SUITE DEL RECUERDO for guitar
by Jose Luis Merlin

Tuscany Publications. 15 pages.

Dedicated to Atahualpa Yupanqui, this six movement suite is a welcome and attractive addition to the South American repertoire. It offers guitarists a desirable alternative to the standard fare and could work well in any mixed recital programme.

The opening Evocation is an ingenuous melody, gently supported by arpeggios and harmonic motion reminiscent of the famous Cavatina. The two following dance movements, Zamba and Chacarera, present a lively and delightful contrast to the plaintive opening.

Arpeggio figures with a melody harmonised in thirds fingered on strings five and four start the following Carnavalito. Reminiscent of Villa-Lobos' Etude Number 11 in texture and form, this movement has a middle section that provides a stunning contrast to the previous material before the return to the opening materials. After a repeat of the first movement an exhilarating Joropo follows. Its alternation between three-four and six-eight time provides a fitting climax to this appealing set.

All the movements fit well on the guitar and will present little difficulty if you are versed in the works of Villa-Lobos or Lauro.

The presentation is good. Most page turns are easy except for one in the last movement. A clear and useful glossary is provided to explain the special strumming and plucking techniques needed for the performance of the music.
