FORMAL LEARNERS

The OER Research Hub is a project funded by the Hewlett Foundation to research the impact of open educational resources (OER) on teaching and learning. During 2013-2015 survey data were collected from approximately 7,500 users of OER around the globe. This report presents a frequencies analysis of responses obtained from FORMAL LEARNERS.

Decision to use OER

Which of the following factors influenced your decision to use OER? N=969

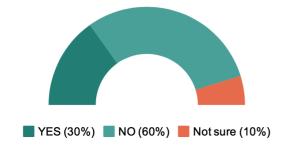

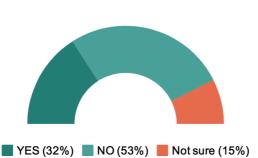

Cost and ease of access are the most important factors influencing formal learners' decision to use OER

From informal to formal

Did you study your subject via [OpenLearn] before joining your course? N=955

Did your use of [OpenLearn] influence your decision to register for your current course of study? N=934

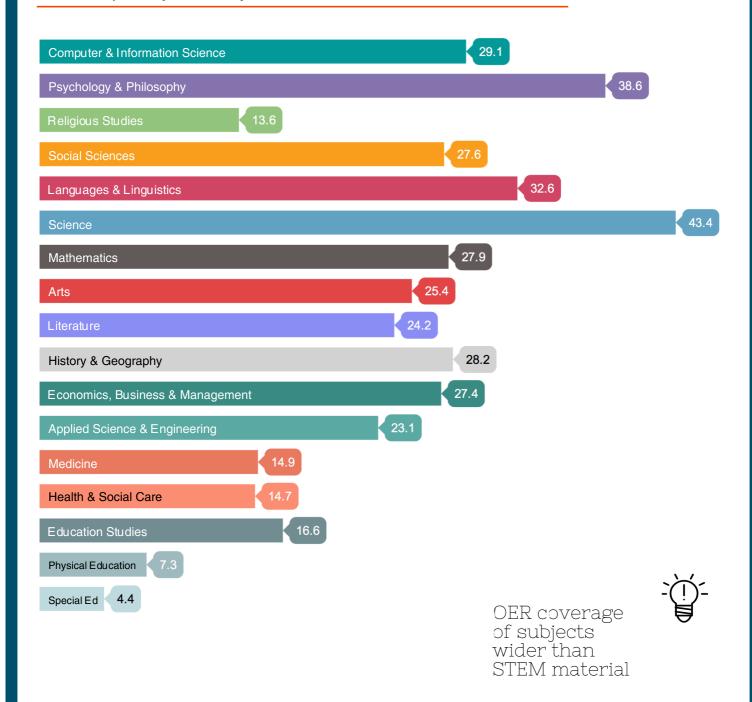

The percentage of formal learners that report having used open content prior to registering for their course represents an underreported benefit of OER from which HE can potentially benefit

Use of OER

In what subject do you normally use OER? N=1199

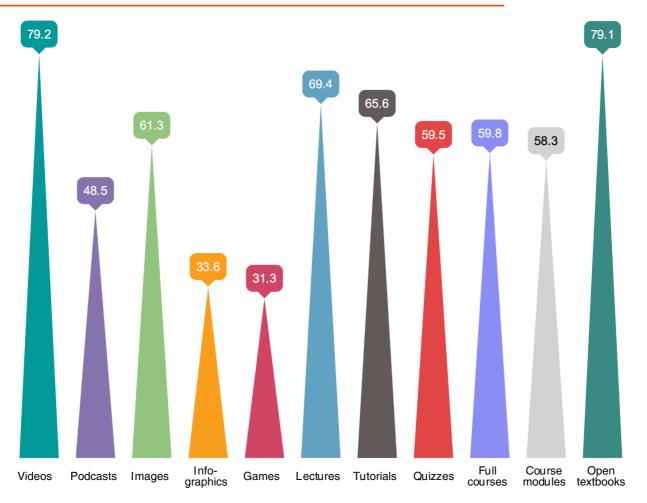

Types of OER

Which of the following types of OER have you used for studying? N=1887

A smaller number of respondents (N=583) were asked about their use of lesson plans (50.1%), data sets (38.5%) and learning tools, instruments & software plugins (43.9%).

Formal learners use a broad range of open educational resources

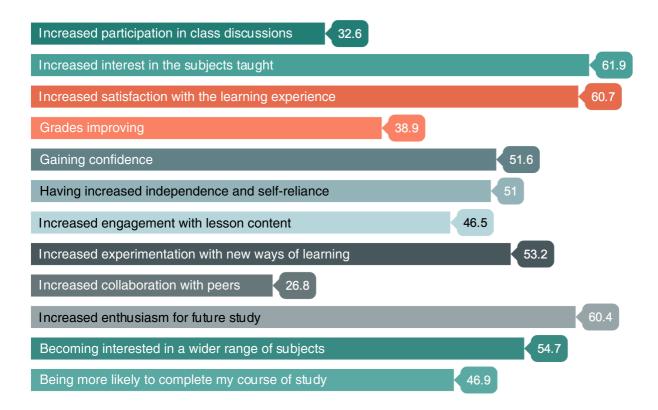

Impact of OER use

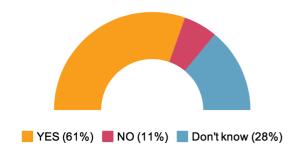

In which of these ways has your use of OER made an impact on your formal studies? N=1167

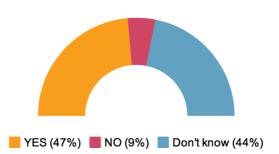

Do you believe you have saved money by using OER? N=322

Biggest impact of OER use not on grades improving but on increased interest and enthusiasm for study

Do you believe your institution benefits financially by using OER? N=309

Selecting OER

Which of the following factors would make you more likely to select a particular resource when searching for open educational content? N=802

45% Evic	dence of interest in that resource (e.g. lots of downloads)
38% The	resource being recently created, uploaded or updated
58% The	resource being easy to download
66% A de	escription of learning objectives or outcomes being provided
61% The	resource being created by a reputable/trusted institution/person
24% The	resource having a Creative Commons license
21% The	resource having an open license allowing adaptation

47% Pos	itive user ratings or comments about the resource
44% Pers	sonal recommendation
43% Hav	ing previously used this resource successfully
73% The	resource being relevant to my particular interests/needs
15% The	resource featuring a catchy title or attractive image(s)
34% Beir	ng required to use a resource for a project or study task
51% A de	etailed description of the resource content being provided

Relevance, reputation and clear learning objectives guide formal learners' selection of open content

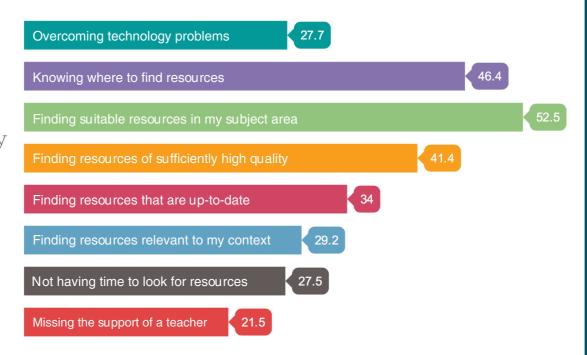

Challenges of using OER

Which challenges, if any, do you most often face in using OER? N=1479

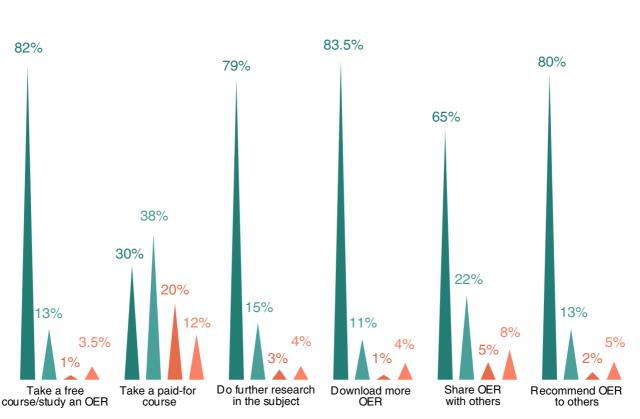

Discoverability of resources remains biggest challenge to OER adoption

Future behaviour

As a result of using [OpenLearn], how likely are you to do any of the following? N=1464

More likely No change Less likely Don't know
