Miss Haines Chosen Miss Jefferson

MARJORIE HAINES

The happy first place winner of the Miss Jefferson Contest was Miss Marjorie Haines. She is a third year student whose hometown is Aerial, New Jersey.

Marjorie likes to bowl, sew, and dance in her free time. Here at Jeff Marjorie has been in student council, on yearbook staff, and a cheerleader. Right now Marjorie is in SNAP and the choreographer of the minstrel show.

Marjorie said she was very happy and honored to be chosen Miss Jefferson of 1963.

After graduating from Jeff Marjorie plans to be married and also work in Pediatrics in a New Jersey hospital.

BARBARA LENKER Miss Jefferson

contest second place winner was Barbara Lenker, a second year student. Barb is from Elizabethville, Pennsylvania and a graduate of Upper Dauphin High School.

Barb's past time is reading, playing the organ, and any kind of sport. Barb is a forward on the basketball team.

"What did I get out of the contest?" To this question she answered, "a feeling of honor, satisfaction, devotion to Jefferson and the nursing profession in particular." Barb also said, the contest gives you a drive and ambition to attain that which you are.

TRACY VALENTINE Freshman Tracy

Valentine, third place winner of the Miss Jefferson contest hails from Richboro, Pennsylvania. Tracy attended Council Rock High School in Newtown.

In her free time Tracy likes to listen to music, folk songs in particular. Tracy also likes all kinds of sports and is a member of the basketball team. Tracy also belongs to chorus.

Self-confidence and just how much you do depend upon your classmates are two principles Tracy learned from participating in the contest.

MISS JEFFERSON

CONTEST

The evening of March 13 was enjoyed by all who attended the Second Annual Miss Jefferson contest in McClellan Hall.

From the opening of the contest by the editor of Caps 'N Gapes until the crowning of Marjorie Haines as Miss Jefferson 1963 the contest was a success.

The humorous emcees, Dr. Mandle, from the Department of Micro-Biology and Dr. Toporek, from the Department of Bio-Chemistry introduced the judges who were a mystery to everyone until the night of the contest. The judges were Miss McClean, Miss Heckenberger, Mrs. Davis, Miss Boyer, Miss McInerney, Miss Werstler, Miss Dute, Miss Stauffer, Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Bard, Miss Shank, Miss Montagnoli, Miss Staub, Dr. Eliadis, and Dr. Shicatanno.

After the introduction of each contestant the girls presented their talent to the audience. Following this each was asked two questions—one general question and one pertaining to nursing.

Refreshments were then served while the judges left the Hall to vote for the winning candidate. Because of difficulty in reaching a decision the judges were gone for quite a while; but finally announced the results of which everyone approved. Their decision for Miss Jefferson was Marjorie Haines, second place winner was Barbara Lenker, and third place winner was Tracy Valentine. Other participants in the contest were Gail Ammons, Jane Cresswell, Joy David, Patricia Micale, Lore Miles, and Beth Reed.

CLASS NEWS

CLASS OF '63
March 20, 1963
heralded in a successful spaghetti dinner for the class of '63. Who said J. S. got the flowers from her mortician? Many thanks to Mary Regan, her mother, and Mrs. Leitch for all the help they gave us preparing the meal.

But March is nearly over and Easter is almost here and the class is selling delicious Minter's Easter Candy. Contact any senior.

The yearbook is progressing well thanks to the cooperation of T. Camillia and her staff.

Summer wedding bells soon ring for E. Adams, J. Wolfel, M. Sullivan, and S. Laylor.

Of general interest—Congratulations to our new Miss Jefferson—Margie.

Going fishing, L.R.S.? How's choir practice, J.A.? Oh, those N.L.N.'s. —That's all for now—

CLASS OF '64
Monday, March 11, came and went and for many of the students it was just another day. But, to the class of '64 it marked 1½ years here at Jeff. Our training was halfway finished. To think back over that year and a half brings mixed emotions

Our class is smaller than it was on the day we entered, and we certainly miss those who have left us. But we have accomplished many things in our short time at Jeff; as a group and individually as well.

As a class we were active in initiating the first Minstrel Show last year, and we are continuing with as much enthusiasm and interest in this year's show. We show a great class effort with our successful candy sale this past winter which added greatly to our treasury.

There were our class parties which served as a means of bringing and keeping our class together, working as a whole. Individually, many have stood out in school activities. Pattie White went to Detroit last year for the National Student Nurse Association Convention. Barbara Lenker recently placed as a finalist in the Miss Jefferson Contest. Congratulations, Barb, and to all finalists, especially to Margie Haines, our new Miss Jefferson.

The girls on the basketball team deserve a word of praise for their fine effort in bringing Jeff such a successful season this year. Congratulations are in order for Beth Reed, who got the trophy for being the second high scorer in the league. Equally deserving of praise are our peppy cheerleaders.

Congratulations, also, to all the "engaged" girls in our class—Becky Wyker, Lynn McMaster, Nancy Shearer, Margie Kempler, Nancy Gray.

Recently pinned are—Cathy Howard, Jeule Melfi, Phyl Slirolla, Pat Insly.

All in all, we think that the class of '64 has done quite well. We hope that the next year and a half will yield as much success as the first, and will produce one of the best classes ever to go through Jeff.

CLASS OF '65
Through new experiences, joys, frustrations, and disappointments the class of 1965 have shown they could make it through the six months of probation.

Only six months ago, many of us didn't know what to expect of Jefferson. There were so many questions and so much material to be absorbed that we all really didn't know if we could take it. Now, just six months later, Thanksgiving, Christmas all in the background and Easter heading our way, we all seem to see our goal come more clear.

in the foreground. We now know and understand what is and will be expected of us as future graduates and Registered Nurses of J. M. C. H. School of Nursing. Finally, the class of 1965 is ready and prepared to give to their fullest capacity everything they have within them to reach their GOAL and make the class of 1965 the most outstanding Jefferson has ever seen.

General News:

Congratulations go out the following—Tracy Valentine, third runner up in the Miss Jefferson Contest!

Engagement-related congratulations to Diane Hoaster.

Receiving pins from their one and only- C. Knaer, B. Crumrine, B. Materio, C. A. Pullen, J. Connelly, D. DeLuca, and C. Widman.

For this month the Freshman signs off reminding everyone to keep up the Jefferson Spirit.

THE SPAGHETTI DINNER

On Wednesday night, March 27, the recreation room was turned into a magnificent restaurant as the class of '63 sponsored a spaghetti dinner from 4:30 to 7:00 P.M. Visitors enjoyed spaghetti and meatballs, tossed salad, Italian bread, tea, coffee, homemade cake and ice cream while dining by candlelight. The seniors served over 500 people and have successfully completed another project.

UNDER THE HOOP
On Monday evening, February 18, the teams of Lankenau and University of Pennsylvania met in Germantown to contend for the Student Nurses Basketball League Championship. Pennsylvania won by a score of 39-10, making this their third victory since the start of the League.

Following the game, presentations were made to various teams and individuals for their special ability during the season. Jefferson's own Beth Reed received the trophy for scoring the second highest number of points in the league during the season. Congratulations, Beth!

YOUR JEFFERSON CAP

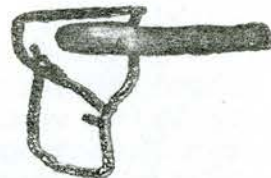

In case you've been wondering how to wash and iron your Jefferson cap, here are a few helpful hints which will make your job easier.

First, when laundering do not add any kind of perma starch as it will fill up the pores of the cap and make it too stiff.

When ironing, it is best to use an armboard, and to iron the top of the peak first.

Then the sides and the back of the peak can be done.

Best results are achieved with the brim when it is stretched out and then ironed across. You should iron in for this procedure.

The brim should just cover the stitching when folded over; approximately one-eighth to one-quarter inch. Spray starch may facilitate maneuvering of the brim.

For anchoring, either white bobby pins or a single hat pin should be put in the back or a hat pin can be placed on either side of the peak coming in toward the center of the peak.

The above hints combined with a little practice and patience should give you "the perfect Jefferson cap."

THE MINSTREL SHOW
On April 25th. the annual Jefferson Medical College Hospital School of Nursing Minstrel Show will be held. There will be singing, dancing, comedy acts, and (of course) end men! It promises to be a gala affair so buy your tickets early!

MY CAP

It's only a piece of white muslin Perched on the top of my head, It's value to some may mean nothing, To me it's a symbol instead.

A symbol of hope, cheer and comfort, To those who are suffering and ill, To me it gives strength unbelieveing My work to perform with a will!

Sometimes I'm discouraged, disheartened, My tasks seem so helpless to me, My cap seems to speak of a promise, Of things I so want to be!

No jewels adorn it's wide brim, So simple and plain is it's line- Treat it with reverence and honor, For there's only one cap of its kind!
