

The Physical Education department is endeavoring to book several meets for the remainder of the quarter. If the department succeeds, State students may again see the squad in action in our pool this spring.

Countryman Gives Promise for Good Team Next Year

MANY VETERANS LEAVING BECAUSE OF THEIR GRADUATION

Although it is rather early to speculate on the prospects of State's casaba tossers next year, if one is to judge by the material which will be returning the prospects look pretty good.

Norman Countryman, who will be next year's captain, seems to think that State will have just as good a team as last year, if not better. The team will lose the services of Goodell, Olson, Laznibat, and Kalas. Those who saw some of last year's games will remember how much these four men figured in San Jose State's victories.

Goodell has made basketball history in San Jose and he will be remembered for many years to come for his famous one-hand shots which pulled more than one game out of a hole.

Olsen only played one year for San Jose. He was a transfer from Modesto, but he will be remembered for his fighting spirit and dead-eye ability.

Laznibat played for three years. Last year he teamed with the famous Kerchen and this year he teamed with Kalas. John is a husky lad and he has a smooth way of handling a basketball which deceives people into thinking he is slow, but ask some of the forwards that he stopped this year.

Last, but not least, we have Kalas, who was this year's captain. Kalas is one of the smartest guards that has ever attended State.

Besides these men there is also Gates, who is transferring to California next year.

The loss of these men will be keenly felt, but with such men as Countryman, Leibbrandt, Rea, Mathieson, Taylor, George, Smith, Hague, and a few men from the reserves and possibly from the frosh.

weather, Compher, dark horse entrant of Los Gatos, leaped 18 feet, 10¾ inches to win the broad jump. Imura turned in his usual sterling performances in the 220 and 100 yard dashes, besides running a lap on the winning relay team. DuBurg surprised both himself and Helm by clearing 5 feet, 6¾ inches in the high jump.

Filipino Club Wins Second Volleyball Title at College

The Filipinos won the volleyball tournament, which came to a close last Thursday. The tournament has been running since April 28.

There were 75 students signed up to play and 58 participated besides 9 faculty members. There were eight teams and most of them showed up for every game. Most of the students are willing to admit that the Filipinos are pretty good volleyball players; although the Filipinos won the league without losing a game, they knew that they were having a volleyball game more than once. The Faculty and the Print Shop tied for second place in the league standing, each one losing two games. The P. E. Majors and the I. D. K.'s came third by losing three games apiece. The Science Club came fourth and the Engineers came fifth, with the Tau Delta Phi bringing up the tail end with seven defeats and no wins.

Standing of teams:

Filipinos	7	0	1000
Faculty	5	2	.718
Print Shop	5	2	.718

Holds Record for F. W. Conference's Quarter Mile Race

IS ALSO MEMBER OF BASKETBALL AND SOCCER TEAMS

Doug Taylor, champion 400 yard dash man of the Far West Conference, and a member of two last seasons track teams, elected captain of the 1932 team succeeding Don Harder.

Taylor, for the past two seasons has been a consistent performer, winning at all times. Besides running in the 440, Doug, the G. Leo Greyhound, as he is called, has run the dashes a broad-jumped with a considerable degree of success. This season was by far the best he has had in establishing his best marks of career in the broad jump and 400 yard dash.

Taylor does not confine his interests only to track. Prior to last football season he was member of the college soccer team and was picked by the other college coaches as one of the leading players in the league.

Doug is also a member of the season's football team, holding down one of the halfback positions, where his speed made him a constant threat.

Taylor in his first year of basketball managed to make a team. With the graduation of Goodell and Olson, Doug has excellent chance to round out his athletic career by making a first string.

Practically all colleges in the country are this semester holding special Washington Bicentennial exercises.
