Paul's 'Zine

Number 6

By John Cadenhead

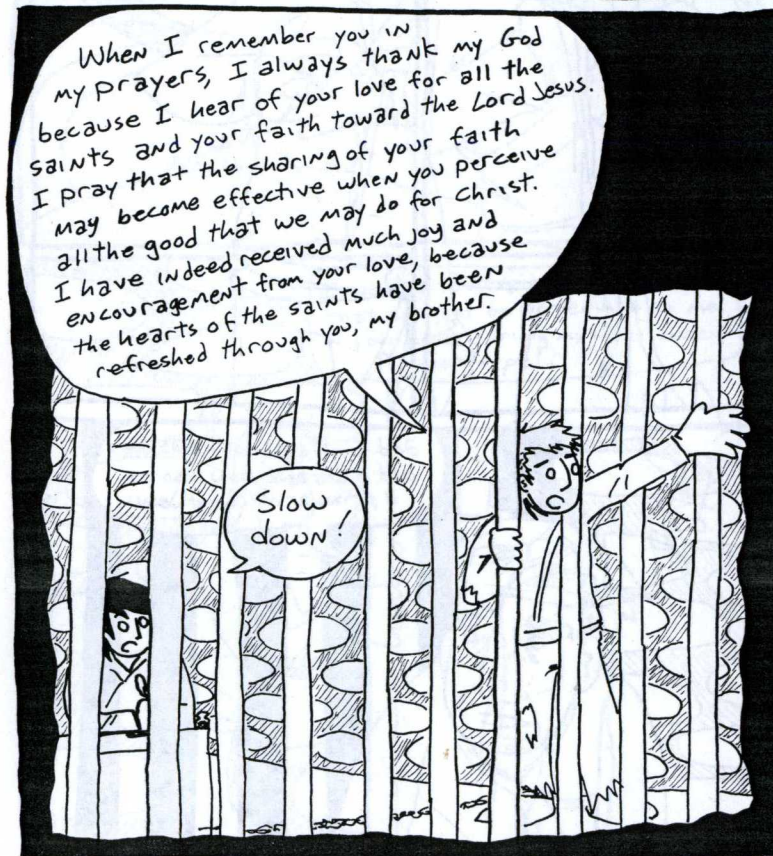

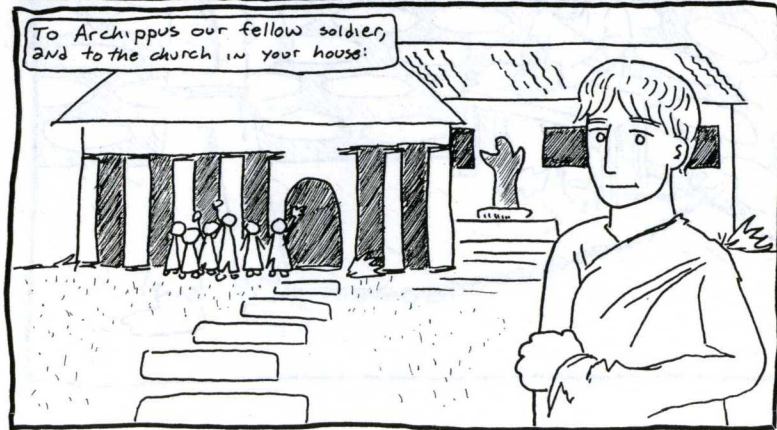

Paul's letter to

Philemon

Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy,
our brother,

For this reason, though I am bold enough in Christ to command you to do your duty, yet I would rather appeal to you on the basis of love and I, Paul, do this as an old man, and now also as a prisoner of Christ Jesus.

I am appealing to you for my child, Onesimus, whose father I have become during my imprisonment. Formerly he was useless to you, but now he is indeed both useful to you and to me. I am sending him, that is, my own heart, back to you.

I wanted to keep him with me, so that he might be of service to me in your place during my imprisonment for the gospel;

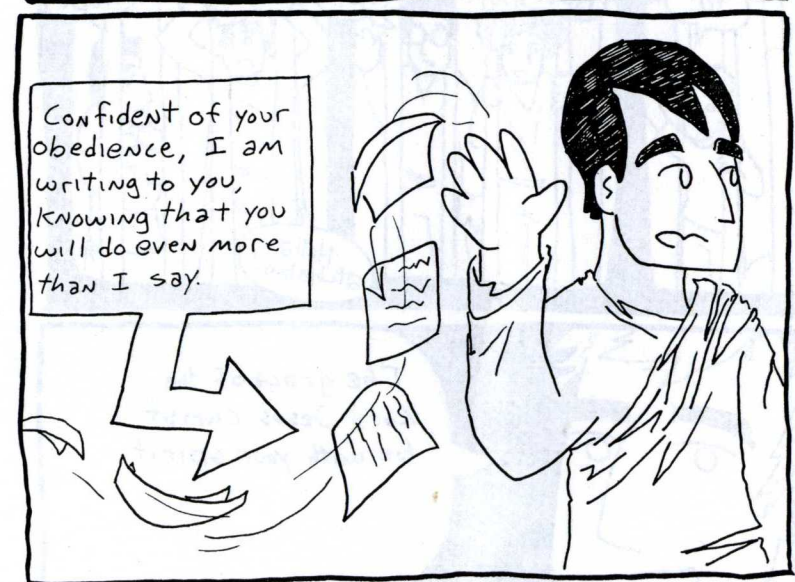

Yes, brother, let me have this benefit from you in the Lord! Refresh my heart in Christ.

Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, sends greetings to you, and so do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow workers.
