Gonzaga Ringmen Whip SJS State

695 Ballots Cast In Election Friday

Zags Flatten Spartan Mark With Easy Win

By LLOYD BROWN
Gonzaga's battling Bulldogs, showing a wealth of power in the heavier weight divisions, snapped the Spartan boxing team's undefeated string at 26 dual matches by soundly defeating them 5½ to 2½, in Spokane Saturday night.

The Zags, always strongest on their home canvas stopped Coach Dee Portal's ringmen two meets short of tying the national record for consecutive undefeated dual matches, held by Wisconsin. The loss was the first that a Spartan team has absorbed since the last match of the 1949 season, which was with the Badgers.

Only two Raiders were able to punch their way to victory, and when Chuck Adkins opponent, Dave Powell, pulled a ligament in his shoulder, the bout was stopped and declared a draw. Featherweight Don Camp and welterweight Jerry Stern gave the Spartans an early lead, but the (Continued on page 3)

Annual Concert Slated Tomorrow

Tomorrow night, from the stage of the Morris Dailey auditorium, the 61-voice A Cappella choir will present its annual winter quarter concert.

Beginning at 8:15 p.m., the choir will present a program of 16th century, 19th century, and contemporary choral music.

Directed by William Erlendson, associate professor of music, the choir will open its presentation with selections from four 16th century Italian and English composers, representative of "the Golden Age of choral music."

Then will follow a "Missa Brevis in E Major" by the outstanding contemporary Canadian composer, Healey Willan.

Following will be the major work of the evening, French composer Darius Milhaud's "Cantata of War," with soloists Joyce Buswell, Evelyn Schaeffer, Clorinda di Leonardo, Rosilind Rogers and Paul Collins.

Concluding will be a group of contemporary and 19th century German and Russian works.

No admission will be charged for the performance.

Groups Discuss Influence of Fairness Code

Presentation of the Fairness committee and its numerous functions to the student body were discussed at Thursday's joint meeting of the Fairness and College Life committees.

It was suggested that the Blue Key might be expanded to include information on the Fairness committee and other campus organizations, in addition to its present function as a student directory.

Other suggestions included: providing more information on the committee's functions at Freshman camp; further emphasis on freshman orientation classes; and including some information on the Fairness committee in the Bindex notebook dividers which are distributed each quarter by Alpha Phi Omega, service fraternity.

French War Drama Will Open Friday

Termed "the best play to come out of the war thus far," French playwright Armand Salcedo's "Nights of Wrath" will receive its second American presentation this Friday, when the Speech and Drama department's production of the play opens its five-night run in the Little Theater.

Tickets for the drama are on sale at the Speech office, Room 57. Price is 60 cents with ASB cards, 90 cents without.

The play will appear in the Little Theater Friday, Feb. 29, through Wednesday, Mar. 5, with the exception of Sunday, Mar. 2. Curtain time each night is 8:15 o'clock.

Directed by Dr. James H. Clancy, professor of speech, the play tells of the betrayal of a member of the underground by his childhood friend.

Featured will be Warren Blomseth, Ruth Dougherty, Judith Levy, and Richard Risso, all veterans of numerous SJS dramatic productions.

J. Wendell Johnson designed the play's single major setting. Costumes are by Berneice Prisk.

Good and Bad of NATO Told By Social Science Professors

Plans of the North Atlantic Treaty organization to re-arm Western Germany in defense against possible Russian aggression in Europe brought varied opinions among the professors of the Social Science department who recently were interviewed.

Dr. Olive Gilliam, professor of history, said that it is a necessity for the Western Germans to become an integral part of the regular NATO army. "By bringing the Germans into the Western army," Dr. Gilliam said, "we will have a valuable asset to our defense against the Russians and their satellites."

It was the belief of Claude N. Settles, associate professor of so-ciology, that in order to have a good army, it is necessary for moral to be present. "It is uncertain," Mr. Settles said, "whether this moral of fighting a war for the Western powers would be held by the Germans."

Mr. Settles stated that some authorities believe that at the present time, the Germans do not especially care whether they are dominated by either the Western or Eastern powers.

Dr. Edward P. Shaw, assistant professor of economics, believes that arming Western Germany could turn into a "fiasco."

"If the Germans are armed and organized on a full scale," Dr. Shaw said, "it is hard to tell who they would eventually end up fighting for."

Original Works of Picasso, Other Modern Artists Go on Exhibit Here

Thirty-four original works by some of the great masters of modern art are currently on view in the Reserve Book room of the Library.

Included are six paintings by the famed Spaniard, Pablo Picasso, in addition to representative works by Georges Braque, Juan Gris, Leger, the Russian-American Archipenko, and others.

The exhibit consists of paintings, drawings and sculpture by members of the cubist and futurist schools of contemporary art.

Originally scheduled to begin this Thursday, Feb. 28, date of the exhibit was moved forward to permit a longer stay on campus. It was opened late last Friday afternoon.

On loan from New York's Museum of Modern Art, the showing is offered at SJS under the auspices of the Fine Arts division, and is supervised by John R. Mottram, associate professor of art.

The famous scrawled signature—"Picasso"—marks six of the paintings. Of the 71-year-old Spanish master's works included are "Landscape with Figures," an oil canvas; "Seated Woman," a very small oil painting; and "Head," done in the gouache media.

Strikingly unfamiliar in both color and design, the 30 paintings and drawings, and four pieces of sculpture drew puzzled but appreciative comments from observers.

Centerpiece of the show is a giant vividly colorful oil on canvas by the Italian futurist Gino Severini, entitled "Dynamic Hieroglyphic of the Bal Tabarin."

The futurist school, explained Mr. Mottram, was begun in Northern Italy by artists trying to express the action and nature of the machine age in industrial Italy. Certain of their paintings duplicate photographs of movement sequences made with the stroboscopic camera.

The cubists try to express reality, he added, by stripping away all non-essential forms, leaving much of their work with a severity of outline that approaches geometry.

Of the four pieces of sculpture, Italian futurist Umberto Boccioni's large bronze figure, "Unique Forms of Continuity in Space," is the most striking to the layman (or as one student said: "I like it, but what the hell is it?").

The exhibit, one of the largest and most valuable made available to the college, will continue through the remainder of the quarter.

Forum To Argue Football Dilemma

"Football at San Jose State college: Whither or Whether?" will be the topic of tomorrow night's Campus Forum, set for 8 o'clock in Room S112.

Special guest of the quarterly feature will be Glenn Hartranft, director of men's athletics, who will speak on and answer questions concerning his plan for low-cost, non-subsidized football here.

Supervised by Dr. Lawrence Moutat, associate professor of speech, and under the auspices of the Speech and Drama department, the forum will be conducted by third-quarter public speaking students.

Chairman is Bob Mackie. Patsy Griffin, Don Lo Presti and Frank Winkler will be the participants.

Miss Griffin will argue in favor of maintaining our present football set-up, Lo Presti in favor of the Hartranft plan, and Winkler for abolishing football at the college.

Betty Hoenshell was elected to the senior presidency Friday as Ed Jacobowsky and John Aitken succeeded to the top executive posts in the Junior and Sophomore classes, according to Larry Olsen, publicity chairman for the Student Court.

Six hundred ninety-five ballots were cast. Harlow Lloyd, chief justice of the Student Court, had predicted at 2 p.m. that the total would be about 500.

Closest races were for junior president and Associated Men Students president. Chuck Wing was edged by three votes in the former contest and Marvin Scarper snatched the AMS post from Dick Garcia by the same margin.

Vice president of the junior class, according to Olsen, is JoAnne Moore, by 53 votes. Cara Lee Banta, by 53 votes, won the treasurer spot in the sophomore class. Joan DiCristina is sophomore Student Council representative.

Bob Waunch is new freshman Student Council representative for one year. Vice-president of AMS is John G. Rogers and treasurer is Joe Pappas. The only other disputed posts were those of junior justice, filled by Mary Lou Carli and Bob Dean.

The persons who will fill undisputed posts are as follows: Betty Ralph, senior vice-president; Alice Brown, senior Student Council representative; Marilou Borgen, junior secretary; Rita Ragazzino, junior treasurer Seymour Abrahams, junior Student Council representative; Bob Goforth, freshman Student Council representative for one half year; Jim Kane, AMS secretary.

An amendment to the ASB constitution was passed by a vote of 442 yes to 76 no, which will make it easier for hopeful candidates to qualify for office. The amendment, originally passed at the Feb. 13 meeting of the Student Council, provides that candidates who have attended three consecutive meetings of their class council are eligible for office.

Formerly candidates were required to have attended three-fourths of their class council meetings during one of the quarters just previous. The amendment was prompted by the lack of qualified candidates who petitioned for this election.

The 695 ballots cast in the election compare unfavorably with the 2085 votes on Nov. 3 to determine whether ASB cards would be made compulsory. Voting is one of the privileges held by a majority of state college students as a result of that election, Olsen pointed out.

The preferential ballot saved the inconvenience of a run-off election in two instances. Bob Clark was nosed out of the election for AMS vice-president by the second choice votes garnered from the ballots cast for Neil Laseurettes, after Rogers and Clark had tied on the first count.

The sophomore Student Council representative was decided in the same manner after Jean Fitzgerald and Joan DiCristina had tied.

Positions still open, but which will be filled by appointment, are senior secretary, senior treasurer, and sophomore vice president, according to Olsen. There were no candidates for these offices.

Yelling About Yells

Where have Sparta's so-called yell leaders been hiding this quarter?

We have attended most of the basketball games and boxing matches where students have appeared with a lot of spirit but without a leader to direct the yells.

Last Thursday night was "the" night that the Spartan basketball five players in the San Francisco Cow Palace could have used an organized cheering section. St. Mary's, Santa Clara and the University of San Francisco students all had the advantage of leaders to direct their yells in support of their teams.

Many students from this campus were in attendance at the San Francisco pavilion. They tried hard to cheer the locals on to victory against Santa Clara in the opener of the independent tourney.

If the yell leaders didn't want to fulfill the obligations of the job, why did they apply? Why have such student body offices if the officers do not fulfill their duties?

We believe the Student Council should take some action on the matter at their next session!

Standards, South Frisco Style

On Feb. 16, a group of South San Francisco voted 174 to 28 against allowing Sing Sheng, Chinese, to move into their residential domain.

Consensus of opinion was that the San Franciscans acted thusly because they feared a Chinese in their midst would result in lowering of property values. Later last week some of the people contemplated a re-vote. This seems to be a last-ditch effort to avoid the wrath of many Americans who read about the incident in the newspapers.

Sheng said, after his electoral ouster, "I hope the people are happy now—their property values will continue to rise."

We noticed a sudden lowering of values after the affair—our opinion of the South San Franciscans who voted against Sheng.

Pancake Meal Is To Aid DP

"Pancakes—all you can eat" is the slogan of the Canterbury club pancake supper to be held tomorrow evening at the Trinity Church Parish hall, 81 N. Second street. Serving hours will be from 6 to 7 p.m.

Evening proceeds will be used to aid in bringing Hargers Silarajs, a 26-year-old student from Latvia, to college for spring quarter.

The meal also will include sausages, and coffee. Tickets may be obtained at the Parish office or at the door.

"We hope to see a big turnout of college students, their families and friends," Tom Richardson, Canterbury publicity chairman, stated. "If the dinner is successful, Margers can be here for the spring quarter. He has just arrived in this country and expressed his desire to come to a small college like San Jose State."

Aviation Society Holds Initiation

Seven new members were added to the roll of Alpha Eta Rho, aviation honor society, at a formal initiation dinner held recently. Two guests spoke at the dinner, Cecil Reid, an airport proprietor, and Ralph Kummer of Hiller Helicopter incorporated. Movies also were shown.

The new members are Roland Rogers, Donald Frier, Arthur Den Dulk, Nelson Bell, George Mollison and Kenneth Thomas. George Rymer, aeronautics instructor, was initiated as an associate member.

Thrust and Parry

Sheng Incident

Dear Thrust and Parry:

Regarding the Sing Sheng "incident" three cheers for the exclusive Southwood "residential" district of San Francisco.

Insecure people who are uncertain of their identities will hate and fear others who are certain of theirs. Such is the case of Southwood vs. Mr. Sheng, former Chinese Intelligence officer, who with his wife and child sought to purchase a home in the above-mentioned neighborhood.

This all-white community, at Mr. Sheng's suggestion, voted on the desirability of his residential presence there—not as a man, but as a Chinese! He was voted out illegally. Such is the way of the great middle class that represents the majority of American democracy. It is this class that is confused and frightened by its own short-comings. The only values it knows are those to be found in what is socially acceptable, not that that which is necessarily right.

It is Mr. Sheng who is at fault, not the community. For if a ray of light illuminates a pig-sty, it is not the condition of the pig-sty which is to be blamed but rather, the individual who cast the ray in the person of Mr. Sheng.

Irwin J. Dashiff, ASB 6621.

Just Among Ourselves

By DR. T. W. MacQUARRIE

Years ago, before the crash in 1929, we had a $19 student body fee, and everyone paid it. At that time we put aside a certain amount. I think it was $3 out of each fee, for a student union.

But when the depression struck, we gave that up and reduced the fee to $15, which it is now.

But there was a sizeable fund in the banks when we stopped the program, and that has been accumulating ever since. It is now something in the neighborhood of $25,000. There seems to be no record that the amount was set aside for a student union, but I remember it; and I talked to Dr. Peterson last week, and he remembered it. He was on the committee.

It is pretty well established that the state will not build student unions for the colleges. Fresno has one, but the amount was allocated by the governor and not the legislature.

The state has provided cafeterias, student body offices, and some other facilities that might well be included in a student union, so it is possible that we might be able to get an arrangement by which the state would put up part of the money, and we the rest.

I wish we had a couple of very nice places for college parties. I hate to have to go through a bar every time I go to a college banquet or party. And I hate to see students lapping up cocktails and other drinks, which they can't afford, really. If we had a good place for parties there would be no such thing. And how I hate to see a student drunk. It is so depressing. Makes him look like a sucker, sort of stupid—it's just the opposite of what the college is trying to do.

I wish we could start right away to make plans for a student union, a good one, a place where we could have fine accommodations for decent parties, and where we wouldn't have to shell out all the time for the liquor racket.

Camp and Stern Take Home Wins

Zags threw ice on the SJS fire in the last four bouts, in a dual match that saw every bout but the Adkins-Powell contest go the full three rounds.

Camp remained undefeated for the season by earning a decision over Captain Gordy Simanton in the opening bout of the night, thus putting the underdog Spartan aggregation out in front. The Zags soon evened the score when Arlen Gallagher outpointed Vic Harris in the 132 lb. bout.

Stern placed his team in the lead for the second and last time by decisioning one of Gonzaga's better boxers, Dave Smith, Smith reached the semi-finals of the NCAA tournament last year. Stern, like Camp, has been undefeated this year.

The Zags poured on the power in the four remaining bouts, taking all of them by decisions. Ed Heinrich, 156 lbs., lost his first collegiate bout, bowing to Tom Keys, winner of the Spokane Invitational tournament earlier this year.

Novice Boxing

San Jose's Civic Auditorium will be a busy place Thursday night when the first annual Northern California Intercollegiate Novice Boxing Tourney will be held.

Teams entered include San Jose State, California, Stanford, San Francisco State, St. Mary's, and Santa Clara.

Zags who won at their weight class in the Spokane tourney, and Paul Reuter was unable to solve the long reach of Gonzaga's Mike McMurtry in the light heavyweight bout. McMurtry, only a freshman, lost by only one point to Michigan State's Chuck Spieser, NCAA champ, last month when the Zags defeated the East Lansing squad, 6-3.

In the heavyweight battle, Ted Springston lost a decision to Bill Schertler.

The loss in Spokane gave the strong Spartan team a split in their Northwest invasion. Portal's punchers won a decisive victory in Pullman Wednesday night, defeating Washington State, 6-2.

Hubbard Says "Little Effect" From JC Split

Separation of the junior college from the state college as proposed by the State Board of Education for next year would have little effect on the athletic situation at Sparta, Athletic Director Bill Hubbard said Friday.

"We have no junior college students playing on any of our teams. This is in accordance with Pacific Coast conference rules which prohibits the use of junior college students," Hubbard commented.

Superintendent of Schools Earle P. Crandall declared last week that other junior colleges and state colleges in California felt that San Jose State was unfair in playing jaycee students on their teams.

Broncos Take Tourney

St. Mary's Gallops Past Spartan Quint, 59-55

By DAVE GOODWIN

San Jose State's Spartans became low men on the Cow Palace Independent tourney totem pole Friday night by virtue of a close 59-55 loss to St. Mary's in the night's opening game, their second defeat of the tourney and third from the hands of the Gaels this season.

Thursday night, the Spartans dropped a 66-55 contest to the Santa Clara Broncos, who went on to win the tourney in an overtime battle with USE, 51-50.

Leading the Spartan cause for the second night in a row was 5'-10" Elmer Craig, one of the smaller men in the tourney, who counted 18 points for the evening. Top scorer of the night, however, was the Gaels' Drew Turner who hit 21 points.

George Clark with 11 points and Lee Jensen with 9 were the only other Spartans to connect with any regularity during the game.

The contest, a nip-and-tuck affair all the way, found the two teams tied up no less than 12 times before Turner hit several field goals and scored two free throws in the last quarter. The Spartans tried to make up the difference in the last minutes, but ran out of gas.

Indicative of the game's closeness is the fact that the lead for either team was never more than six points throughout the contest. At the first quarter's end, the Spartans and Gaels were tied with 13 points apiece. At half-time the Gaels edged ahead 25-24. Throughout the third quarter the teams each led briefly with St. Mary's getting the edge as the fourth period opened, 43-41.

Craig hit most of his points on long set shots from behind the key and on driving lay-ins up the middle. Other Spartan scorers were Duane Baptiste with 5, Don Edwards with 4, Lee Deming with 3, Jack Avina with 3 and Mort Schorr with 2.

The two losses brought the Spartan season record to 14 wins and 9 defeats. Before the tournament began, the Spartans had the best overall won-loss record of the independents.

Friday and Saturday, the San Joseans invade the southland to meet San Diego State in a two-game stand, to conclude the Spartan 1951-52 basketball schedule.

FORWARD DUANE BAPTISTE and his varsity brothers will attempt to bounce back after two Cow Palace losses when they invade San Diego State this weekend to conclude their season.

Lambda Chi Alpha Meets Slow Pokes For Intra Title

By TOM BURCH

The intramural basketball championship will be decided tomorrow night when Lambda Chi Alpha clashes with the Slow Pokes at 7:30 o'clock in the Men's gym.

LCA copped the fraternity league title Thursday evening when they came from behind to nip Kappa Alpha, 29-25, and in doing so earned the right to meet the Slow Pokes.

The high riding "Pokes" go into the finals with eight straight victories under their belts which they compiled in winning the independent basketball league.

The Pokes will have a definite height advantage over the Lambda Chis but will have to be on their toes to stay with their speedy opponents.

The first annual intramural all-star game is scheduled for Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the Men's gym. There will be a 10 cent admission charge to the game. All proceeds will go to the March of Dimes campaign.

All intramural team captains are requested to turn in their all-opponent teams today to the AMS office, Cal Pitts, AMS publicity chairman, said Friday.

Pitts said that tomorrow is the deadline to enable the AMS committee to compile the All-Star teams. A team will be chosen from the independent and from the fraternity leagues.

San Jose State To Host Nine Schools For Dance Symposium This Saturday

The College will play host to nine northern California colleges and universities for a dance symposium this Saturday, according to Dr. Hildegard Spreen, associate professor of physical education.

The dance symposium is sponsored by the Women's Athletic association and will be managed by Orchestras, modern dance club.

On the program will be a "Master Lesson in Dance" taught by Harriette Ann Gray, renowned choreographer. The dance lesson will be held from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in the Women's gym, and student spectators will be allowed to attend.

A lecture and demonstration on modern dance will be given by Miss Gray and her dance company

Grad Work Calls For Application

Everyone, student teachers included, who wishes to do any work in the graduate division must apply as soon as possible, Mrs. Catherine Anderson, college statistician, announced recently.

Applications must be made in the Admissions office, Room 126.

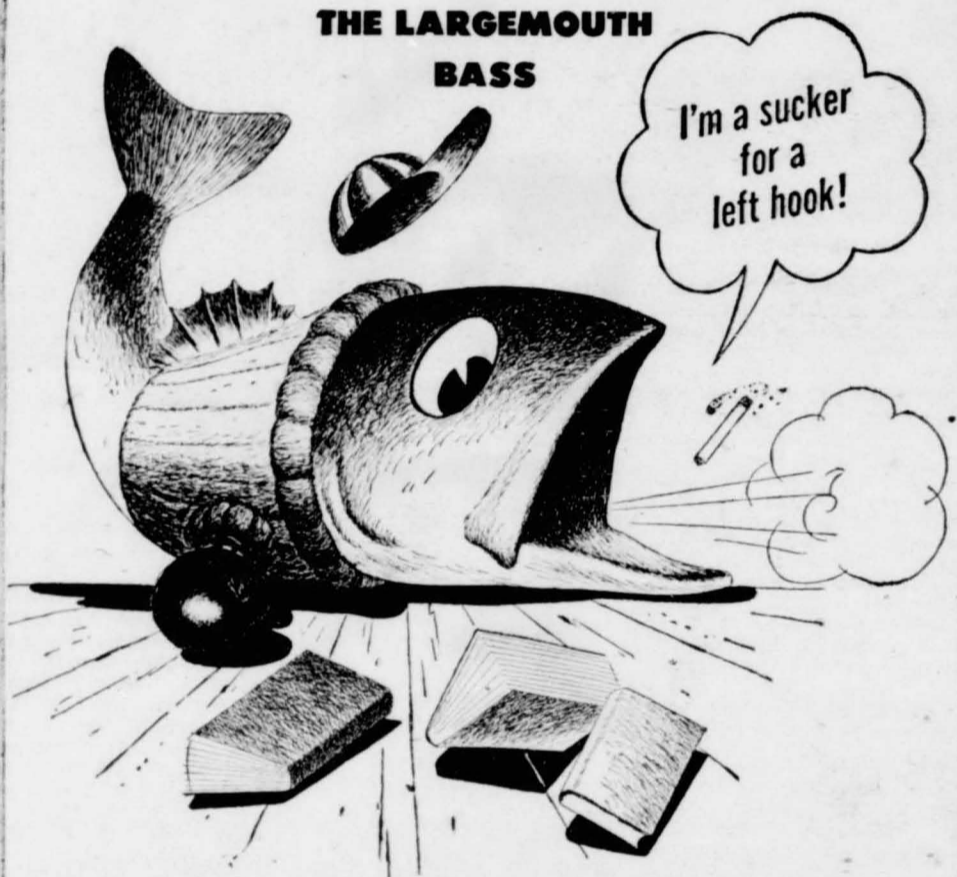

"Student teachers have had the idea that they will be automatically admitted," Mrs. Anderson said. "But all students who intend to continue their studies after graduation must apply for admission into the graduate division. Many students come into the Registrar's office each registration day wanting to know why there have been no bookings made out for them."

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No. 35..

THE LARGEMOUTH BASS

Always a sucker for attractive bait, our aquatic brother went off the deep end and got caught on the quick-trick cigarette hook! But he wormed his way out when he suddenly realized that cigarette mildness can't be tossed off reel lightly. Millions of smokers have found, too, there's only one true test of cigarette mildness.

It's the sensible test—the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke on a day-after-day, pack-after-pack basis. No snap judgments! Once you've tried Camels for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why...

After all the Mildness Tests...
