

INSIGHT

Washing their car Manny Gordon asked
his wife
Hon, what do you see
on this street
and she having learned to read his thoughts said Kids, dogs, junked cars garbage, TV antennae I see folks who have come to the end of the line
with a one way ticket

JARED'S CANDY

Easy on old gums
the fat glass bowl is always full of little jellybeans
colored treats for his blurring eyes
in red
white
pink
purple as in Easter He stirs them around and always finds
one bean of licorice black
