FOREIGN CUT

A family aimlessly walks by a downtown barbershop on a Thursday evening and wander in as I am taking photos. The owner of the shop jovially convinces the family to allow his partner cut their sons hair, and the parents happily oblige. As I'm shooting, I come to find out the family is from Germany, and this is their first and only day in San Luis Obispo. Shown is a young boy receiving a haircut from a man he cannot communicate with and will never see again.
