

This is the peer reviewed version of the following article: [Morphett K, Carter A, Hall W, Gartner C. Framing tobacco dependence as a “brain disease”: Implications for policy and practice. Nicotine & Tobacco Research], which has been published in final form at [DOI 10.1093/ntr/ntx006].

Embargo period 12 months from first publication online (21 January 2017)