Careers in International Law Panel Discussion

3/16/05—The Boston College International Law Society, in conjunction with the Office of Career Services, is pleased to announce the event Careers in International Law, a panel discussion and reception. The panel will be held on Monday, March 21, 2005, in East Wing room 115A, from 3:30–4:30 pm, and the reception will follow in Barat House.

Panelists include:

MICHAEL GLANZ

Chair, Foley Hoag's firm's International Practice Group

Mr. Glanz regularly advises U.S. and foreign companies on cross-border transactions and operations, including structuring international operations, development of joint ventures and entering into cross border acquisitions. He has extensive experience with international forestry ventures including joint ventures and acquisitions in New Zealand, Chile, Uruguay, Argentina and Australia. Mr. Glanz regularly advises U.S. clients doing business in Japan including structuring operations and negotiating joint ventures. He has served as privatization counsel to the Government of Guyana in connection with the privatization of numerous state owned entities, including the national airline and companies in the retail and pharmaceutical sectors. Mr. Glanz was a member of the U.S. Delegation for the U.S.–Ethiopian claims negotiations in Addis Ababa, 1985, and an adviser to the Agent at the U.S.–Iran Claims Tribunal in the Hague, 1985.

JIM STOKES

Partner, Bingham McCutchen's Corporate, Mergers and Acquisitions Group

Mr. Stokes spent five years as resident partner in the firm's London office. He devotes a significant amount of time to acquisitions, joint ventures and corporate finance and project finance matters for U.S. and overseas-based clients. He is a member of the state bars of Hawaii and Massachusetts and is admitted to practice before the 1st and 9th Federal Circuits and the United States Court of International Trade. Mr. Stokes is also licensed as a Registered Foreign Lawyer by the Law Society of England and Wales. Between his graduation from college and his enrollment in law school, Mr. Stokes served as an officer in the U.S. Marine Corps.

MARSHA WEINERMAN

A Boston attorney with 20 years of varied public interest experience, including legal services and municipal government, she was selected in 1999 to be a Rule of Law Liaison with the American Bar Association Central European and Eurasian Law Initiative (ABA-CEELI). Ms. Weinerman spent the year 2000 in Bishkek, Kyrgyzstan, and worked with the national judicial, lawyer and law student associations on programming, training and legal education issues. She was also an International Observer with the International Foundation for Election Systems (IFES) for the Kyrgyz Parliamentary and Presidential elections in 2000. She has remained active in public international law projects and currently chairs the Alumni Association of the ABA-CEELI program and is the co-chair of the Boston Bar Association International Public Law, Policy and Human Rights Committee of the International Section. She has served as an OSCE Election Observer for the Russian Parliamentary Election in 2003 and was an observer for all three rounds of the recent Ukraine Presidential Election.

ROBERT TREVISANI

Partner, Gadsby Hannah LLP

Mr. Trevisani practices in corporate, taxation, securities and international law. He was the Chairman and founder of the International Law Section of the Boston Bar Association from 1992 through 1994. He is heavily involved with the International Bar Association. He has been the Chairman of the IBA's Section of Legal Practices, a member of the IBA's Management Committee, and a member of the IBA Council. He has also been a member of the Human Rights Institute, and a member of the Standing Committee on Globalization of the Law. In May of 2003, Mr. Trevisani co-founded (as a division of the Commonwealth Charitable Foundation), the Freedom and Peace Trust which has distributed in excess of $12 Million of medications throughout Iraq and conducted the first psychiatric conference organized in Kuwait City in October of 2003 dealing with the mental health needs of the Iraqi people.
