Wat betekende de Atlantikwall voor het dagelijks leven in Den Haag? Voor de ambtenaren die de evacuatie, de sloop en - na de bevrijding - de wederopbouw van de stad moesten regelen? En voor de Duitse soldaten, die hier gelegerd waren?

Verdiep je bezoek aan de tentoonstelling. Kies een replica, leg hem op de oranje cirkels naast de vitrines en luister naar de geluidsfragmenten die zijn samengesteld op basis van interviews, historische kranten en archiefstukken.

1 Deze bierpul kregen Duitse soldaten tijdens Kerstmis 1943 als herinnering aan de legering langs de Atlantikwall.

2 De Duitse bezetter had een avondklok ingesteld. Als je na acht uur 's avonds beroepshalve op straat moest zijn, droeg je deze armband.

3 Thee was niet meer verkrijgbaar, maar met ingrediënten als eikels, witlof, appel en krokus viel iets te maken wat op thee leek.

What impact did the Atlantic Wall have on everyday life in The Hague? On the officials who had to organise the evacuations, the demolitions and – after the liberation – the reconstruction of the city? And on the German soldiers who were based here?

Get the most out of your visit by choosing a replica and placing it on the orange circles next to the display cases to listen to sound collages drawn from interviews, period newspapers and archive material.

4 This booklet helped German soldiers communicate with the Dutch population.

5 The German occupation authorities had imposed a curfew. If you had professional reasons for being out on the streets after eight o'clock in the evening, you needed a special pass (Sonderausweis).

6 Genuine sugar was in short supply; this was a substitute sweetener.

The wartime fishing industry

In the course of 1940/41, the Germans requisitioned all the best boats in the Scheveningen fishing fleet. Only a small number of vessels were allowed to continue fishing and then only under German supervision. They had to stay close in-shore and return to harbour before evening. The aim was to prevent boats and their crews escaping to England. From September 1944, the fleet was confined to port and fishing
