Editor's Note:

The sixth annual issue of the Osprey Journal of Ideas and Inquiry would not have been possible without the generous financial support of the Office of Academic Affairs at the University of North Florida. Provost Mark Workman and Assistant Vice President David Jaffee have been instrumental in supporting the Undergraduate Research Program and the journal that results from it. Their willingness to increase the funding for the Undergraduate Research Program through a Transformational Learning Opportunities grant is powerful proof of their dedication to excellence in undergraduate education.

I would also like to thank President John Delaney, the University of North Florida Trustees, and the UNF Foundation Board. Their generous financial support has made the Undergraduate Research Program and this journal possible. The Osprey Journal of Ideas and Inquiry is a tangible sign of their commitment to a first-class undergraduate education for our students.

As always, my deepest gratitude goes to my student editor Dawn O'Connor, a 2006 graduate of the University of North Florida. Dawn has devoted countless hours to editing the journal, preparing the graphs and pictures, and seeing the project through to completion.
