The 61st Annual Pepperdine University Bible Lectures May 4 - 7, 2004

Beyond all question, the mystery of godliness is great:

He appeared in a body, was vindicated by the Spirit, was seen by angels, was preached among the nations, was believed on in the world, was taken up in glory.

1 Timothy 3:16

Message from the President

Once again it is my pleasure and honor to welcome you to the Pepperdine Bible Lectures. Along with our University family, I look forward to these refreshing times in the same way many of the participants do. Long ago, Moses was instructed by God to "remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy." Those regular, weekly remembrances in yesteryear are echoed in our weekly Lord's Day assemblies and activities today. Likewise, I think that the grand feasts and festivals of Israel, sometimes solemn, sometimes joyful, are echoed in this yearly gathering on the campus of Pepperdine.

From across the nation—indeed, from around the world— Christians stream into Malibu to proclaim the Name of God, to stand before Him in wonder and worship. We listen each year to well-crafted words of instruction and encouragement, but equally important, we present ourselves before the Almighty One, asking for divine cleansing and revitalization.

It seems quite appropriate that we turn our Bibles to the first letter to Timothy this year. For, we at Pepperdine are concluding an academic year devoted to the theme, "A Heritage of Faith." It is the centerpiece theme of a series of five goals I enumerated in my inaugural address of 2000. Our heritage of faith is at the center because, without it, the other four are essentially without a guiding purpose. In 1 Timothy, the sagely mentor Paul seems to commend and pass on the sometimes-embattled heritage of the Christian faith to his young protégé, Timothy. Paul concludes his letter with the charge, "Timothy, guard what has been entrusted to your care" (6:20).

We believe that the "mystery of godliness," which is the reigning and indwelling Christ Himself, calls to us at Pepperdine, and we shall do our best to answer the call. But infinitely more does the mystery speak to the church of our Lord Jesus Christ. Future generations will "take hold of the life that is truly life" (6:19) if—and only if—this generation treasures and passes along our precious heritage of faith of which Paul writes.

Our campus is yours for this week of praise to God. We greet you in the name of Jesus our Lord.

"And so, through seven theme lectures, more than 240 classes, thirteen music and drama groups, five major dinners, and numerous breakfast and luncheon programs, we come together to consider THE MYSTERY OF GODLINESS . . .

On behalf of the scores of students and staff members that will serve you, we welcome you to a week of incredible worship, fellowship, and study of God's Holy Word."

Pepperdine University Affirms

THAT GOD IS

That God is revealed uniquely in Christ

That the educational process may not, with impunity, be divorced from the divine process

That the student, as a person of infinite dignity, is the heart of the educational enterprise

That the quality of student life is a valid concern of the University

That truth, having nothing to fear from investigation, should be pursued relentlessly in every discipline

That spiritual commitment, tolerating no excuse for mediocrity, demands the highest standards of academic excellence

That freedom, whether spiritual, intellectual, or economic, is indivisible

That knowledge calls, ultimately, for a life of service

Message from the Lectures Team

The Lectures Team welcomes you to the 61st Annual Pepperdine Bible Lectures! Not long after last year's lectures on the Book of Genesis concluded, we began making plans for this year's program. So, for many months now, preparations have been moving forward: lecturers have been studying and praying, teachers have been researching and meditating, music and drama groups have been rehearsing ... all for you.

We want you to know that we do not take you, the participant, for granted. The program begins with and centers around, not speakers or teachers or worship leaders, but you, the solitary child of God who makes a pilgrimage to Malibu, California, in the hope of encountering God. We build a program that we believe will edify, enrich, and uplift you in the spirit. We have succeeded in our task only when you leave the campus renewed and ready to live for Christ another year.

Regarding our theme this year, some may find it a "stealth" subject, in that it may appear to be rather innocuous compared to books of the Bible with great sweeping themes like Genesis, Corinthians, Psalms, and Romans. But to underestimate this little letter to Timothy would be a serious mistake. It is a letter sent to an individual person, rather than to a group or to posterity. And thus the message is personal and pointed. The great apostle Paul explains that he is writing "these instructions so that ... you will know how people ought to conduct themselves in God's household, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and foundation of the truth" (3:14-15).

A glance at the titles of our theme lectures this year offers clues to the challenging subjects that will be addressed: "Take hold of the life that is truly life," "Godliness with contentment is great gain," "The mystery of godliness is great," "Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners," and more.

The gravity of the message may surprise us when we look closely. In the midst of a discussion of God's graciousness, Paul suddenly and with urgency instructs Timothy, "... fight the good fight, holding on to faith and a good conscience" (1:18-19). Some, adds Paul, have already rejected the teaching of Christ "and so have shipwrecked their faith."

And so, through seven theme lectures, more than 240 classes, thirteen music and drama groups, five major dinners, and numerous breakfast and luncheon programs, we come together to consider the Mystery of Godliness. What will be the outcome of these days in May? We believe that the Lord is eager for you to "train yourself to be godly," then to "live in all godliness" and "fight the good fight of faith."

On behalf of the scores of students and staff members that will serve you, we welcome you to a week of incredible worship, fellowship, and study of God's Holy Word.

4:30 p.m. Dinner Program

Appreciation Dinner in Honor of Stuart & D'Esta Love

Place: Rockwell Dining Center

Please purchase tickets ($9.95) in advance at Ticket Sales tables.

Stuart Love and D'Esta Guild met in Eugene, Oregon at the 10th and Washington Church of Christ. It was the summer of 1957 and Stuart was a sophomore at the University of Oregon. D'Esta's father, Claude Guild, was the guest preacher that Sunday, and Stuart led the singing. Later that summer, Stuart enrolled at Portland State and became the song leader for the Eastside Church of Christ where D'Esta's father was the preacher. They were married in Portland on March 21, 1959. That fall they left for Abilene Christian University, where Stuart finished his B.A. and their son, Mark, was born.

Upon Stuart's graduation, the Love's returned to Oregon briefly where their son, Jon, was born. Then they returned to Texas where Stuart earned his M.A. and S.T.B. degrees at ACU while preaching for churches in Fort Worth and Eastland. The Loves returned to Portland in 1967 and Stuart preached for the Eastside Church and taught Bible at Columbia Christian College. Meanwhile, D'Esta received her B.A. in English from Portland State and Stuart began his doctorate at San Francisco Theological Seminary. In 1975, they were called to the University Church of Christ in Abilene where Stuart served as pulpit minister and D'Esta began work on her M.A. in English. They moved to Pepperdine in 1979, and Stuart served as dean of students for two years.

In 1981, Stuart accepted a position in the Religion Division where he continues to teach New Testament and ministry. In 1989, D'Esta became the dean of students and served in that role for twelve years. Stuart continued his preaching ministry, serving churches in Long Beach, Lakewood, and Whittier. He now preaches part-time for the Sierra Madre Church of Christ. Stuart and D'Esta's ministries have blended into a partnership that has modeled gender equity, encouraged women to develop their gifts for the sake of the kingdom, and helped the church embrace those gifts.

The first issue of Leaven Journal was published in 1990 with Mark as editor. Stuart and D'Esta were appointed editors in 1994, and in 2000 the journal became a publication of the Religion Division at Pepperdine. With their son, Mark, they wrote Good News for Marriage, and both have written books for the Streams of Mercy series published by Hillcrest Publishing. D'Esta completed her M.Div. in 2003. She teaches for the Religion Division and serves the University as its first chaplain. The Loves are the proud grandparents of Zachary (a freshman at Pepperdine), Joshua, Nicholas and Noah. Mark is director of ministry events and professor of Bible at ACU and his wife Nancy is a graphic design artist for ACU Press. Jon and Eva work for the University of Maryland medical school. Eva is a pediatrician and Jon is a pediatric cardiologist.

Appreciation Dinner in Honor of James & Carolyn Thompson

Place: Rockwell Dining Center

Please purchase tickets ($9.95) advance at Ticket Sales tables.

Carolyn Roberts from Jackson, Mississippi, and James Thompson from Tyler, Texas, met as students at Abilene Christian University. James graduated with a B.A. in Bible in 1964 and an M.A. in New Testament in 1965. Carolyn earned a B.A. in English and Bible in 1965. Following their marriage in Jackson, Mississippi, on September 4, 1965, they moved to Lubbock where Carolyn did graduate work in English while James taught at the Bible Chair at Texas Tech University. The Thompsons moved to New York in 1967, where James was minister of the Queens Church of Christ and a student at Union Theological Seminary. After he completed the M.Div. in 1970, they moved to Nashville where he earned the Ph.D. in New Testament at Vanderbilt University in 1974. They lived in Tubingen, Germany, in 1972-73 where James researched and wrote his doctoral dissertation.

The Thompsons moved to Austin, Texas, in 1974 where James was instrumental in developing the Bible Chair program at the University of Texas into an accredited Bible college called the Institute for Christian Studies. After serving on the faculty from 1974 to 1983, James was president of ICS from 1983 to 1992. During this time, Carolyn was certified in English and German at the University of Texas and earned an M.A. in Teaching at Southwest Texas State University. She taught in the Pflugerville district for fifteen years, developing the senior English honors course and the German program into Advanced Placement programs.

Dr. Thompson joined the faculty of ACU in 1992 and became chairman of the Graduate Department of Bible in 1998 and associate dean in 2000. He is the author of numerous articles and books, including Our Life Together; Strategy for Survival; The Mark of a Christian; The Beginnings of Christian Philosophy: The Epistle to the Hebrews; The Church in Exile; Equipped for Change; Preaching Like Paul: Homiletical Wisdom for Today, and commentaries on 2 Corinthians and Hebrews. He co-authored God's Holy Fire with Ken Cukrowski and Mark Hamilton. Since 1993, Dr. Thompson has edited Restoration Quarterly, an academic journal for scholars and ministers.

Carolyn taught at ACU in the Department of English from 1993 to 1997 and has taught in the Department of Foreign Languages since 1997. She is currently instructor of German and director of the English as a Second Language program at ACU. In addition, Carolyn is circulation manager and copy editor for Restoration Quarterly. James and Carolyn have two children, Philip Thompson of Woodbury, Minnesota, and Eleanor Bryant of Amarillo, Texas, and two grandchildren, Andrew Thompson and Elizabeth Bryant.

Pepperdine was First in Graduate Religion Degrees. The historic photo above, taken 60 years ago in 1944, pictures the first students to enroll for graduate religion study at Pepperdine College in Los Angeles. The school's Master of Arts in Religion was the first graduate degree in religion among Church of Christ affiliated schools in America. The five graduate professors are seated at the table (1. to r.): Dr. Batsell Barrett Baxter, Dr. William M. Green, Dr. W. B. West, Jr., C. R. Nichol, and Ralph Wilburn. Standing behind the faculty are Dean E. V. Pullias (1.) and President Hugh Tiner (r.). The first students in line are: Floyd Thompson, Otis Gatewood, Harry Robert Fox, Jr., L. D. Webb, E. Lowrey Ruby, W. W. Pace, and Noble Rogers. Today, Pepperdine also offers the M.S. in Ministry, the M.Div., and the new joint degree with the Pepperdine School of Law, the J.D./M.Div.

Anchored in the Past, Committed to the Future

The Pepperdine University Bible Lectures began in January 1943 and were modeled after similar programs at Abilene Christian, David Lipscomb, and Harding universities.

Throughout the 1940s, this significant annual forum grew in popularity, but the early 1950s saw a decline in attendance, and no program was scheduled in 1957.

The Bible Lectures took on new life with the arrival of M. Norvel Young and J. P. Sanders in the fall of that year. And by 1961, the keynote lecture program had to be moved to the Shrine Auditorium to accommodate the large numbers of people who wanted to attend. In the following years, the huge Los Angeles Sports Arena became the scene for the largest evening lectures.

The University added a special program of summer Bible Lectures for 10 years beginning in 1958. However, the programs were again declining in attendance by the late 1960s and the summer lectures ended in 1967.

When Pepperdine moved to its new campus in Malibu in 1972, there was a renewal of interest in the Bible Lectures. Since that time, the lectures have grown in interest and attendance every year.

As the University moves forward into the future, it is fully committed to pursuing the very highest academic standards within a context which celebrates and extends the spiritual and ethical ideals of the Christian faith. And the Department of Church Relations is convinced that, many years from now, when Pepperdine University celebrates a century of Bible Lectures, this annual series will continue to be a stimulating forum for the renewal and restoration of New Testament Christianity.

The ZOE Group

Beyond all question, the mystery of godliness is great:

He appeared in a body, was vindicated by the Spirit, was seen by angels, was preached among the nations, was believed on in the world, was taken up in glory.

1 Timothy 3:16
