

QUT Digital Repository:
<http://eprints.qut.edu.au/>

Fredericks, Bronwyn L. (2005) Wings of Angels.

This piece was written and performed at the 'A Sense of Place', Creative Writing and the Environment Writer's Workshop Weekend, (IDIOM 23, CQU), 29th April-1st May, North Keppel Island, Queensland. It is a fun piece of writing which plays on words.

© Copyright 2005 Bronwyn L. Fredericks

Author's version written and first performed at: Fredericks, Bronwyn (2005). Wings of Angels, 'A Sense of Place', Creative Writing and the Environment Writer's Workshop Weekend, (IDIOM 23, CQU), 29th April-1st May, North Keppel Island, Queensland.

Wings of Angels

when angels open their wings - dust mites fall from their feathers just as ticks get on chooks - fleas get on cherubs fairy dust spreads magic - allergic reactions and hay fever realities of romanticisms - veracity in a compost heap

Bronwyn Fredericks