SPRING BIBLE LECTURESHIP

PEPPERDINE COLLEGE

MARCH 16-22, 1963

WELCOME, LECTURESHIP VISITORS

The entire Pepperdine College community extends to you a hearty welcome to the 20th annual Pepperdine Spring Bible Lectureship. We believe this will be the greatest program of the Lectureship's tradition-honored history. We have anticipated your arrival and sincerely hope that you will enjoy your stay with us. Please call upon us for any assistance we can render.

PLEASE REGISTER

We urge you to visit the registration tables located in the lobby of the College auditorium. The Associated Women for Pepperdine are serving as official registrars this year and are anxious to meet and greet you. Pick up a lapel identification card and leave us your name and address. We need a record of your visit and you will want to receive information regarding future Pepperdine lecture series.

A PROGRAM FOR YOU

From the Saturday evening Kick-Off Dinner to the Sports Arena Climax, our program has been planned with you in mind. Budget your hours wisely; attend every class, lecture, and panel which your schedule will allow. Take notes, ask questions; make suggestions. Let's take advantage of every ounce of spiritual energy which this week provides.

Our theme, "Christ, Our Contemporary," is especially vital and timely. It is designed to present the Lord as an ever-present source of power in the lives of Christian people. The following little poem by W. C. Braithwaite catches a portion of the spirit which we anticipate for this historic week.

William S. Banowsky, Lectureship Director

WELCOME FROM TRUSTEES

The Board of Trustees of Pepperdine College extends its warmest welcome to all of our visitors who have come to participate in the 20th annual Bible Lectureship. Deep and abiding faith in God has been the corner stone of all successful societies and is the bulwark of our spiritual experience. The Board is basically interested in the expansion of this Bible-centered faith and in programs which help to achieve this purpose.

These annual lectureships, which bring together thousands of interested and dedicated followers of our Lord, have an impact upon our fellow Christians and upon our total society.

You are always welcome on the campus of Pepperdine.

“CHRIST OUR CONTEMPORARY”*

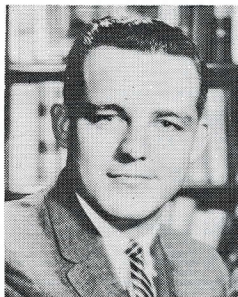

Christ's Spirit taketh breath again
Within the lives of holy men.
Each changing age beholds afresh
Its word of God in human flesh.
Amid the meek of earth, whose ear
Pure wisdom maketh quick to hear,
Who know the founts of good and ill,
and live in the eternal will.
Sharing themselves and all their good
In universal brotherhood;
In whose sweet lives we still may see
The One who walked in Galilee,
And preaching through the human page
Christ's living gospel to our age.

* By W. C. Braithwaite, 1862-1922, Masterpieces of Religious Verse, edited by James Dalton Morrison.

May we take this means to thank each of you who has worked diligently to make such an historic occasion possible. We are especially grateful to the members of the chorus for their extra efforts.

We believe you will be inspired by the singing of the chorus, by participating in the prayers and hymns and hearing the message to be brought by Batsell Barrett Baxter.

If you enjoy this great gathering, why not start making plans soon to participate next year also? The date to reserve for the Sports Arena program is March 20, 1964.

SONGS

COME, YE THAT LOVE THE LORD

V. 1:

Come, ye that love the Lord,
And let your joys be known;
Join in a song with sweet accord,
Join in a song with sweet accord,
And thus surround the throne,
And thus surround the throne.

V. 2:

Let those refuse to sing
Who never knew our God;
But children of the heav'nly King,
But children of the heav'nly King,
May speak their joys abroad,
May speak their joys abroad.

V. 4:

Then let our songs abound,
And ev'ry tear be dry;
We're marching thro' Immanuel's ground,
We're marching thro' Immanuel's ground,
To fairer worlds on high,

Chorus:

We're marching to Zion,
Beautiful, beautiful Zion;
We're marching upward to Zion,
The beautiful city of God.

O TO BE LIKE THEE!

V. 1:

O to be like thee! blessed Redeemer:
This is my constant longing and prayer;
Gladly I'll forfeit all of earth's treasures,

V. 4:

O to be like Thee! Lord, I am coming,
Now to receive th' anointing divine;
All that I am and have I am bringing;
Lord, from this moment all shall be Thine.

Chorus:

O to be like Thee! O to be like Thee!
Blessed Redeemer, pure as Thou art;
Come in Thy sweetness, come in Thy fullness;
Stamp Thine own image deep on my heart.

GOD BE WITH YOU

V. 1:

God be with you till we meet again;
By His counsels guide, uphold you,
With His sheep securely fold you;
God be with you till we meet again.

V. 4:

God be with you till we meet again;
Keep love's banner floating o'er you,
Smite death's threat'ning wave before you;
God be with you till we meet again.

Chorus:

Till we meet, till we meet
Till we meet at Jesus' feet;
Till we meet, till we meet,
God be with you till we meet again.

A WONDERFUL SAVIOR

V. 1:

A wonderful Savior is Jesus my Lord,
A wonderful Savior to me;
He hideth my soul in the cleft of the rock,
Where rivers of pleasure I see.

V. 4:

When clothed in His brightness, transported I rise
To meet Him in clouds of the sky,
His perfect salvation, His wonderful love,
I'll shout with the millions on high.

Chorus:

He hideth my soul in the cleft of the rock
That shadows a dry, thirsty land;
He hideth my life in the depths of His love,
And covers me there with His hand,
And covers me there with His hand.

MY HOPE IS BUILT ON NOTHING LESS

V. 1:

My hope is built on nothing less
Than Jesus' blood and righteousness;
I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
But wholly lean on Jesus' name.

V. 2:

When darkness veils His lovely face,
I rest on His unchanging grace;
In ev'ry high and stormy gale,
My anchor holds within the veil.

V. 4:

When He shall come with trumpet sound,
O may I then in Him be found,
Dressed in His righteousness alone,
Faultless to stand before the throne.

Chorus:

On Christ, the Solid Rock, I stand;
All other ground is sinking sand,
All other ground is sinking sand.

STAND UP, STAND UP, FOR JESUS

V. 1:

Stand up, stand up for Jesus!
Ye soldiers of the cross;
Lift high His royal banner,
It must not suffer loss;
From vict'ry unto vict'ry
His army shall He lead,
Till ev'ry foe is vanquished,
And Christ is Lord indeed.

V. 4:

Stand up, stand up for Jesus!
The strife will not be long;
This day the noise of battle,
The next the victor's song;
To him that overcometh
A crown of life shall be;
He with the King of Glory
Shall reign eternally.

'CHRIST, OUR CONTEMPORARY' KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Batsell Barrett Baxter comes to the climax program of the Lecture-ship with many years of experience as a gospel preacher, educator, radio and television evangelist and author of articles and books.

He was born in Cordell, Okla. on Sept. 23, 1916, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Batsell Baxter. His father was the first president of Pepperdine College.

Mr. Baxter, who began preaching in 1933 at Nashville, Tenn., received his education at David Lipscomb and Abilene Christian Colleges, the University of Southern California and Vanderbilt University.

Head of the Bible Department at David Lipscomb College since 1956, he formerly was chairman of the Speech Department there and at Pepperdine, and prior to that he served as minister of churches in Whittier and Burbank, Calif. and in Nashville.

He has written extensively for the Gospel Advocate and Twentieth Century Christian magazines and is author of several books, including Heart of the Yale Lectures, Speaking for the Master, If I Be Lifted Up and Preachers of Today.

Known widely as one of the speakers on the nationally aired and televised "Herald of Truth" program, Mr. Baxter has made a number of trips abroad in behalf of various missionary efforts of the church of Christ.

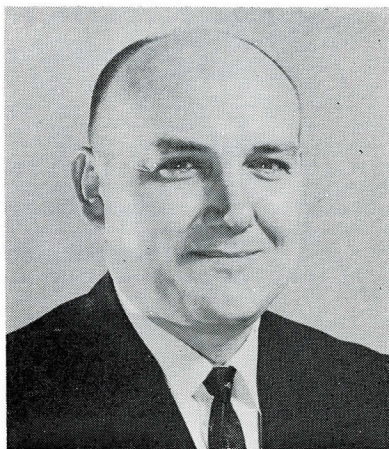

BATSELL BARRETT BAXTER

SONG DIRECTORS

Norman Hatch, Pepperdine music professor, will direct the chorus for the Sports Arena program.

Robert L. Deveny, elder, San Diego, will direct the congregational singing for the Sports Arena '63 program.

FRANK PACK

Frank Pack, a member of the Bible Department faculty at Abilene Christian College, has accepted an invitation to be the keynote speaker at next year's Sports Arena program, March 20, 1964.

We feel very fortunate in having this great gospel preacher for next year's Lectureship program, and are happy to be able to announce his coming at this time.

Mr. Pack, who is familiar as a featured speaker in college lectureships over the years, is no stranger to the Pepperdine College campus, having served as a member of the Bible faculty during 1945-49. With his work at Pepperdine and ACC, plus teaching at David Lipscomb, 1940-44, he has been in Christian education nearly a quarter of a century.

Born in Memphis, Tenn., March 27, 1916, Mr. Pack started preaching in 1933 at the Reid Avenue church of Christ in Nashville, Tenn. He received his education at David Lipscomb College, the University of Chattanooga, Vanderbilt University and the University of Southern California. He has served churches in Tennessee, California and Texas.

Mr. Pack is a regular contributor to such church magazines as Gospel Advocate, Twentieth Century Christian and Restoration Quarterly and is author of the book, Our Bible.

ANNOUNCING . . .

The 6th Annual Pepperdine College
Summer Bible Lectureship
August 3-8, 1963

'Christ FOR Our Contemporaries'

Theme Speeches:

Christ for the Nominal Christian
Christ for the Teen Ager
Christ for the Aged
Christ for the Businessman
Christ for the Skeptical
Christ for the Home
Christ for the Unbeliever
Christ for the Businessman
Christ for the Handicapped

ALSO FEATURING THE MADISON CHURCH OF CHRIST

A special feature of the summer program will be a series of classes and lectures by Ira North and the Bible School staff of the church in Madison, Tennessee. The Madison congregation is reputed to have the largest Bible School among churches of Christ, and the largest of any religious body in the state of Tennessee. The classes of the summer program will be "tailored around" the offerings of the Madison staff. In addition, Ira North will deliver lectures on the topics: "Enthusiasm," "Organization," Visitation," and "Solicitation."
