PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

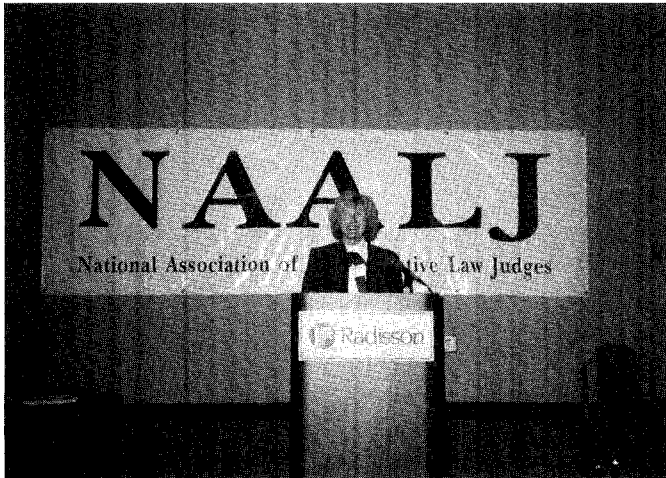

Would you like to participate in a convention and seminar where the hottest issues affecting administrative law will be the focus? Do you with other hearing officers and administrative law judges want to meet together in the center of the country surrounded by exciting cultural opportunities to explore? If "yes" is your answer, then you need to come to Kansas City.

It is my great pleasure to invite all members of the National Association of Administrative Law Judges and all non-members who wish to participate to attend the convention and seminar of our association in Kansas City, Missouri, October 17-20, 1990. This issue of our Journal is the first official notification of this stimulating convention.

There are many important issues to be discussed at this convention and seminar. The seminar will be strong academically, and there also will be opportunities for making new and renewing old friendships. There will be levity as well as gravity. Come to Kansas City to learn something new as well as to contribute some of that which you have learned from your own special perspective as an administrative law judge or from your involvement in the administrative hearing process.
