

Creating Online Tutorials

Julie Leuzinger

Wednesday, December 6, 2006

GLA Training

Lilly's how to....

- ... list for creating tutorials gives a step by step guide from making a screen shot and saving it in Paint Shop Pro to adding metatags in Front Page.

Julie's how to....

- Think about your objective and audience
- Create an outline and script
- Ask your audience - Ask your peers

Creating the tutorials for the Electronic Resources, E-Journals, and E-Books page

- Objective- help people understand the purpose of these pages, how to use them and how to get the most from the resource
- Audience- incoming college freshman (Generation Y) as well as returning or second-time college students

Audience Participation

- Informal survey of Gen Y (about ten of the Circulation Student Assistants)
 - 1) Be direct
 - 2) Links to further information
 - 3) Use color and graphics

Requested feedback from peers

Front Page Quirks, Concerns and Questions

- Graphics are impossible to work with
- Consider using Photoshop instead of Paint Shop Pro
- How will this work with the Plone?

Tutorials

- Electronic Resources Tutorial

<http://www.library.unt.edu/instruction/jlertutorial.htm>

- E-Journal Tutorial

<http://www.library.unt.edu/instruction/jlejtutorial.htm>

- E-Book Tutorial

<http://www.library.unt.edu/instruction/jlebtutorial.htm>