

Sketch 14

Boating at Lisdillon & fishing, Mr W.J. Lyne calling to the seagulls "Go round", because they always do when disturbed from the rock, to be shot at by Romer Meadows. The Misses Frenche were wealthy & from N.S.Wales, their father though educated would not send them to school, & they could not read properly. I am at the stear-oar, Kate fishing – Miss Annie Hales was Archdeacon Hales daughter from Launceston. Miss Bessie Lyne, was Mrs Hamilton after.
