The Political Economy of State–Business Relations in Europe
Interest mediation, capitalism and EU policy-making

Rainer Eising
Contents

List of figures vii
List of tables ix
Preface and acknowledgements xi
List of abbreviations xv

PART I
The theoretical and empirical study of state–business relations in Europe 1

1 Introduction 3

2 Studying interest groups in the European Union: the theoretical terrain 14

3 State–business relations in the EU member states 31

PART II
Multilevel governance and the Europeanization of domestic interest group systems 59

4 The evolution of the EU interest group system: to join or not to join? 61

5 Multilevel governance and business interests in the European Union 86

6 The Europeanization of interest groups and interest intermediation 103
PART III
The access of business interests to the EU institutions

7 The politics of access in the European Union I: towards elite pluralism? 129
8 The politics of access in the European Union II: towards a theory of interest group access 156
9 Conclusion 182

Appendix: Questionnaire 188
Notes 203
References 210
Index 228