

The History of Planetary Exploration using Mass Spectrometers

Abstarct

At the Planetary Probe Workshop Dr. Paul Mahaffy will give a tutorial on the history of planetary exploration using mass spectrometers. He will give an introduction to the problems and solutions that arise in making in situ measurements at planetary targets using this instrument class.

Paul R. Mahaffy
Chief, Planetary Environments Laboratory
Code 699
5/16/2012