Preface — Shigeru Watanabe .......................................................... 1

Part 1 Brain and Evolution

1. Naïve Biology in Pigeons: Re-visited
   — Shigeru Watanabe ............................................................ 5

2. Attitude to Lie and Personality Traits: A Near Infra-Red Spectroscopy Study
   — Shozo Kojima and Ayako Ueno-Utsumi ..................................... 15

3. The Common and Specific Neural Bases for Emotional and Bodily Awareness
   — Satoshi Umeda and Yuri Terasawa ........................................... 21

   — Yumiko Yamazaki, Yuki Kurihara, Atsushi Iriki, and Shigeru Watanabe ............ 29

5. The Elasticity of Demand for Sucrose Solutions in Common Marmosets
   — Taku Ishii and Shigeru Watanabe ............................................ 39

6. Neural System for Integrating Individual Recognition and Dominance Relationship in Crows
   — Ei-Ichi Izawa, Kei Nishizawa, and Shigeru Watanabe ......................... 47

7. Gene Expression Analysis of Language-related Genes in the Common Marmoset Brain
   — Masaki Kato and Kazuo Okanoya ............................................. 55

8. Evaluative Processing of Outcomes and its Role in Learning and Behavioral Adjustments
   — Fumihiko Taya and Ken Mogi ................................................ 63

9. Neural Correlates of Logical Reasoning: a Near-Infrared Spectroscopy Study
   — Takeo Tsujii and Shigeru Watanabe ............................................ 73
10. Differential Brain Activations between Internal-state Discrimination and Gender Discrimination from Biological Motion
   — Eriko Yamamoto, Yoshiaki Someya, Nikolaus F. Troje, Seiji Ogawa, and Shigeru Watanabe ................................................. 89

11. Discriminative Property of Visual Arts for Java Sparrows, Padda oryzivora
   — Yuko Ikkatai and Shigeru Watanabe ........................................ 95

12. Magnetoencephalographic Analysis of the Neural Responses in the Perception of Ambiguous Body Figures
   — Tomohiro Ishizu, Kaoru Amemiya, Tomoaki Ayabe, and Shozo Kojima ............. 101

Part 2 Genetics and Development

13. Attention to Social Stimuli and Communication in Children with Autism Spectrum Disorder
   — Jun-ichi Yamamoto and Yuno Takeuchi ........................................ 111

   — Keiko K. Fujisawa and Juko Ando ................................................. 121

15. Toward Understanding Infants’ Cerebral Basis for Word Segmentation: A Preliminary NIRS Study with Adult Participants
   — Yasuyo Minagawa-Kawai, Ai Kobayashi, Nozomi Naoi, and Shozo Kojima ........... 131

16. Developmental Change of Genetic Influence Contributing to GID Tendency
   — Shoko Sasaki .......................................................... 139

17. Development of a Simple Test of Syllogism Solving
   — Chizuru Shikishima, Shinji Yamagata, Kai Hiraishi, and Juko Ando .................. 145

18. Relational Learning in Children with Autism through Stimulus Pairing Training
   — Kosuke Takahashi, Jun-ichi Yamamoto, and Fumiyuki Noro ......................... 151

19. Cerebral Hemodynamics Synchronized with Electroencephalography Rhythms during Sleep Transitions
   — Mariko Uchida-Ota ......................................................... 159
Part 3  Cognition and Language

20. Condition B as an Epiphenomenon
   — Christopher Tancredi .........................................................167

21. The Role of Object Labels and Familiarity in Japanese Children’s Verb Learning
   — Mutsumi Imai, Etsuko Haryu, and Hiroyuki Okada .......................177

22. Effects of Defendant’s Background on Lay Judges’ Decisions
   — Yuji Itoh .....................................................................191

23. Metalinguistic Awareness in TEFL: Preliminary Notes (2)
   — Yukio Otsu ..................................................................197

24. The Effects of Imagination of One’s Own Future on Facial Recognition
   — Kyoko Hine ..................................................................205

25. Dividing Semantic Space by Verbs in L2: How Do L2 Learners Understand the Relationship between the Meanings of Multiple Verbs in L2?
   — Noburo Saji and Mutsumi Imai .................................................211

26. Sticks That Want Measuring in an Integral Fashion
   — Junri Shimada ..................................................................219

Part 4  Philosophy and Anthropology

27. Semantics of Possibility Suffix “(Rar)e”
   — Takashi Iida ..................................................................227

28. Cast Shadows in Siena: The Case of Domenico di Bartolo I
   — Koichi Toyama ...............................................................235

29. ‘Logic of Theology’ and ‘Sensibility of Naturalism’ in Christian Art: Analysis of the Shade and Shadow in Crucifixion
   — Seiko Hoshi ..................................................................249
