

A topological spin-statistics theorem or a use of the antiparticle*

A P Balachandran[†], A Daughton[†], Z C Gu[†], G Marmo^{}, R D Sorkin[†], and A M Srivastava^{††}

Abstract : A spin-statistics theorem for spinning particles in R^d is proved without using relativity or field theory, but assuming the existence of antiparticles. The theorem excludes nonabelian statistics such as parastatistics of order 2 and more for $d \geq 3$.

* The article has already been published in Mod. Phys. Lett. A5, 1575 (1990).

† Physics Department, Syracuse University, Syracuse, NY 13244-1130.

 Dipartimento di Scienze Fisiche, Università di Napoli and INFN, Section of Naples, Mostra d'Oltremare, Pad. 19, 80125 Napoli, Italy.

†† Theoretical Physics Institute, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Minnesota 55455.