PRESIDENT'S PAGE

Hon. Dennis W. Dykes, Sr.

As newly elected President of NAALJ, I pledge to work very hard toward increasing our membership by making the organization known to as many people involved in the administrative adjudicatory process as possible.

I believe that all ALJ's around the country want to enhance the quality of administrative justice and improve the process of dispute resolution within a company of friendly committed individuals like themselves and will, therefore, want to be part of our organization.

We plan a great time of fun, fellowship and learning at our 1989 annual meeting in New Orleans, Louisiana, October 12, 13, 14, 1989, at the Radisson Suite Hotel, 315 Julia Street (800/333-3333 or 504/525-1993).

I really believe that new and prospective members will greatly enjoy the meeting, the wonderful city, and the great camaraderie.

Please join us there.
