

One night you meet a pal of yours who's holding up a wall: He says, "If you don't help me, friend, I can't get home at all." You think his wife will worry, so you do the best you can: But when you get him home his wife is with another man.

CHORUS.

Oh you can't be a friend to ev'rybody. And you'll have lots of trouble if you try; Listen to the angels sing

WHISTLE.

Then perhaps you'll learn the reason why, If you do help him home she'll get in trouble, If you don't he'll get twice as much as he Oh it's hard to be a friend to ev'rybody.

A pretty maiden on a car is holding to a strap,
The car starts quickly and she sits upon a fellow's lap;
She looks embarrassed so, of course, you jump up to your feet,
And say, in quite a friendly way "I wish you'd take my seat".

CHORUS.

But you can't be a friend to ev'rybody. And you'll have lots of trouble if you try; Listen to the angels sing

WHISTLE.

Then perhaps you'll learn the reason why; She said "Thanks," but the man thinks you're a lobster, For she still might be sitting on his knee; Oh it's hard to be a friend to ev'rybody.

Across a street that's muddy with a pretty girl you go: She says, "If my skirt's up too high, I wish you'd tell me so." Behind her are some Johnnies who've been watching all the way. They look so very tickled that you don't know what to say.

For you can't be a friend to ev'rybody. And you'll have lots of trouble if you try; Listen to the angels sing

WHISTLE.
Then perhaps you'll learn the reason why;
As her friend you should say "I'd hold it lower,"
If you did, then the Johnnies couldn't see;
Oh it's hard to be a friend to ev'rybody.

A girl and man out driving in the forest chanced to see A tiny little kitten that was caught up in a tree.

'Please help it down' she asked him and he shinned up the trunk,
For at the time he didn't know the kitten was a skunk.

Oh you can't be a friend to ev'rybody. And you'll have lots of trouble if you try, Listen to the angels sing.

WHISTLE.

Then perhaps you'll learn the reason why Now he talks to that lady through long distance. That's as close as she'll let him come, you see, Since he tried to be a friend to evrybody.

You Can't Be A etc. 5
