The Ten Commandments of a Retail Clerk

1. THOU SHALT NOT fail to properly record every sale or transaction handled by you.
2. THOU SHALT NOT fail to place every penny received, or placed in your custody, in the cash register in the manner prescribed by your employer.
3. THOU SHALT NOT use, abuse, consume, take or otherwise remove any merchandise, property or other item of value to your employer without proper proof of payment or other appropriate transfer of ownership.
4. THOU SHALT NOT fail to appear at the work place in a timely fashion, fully prepared in mind and body, ready to begin work, not before. . . not after. . . but AT the appropriate time!
5. THOU SHALT NOT fail to diligently apply yourself in a manner predicated to fully satisfactorily complete, to the best of your ability, all of the duties properly assigned to you!
6. THOU SHALT NOT fail to utilize your knowledge, talent, or skill in a manner predicated to earn, to the fullest extent possible, the wages and benefits negotiated by your Union and paid by your Employer!
7. THOU SHALT NOT fail to treat each customer in a manner which might reasonably be expected to encourage them to continue to shop in your store!
8. THOU SHALT NOT be rude, discourteous, or uncooperative with fellow employees or cause any unnecessary interruption or retardation in productivity or job performance at the expense of your Employer!
9. THOU SHALT NOT allow personal wishes, desires or problems to interfere with, or otherwise be detrimental to, your attitude toward customers, fellow employees, employer or your job performance!
10. THOU SHALT NOT be absent from work without:
 - (a) A worthwhile, valid reason, of a sufficient magnitude to warrant possible loss of pay to you, and inconvenience to your employer and fellow employees.
 - (b) Proper notification in advance of the impending absence.
 - (c) A willingness to provide your Employer, and fellow employees, with a reasonable explanation for such absence.

THOU SHALT NOT be persecuted, or otherwise put upon by your Employer, fellow employees, or any other persons, except at their own peril, and will have the fullest support of your Union, if you will but make a reasonable effort to keep the foregoing ten (10) commandments.

These may not be written in stone, but they should certainly be engraved in your mind.

ARTICLE 13 - DISPUTE PROCEDURE

- A. A grievance is defined to be any disagreement between the Employer and the Union as to the interpretation or application of any provision of this Agreement. The Union reserves the right to present grievances through its authorized representatives on either an individual or collective basis.

Should any difference, dispute, or complaints arise over the interpretation or application of any provision of this Agreement, there should be an earnest effort on the part of both parties to settle such grievances promptly through the following steps:

Step 1. Grievances must be taken up promptly, and no grievance shall be discussed unless the outlined procedure has been followed. Grievances must be presented or discussed at a conference between the aggrieved employee, the Shop Steward and/or Union Representative, and the Store Manager within ten [10] days after the grievance has occurred, or the grievance will not be considered. In the event of a discharge of an employee who has completed the probationary period the Employer will notify the Shop Steward or Business Agent of such discharge immediately. If the grievance is not settled within three [3] days, it shall be reduced to writing and a copy of the grievance shall be given to the Store Manager and then it shall be processed to Step 2.

Step 2. By conference between an official of the Union, the Supervisor, and a Representative of the Employer, if the grievance is not settled within five [5] days, it may be referred to arbitration as set forth in the next paragraph.

Step 3. The Union shall give the Employer written notice of its decision to arbitrate said grievance. The parties shall make an earnest effort to agree on an arbitrator to hear said grievance, and if they cannot agree on such arbitrator, a list of seven [7] names of arbitrators will be requested from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. Each party shall strike three [3] names from such list, and the person whose name remains on said list shall be the arbitrator. The cost of the arbitration shall be shared equally by the Employer and the Union.

- B. No action by any employee may be maintained on this contract except by use of the above arbitration procedure with the right to enforce the arbitrator's decision in court.
- C. Only grievances involving the same issue may be heard by the arbitrator at one time without the agreement of both the Employer and the Union.
- D. The arbitrator shall not have the right to change any portion of this Agreement.
- E. In the event the Union and the Employer disagree on the interpretation and/or application of a decision, then both parties shall request clarification from the arbitrator, and such clarification shall become a part of the decision and shall be binding on the Union, the Employer, and the employee.

- F. The Union shall have the right to determine if an employee's grievance is qualified to be submitted to arbitration by the Union, and such determination shall be binding on the employee and the Union.
- G. The Employer shall have the right to call a conference with the Shop Steward or official of the Union for the purpose of discussing his grievance or criticism.
- H. The Store Manager will grant access to the store and all work areas therein to an authorized Union Representative at any time that employees are working on the premises for the purpose of satisfying himself that the terms of this Agreement are being complied with.
- I. It is agreed that Step 1 and 2 of this Article may be waived if mutually agreed to by the Employer and the Union in writing.

ARTICLE 14 - LEAVES OF ABSENCE

The Employer will grant leaves of absence to employees for the following reasons and with the following understanding:

A. Injury and Illness

An employee shall be granted a leave of absence to begin at a time that the employee's physician determines such employee should no longer work. The leave will expire at such time as the employee's physician determines such employee may safely return to work.

Leaves under A above must be supported by medical evidence and shall be only for the duration of such illness or injury but in no event for more than one (1) year, unless extended by the Employer.

B. Personal Leave of Absence

A leave of absence up to thirty [30] days may be granted to an employee for reasonable personal reasons, but not for the purpose of engaging in gainful employment elsewhere. Such leave must be requested in writing and approved prior to the start of leave.

Leaves under B shall be granted for not more than thirty (30) days, unless extended by the Employer.

C. Union Business

The Employer shall grant the necessary time off without discrimination or loss of seniority rights and without pay to any employee designated by the Union: [1] to attend a labor convention, or [2] serve in any capacity, or [3] other official Union business, provided the Employer is given at least one (1) week's notice in writing specifying the length of time off, but in no case shall the length of time off exceed one (1) year, nor more than on (1) person per store.

D. Military Leave

Any employee in Military Service under the provisions of Federal Law shall be returned to their job in accordance with such laws.

E. Family Leave

The Employer will grant the necessary leaves in accordance with the Family Leave Act.

F. Funeral Leave

In case of a death in the immediate family of an employee, such employee shall be paid for a reasonable period of absence, depending on the circumstances, but in no event to exceed three (3) days, provided such employee attended the funeral.

In no event shall any employee receive more than their normal week's pay. Immediate family shall mean: Spouse, Child, Parent, Brother, Sister, Grandparents, Grandchildren, Mother-in-law, Father-in-law, or any relative residing with the employee.

G. Time spent on leave of absence will not be counted as time worked for the purpose of wage computation, and will not result in loss of seniority. However, time lost due to injury on the job shall be considered time worked in wage computation. Failure to report back at the end of a leave of absence shall be considered a voluntary quit, except in case such employee works for the Union. The first sentence of this paragraph shall not apply to "C" of this Article.

H. Upon return to work from a leave of absence the employee shall be restored to the job previously held or a job comparable with regard to work and rate of pay.

I. When an employee is injured on the job, there shall be no deduction from the employee's pay for the day in which the employee was injured and reported for medical care.

ARTICLE 15 - OTHER AGREEMENTS

The Employer agrees not to enter into any agreement or contract with its employees, individually or collectively, which in any way conflicts with the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 16 - JURY DUTY

In case any employee is called for jury duty, such employees shall be paid for hours necessarily absent from work, less jury duty pay. Such pay shall not exceed the pay for such employee's normal work week.

When an employee is excused from jury service, either temporarily or permanently on any scheduled work day, the employee shall promptly report to complete any remaining hours of his scheduled work day.

No employee reporting for jury duty shall be required to report to work on such day, provided they serve more than three [3] hours.

ARTICLE 17 - TIME CLOCKS

Time clocks will be installed in all stores covered by this Agreement. The Employer and the Union agree that a proven violation of established time clock rules, including working before punching in or after punching out, may subject such an employee to disciplinary action up to and including discharge.

ARTICLE 18 - WAGES

Wage rates for specified job classifications shall not be less than as set forth in Schedule "A" attached hereto as a part of this Agreement and shall be maintained for the life of the Agreement.

ARTICLE 19 - FULL-TIME EMPLOYEE/PART-TIME EMPLOYEE

- A. A full-time employee is an employee hired by the Employer to work the basic work week for full-time employees as defined by Article 8 of this Agreement.
- B. A part-time employee is an employee who works less than the basic work week.
- C. Part-time employees who occasionally work thirty-two [32] or more hours in a work week shall not be considered full-time employees. However, part-time employees who average working thirty-two [32] or more hours per week for a continuous period of twenty [20] weeks shall be reclassified to full-time status, forty [40] hours per week.
- D. For the purpose of this Article, the average hours applied to create a full-time employee will not include hours worked to cover vacation relief, sick leave replacement or such temporary situations.
- E. Nothing in this Article shall affect the definition of full-time and part-time employees as it relates to qualifications for benefits under Articles 23 and 24.

ARTICLE 20 - SEPARABILITY

Any provision of this Agreement which may be or has been adjudged by a court of last resort to be in conflict with any Federal or State law shall become inoperative to the extent and duration of such conflict. Since it is not the intent of either party hereto to violate such law, it is agreed that in the event of a conflict between any provision of this Agreement and such Federal Law, the remainder of the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. The Employer and the Union agree that substitute provisions shall be written within thirty [30] days to replace those provisions coming into conflict with the laws herein described.

ARTICLE 21 - SHOP STEWARDS

- A. The Union shall have the right to designate a maximum of two [2] Shop Stewards in each store covered by this Agreement. The Union shall furnish the Employer with a complete list of stewards, which will be supplemented from time to time. Stewards or Business Representatives may be present during all interrogations of employees in the bargaining unit, if the employer desires.
- B. The stewards, or other individual employees covered hereby, shall not be considered agents of the Union for the purpose of calling strikes or causing shutdowns or in any way interfering with the normal operations of these stores. The Shop Stewards shall perform their duties with the least inconvenience to the Employer as possible. Dear Rosemary:

This Letter of Understanding is to confirm our conversation in our recent negotiations concerning our new FoodMax contract which will become effective April 12, 1993 and expire April 1997.

Per our understanding, we will, from time to time, hire experienced journeyman meatcutters at a rate which is above the published contract rate. These individuals will receive future increases in their rate of pay on the appropriate anniversary dates of the contract in the same amounts and on the same dates as those individuals who are on the top full-time clerk rate of pay.

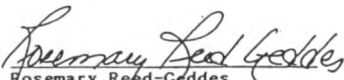

It is my understanding that this provision will be ratified as part of the major agreement. After ratification, please sign indicating your concurrence and return a copy to me.

Sincerely,

Richard H. Marty
